41 And he ^lbrought me to the ^mtemple, and measured the ⁿposts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the ^otabernacle. 2 And the breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the ^psides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, ^qforty cubits, and the breadth, ^rtwenty cubits. 3 Then went he ^sinward, and measured each ^tpost of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the breadth of the entrance, seven cubits. 4 And he measured the length thereof, ^utwenty cubits, and the breadth, ^vtwenty cubits, before the ^wtemple: and he said unto me, This is the ^xmost holy place.

5 Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every ^yside-chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side. 6 And the side-chambers were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they ^zentered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold ^atherein, and not have hold in the wall of the house. 7 And ^bthe side-chambers were broader as they encompassed the house higher and higher; for the ^cencompassing of the house went higher and higher round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house ^dcontinued upward; and so one went up from the lowest ^echamber to the highest by the middle ^fchamber. 8 I saw also ^gthat the house had ^ha raised

²¹ As for the temple, the door-posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance thereof was as the appearance of the temple. ²² The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before Jehovah. ²³ And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors. ²⁴ And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves: two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other. ²⁵ And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm-trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there was a threshold of wood upon the face of the porch without. ²⁶ And there were closed windows and palm-trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side-chambers of the house, and the thresholds.

42 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was over against the building toward the north. ² Before the length of a hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. ³ Over against the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery ⁷ in the third story. ⁴ And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits' breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. ⁵ Now the upper chambers were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middlemost, in the building. ⁶ For they were in three stories, and they had not pillars as the pillars of the courts; therefore the uppermost was straitened more than the

10 In the thickness of the ^{1d} wall of the court toward the east, before the ⁴separate place, and before the building, there were ⁵chambers. 11 And the ⁶way before them was like the appearance of the way of the chambers which were toward the north; ²according to their length so was their breadth: and all their egresses were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. 12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the ^{1h} wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the ⁴separate place, they are the ⁸holy chambers, where the priests that are ⁹near unto Jehovah shall eat the ^mmost holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy. 14 When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall ⁿlay their ⁹garments wherein they minister: for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which pertaineth to the people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth by the way of the ²gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about. 16 He measured on the east ³side with the measuring reed five hundred ⁹reeds, with the measuring reed round about. 17 He measured on the north ³side five hundred reeds with the meas-

Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 And these are the measures of the ^faltar by cubits (the ^gcubit is a cubit and a handbreadth): the ^hbottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about a span; and this shall be the ⁱbase of the altar. 14 And from the bottom ^jupon the ground to the lower ^kledge shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the breadth a cubit. 15 And the ^lupper altar shall be four cubits; and from the ^maltar hearth and upward there shall be four ⁿhorns. 16 And the altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve broad, ^osquare in the four sides thereof. 17 And the ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen broad in the four sides thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit round about; and the ^psteps thereof shall ^qlook toward the east.

18 And he said unto me, ^rSon of man, thus saith the Lord Jehovah: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer ^sburnt-offerings thereon, and to ^tsprinkle blood thereon. 19 Thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that are of the seed of ^uZadok, who are ^vnear unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord Jehovah, a ^wyoung bullock for a ^xsin-offering. 20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four ^yhorns of it, and on the four corners of the ^zledge, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou ^{aa}cleanse it and make atonement for it. 21 Thou shalt also take the bullock of the sin-offering, and it shall be ^{ab}burnt in the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary. 22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a ^{ac}he-goat without blemish for a sin-offering; and they shall ^{ad}cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock. 23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young ^{ae}bullock without blemish, and a ^{af}ram out of the flock without blemish. 24 And thou shalt bring them near before Jehovah, and the priests shall cast ^{ag}salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt-offering unto Jehovah. 25 ^{ah}Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. 26 Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they ^{ai}consecrate it. 27 And when they have accomplished the days, it shall be that upon the ^{aj}eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt-offerings upon the altar, and your ^{ak}peace-offerings; and I will ^{al}accept you, saith the Lord Jehovah.

44 Then he brought me back ^{am}by the way of the ^{an}outer gate of the sanctuary, which looketh toward the east; and it was shut. 2 And Jehovah said unto me, This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it: for ^{ao}Jehovah, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut. 3 As for the ^{ap}prince, he shall sit therein as prince to ^{aq}eat bread before Jehovah; he shall ^{ar}enter by the way of the ^{as}porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

The Sanctuary not to be profaned. Duties of the Levites that went astray. Ordinances for the Priests, the Sons of Zadok and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of Jehovah, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every egress of the sanctuary. 6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, 7 in that ye have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, ²to add unto all your abominations. 8 And ye have not kept the charge of my holy things; but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah, No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners that are among the children of Israel. 10 But the Levites that went far from me, when Israel went astray, that went astray from me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity. 11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they shall slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them. 12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and became a stumblingblock of iniquity unto the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, saith the Lord Jehovah, and they shall bear their iniquity. 13 And they shall not come near unto me, to execute the office of priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, unto the things that are most holy; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. 14 Yet will I make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the moons, and on the sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin-offering, and the meal-offering, and the burnt-offering, and the peace-offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish; and thou shalt cleanse the sanctuary. 19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering, and put it upon the door-posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the lodge of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court. 20 And so thou shalt do on the tenth day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye make atonement for the house.

21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. 22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin-offering. 23 And the seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt-offering to Jehovah, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a he-goat daily for a sin-offering. 24 And he shall prepare a meal-offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, shall he do the like the seven days; according to the sin-offering, according to the burnt-offering, and according to the meal-offering, and according to the oil.

46 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. 2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the priests shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. 3 And the people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before Jehovah on the sabbaths and on the new moons. 4 And the burnt-offering that the prince shall offer unto Jehovah shall be on the sabbath day six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish: 5 and the meal-offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal-offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And on the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish: 7 and he shall prepare a meal-offering, an ephah for the bullock, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according to he is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the land shall come before Jehovah in the appointed feasts, he that entereth by the way of the north gate to worship shall go forth by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth straight before him. 10 And the prince, when they go in, shall go in in the midst of them; and when they go forth, they shall go forth together. 11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meal-offering shall be an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

12 And when the prince shall prepare a freewill-offering, a burnt-offering or peace-offerings as a freewill-offering unto Jehovah, one shall open for him the gate that looketh toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, as he doth on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

13 And thou shalt prepare a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt-offering unto Jehovah

daily: "morning by morning shalt thou prepare it. 14 And thou shalt prepare a meal-offering with it morning by morning, the ⁶sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to ¹moisten the fine flour; a meal-offering unto Jehovah continually by a perpetual ordinance. 15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal-offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a "continual burnt-offering.

16 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: If the prince give a "gift unto any of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. 17 But if he give of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the "year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons. 18 Moreover the prince shall "not take of the people's inheritance, to ²thrust them out of their possession; he shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession, that my people be not "scattered every man from his possession.

19 Then he brought me through the "entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the "holy chambers for the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the hinder part westward. 20 And he said unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the "trespass-offering and the sin-offering, and where they shall "bake the meal-offering; that they bring them not forth into the outer court, to "sanctify the people. 21 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. 22 In the four corners of the court there were courts ³inclosed, forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four in the corners were of one measure. 23 And there was a "wall round about in them, round about the four, and boiling-places were made under the "walls round about. 24 Then said he unto me, These are the boiling-houses, where the "ministers of the house shall "boil the sacrifice of the people.

be after their kinds, as the fish of the ^agreat sea, ^bexceeding many. 11 But the miry places thereof, and the marshes thereof, shall not be healed; they shall be ¹given up to ^csalt. 12 And ^dby the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow every ^etree for food, whose ^fleaf shall not wither, neither shall the fruit thereof fail: it shall bring forth ²new fruit every month, because the waters thereof issue out of the sanctuary; and the fruit thereof shall be for food, and the ³leaf thereof for healing.

13 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: This shall be the ^aborder, whereby ye shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two ^bportions. 14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I ³swore to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land: On the ^anorth side, from the ^bgreat sea, by the way of ^cHethlon, unto the entrance of ^dZedad; 16 ^eHamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of ^fDamascus and the border of Hamath; ⁴Hazer-hatticon, which is by the border of ⁵Hauran. 17 And the border from the sea, shall be ⁶Hazer-enon at the border of ⁷Damascus; and on the north northward is the border of ⁸Hamath. This is the north side. 18 And the ^aeast side, between ^bHauran and ^cDamascus and ^dGilead and the land of Israel, shall be the ^eJordan; from the ^fnorth border, unto the east sea shall ye measure. This is the east side. 19 And the ^asouth side southward shall be from ^bTamar as far as the waters of ^cMeriboth-kadesh, to the ^dbrook of Egypt, unto the ^egreat sea. This is the south side southward. 20 And the ^awest side shall be the ^bgreat sea, from the ^csouth border as far as over against the ^dentrance of ^eHamath. This is the west side.

21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel. 22 And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by ^alot for an inheritance unto you and to the ^bstrangers that sojourn my charge, that went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the "Levites went astray. 12 And it shall be unto them an oblation from the oblation of the land, a thing most ^bholy, by the border of the Levites.

13 And answerable unto the ^cborder of the priests, the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand. 14 And they shall ^dsell none of it, nor exchange it, nor shall the ^efirst-fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy unto Jehovah.

15 And the five thousand that are left in the breadth, in front of the five and twenty thousand, shall be for ^fcommon use, for the city, for dwelling and for ^gsuburbs; and the city shall be in the midst thereof. 16 And these shall be the measures thereof: the north side ^hfour thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. 17 And the city shall have ⁱsuburbs: toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty. 18 And the residue in the length, answerable unto the holy ^joblation, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be answerable unto the holy oblation; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that labor in the city. 19 And they that labor in the city, out of ^kall the tribes of Israel, shall till it. 20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation ^lfour-square, with the possession of the city.

21 And the ^mresidue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city; in front of the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward in front of the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, answerable unto the portions, it shall be for the prince: and the holy ⁿoblation and the ^osanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof. 22 Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, it shall be for the prince.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

Daniel and his Three Friends refuse to take the King's Food. They excel in Body and in Spirit

1 In the third year of the reign of ^a Jehoiakim king of Judah came ^b Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. 2 And the ^c Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the ^d vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of ^e Shinar to the house of his god: and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his ^f god. 3 And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the ^g master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in certain of the children of Israel, even of the ^h seed royal and of the nobles; 4 youths in whom was ⁱ no blemish, but well-favored, and ^j skilful in all wisdom, and endued with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ^k ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the ^l learning and the ^m tongue of the ⁿ Chaldeans. 5 And the king appointed for them a daily portion of the ^o king's dainties, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished ^p three years; that at the end thereof they should ^q stand before the king. 6 Now among these were, of the children of Judah, ^r Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. 7 And the ^s prince of the eunuchs gave names unto them: unto Daniel he gave the name of ^t Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of ^u Shadrach; and to Mishael, of ^v Meshach; and to Azariah, of ^w Abed-nego.

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not ^x defile himself with the ^y king's dainties, nor with the ^z wine which he drank; therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. 9 Now God made Daniel to find ^{aa} kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the ^{ab} prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths that are of your own age? so would ye endanger my head with the king. 11 Then said Daniel to ^{ac} the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us ^{ad} pulse to eat, and water to drink. 13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the youths that eat of the king's dainties; and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he hearkened unto them in this matter, and proved them ten days. 15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared ^{ae} fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths that did eat of the king's dainties. 16 So ^{af} the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they should drink, and ^{ag} gave them pulse.

17 Now as for these four youths, ^{ah} God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all ^{ai} visions and dreams. 18 And at the end of the ^{aj} days which the king had ^{ak} appointed for bringing them in, the ^{al} prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. 19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like ^{am} Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore ^{an} stood they before the king. 20 And in every

matter of "wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them "ten times "better than all the "magicians and enchanters that were in all his realm. 21 And Daniel continued even unto the "first year of king Cyrus.

2 And in the "second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar "dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his "sleep went from him. 2 Then the king commanded to call the "magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. 3 And the king said unto them, I have "dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream. 4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king "in the "Syrian language, "O king, live for ever: "tell thy servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. 5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "The thing is gone from me: if ye make not known unto me the dream and the interpretation thereof, ye shall be "cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. 6 But if ye show the dream and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me "gifts and rewards and great honor: therefore show me the dream and the interpretation thereof. 7 They answered the second time and said, Let the king "tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. 8 The king answered and said, I know of a certainty that ye would "gain time, because ye see "the thing is gone from me. 9 But if ye make not known unto me the dream, there is but "one law for you; for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall "know that ye can show me the interpretation thereof. 10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is "not a man upon the earth that can show the king's matter, forasmuch as no king, "lord, or ruler, hath asked such a thing of any "magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean. 11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is no other that can show it before the king, except the "gods, whose "dwelling is not with flesh. 12 For this cause the king was "angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. 13 So the decree went forth, and the wise men were to be slain; and they sought "Daniel and his companions to be slain.

14 Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to "Arioch the "captain of the king's guard, who was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon; 15 he answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Wherefore is the decree so "urgent from the king? Then Arioch made the "thing known to Daniel. 16 And "Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would "appoint him a time, "and he would show the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to "Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: 18 that they would "desire "mercies of the God of heaven "concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should "not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. 19 Then was the "secret revealed unto Daniel in a "vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. 20 Daniel answered and said, "Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever; for "wisdom and might are his. 21 And he "changed the times and the seasons; he "removeth kings, and setteth up kings; he giveth "wisdom unto the wise, and "knowledge to them that have understanding; 22 he "revealeth the deep and secret things; "he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the "light dwelleth with him. 23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou "God of my fathers, who hast given me "wisdom and might, and hast now made known unto me what we "desired of thee; for thou hast made known unto us the king's matter. 24 Therefore

Daniel makes known the King's Dream. He interprets the Dream

Daniel went in unto ^aArioeh, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said thus unto him: ^bDestroy not the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioeh ^cbrought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the ^dchildren of the captivity of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation. 26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was ^eBelteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the ^fdream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof? 27 Daniel answered before the king, and said, The secret which the king hath dreamed can neither ^gwise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, show unto the king; 28 but there is a ^hGod in heaven that revealeth secrets, and he hath made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the ⁱlatter days. Thy dream, and the ^jvisions of thy head upon thy bed, are these: 29 as for thee, O king, thy thoughts came ^kinto thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter; and he that ^lrevealeth secrets hath made known to thee what shall come to pass. 30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any ^mwisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be ⁿmade known to the king, and that thou mayest know the ^othoughts of thy heart.

31 Thou, O king, sawest, and behold, a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the aspect thereof was ^pterrible. 32 As for this image, its ^qhead was of fine gold, its ^rbreast and its arms of silver, its ^sbelly and its thighs of brass, 33 its ^tlegs of iron, its ^ufeet part of iron, and part of clay. 34 Thou sawest till that a ^vstone was cut out ^wwithout hands, which smote the image upon its feet that were of iron and clay, and ^xbrake them in pieces. 35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became ^ylike the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, so that ^cno place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great ^dmountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 This is the dream; and we will tell the ^einterpretation thereof before the king. 37 Thou, O king, art ^fking of kings, unto whom the ^gGod of heaven hath given the kingdom, the ^hpower, and the strength, and the glory; 38 and whosoever the children of men dwell, the ⁱbeasts of the field and the birds of the heavens hath he given into thy hand, and hath made thee to rule over them all: thou art the ^jhead of gold. 39 And after thee shall arise ^kanother kingdom inferior to thee; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. 40 And the ^lfourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things; and as iron that crusheth all these, shall it break in pieces and crush. 41 And whereas thou sawest the ^mfeet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with ⁿmiry clay. 42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly ^obroken. 43 And whereas thou sawest the iron mixed with ^pmiry clay, they shall mingle themselves ^qwith the seed of men; but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron doth not mingle with clay. 44 And in the days of those kings shall the ^rGod of heaven ^sset up a ^tkingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall the sovereignty thereof be left to another people; but it shall ^ubreak in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. 45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that a ^vstone was cut out of the mountain ^wwithout hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the ^xgreat God hath made known to the king what ^yshall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an ^aimage of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the ^aprovince of Babylon. 2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the ^asatraps, the deputies, and the governors, the ^ajudges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the ^asheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 3 Then the ^asatraps, the deputies, and the governors, the ^ajudges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the ^asheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. 4 Then the herald cried ^aaloud, To you it is commanded, ^aO peoples, nations, and languages, 5 that at what time ye ^ahear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, ^adulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye ^afall down and worship: the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up; 6 and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be ^acast into the midst of a burning ^afiery furnace. 7 Therefore at that time, when all the peoples ^aheard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all

8 Wherefore at that time certain ^aChaldeans came near, and ^abrought accusation against the Jews. 9 They answered and said to Nebuchadnezzar the king, ^aO king, live for ever. 10 Thou, O king, hast ^amade a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall ^afall down and worship the golden image; 11 and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. 12 There are certain Jews whom thou hast ^aappointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: ^aShadrach, ^aMeshach, and ^aAbed-nego; these men, O king, have ^anot regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in his ^arage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king. 14 Nebuchadnezzar answered and said unto them, Is it of purpose, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, that ye serve not ^amy god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? 15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye ^ahear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning ^afiery furnace: and ^awho is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands? 16 ^aShadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego answered and said to the king, ^aO Nebuchadnezzar, ^awe have no need to answer thee in this matter. 17 ^aIf it be so, our ^aGod whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of thy hand, O king. 18 ^aBut if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of ¹ fury, and the form of his ² visage was changed against ³ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace ⁴ "seven times more than it was wont to be heated. 20 And he commanded certain mighty men that were in his army to ⁵ bind ⁶ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to ⁷ cast them into the burning fiery furnace. 21 Then these men were bound in their ⁸ hosen, their ⁹ tunics, and their mantles, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. 22 Therefore because the king's commandment was ¹⁰ urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up ¹¹ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. 23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down ¹² bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was ¹³ astonished, and rose up in haste: he spake and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. 25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, ¹⁴ walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt: and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the ¹⁵ gods. 26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the ¹⁶ mouth of the burning fiery furnace: he spake and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the ¹⁷ Most High God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego ¹⁸ came forth out of the midst of the fire. 27 And the ¹⁹ satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the ²⁰ fire had no power upon their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their ²¹ hosen changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream of the Tree. Daniel interprets it. It is fulfilled

I have seen, and the interpretation thereof. 10 Thus were the "visions of my head upon my bed: I saw, and, behold, a "tree in the midst of the earth; and the height thereof was great. 11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof "reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth. 12 The leaves thereof were "fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was food for all: the "beasts of the field had "shadow under it, and the "birds of the heavens dwelt in the branches thereof, and all flesh was fed from it. 13 I saw in the "visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a "watcher and a "holy one came down from heaven. 14 He cried "aloud, and said thus, "Hew down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the "beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches. 15 Nevertheless "leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven: and let his portion be with the "beasts in the grass of the earth: 16 let his heart be "changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let "seven times "pass over him. 17 The sentence is by the decree of the "watchers, and the "demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may "know that the "Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and "giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the "lowest of men. 18 This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, forasmuch as all the "wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation; but thou art able; for the "spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken dumb for a while, and his "thoughts troubled him. The king answered and said, Belteshazzar, "let not the dream, or the interpretation, trouble thee. The King's Dream is fulfilled. Belshazzar's Feast and the Writing on the Wall. The Queen advises him to send for Daniel built for the royal dwelling-place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty? 31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken: The kingdom is departed from thee: 32 and thou shalt be driven from men; and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; thou shalt be made to eat grass as oxen; and seven times shall pass over thee; until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. 33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hair was grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And at the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him that liveth for ever; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation; 35 and all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What dost thou? 36 At the same time mine understanding returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added unto me. 37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

5 Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. 2 Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink therefrom. 3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them. 4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone. 5 In the same hour came forth the fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. 6 Then the king's countenance was changed in him, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another. 7 The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spake and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. 8 Then came in all the king's wise men; but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation. 9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were perplexed.

10 Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever; let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed. 11 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made him master of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; 12 forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of dark sentences, and "dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named "Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, who art of the "children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father "brought out of Judah? 14 I have heard of thee, that the "spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in thee. 15 And now the "wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof; but they "could not show the interpretation of the thing. 16 But I have "heard of thee, that thou canst give interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the "interpretation thereof, thou shalt be "clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy "gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation. 18 O thou king, the "Most High God "gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father the kingdom, and "greatness, and glory, and majesty: 19 and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: "whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. 20 But when his heart was "lifted up, and his spirit was "hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was "deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: 21 and he was "driven from the sons of men, and his "heart was made like the beasts", and his dwelling was with the "wild asses; he was "fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; until he knew that the "Most High God ruleth in the kingdom of men, and that he setteth up over it whomsoever he will. 22 And "thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast "not humbled thy heart, though thou knewest all this, 23 but hast "lifted up thyself against the "Lord of heaven; and they have brought the "vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines, have drunk wine from them; and thou hast "praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which "see not, nor hear, nor know; and the God "in whose hand thy breath is, and "whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified. 24 Then was the "part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed.

25 And this is the writing that was inscribed: "MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. 26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and "brought it to an end. 27 TEKEL; thou art "weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. 28 "PERES; thy kingdom is divided, and given to the "Medes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with "purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 In that night "Belshazzar the Chaldean king was "slain. *31 And "Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about three-score and two years old.

6 It pleased "Darius to set over the kingdom a "hundred and twenty "satraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; 2 and over them three presidents, of whom "Daniel was one; that these satraps might give account unto them, and that the king should have "no damage. 3 Then this Daniel was "distinguished above the presidents and the satraps, because an "excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the "whole realm.

4 Then the presidents and the satraps "sought to find occasion

against Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find ^ano occasion nor fault, forasmuch as he was ^bfaithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. 5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the ^claw of his God. 6 Then these presidents and satraps ^dassembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, ^elive for ever. 7 All the ^fpresidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counsellors and the governors, have ^gconsulted together ^hto establish a royal statute, and to make a strong interdict, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be ⁱcast into the den of lions. 8 Now, O king, ^jestablish the interdict, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the ^klaw of the Medes and Persians, which ^laltereth not. 9 Wherefore king Darius ^msigned the writing and the interdict.

10 And when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his chamber ⁿtoward Jerusalem); and he ^okneeled upon his knees three times a day, and ^pprayed, and ^qgave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. 11 Then these men ^rassembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. 12 Then they came near, and ^sspake before the king concerning the king's interdict: Hast thou not signed an interdict, that every man that shall make petition unto any god or man within thirty days, save unto thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the ^tlaw of the Medes and Persians, which ^ualtereth not. 13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, who is of the ^vchildren of the captivity of Judah, ^wregardeth not thee, O king, nor the ^xinterdict that thou hast signed, but ^ymaketh his petition three times a day. 14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore ^zdispleased, and set his

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and ^bcast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, ^cThy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. 17 And a ^dstone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; ^ethat nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. 18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night ^ffasting; neither were ^ginstruments of music brought before him: and his ^hsleep fled from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions. 20 And when he came near unto the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice; the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the ^aliving God, is ^bthy God, whom thou servest continually, ^cable to deliver thee from the lions? 21 Then said Daniel unto the king, ^dO king, live for ever. 22 My God hath ^esent his angel, and hath ^fshut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; forasmuch as before him ^ginnocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I ^hdone no hurt. 23 Then was the king ⁱexceeding glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and ^jno manner of hurt was found upon him, because he had ^ktrusted in his God.

up among them *another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking ^agreat things.

9 I beheld till thrones were *placed, and one that was *ancient of days did sit: his ^araiment was white as snow, and the ^ahair of his head like pure wool; his ^athrone was fiery flames, and the ^awheels thereof burning fire. 10 A ^afiery stream issued and came forth from before him: ^athousands of thousands ministered unto him, and ^mten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: ⁿthe judgment was set, and ^athe books were opened. 11 I beheld at that time because of the voice of the ^agreat words which the horn spake; I beheld even till the ^abeast was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given ^bto be ^aburned with fire. 12 And as for the ^arest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

13 I saw in the ^anight-visions, and, behold, there came with the clouds of heaven one like unto a ^ason of man, and he came even to the ^aancient of days, and they brought him near before him. 14 And there was given him ^adominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that ^aall the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an ^aeverlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall ^anot be destroyed.

15 As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved in the midst of ^amy body, and the ^bvisions of my head ^atroubled me. 16 I came near unto one of them that ^astood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he ^atold me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. 17 These ^agreat beasts, which are four, are four kings, that shall arise out of the earth. 18 But the ^asaints of the Most High shall ^areceive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever. 19 Then I desired to know the truth concerning the "fourth beast, which was diverse from all of them, exceeding terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; 20 and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows. 21 I beheld, and the same horn "made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; 22 until the "ancient of days came, and "judgment was given¹ to the "saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The "fourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall "tread it down, and break it in pieces. 24 And as for the "ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former; and he shall put down three kings. 25 And he shall "speak words against the "Most High, and shall "wear out the saints of the Most High; and he shall think to "change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a "time and times and half a time. 26 But the "judgment shall be set, and they shall "take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end. 27 And the "kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the "saints of the Most High: his kingdom is an "everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall "serve and obey him. 28 Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts much "troubled me, and my "countenance was changed in me: but I "kept the matter in my heart.

vision appeared unto me, even unto "me, Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first. 2 And I "saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in "Shushan the "palace, which is in the province of "Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river "Ulai. 3 Then I "lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a "ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. 4 I saw the ram "pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no beasts could stand before him, neither was there any that "could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself.

5 And as I was considering, behold, a "he-goat came from the west over the face of the whole earth, and "touched not the ground: and the goat had a "notable horn between his eyes. 6 And he came to the "ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran upon him in the fury of his power. 7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was "moved with anger against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he "cast him down to the ground, and trampled upon him; and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. 8 And the he-goat magnified himself exceedingly: and "when he was strong, the "great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns toward the "four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a "little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the "glorious land. 10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and some of the host and of the "stars it cast down to the ground, and "trampled upon them. 11 Yea, it "magnified itself, even to the prince of the host; and "it took away from him the "continual burnt-offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. 12 And the host was given over to it together with the continual burnt-offering through transgression; and it was cast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered. 13 Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said unto that certain one who spake, "How long shall be the vision concerning the continual burnt-offering, and the transgression that maketh desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?" 14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought to understand it; and, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. 16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called, and said, "Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision." 17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was affrighted, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for the vision belongeth to the time of the end. 18 Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and set me upright. 19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongeth to the appointed time of the end. 20 The ram which thou sawest, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. 21 And the rough he-goat is the king of Greece: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. 22 And as for that which was broken, in the place whereof four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with his power. 23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. 24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own

9 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, 2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years whereof the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even seventy years.

3 And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. 4 And I prayed unto Jehovah my God, and made confession, and said, Oh, Lord, the great and dreadful God, who keepeth covenant and loving-kindness with them that love him and keep his commandments, 5 we have sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from thy precepts and from thine ordinances; 6 neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, that spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. 7 O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of face, as at this day: to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their tres-

10 In the third year of ^cCyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called ^aBeltshazzar; and the thing was ^atrue, even a great warfare; and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. 2 In those days I, Daniel, was ^amourning three whole weeks. 3 I ate ^ano pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled. 4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great ^ariver, which is ^aHyddel, 5 I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, a man ^aclothed in linen, whose loins were ^agirded with pure ^agold of Uphaz; 6 his body also was like the ^aberyl, and his ^aface as the appearance of lightning, and his ^aeyes as flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like unto ^aburnished brass, and the voice of his words like the ^avoice of a multitude. 7 And I, Daniel, ^aalone saw the vision; for the ^amen that were with me saw not the vision; but a great ^aquaking fell upon them, and they fled to hide themselves. 8 So I was ^aleft alone, and saw this great vision, and there ^aremained no strength in me; for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I ^aretained no strength. 9 Yet heard I the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I ^afallen into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground.

The Man foretells Conflicts between Persia and Greece, and Leagues and Conflicts between the North and South Kingdoms

11 but ^aMichael your prince. 1 And as for me, in the ^bfirst year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and ^cstrengthen him.

2 And now will I show thee the ^dtruth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and when he is waxed strong through his riches, ^ehe shall stir up all against the realm of ^fGreece. 3 And a ^g'mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and ^h'do according to his will. 4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided ⁱ'toward the ^j'four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion wherewith he ruled; for his kingdom shall be ^k'plucked up, even for others besides these.

5 And the ^l'king of the south ^m'shall be strong, and ⁿone of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. 6 And at the ^o'end of years they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the ^p'king of the north to make ^q'an agreement: but she shall not retain the strength of her arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in those times.

7 But out of a shoot from her roots shall one stand up in his ^r'place, who shall come ^s'unto the army, and shall enter into the ^t'fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail. 8 And also their ^u'gods, with their ^v'molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt; and he shall ^w'refrain some years from the king of the north. 9 And he shall come into the realm of the king of the south, and he shall return into his own land.

days he shall be ¹destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. 21 And in his ²place shall stand up a contemptible person, to whom they had not given the honor of the kingdom: but he shall come ³in time of security, and shall obtain the kingdom by ⁴flatteries. 22 And the overwhelming ⁵forces shall be overwhelmed from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of ⁶the covenant. 23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall come up, and shall become strong, with a small people. 24 ⁷In time of security shall he come even upon the ⁸fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them prey, and spoil, and substance: yea, he shall devise his devices against the strongholds, even for a time. 25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the ⁹king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall war in battle with an exceeding great and mighty army; but he shall not stand; for they shall devise devices against him. 26 Yea, they that eat of his dainties shall ¹⁰destroy him, and his army shall ¹¹overflow; and many shall fall down slain. 27 And as for both these kings, their hearts shall be to do ¹²mischief, and they shall ¹³speak lies at one table: but it shall not prosper; for yot the ¹⁴end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great substance; and his heart shall be ¹⁵against the holy covenant; and he shall do ¹⁶his pleasure, and return to his own land. 29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come into the south; but it shall not be in the latter time as it was in the ¹⁷former. 30 For ships of ¹⁸Kittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and shall return, and have indignation ¹⁹against the holy covenant, and shall ²⁰do his pleasure: he shall even return, and have regard unto them that forsake the holy covenant. 31 And forces shall stand on his part, and they shall ²¹profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt-offering; and they

children of ^aAmmon. 42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape. 43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and the ^bLibyans and the ^cEthiopians shall be at his steps. 44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; and he shall go forth with great fury to destroy and ¹utterly to sweep away many. 45 And he shall plant the tents of his palace ²between the sea, and the ^aglorious ^bholy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

12 And at that time shall ^aMichael stand up, the great prince who standeth for the children of thy people; and there shall be a time of trouble, ^asuch as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the ^abook. 2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, ^asome to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting ^acontempt. 3 And ^athey that are ^awise shall ^mshine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that ⁿturn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. 4 But thou, O Daniel, ^ashut up the words, and ^aseal the book, even to the ^atime of the end: ^amany shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 Then I, Daniel, looked, and, behold, there stood ^aother two, the one on the brink of the ^ariver on this side, and the other on the brink of the river on that side. 6 And ^aone said to the man ^aclothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, ^aHow long shall it be to the end of these wonders? 7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he ^aheld up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that ^aliveth for ever that it shall be for a ^atime, times, and a half; and when they have made an end of ^abreaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. 8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my lord, what shall be the ^aissue of these things? 9 And he said, ^aGo thy way, Daniel; for the words are ^ashut up and sealed till the time of the end. 10 Many shall ^apurify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the ^awicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but ^athey that are ^awise shall understand. 11 And from the time that the ^acontinual burnt-offering shall be taken away, and the ^aabomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. 12 ^aBlessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the ^mthousand three hundred and five and thirty days. 13 But ^ago thou thy way till the ^aend be; for thou shalt ^arest, and shalt stand in thy ^alot, at the end of the days.

THE BOOK OF HOSEA

Hosea's Wife and Children of Whoredom. Restoration of Israel and Judah. Their Unfaithfulness condemned

1 The word of Jehovah that came unto ^aHosea the son of Beeri, in the days of ^bUzziah, ^cJotham, ^dAhaz, and ^eHezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of ^fJeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 When Jehovah spake at the first ¹by Hosea, Jehovah said unto Hosea, ²Go, take unto thee a ³wife of whoredom and children of whoredom; for the land doth ⁴commit great whoredom, departing from Jehovah. 3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and ⁵bare him a son. 4 And Jehovah said unto him, Call his name ⁶Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will ⁷avenge the ⁸blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. 5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will ⁹break the bow of Israel in the ¹⁰valley of Jezreel. 6 And she conceived again, and ¹¹bare a daughter. And Jehovah said unto him, Call her name ¹²Lo-ruhamah; for I will ¹³no more have mercy upon the house of Israel, that I should in any wise pardon them. 7 But I will have ¹⁴mercy upon the house of Judah, and will ¹⁵save them by Jehovah their God, and will not save them by ¹⁶bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen. 8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and ¹⁷bare a son. 9 And Jehovah said, Call his name ¹⁸Ammi; for ye are not my people, and I will not be ¹⁹your God.

10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the ²⁰sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and ²¹it shall come to pass that, ²²in the place where it was said unto them, gave her the grain, and the new wine, and the oil, and multiplied unto her ^asilver and gold, which they ¹used for Baal. 9 Therefore will I ^{2b}take back my grain in the time thereof, and my new wine in the season thereof, and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness. 10 And now will I ^cuncover her ³lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of my hand. 11 I will also ^dcause all her mirth to cease, her ^efeasts, her ^fnew moons, and her sabbaths, and all her ^gsolemn assemblies. 12 And I will ^hlay waste her vines and her fig-trees, whereof she hath said, ⁱThese are my hire that my lovers have given me; and I will ^jmake them a forest, and the ^kbeasts of the field shall eat them. 13 And I will visit upon her the ^ldays of the Baalim, ^munto which she ⁿburned incense, when she ^odecked herself with her ^pearrings and her jewels, and went after her lovers, and ^qforgot me, saith Jehovah. 14 Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and ^rbring her into the wilderness, and speak ^scomfortably unto her. 15 And I will give her her ^tvineyards from thence, and the ^uvalley of ^vAchor for a door of hope; and she shall ^wmake answer there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the ^xday when she came up out of the land of Egypt. 16 And it shall be at that day, saith Jehovah, that thou shalt call me ^y¹⁰ ^uIshi, and shalt call me no more ^z¹¹ Baali. 17 For I will ^{aa}take away the names of the ^{ab}Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be ^{ac}¹² mentioned by their name. 18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the ^{ad}beasts of the field, and with the birds of the heavens, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will ^{ae}break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the land, and will make them to ^{af}lie down safely. 19 And I will ^{ag}betroth thee unto me

"killing, and "stealing, and "committing adultery; they break out, and "blood toucheth blood. ³ Therefore shall the land "mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the "beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away. ⁴ Yet let no man "strive, neither let any man reprove; for thy people are as they that "strive with the priest. ⁵ And thou shalt "stumble in the day, and the prophet also shall stumble with thee in the night; and I will destroy thy "mother.

⁶ My people are destroyed for "lack of knowledge: because thou hast "rejected knowledge, ¹ I will also "reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast "forgotten the "law of thy God, I also will forget thy children. ⁷ As they were "multiplied, so they sinned against me: I will "change their glory into "shame. ⁸ They "feed on the sin of my people, and "set their heart on their iniquity. ⁹ And it shall be, like people, "like priest; and I will "punish them for their ways, and will requite them their doings. ¹⁰ And they shall "eat, and not have enough; they shall "play the harlot, and shall not increase; because they have "left off taking heed to Jehovah.

sound an alarm at ^aBeth-aven; ^abehind thee, O Benjamin. 9 Ephraim shall become a ^adesolation in the ^aday of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which ^ashall surely be. 10 The princes of Judah are like them that ^aremove the landmark: I will ^apour out my wrath upon them ^alike water. 11

^aEphraim is oppressed, he is crushed in judgment; because he was content to walk after man's command. 12 ^aTherefore am I unto Ephraim as a ^amoth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to ^aAssyria, and sent to ^{3m}king Jareb: but he is ^anot able to heal you, neither will he cure you of your wound. 14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: ^aI, even I, will tear and go away; I will carry off, and there shall be ^anone to deliver. 15 I will go and return to my place, till they ^aacknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will ^aseek me ^aearnestly.

6 ^aCome, and let us return unto Jehovah; for he hath ^atorn, and he will ^aheal us; he hath smitten, and he will ^abind us up. 2 After two days will he ^arevive us: on the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live before him. 3 And let us ^aknow, let us follow on to know Jehovah: his ^agoing forth is sure as the morning; and he will come unto us as the ^arain, as the latter rain that watereth the earth.

4 O ^aEphraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your ^agoodness is as a ^amorning cloud, and as the dew that goeth early away. 5 Therefore have I ^ahewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and ^athy judgments are ^aas the light that goeth forth. 6 For ^aI desire ^agoodness, and not sacrifice; and the ^aknowledge of God more than burnt-offerings. 7 But they ^alike

^aGilead is a city of them that work iniquity; it is stained with ^ablood. 9 ^aAnd as ^a"troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests ^a"murder in the way toward Shechem; yea, they have committed ^a"lewdness.

10 In the house of Israel I have seen a ^a"horrible thing: there ^a"whoredom is found in Ephraim, Israel is denied. 11 Also, O Judah, there is a ^a"harvest appointed for thee, when I ^a"bring back the captivity of my people.

7 When I ^a"would heal Israel, then is the iniquity of Ephraim uncovered, and the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit ^a"falsehood, and the thief entereth in, and the ^a"troop of robbers ^a"ravageth without. 2 And they consider not in their hearts that I ^a"remember all their wickedness: now have their ^a"own doings beset them about; they are before my face.

3 They make the ^a"king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their ^a"lies. 4 They are ^a"all adulterers; they are as an oven heated by the baker; he ceaseth to stir the fire, from the kneading of the dough, until it be leavened.

*vessel wherein none delighteth. 9 For they are gone up to ^aAssyria, ^blike a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath ^chired ^dlovers. 10 Yea, though they hire among the nations, now will I ^egather them; and they ^fbegin to be ^gdiminished by reason of the burden of the ^hking of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath ⁱmultiplied altars for sinning, altars have been unto him for sinning.

12 I wrote for him the ten thousand things of my ^jlaw; but they are counted as a strange thing.

13 As for the ^ksacrifices of mine offerings, they ^lsacrifice flesh and eat it; but Jehovah accepteth them not: now will he ^mremember their iniquity, and ⁿvisit their sins; they shall return to ^oEgypt.

14 For Israel hath ^pforgotten his Maker, and ^qbuilded ^rpalaces; and Judah hath multiplied fortified cities; but I will send a ^sfire upon his cities, and it shall devour the ^tcastles thereof.

9 Rejoice not, O Israel, ^ufor joy, like the peoples; ^vfor thou hast ^wplayed the harlot, ^xdeparting from thy God; thou hast ^yloved hire upon every grain-floor. 2 The threshing-floor and the winepress shall ^znot feed them, and the new wine shall fail her. 3 They shall not dwell in Jehovah's land; but Ephraim shall return to ^{aa}Egypt, and they shall eat ^{ab}unclean food in ^{ac}Assyria. 4 They shall not pour out ^{ad}wine-offerings to Jehovah, ^{ae}neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their ^{af}sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be ^{ag}polluted; for their bread shall be for their appetite; it shall not come into the house of Jehovah. 5 ^{ah}What will ye do in the day of solemn assembly, and in the day of the ^{ai}feast of Jehovah? 6 For, lo, they are gone away from destruction; yet ^{aj}Egypt shall gather them up, ^{ak}Memphis shall bury them; their pleasant things of silver, nettles shall possess them; ^{al}thorns shall be in their tents. 7 The days of ^avisitation are come, the days of ^arecompense are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a ^cfool, the man that hath the spirit is ^amad, for the abundance of thine ^ciniquity, and because the enmity is great. 8 Ephraim ¹was a watchman with my God: as for the prophet, a ^cfowler's snare is in all his ways, and enmity in the house of his God. 9 They have ^ddeeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of ^aGibeah: he will ^cremember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like ^agrapes in the wilderness: I saw your fathers as the ^afirst-ripe in the fig-tree at its first season: but they came to ^mBaal-peor, and ²consecrated themselves unto the ^ashameful thing, and became ^aabominable like that which they loved. 11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall ^cfly away like a bird: there shall be ^ano birth, and none with child, and no conception. 12 Though they ^cbring up their children, yet will I bereave them, so that not a man shall be left: yea, ^awoe also to them when I depart from them! 13 Ephraim, ^alike as I have seen ^aTyre, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring out his children to the slayer. 14 Give them, O Jehovah—what wilt thou give? give them a ^amiscarrying womb and dry breasts. 15 All their wickedness is in ^aGilgal; for there I hated them: because of the ^awickedness of their doings I will drive them out of my house; I will love them no more; all their princes are ^arevolters. 16 ^aEphraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear ^ano fruit: yea, though they ^abring forth, yet will I slay the ^abeloved fruit of their womb. 17 My God will cast them away, because they did ^anot hearken unto him; and they shall be ^awanderers among the nations.

10 Israel is a luxuriant ^avine, that putteth forth his fruit: according to the abundance of his fruit he hath ^amultiplied his altars; according to the ^agoodness of their land they have made goodly ^apillars. 2 ^aTheir heart is ^adivided;

have "plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of ^{1b} lies; for thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men. 14 Therefore shall a tumult arise ^a among thy ³ people, and all thy ^d fortresses shall be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the ^e mother was dashed in pieces with her children. 15 "So shall Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: at day-break shall the ^f king of Israel be utterly cut off."

11 When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and ^h called my son ⁱ out of Egypt. 2 The more the ^k prophets called them, the more they went from them: they ^j sacrificed unto the Baalim, and ^m burned incense to graven images. 3 Yet I ^l taught Ephraim to walk; ⁱ I ^o took them on my arms; but they knew not that I ^p healed them. 4 I ^q drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that lift up the yoke on their jaws; and I ^r laid food before them.

5 They shall not return into the land of Egypt; but the ^s Assyrian shall be their king, because they ^t refused to return to me. 6 And the ^u sword shall ^v fall upon their cities, and shall ^w consume their bars, and devour ^x them, because of their ^y own counsels. 7 And my people are bent on ^z backsliding from me: though ^{aa} they call them to him that is on high, none at all will ^{ab} exalt him.

shall come trembling as a bird out of ^a Egypt, and as a ^b dove out of the land of ^c Assyria; and I will make them to ^d dwell in their houses, saith Jehovah.

* 12 Ephraim compasseth me about with ^m falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit; ⁿ but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the Holy One.

12 ¹ Ephraim feedeth on ⁿ wind, and followeth after the ^o east wind: he continually ^p multiplieth lies and desolation; and they make a covenant with ^q Assyria, and oil is carried into ^r Egypt. 2 Jehovah hath also a ^s controversy with Judah, and will ^t punish Jacob ^u according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him. 3 In the womb he ^v took his brother by the heel; and in his ^w manhood he ^x had ^y power with God: 4 yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept, and ^z made supplication unto him: he found him at ^{aa} Beth-el, and there he spake with us, ^{ab} 5 ^{ac} even Jehovah, the God of hosts; Jehovah is his ^{ad} memorial name. 6 Therefore ^{ae} turn thou to thy God: keep ^{af} kindness and justice, and ^{ag} wait for thy God continually.

7 ¹⁴ He is ¹⁵ a ¹⁶ trafficker, the ¹⁷ balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to ¹⁸ oppress. 8 And Ephraim said, Surely I am become ¹⁹ rich, I have found me wealth: in all my labors they shall find in me ²⁰ no iniquity that were sin. 9 But I am Jehovah thy God from the land of ²¹ Egypt; I will yet again make thee to ²² dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast. 10 I have also spoken unto the ²³ prophets, and I have multiplied visions; and ²⁴ by the ministry of the prophets have I used ²⁵ similitudes. 11 Is ²⁶ Gilead iniquity? they are altogether false; in ²⁷ Gilgal they sacrifice bullocks; yea, ²⁸ their altars ²⁹ are as heaps in the furrows of the field. 12 And ³⁰ Jacob fled into the field of Aram, and ³¹ Israel served for a wife, and 13 ¹When Ephraim ²spake, there was trembling; he ¹exalted himself in Israel; but when he ³offended in ⁴Baal, he died. 2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them ¹molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own ¹understanding, all of them the ²work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let ⁴the men that sacrifice kiss the ¹calves. 3 Therefore they shall be as the ¹morning cloud, and as the dew that passeth early away, as the ¹chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing-floor, and as the ¹smoke out of the chimney.

THE BOOK OF

A Devastation of the Land by Locusts. Terribleness of the Visitation

⁸ Lament like a virgin ^ogirded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth. ⁹ The ^mmeal-offering and the drink-offering are cut off from the house of Jehovah; the ^opriests, Jehovah's ministers, mourn. ¹⁰ The field is ^mlaid waste, the land mourneth; for the grain is destroyed, the ^onew wine is ^odried up, the oil languisheth. ¹¹ Be ^oconfounded, O ye husbandmen, wail, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; for the ^oharvest of the field is perished. ¹² The ^ovine is ^owithered, and the fig-tree languisheth; the ^opomegranate-tree, the ^opalm-tree also, and the ^oapple-tree, even all the trees of the field are withered: for ^ojoy is ^owithered away from the sons of men.

2 ^oBlow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the ^oday of Jehovah cometh, for it is nigh at hand; ² a day of ^odarkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, as the dawn spread upon the mountains; a "great people and a strong; there hath "not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after them, even to the years of many generations. 3 A "fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is "as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a "desolate wilderness; yea, and none hath escaped them.

4 The "appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as "horsemen, so do they run. 5 Like the "noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, like the noise of a "flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. 6 At their presence the peoples are in "anguish; all "faces are waxed pale. 7 They run like "mighty men; they "climb the wall like men of war; and they "march every one on his ways, and they break not their ranks. 8 Neither doth one thrust another; they march every one in his path; and "they burst through the weapons, and "break not off their course. 9 They "leap upon the city; they run upon the wall; they climb up into the "houses; they "enter in at the windows like a thief. 10 The earth "quaketh before them; the heavens tremble; the "sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining. 11 And Jehovah "uttereth his voice before "his army; for his camp is very great; for he is "strong that executeth his word; for the "day of Jehovah is great and very terrible; and "who can abide it?

12 Yet even now, saith Jehovah, "turn ye unto me with all your heart, and with "fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: 13 and rend your "heart, and "not your garments, and turn unto Jehovah your God; for he is "gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness, and "repenteth him of the evil. 14 Who knoweth "whether he will not turn and repent, and leave a "blessing behind him, even a "meal-offering and a drink-offering unto Jehovah your God?

Outpouring of God's Spirit promised.

The Nations to be judged, and Judah to be delivered which I sent among you. 26 And ye shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and shall praise the name of Jehovah your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you; and my people shall never be put to shame. 27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am Jehovah your God, and there is none else; and my people shall never be put to shame.

*28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall see visions: 29 and also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit. 30 And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. 31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of Jehovah cometh. 32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of Jehovah shall be delivered; for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those that escape, as Jehovah hath said, and among the remnant those whom Jehovah doth call.

*3 For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring back the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, 2 I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will execute judgment upon them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations: and they have parted my land, 3 and have cast lots for my people, and have given a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink. 4 Yea, and what are ye to me, O Tyre, and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? will ye render me a recompense? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompense upon your own head. 5 Forasmuch as ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly precious things, 6 and have sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem unto the sons of the Grecians, that ye may remove them far from their border; 7 behold, I will stir them up out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompense upon your own head; 8 and I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the men of Sheba, to a nation far off: for Jehovah hath spoken it.

9 Proclaim ye this among the nations; prepare war; stir up the mighty men; let all the men of war draw near, let them come up. 10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. 11 Haste ye, and come, all ye nations round about, and gather yourselves together: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O Jehovah. 12 Let the nations bestir themselves, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the nations round about. 13 Put ye in the sickle; for the harvest is ripe: come, tread ye; for the winepress is full, the vats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! for the day of Jehovah is near in the valley of decision. 15 The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining. 16 And Jehovah will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but Jehovah will be a refuge unto his people, and a stronghold to the children of Israel. 17 So shall ye know that I am Jehovah your God, dwelling in Zion my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more.

THE BOOK OF AMOS

God's Judgments on Neighboring Nations

1 The words of Amos, who was among the ^aherdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of ^cUzziah king of Judah, and in the days of ^cJeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the ^cearthquake.

2 And he said, ^dJehovah will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the ¹pastures of the shepherds shall mourn, and the ²top of Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith Jehovah: ^eFor three transgressions of ²Damascus, yea, for four, I will ²not turn away ³the punishment thereof; because they have threshed ^mGilead with threshing instruments of iron.

4 But I will send a ²fire into the house of Hazael, and it shall devour the palaces of ^cBen-hadad. 5 And I will ²break the bar of Damascus, and cut off ⁴the inhabitant from the valley of ⁵Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from ⁶the house of Eden; and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto ⁹Kir, saith Jehovah.

6 Thus saith Jehovah: For three transgressions of ²Gaza, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive ⁷the ⁸whole people, to deliver them up to ^cEdom. 7 But I will send a fire on the wall of ^cGaza, and it shall devour the palaces thereof. 8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from ^cAshdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from ²Ashkelon; and I will turn my hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the ³Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord Jehovah.

9 Thus saith Jehovah: ^eFor three transgressions of ^cTyre, yea, for four, I will not turn away the

God's Judgments on Judah and Israel. Necessity of prophesying Evil against Israel. Israel to be punished

6 Thus saith Jehovah: ^gFor three transgressions of ^hIsrael, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ⁱsold the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes — 7 they that pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the ^jpoor, and ^kturn aside the way of the meek: and a ^lman and his father go unto the ^msame maiden, to profane my holy name: 8 and they lay themselves down beside every ⁿaltar upon clothes ^otaken in pledge; and in the house of their God they ^pdrink the wine of such as have been fined.

9 Yet destroyed I the ^qAmorite before them, whose ^rheight was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his ^sfruit from above, and his roots from beneath. 10 Also I brought you up out of the land of ^tEgypt, and led you ^uforty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the ^vAmorite. 11 And I ^wraised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for ^xNazirites. 3 Hear this word that Jehovah hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the ^awhole family which I brought up out of the land of ^bEgypt, saying, 2 ^cYou only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will ^dvisit upon you all your iniquities. 3 Shall two ^ewalk together, except they have ^fagreed? 4 Will a lion ^groar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing? 5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is set for him? shall a snare spring up from the ground, and have taken nothing at all? 6 Shall the ^htrumpet be blown in a city, and the people not be afraid? shall ⁱevil befall a city, and Jehovah liath not done it? 7 Surely the Lord Jehovah will do nothing, except he ^jreveal his secret unto his servants the prophets. 8 The ^klion hath roared; who will not fear? The ^lLord Jehovah hath spoken; who can but prophesy?

9 Publish ye ^min the palaces at Ashdod, and ⁿin the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the ^omountains of Samaria, and behold what great tumults are therein, and what ^poppressions in the midst thereof. 10 For they ^qknow not to do right, saith Jehovah, who ^rstore up violence and robbery in their palaces. 11 Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: An ^sadversary there shall be, even round about the land; and he shall ^tbring down thy strength from thee, and thy ^upalaces shall be plundered. 12 Thus saith Jehovah: As the shepherd ^vrescueth out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the ^wchildren of Israel be rescued that sit in Samaria in the corner of a ^xcouch, and ^yon the silken cushions of a ^zbed.

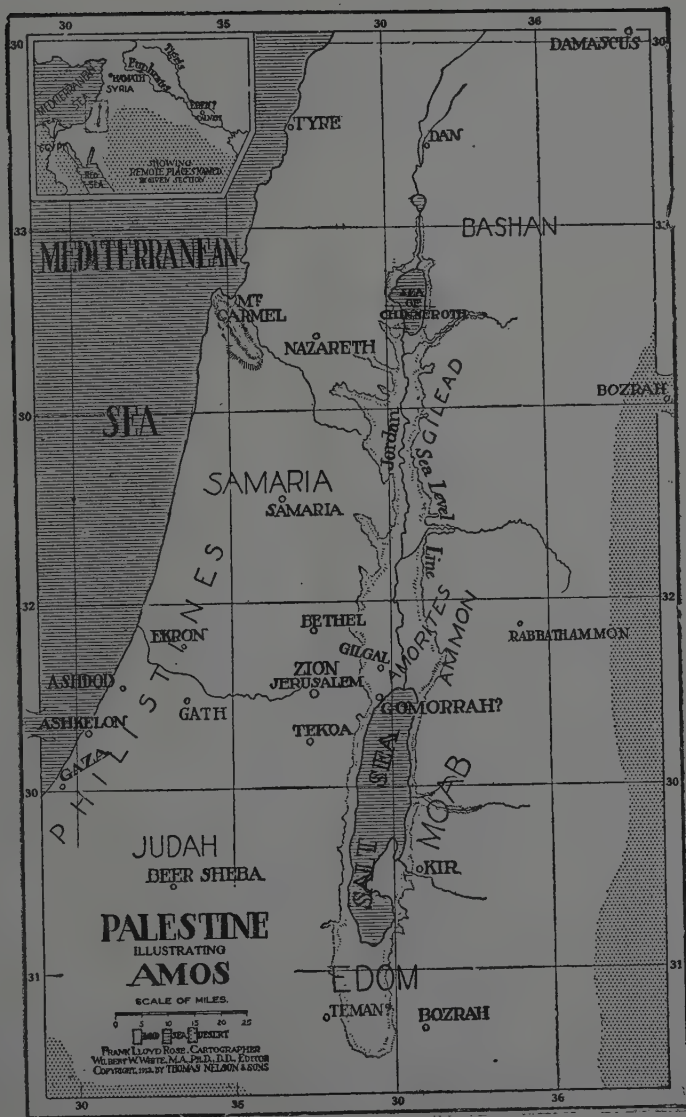

13 Hear ye, and ^{aa}testify against the house of Jacob, saith the Lord Jehovah, the God of hosts. 14 For in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the altars of ¹Beth-el; and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground. 15 And I will smite the ²winter-house with the ³summer-house; and the houses of ⁴ivory shall perish, and ⁵the great houses shall have an end, saith Jehovah.

4 Hear this word, ye kine of ⁶Bashan, that are in the ⁷mountain of Samaria, that oppress the poor, that crush the needy, that say unto their lords, Bring, and let us drink. 2 The Lord Jehovah hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that they shall take you away with hooks, and your residue with fish-hooks. 3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every one straight before her; and ye shall cast yourselves into Harmon, saith Jehovah.

4 Come to ⁸Beth-el, and transgress; to ⁹Gilgal, and multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes every three days; 5 and offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim freewill-offerings and publish them: for this pleaseth you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord Jehovah.

6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places; yet have ye not returned unto me, saith Jehovah.

7 And I also have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest; and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered. 8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city to drink water, and were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith Jehovah. 9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: the multitude of your gardens and your vineyards and your fig-trees and your olive-trees hath the palmer-worm devoured: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith Jehovah. 10 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have carried away your horses; and I have made the stench of your camp to come up even into your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith Jehovah. 11 I have overthrown cities among you, as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a brand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith Jehovah.

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel; and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel. 13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought; that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth — Jehovah, the God of hosts, is his name.

5 Hear ye this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O house of Israel. 2 The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is cast down upon her land; there is none to raise her up. 3 For thus saith the Lord Jehovah: The city that went forth a thousand shall have a hundred left, and that which went forth a hundred shall have ten left, to the house of Israel.

4 For thus saith Jehovah unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live; 5 but seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought. 6 Seek Jehovah, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el. 7 Ye who turn justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth, 8 seek him that maketh

the "Pleiades and Orion, and turneth ¹the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day ²dark with night; that ³calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth (⁴Jehovah is his name); 9 that ⁵bringeth ⁶sudden destruction upon the strong, so that ⁷destruction cometh upon the fortress.

10 They hate him that ⁸reproveth in the gate, and they ⁹abhor him that speaketh uprightly. 11 Forasmuch therefore as ye ¹⁰trample upon the poor, and take exactions from him of wheat: ye have built ¹¹houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall ¹²not drink the wine thereof. 12 For I know how manifold are your transgressions, and how mighty are your sins—ye that ¹³afflict the just, that take a bribe, and that turn aside the ¹⁴needy in the gate from their right. 13 Therefore he that is prudent shall ¹⁵keep silence in such a time; for it is an evil time.

14 ¹⁶Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so Jehovah, the God of hosts, will be with you, ¹⁷as ye say. 15 ¹⁸Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish justice in the gate: it ¹⁹may be that Jehovah, the God of hosts, will be gracious unto the ²⁰remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore thus saith Jehovah, the God of hosts, the Lord: ²¹Wailing shall be in all the broad ways; and they shall say in all the streets, Alas! alas! and they shall call the ²²husbandman to mourning, ²³and such as are ²⁴skilful in lamentation to wailing. 17 And in all ²⁵vineyards shall be wailing; for I will pass through the midst of thee, saith Jehovah.

18 Woe unto you that desire the ²⁶day of Jehovah! Wherefore would ye have the day of Jehovah? It is ²⁷darkness, and not light. 19 As if a man did ²⁸flee from a lion, and a bear met him; ²⁹or went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him. 20 Shall not the day of Jehovah be ³⁰darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

12 Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow ^lthere with oxen? that ye have turned ^mjustice into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood; 13 ye that rejoice in a ⁿthing of nought, that say, Have we not ^otaken to us horns by our own strength? 14 For, behold, I will ^praise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith Jehovah, the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the ^qentrance of Hamath unto the ^rbrook of the Arabah.

7 Thus the Lord Jehovah ^sshowed me: and, behold, he formed ^tlocusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings. 2 And it came to pass that, when they ^umade an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, ^vO Lord Jehovah, forgive, I beseech thee: how shall Jacob stand? for he is ^wsmall. 3 Jehovah ^xrepented concerning this: It shall not be, saith Jehovah.

This also shall not be, saith the Lord Jehovah.

7 Thus he showed me: and, behold, the Lord stood ^bbeside a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand. 8 And Jehovah said unto me, ^cAmos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumb-line. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a ^dplumb-line in the midst of my people Israel; I will ^enot again pass by them any more; 9 and the ^fhigh places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the ^gsanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will ^hrise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 Then Amaziah the ⁱpriest of ^jBeth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath ^kconspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words. 11 For thus Amos saith, ^lJeroboam shall die by the sword, and ^mIsrael shall surely be led away captive out of his land. 12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, ⁿgo, flee thou away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: 13 but ^oprophesy not again any more at Beth-el; for it is the king's ^psanctuary, and it is a royal house.

14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, ^qI was no prophet, neither ^rI was a ^sprophet's son; but I ^twas a ^uherdsman, and a dresser of ^vsycomore-trees: 15 and ^wJehovah took me from following the flock, and ^xJehovah said unto me, Go, ^yprophesy unto my people Israel. 16 Now therefore hear thou the word of Jehovah: Thou sayest, ^zProphesy not against Israel, and ^{aa}drop not ^{ab}thy word against the house of Isaac: 17 therefore thus saith Jehovah: Thy ^{ac}wife shall be a harlot in the city, and thy ^{ad}sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by ^{ae}line: and thou thyself shalt die in a land that is ^{af}unclean, and Israel shall surely be ^{ag}led away captive out of his land.

Israel's Near End foreshadowed. A Famine of the Word threatened. Jehovah's Judgments unavoidable

8 Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me: and, behold, a basket of summer fruit. 2 And he said, "Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said Jehovah unto me, The end is come upon my people Israel; I will "not again pass by them any more. 3 And the "songs of the temple shall be "wailings in that day, saith the Lord Jehovah: the "dead bodies shall be many; in every place "shall they cast them forth with silence.

4 Hear this, O ye that would swallow up the "needy, and cause the poor of the land to fail, 5 saying, When will the "new moon be gone, that we may sell grain? and the "sabbath, that we may "set forth wheat, making the "ephah small, and the shekel great, and "dealing falsely with balances of deceit; 6 that we may buy the "poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, and sell the refuse of the wheat? 7 Jehovah hath "sworn by the "excellency of Jacob, Surely I will "never forget any of their works. 8 Shall not the land "tremble for this, and every one "mourn that dwelleth therein? yea, it shall "rise up wholly like the River; and it shall be troubled and sink again, like the River of Egypt. 9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord Jehovah, that I will cause the "sun to go down at noon, and I will "darken the earth in the clear day. 10 And I will turn your "feasts into mourning, and all your "songs into lamentation; and I will bring "sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it "as the mourning for an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord Jehovah, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but "of hearing the words of Jehovah. 12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to "seek the word of Jehovah, and shall not find it. 13 In that day shall the fair "virgins and the young men "faint for thirst. 14 They that swear by the "sin of Samaria, and say, As thy god, O

THE BOOK OF OBADIAH

The Pride of Edom shall be humbled. Her Wicked Joy in Israel's Distress. Israel shall be exalted

1 The vision of Obadiah.

Thus saith the Lord Jehovah concerning ^aEdom: ^bWe have heard tidings from Jehovah, and an ^cambassador is sent among the nations, saying, ^dArise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle. 2 Behold, I have made thee ^esmall among the nations: thou art greatly despised. 3 The ^fpride of thy heart hath deceived thee, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of ^gthe ^hrock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, ⁱWho shall bring me down to the ground? 4 Though thou ^jmount on high as the eagle, and though thy nest be set among the ^kstars, I will bring thee down from thence, saith Jehovah.

5 If ^lthieves came to thee, if robbers by night (how art thou ^mcut off!), would they not steal ⁿonly till they had enough? if ^ogrape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave some ^p"gleaning grapes"? 6 How are ^qthe things of Esau ^rsearched! how are his hidden treasures sought out! 7 All the ^smen of thy confederacy have ^tbrought thee on thy way, even to the border: the men that were at ^upeace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee: ^vthey that eat thy ^w"bread lay a ^xsnare under thee: there is ^yno understanding ^zin him. 8 Shall I not in that day, saith Jehovah, ^adestroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau? 9 And thy ^b"mighty men, O ^cTeman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one may be ^d"cut off from the mount of Esau by slaughter.

10 For the ^e"violence done to thy brother Jacob, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever. 11 In the day that thou ^f"stoodest ^gon the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his ^hsubstance, and foreigners entered into his gates, and ⁱ"cast lots upon Jerusalem, even ^j"thou wast as one of them. 12 But ^k"look not thou on the day of thy brother in ^l"the day of his disaster, and ^m"rejoice not over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither ⁿ"speak proudly in the day of distress. 13 Enter not into the gate of my people in the ^o"day of their calamity; yea, look not thou on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither ^p"lay ye hands on their substance in the day of their calamity. 14 And ^q"stand thou not in the crossway, to ^r"cut off those of his that escape; and deliver not up those of his that remain in the day of distress.

15 For the ^s"day of Jehovah is near upon all the nations: ^t"as ~~thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee~~; thy ^u"~~dealing shall return upon thine own head~~. 16 For as ye have ^v"drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the nations ^w"drink continually; yea, they shall drink, and ^x"swallow down, and shall be as thou they had not been.

17 But in mount ^y"Zion there shall be those that escape, and it shall be holy; and the house of Jacob shall ^z"possess their possessions. 18 And the house of Jacob shall be ^a"fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall burn among them, and devour them; and there shall ^b"not be any remaining to the house of Esau; for Jehovah hath spoken it. 19 And they of the South shall ^c"possess the mount of Esau, and they of the lowland the ^d"Philis-

THE BOOK OF JONAH

Jonah, sent by God to Nineveh, flees to Tarshish. In a Tempest he is cast overboard, and is swallowed by a Fish. His Prayer

1 Now the word of Jehovah came unto ^aJonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2 Arise, go to ^bNineveh, that ^cgreat city, and ^dcry against it; for their ^ewickedness is ^fcome up before me. 3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto ^gTarshish ^hfrom the presence of Jehovah; and he went down to ⁱJoppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of Jehovah.

4 But ^jJehovah ^ksent out a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken. 5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto ^lhis god; and they ^mcast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it unto them. But Jonah was gone down into the innermost parts of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep. 6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, ⁿcall upon thy God, if so be that ^oGod will think upon us, that we perish not. 7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us ^pcast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the ^qlot fell upon Jonah. 8 Then said they unto him, ^rTell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; what is thine ^soccupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou? 9 And he said unto them, I am a ^tHebrew; and I ^ufear Jehovah, the ^vGod of heaven, who hath ^wmade the sea and the dry land. 10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, What is this that thou hast done? For the men ^xknow that he was ^yfleeing from

11 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea grew more and more tempestuous. 12 And he said unto them, ¹Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that ²for my sake this great tempest is upon you. 13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they ³could not: for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto ⁴Jehovah, and said, We beseech thee, O Jehovah, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood; for ⁵thou, O Jehovah, hast done as it pleased thee. 15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea; and the sea ⁶ceased from its raging. 16 Then the men feared ⁷Jehovah exceedingly; and they offered ⁸a sacrifice unto Jehovah, and made ⁹vows.

 Yet I will look again "toward thy holy temple.
 5 The "waters compassed me about, even to the soul;
 The "deep was round about me;
 The weeds were wrapped about my head.
 6 I "went down to the bottoms of the mountains;
 The earth with its "bars closed upon me for ever:
 Yet hast thou "brought up my life from "the pit, O Jehovah my God.
 7 When my soul "fainted within me, I "remembered Jehovah;
 And my "prayer came in unto thee, into thy "holy temple.
 8 They that "regard lying vanities
 Forsake their own mercy.
 9 But I will "sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving;
 I will "pay that which I have vowed.
 "Salvation is of Jehovah.
 10 And Jehovah spake unto the "fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.
 3 And the word of Jehovah came unto Jonah the "second time, saying, 2 Arise, go unto "Nineveh, that great city, and "preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. 3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of Jehovah. Now Nineveh was "an "exceeding great city, of three days' journey.
 4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he "cried, and said, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.
 5 And the people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a "fast, and put on "sackcloth, "from the greatest of them even to the least of them. 6 "And the tidings reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and laid his robe from him, and "covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. 7 And he made

"proclamation and "published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water; 8 but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and beast, and let them "cry mightily unto God: yea, let them "turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands. 9 "Who knoweth whether God will not turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? 10 And God saw their works, that they "turned from their evil way; and "God repented of the evil which he said he would do unto them; and he did it not.

4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was "angry. 2 And he "prayed unto Jehovah, and said, I pray thee, O Jehovah, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I "hasted to "flee unto Tarshish; for I knew that thou art a "gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness, and repentest thee of the evil. 3 Therefore now, O Jehovah, "take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is "better for me to die than to live. 4 And Jehovah said, "Dost thou well to be angry? 5 Then Jonah went out of the city, and "sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shade, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And "Jehovah God prepared a "gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his evil case. So Jonah was "exceeding glad because of the gourd. 7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd, that it "withered. 8 And it came to pass, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry "east wind; and the "sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might

THE BOOK OF MICAH

Destruction denounced against Israel and Judah. The Coming Desolation lamented. Woe to Greedy Oppressors

1 The word of Jehovah that came to ^aMicah the ^bMorashite in the days of ^cJotham, ^dAhaz, and ^eHezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, ye peoples, all of you; hearken, O earth, and ¹all that therein is: and let the Lord Jehovah be ²witness ³against you, the Lord from his holy temple. 3 For, behold, Jehovah ⁴cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and ⁵tread upon the high places of the earth. 4 And ⁶the mountains shall be melted under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, as waters that are poured down a steep place. 5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not ⁷Samaria? and what are the ⁸high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem? 6 Therefore I will make Samaria as a ⁹heap of the field, and as places for ¹⁰planting vineyards; and I will ¹¹pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will ¹²uncover the foundations thereof. 7 And all her ¹³graven images shall be beaten to pieces, and all her ¹⁴hires shall be burned with fire, and all her idols will I lay desolate; for of the hire of a harlot hath she gathered them, and unto the hire of a harlot shall they return.

8 For this will I lament and wail; I will go ¹⁵stripped and naked; I will make a wailing like the ¹⁶jackals, and a lamentation like the ostriches. 9 For her ¹⁷wounds are incurable; for it is come even unto Judah; it reacheth unto the ¹⁸gate of my people, even to Jerusalem. 10 ¹⁹Tell it not in Gath, weep not at all: ²⁰at ²¹Beth-le-aphrah ²²have I rolled myself in ^aeat the flesh of my people, and ^bflay their skin from off them, and break their bones, and ^cchop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron. 4 Then shall they ^dcry unto Jehovah, but he will not answer them; yea, he will ^ehide his face from them at that time, according as they have ^fwrought evil in their doings.

5 Thus saith Jehovah concerning the prophets that ^gmake my people to err; that ^hbite with their teeth, and ⁱcry, Peace; and whoso ^jputteth not into their mouths, they even ^kprepare war against him: 6 Therefore it shall be ^lnight unto you, that ye shall have no vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the ^msun shall go down upon the prophets, and the day shall be black over them. 7 And the seers shall be ⁿput to shame, and the ^odiviners confounded; yea, they shall all ^pcover their lips; for there is ^qno answer of God. 8 But as for me, ^rI am full of power ^sby the Spirit of Jehovah, and of judgment, and of might, to ^tdeclare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye ^uheads of the house of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel, that ^vabhor justice, and pervert all equity. 10 They ^wbuild up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity. 11 The heads thereof judge for ^xreward, and the ^ypriests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money; yet they lean upon Jehovah, and say, ^zIs not Jehovah in the midst of us? no evil shall come upon us. 12 Therefore shall ^aZion for your sake be plowed as a field, and ^bJerusalem shall become ^cheaps, and the ^dmountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

4 ^eBut in the ^flatter days it shall come to pass, that the ^gmountain of Jehovah's house shall be established ^hon the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and ⁱpeoples shall flow unto it. 2 And ^jmany nations shall go and say,

The Peaceful Latter Days. Conflicts and Triumphs of Men. Reign of the Deliverer who comes from Bethlehem

*Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and *he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths. For *out of Zion shall go forth ¹the law, and the word of Jehovah from Jerusalem; 3 and he will *judge ²between ³many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. 4 But they shall *sit every man under his vine and under his fig-tree; and ¹none shall make them afraid: for the ²'mouth of Jehovah of hosts hath spoken it. 5 For all the peoples walk every one in the ³'name of his god; and we will walk in the name of 'Jehovah our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith Jehovah, will I ¹*assemble that which is ²'lame, and I will gather that which is driven away, and that which I have afflicted; 7 and I will make that which was lame a ³'remnant, and that which was cast far off a ⁴'strong nation: and *Jehovah will reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth even for ever. 8 And thou, O ⁵'tower of ⁶'the ⁷'flock, ⁸'the hill of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, yea, the ⁹'former dominion shall come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why dost thou ¹'cry out aloud? Is there no king in thee, is thy ²'counsellor perished, that pangs have taken hold of thee as of a woman in travail? 10 ³'Be in pain, and labor to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; for now shalt thou ⁴'go forth out of the city, and shalt dwell in the field, and shalt come even unto Babylon: ⁵'there shalt thou be rescued; ⁶'there will Jehovah redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies. 11 And now ⁷'many nations are assembled against thee, that say, Let her be ⁸'defiled, and let our eye ⁹'see our ¹⁰'desire upon Zion. 12 But they ¹¹'know not the thoughts of Jehovah, neither understand they his counsel; for he hath gathered them as the sheaves to the threshing-floor. 13 Arise and ¹'thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make thy horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt ²'beat in pieces many peoples: and I will ³'devote their gain unto Jehovah, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole ⁴'earth. 1 Now shalt thou ⁵'gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us; they shall ⁶'smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

*2 But ¹'thou, Beth-lehem ²'Ephrathah, which art little to be among the ³'thousands of Judah, out of ⁴'thee shall one come forth unto me that is to be ⁵'ruler in Israel; whose goings forth are ⁶'from of old, ⁷'from everlasting. 3 Therefore will he ⁸'give them up, until the time that she who ⁹'travaileth hath brought forth: then the ¹⁰'residue of his brethren shall return ¹¹'unto the children of Israel. 4 And he shall stand, and shall ¹²'feed his ¹³'flock in the strength of Jehovah, in the majesty of the name of Jehovah his God: and they shall abide; for now shall he be great unto the ¹⁴'ends of the earth. 5 And ¹⁵'this man shall be ¹⁶'our peace. When the ¹⁷'Assyrian shall come into our land, and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven ¹⁸'shepherds, and eight ¹⁹'principal men. 6 And they shall ²⁰'waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of ²¹'Nimrod in the entrances thereof; and he shall ²²'deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our border. 7 And the ²³'remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples as ²⁴'dew from Jehovah, as ²⁵'showers upon the grass, that tarry not for man, nor wait for the sons of men. 8 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, ²⁶'as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he go through, ²⁷'treadeth down and

'teareth in pieces, and there is none to deliver. 9 Let thy hand be lifted up above thine adversaries, and let all thine enemies be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith Jehovah, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and will destroy thy chariots: 11 and I will cut off the cities of thy land, and will throw down all thy strongholds. 12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thy hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers: 13 and I will cut off thy graven images and thy pillars out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thy hands; 14 and I will pluck up thine Asherim out of the midst of thee; and I will destroy thy cities. 15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath upon the nations which hearkened not.

6 Hear ye now what Jehovah saith: Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice. 2 Hear, O ye mountains, Jehovah's controversy, and ye enduring foundations of the earth; for Jehovah hath a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel. 3 O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me. 4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of bondage; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. 5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him; remember from Shittim unto Gilgal, that ye may know the righteous acts of Jehovah.

6 Wherewith shall I come before Jehovah, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt-offerings, with calves a year old? 7 will Jehovah be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? 8 He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth Jehovah require of thee, but to do justly, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with thy God?

9 The voice of Jehovah crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom will see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it. 10 Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and a scant measure that is abominable? 11 Shall I be pure with wicked balances, and with a bag of deceitful weights? 12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth. 13 Therefore I also have smitten thee with a grievous wound; I have made thee desolate because of thy sins. 14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy humiliation shall be in the midst of thee: and thou shalt put away, but shalt not save; and that which thou savest will I give up to the sword. 15 Thou shalt sow, but shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but shalt not anoint thee with oil; and the vintage, but shalt not drink the wine. 16 For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I may make thee desolation, and the inhabitants thereof a hissing: and ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

7 Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat; my soul desireth the first-ripe fig. 2 The godly man is perished out of the earth, and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net. 3 Their hands are upon that which is evil to do it diligently; the prince asketh, and the judge is ready for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth the evil

THE BOOK OF NAHUM

Goodness and Severity of Jehovah. The Overthrow of Nineveh decreed

1 The ¹burden of ²Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

² Jehovah is a jealous God and avengeth; Jehovah ⁴avengeth and is full of wrath; Jehovah taketh vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies. ³ Jehovah is ¹slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means clear the guilty: Jehovah hath his way in the ²whirlwind and in the storm, and the ³clouds are the dust of his feet. ⁴ He ¹rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: ²Bashan languisheth, and Carmel; and the flower of Lebanon languisheth. ⁵ The mountains ¹quake at him, and the hills ²melt; and the earth is ³upheaved at his presence, yea, the ⁴world, and all that dwell therein. ⁶ Who can stand before his ¹indignation? and who can abide in the ²fierceness of his anger? his ³wrath is poured out like fire, and the ⁴rocks are broken asunder by him. ⁷ Jehovah is ¹good, a ²stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that take refuge in him. ⁸ But with an ¹over-running flood he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into ²darkness.

Stand, stand, they cry; but ^anone ¹looketh back. 9 ^bTake ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold; for there is no end of the store, the ²glory of all goodly furniture. 10 She is ^cempty, and void, and waste; and the ^dheart melteth, and the knees smite together, and anguish is in all loins, and the ^efaces of them all are waxed pale. 11 Where is the ^fden of the lions, and the feeding-place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid? 12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and ^gfilled his caves with prey, and his dens with ravin. 13 Behold, ^hI am against thee, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I will ⁱburn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions; and I will ^jcut off thy prey from the earth, and the ^kvoice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

THE BOOK OF HABAKKUK

The Chaldeans raised up to punish Judah's Sins. Habakkuk's Remonstrance. Jehovah's Reply

1 The ^{1a}burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O Jehovah, ²how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear? I cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt ²not save. 3 Why dost thou show me ^ainiquity, and ²look upon perverseness for ^adestruction and violence are before me; and there is ^astrife, and contention riseth up. 4 Therefore the ^alaw is slackened, and justice ³doth never go forth; for the wicked doth ^acompass about the righteous; therefore justice goeth forth ^aperverted.

5 Behold ye ^aamong the nations, and look, and ^mwonder marvelously; for ^aI am working ^awork in your days, which ye will not believe though it be told you. 6 For, lo, I ^araise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the breadth of the earth, to ^apossess dwelling-places that are not theirs. 7 ^bThey are ^aterrible and dreadful; their ^ajudgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. 8 Their ^ahorses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the ^aevening wolves; and their horsemen ^apress proudly on; yea, their horsemen come from far; they fly as an ^aeagle that hasteth to devour. 9 They come all of them for violence; ^athe ^aset of their faces is ^aforwards; and they ^agather captives as the sand. 10 ^aYea, he ^ascoffeth at kings, and princes are a derision upon him; he ^aderideth every stronghold; for he ^aheapeth up dust, and taketh it. 11 ¹⁰Then shall he sweep by as a ^awind, and shall ¹¹pass over, and be ^aguilty, even he whose ^amight is his god.

Woe pronounced on the Chaldeans. God's Deliverance of his Ancient People

*keepeth not at home; who ^benlargeth his desire ^cas Sheol, and he is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but ^dgathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all peoples. 6 Shall not all these ^etake up a parable against him, and a taunting ^fproverb against him, and say, ^gWoe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and that ladeth himself with ^hpledges! 7 Shall they not ⁱrise up suddenly that shall ^jbite thee, and awake that shall ^kvex thee, and thou shalt be for booty unto them? 8 Because thou hast ^lplundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples shall plunder thee, ^mbecause of men's blood, and for the ⁿviolence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.

9 Woe to him that getteth an ^oevil gain for his house, that he may ^pset his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! 10 Thou hast devised ^qshame to thy house, by cutting off many peoples, and hast ^rsinned against thy soul. 11 For the ^sstone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 Woe to him that ^tbuildeth a town with blood, and establisheth a city by iniquity! 13 Behold, is it not of Jehovah of hosts that the peoples ^ulabor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for ^vvanity? 14 For the earth shall be ^wfilled with the knowledge of the glory of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea.

15 Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor ^xdrink, to thee that ^yaddest thy ^zvenom, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness! 16 Thou art filled with ^{aa}shame, and not glory: ^{ab}drink thou also, and ^{ac}be as one uncircumcised; the ^{ad}cup of Jehovah's right hand shall come round unto thee, and ^{ae}foul shame shall be upon thy glory. 17 For the ^{af}violence done to Lebanon shall cover thee, and the destruction of the beasts, which made them afraid; ^{ag}because of men's blood, and for the ^{ah}violence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.

God's Deliverance of his Ancient People. The Prophet's Strong Confidence in God

- Was thine anger against the rivers,
Or thy wrath against the sea,
That thou didst ride upon thy horses,
Upon thy chariots of salvation?
- 9 Thy bow was made quite bare;
The oaths to the tribes were a sure word. [Selah]
Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.
- 10 The mountains saw thee, and were afraid;
The tempest of waters passed by;
The deep uttered its voice,
And lifted up its hands on high.
- 11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation,
At the light of thine arrows as they went,
At the shining of thy glittering spear.
- 12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation;
Thou didst thresh the nations in anger.
- 13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people,
For the salvation of thine anointed;
Thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked man, Laying bare the foundation even unto the neck. [Selah]
- 14 Thou didst pierce with his own staves the head of his warriors:

THE BOOK OF ZEPHANIAH

Jehovah's Day of Wrath coming upon Judah. The People warned to seek Jehovah

1 The word of Jehovah which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of ^aJosiah the son of ^bAmon, king of Judah.

2 I will utterly ^cconsume all things from off the face of the ground, saith Jehovah. 3 I will consume ^dman and beast; I will consume the ^ebirds of the heavens, and the fishes of the sea, and the ^fstumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the face of the ground, saith Jehovah.

4 And I will ^gstretch out my hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will ^hcut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the ⁱChemarim with the priests; 5 and them that worship the ^khost of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship, that ^lswear to Jehovah and swear by ^mMalcam; 6 and them that are ⁿturned back from following Jehovah; and those that have ^onot sought Jehovah, nor inquired after him.

7 ^pHold thy peace at the presence of the Lord Jehovah; for the ^qday of Jehovah is at hand; for Jehovah hath prepared a ^rsacrifice, he hath ^sconsecrated his guests. 8 And it shall come to pass in the day of Jehovah's sacrifice, that I will ^tpunish the princes, and the king's sons, and all such as are clothed with ^uforeign apparel. 9 And in that day I will ^vpunish all those that leap over the threshold, that fill their master's house with ^wviolence and deceit. 10 And in that day, saith Jehovah, there shall be the noise of a ^xcry from the ^yfish gate, and a wailing from the ^zsecond quarter, and a great crashing from the ^{aa}hills. 11 Wail, ye inhabitants of ^{ab}Maktesh; for all

1 In the ^asecond year of Darius the king, in the ^bsixth month, in the ^cfirst day of the month, came the word of Jehovah by ^dHaggai the prophet unto ^eZerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, ^fgovernor of Judah, and to ^gJoshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, 2 Thus speaketh Jehovah of hosts, saying, This people say, ¹It is not the time for us to come, the time for Jehovah's house to be built. 3 Then came the word of Jehovah by Haggai the prophet, saying, 4 Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your ceiled ^ahouses, while this house ^blieth waste? 5 Now therefore thus saith Jehovah of hosts: ²Consider your ways. 6 Ye have ^asown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: ²Consider your ways. 8 Go up to the ^amountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will ^mtake pleasure in it, and I will be ⁿglorified, saith Jehovah. 9 Ye ^olooked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did ^pblow upon it. Why? saith Jehovah of hosts. Because of my house that ^qlieth waste, while ye run every man to his own house. 10 Therefore ^rfor your sake the ^sheavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholdeth its fruit. 11 And I called for a ^tdrought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the grain, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon ^umen, and upon cattle, and upon ^vall the labor of the hands.

And they answered the angel of Jehovah that ^astood among the myrtle-trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, ^aall the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 Then the angel of Jehovah answered and said, O Jehovah of hosts, ^ahow long wilt thou not ^ahave mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had ^aindignation these ^athreescore and ten years? 13 And Jehovah answered the ^aangel that talked with me with good words, ^aeven ^acomfortable words. 14 So the angel that talked with me said unto me, ^aCry thou, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: I am ^ajealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. 15 And I am very ^asore displeased with the nations that are ^aat ease; for I was but a little displeased, and they ^ahelped forward the affliction. 16 Therefore thus saith Jehovah: I am ^areturned to Jerusalem with mercies; my ^ahouse shall be built in it, saith Jehovah of hosts, and a ^aline shall be stretched forth over Jerusalem. 17 Cry yet again, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: My ^acities ^ashall yet overflow with prosperity; and Jehovah shall yet ^acomfort Zion, and shall yet ^achoose Jerusalem.

* 18 And I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, four horns. 19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these? And he answered me, These are the ^ahorns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem. 20 And Jehovah showed me four

*2 And I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand. 2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof. 3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, 4 and said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem shall be inhabited as villages without walls, by reason of the multitude of men and cattle therein. 5 For I, saith Jehovah, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and I will be the glory in the midst of her.

6 Ho, ho, flee from the land of the north, saith Jehovah; for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heavens, saith Jehovah. 7 Ho Zion, escape, thou that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon. 8 For thus saith Jehovah of hosts: After glory hath he sent me unto the nations which plundered you; for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. 9 For, behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they shall be a spoil to those that served them; and ye shall know that Jehovah of hosts hath sent me. 10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion; for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith Jehovah. 11 And many nations shall join themselves to Jehovah in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that Jehovah of hosts hath sent me unto thee. 12 And Jehovah shall inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and shall yet choose Jerusalem. 13 Be silent, all flesh, before Jehovah; for he is waked up out of his holy habitation.

And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with rich apparel. 5 And I said, Let them set a clean mitre upon his head. So they set a clean mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments; and the angel of Jehovah was standing by.

6 And the angel of Jehovah testified unto Joshua, saying, 7 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou also shalt judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee a place of access among these that stand by. 8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee; for they are men that are a sign: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant the Branch. 9 For, behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; upon one stone are seven eyes; behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. 10 In that day, saith Jehovah of hosts, shall ye invite every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig-tree.

4 And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep. 2 And he said unto me, 'What seest thou? And I said, I have seen, and, behold, a candlestick all of gold, with its bowl upon the top of it, and its seven lamps thereon; the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was ^adesolate after them, so that ^bno man passed through nor returned: for they ^claid the ^dpleasant land desolate.

The Coming Peace and Prosperity of Zion. Truth and Righteousness enjoined. Other Nations shall seek Jehovah

8 And the word of Jehovah of hosts came to me, saying, 2 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: I am ^ajealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath. 3 Thus saith Jehovah: I am ^areturned unto Zion, and will ^bdwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called The city of ^ctruth; and the mountain of Jehovah of hosts, The ^dholy mountain. 4 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: There shall yet ^eold men and old women ^fdwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand ^gfor very age. 5 And the streets of the city shall be full of ^hboys and girls playing in the streets thereof. 6 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: If it be ⁱmarvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvellous in ^jmine eyes? saith Jehovah of hosts. 7 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Behold, I will save my people from the ^keast country, and from the west country; 8 and I will ^lbring them, and they shall ^mdwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be ⁿmy people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Let your hands be ^astrong, ye that hear in these days these words from the mouth of the ^bprophets that were in the day that the foundation of the house of Jehovah of hosts was laid, even the temple. that it might be built. 10 For before those days there was ^cno hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there ^dany peace to him that went out or came in, because of the adversary: for ^eI set all men every one against his neighbor. 11 But now I will ^fnot be unto the remnant of this people as in the former days, saith Jehovah of hosts. 12 For ^gthere shall be the ^hseed of peace; the vine shall give its fruit, and the ground shall give its increase, and the heavens shall give their ⁱdew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit ^aall these things. 13 And it shall come to pass that, as ye were a ^bcurse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and ye shall be a ^cblessing. Fear not, but let your ^dhands be strong.

14 For thus saith Jehovah of hosts: As I ^athought to do evil unto you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I ^brepented not; 15 so again have I thought in these days to ^cdo good unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: ^dfear ye not. 16 These are the things that ye shall do: Speak ye every man the ^etruth with his neighbor; ^fexecute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates; 17 and let none of you ^gdevise evil in your hearts against his neighbor; and love no ^hfalse oath: for all these are things that I ⁱhate, saith Jehovah.

18 And the word of Jehovah of hosts came unto me, saying, 19 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: The ^afast of the ^bfourth month, and the fast of the ^cfifth, and the fast of the ^dseventh, and the fast of the ^etenth, shall be to the house of Judah ^fjoy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore ^glove truth and peace. 20 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come ^apeoples, and the inhabitants of ^bmany cities; 21 and the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to ^centreat the favor of Jehovah, and to seek Jehovah of hosts: I will go also. 22 Yea, ^dmany peoples and strong nations shall come to seek Jehovah of hosts in Jerusalem, and to ^eentreat the favor of Jehovah. 23 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall ^atake hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.

the hand of his king; and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will ¹not deliver them. 7 So I ²fed the flock of slaughter, verily ³the ⁴poor of the flock. And I took unto me ⁵two staves: the one I called ⁶"Beauty, and the other I called ⁷"Bands; and I fed the flock. 8 And I cut off the three shepherds in ⁹one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me. 9 Then said I, I will not feed you; that which ¹⁰dieth, let it die; and ¹¹that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let them that are left eat every one the flesh of another. 10 And I took my staff ¹¹"Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might ¹²break my covenant which I had made with all the peoples. 11 And it was broken in that day; and ¹³thus ¹⁴the ¹⁵"poor of the flock that gave heed unto me knew that it was the word of Jehovah. 12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my ¹⁶hire; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my hire ¹⁷"thirty pieces of silver. 13 And Jehovah said unto me, Cast it unto the ¹⁸"potter, the goodly price that I was prized at by them. And I took the thirty ¹⁹pieces of silver, and cast them unto the potter, in the house of Jehovah. 14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even ²⁰"Bands, that I might ²¹break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And Jehovah said unto me, Take unto thee yet again the instruments of a ¹foolish shepherd. 16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will ²not visit those that are ³cut off, neither will seek ⁴those that are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which ⁵is sound; but he will ⁶eat the flesh of the fat ⁷sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces. 17 ⁸Woe to the worthless shepherd that leaveth the flock! the ⁹"sword shall be upon his ¹⁰arm, and upon his right ¹¹eye; his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

The Coming Night of Judah. Jerusalem's Repentance. Her Purification. Jehovah's Shepherd smitten

12 The ¹burden of the word of Jehovah concerning Israel.

Thus saith Jehovah, who stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him: 2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling unto all the peoples round about, and upon ²Judah also shall it be in the siege against Jerusalem. 3 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples; all that burden themselves with it shall be sore wounded; and all the nations of the earth shall be gathered together against it. 4 In that day, saith Jehovah, I will smite every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the peoples with blindness. 5 And the chieftains of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in Jehovah of hosts their God. 6 In that day will I make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they shall devour all the peoples round about, on the right hand and on the left; and they of Jerusalem shall yet again dwell in their own place, even in Jerusalem. 7 Jehovah also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem be not magnified above Judah. 8 In that day shall Jehovah defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of Jehovah before them. 9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they shall look unto me whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born. 11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. 12 And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; 13 the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; 14 all the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

13 In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. 2 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith Jehovah of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. 3 And it shall come to pass that, when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of Jehovah; and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth. 4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he prophesieth; neither shall they wear a hairy mantle to deceive: 5 but he shall say, I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground: for I have been made a bondman from my youth. 6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds between thine arms? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith Jehovah of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn my hand upon the little ones. 8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith Jehovah, ^atwo parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein. 9 And I will bring the third part into the ^afire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried. They shall ^ahear them: I will say, It is ^amy people; and they shall say, Jehovah is my God.

14 Behold, a ^aday of Jehovah cometh, when thy ^aspoil shall be divided in the midst of thee. 2 For I will ^agather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the ^ahouses rifed, and the women ravished; and ^ahalf of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. 3 Then shall Jehovah go forth, and ^afight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. 4 And his feet shall ^astand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the mount of Olives shall be ^acleft in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and ^athere shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south. 5 And ^aye shall flee ^aby the valley of ^amy mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azel; yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the ^aearthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah; and ^aJehovah my God shall come, and all the holy ones with thee. 6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that ^athere shall ^anot be light; the bright ones shall withdraw themselves: 7 but it shall be ^aone day which is ^aknown unto Jehovah; not day, and not night; but it shall come to pass, that at ^aevening time there shall be light. 8 And it shall come to pass in that day, that ^aliving waters shall go out from Jerusalem: half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And Jehovah shall be ^aKing over all the earth: in that day shall Jehovah be ^aone, and his name one. 10 All the land shall be made like the Arabah, from ^aGeba to ^aRimmon south of Jerusalem; and she shall be ^alifted up, and shall ^adwell in her place, from ^aBenjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the ^acorner gate, and from the ^atower of Hananel unto the king's winepresses. 11 And men shall ^adwell therein, and there shall be ^ano more ^acurse; but Jerusalem shall ^adwell safely.

12 And this shall be the plague wherewith Jehovah will smite all the peoples that have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh shall ^aconsume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their sockets, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth. 13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great ^atumult from Jehovah shall be among them; and they shall ^alay hold every one on the hand of his neighbor, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbor. 14 And ^aJudah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the ^awealth of all the nations round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance. 15 And so shall be the ^aplague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in those camps, as that plague.

16 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem shall ^ago up from year to year to worship the ^aKing, Jehovah of hosts, and to keep the ^afeast of tabernacles. 17 And it shall be, that whoso of ^aall the families of the earth goeth not up unto Jerusalem to worship the ^aKing, Jehovah of hosts, upon them there shall be ^ano rain. 18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, neither shall it be upon them; there shall be the ^aplague wherewith Jehovah will smite the nations that go not up to keep the feast of tabernacles. 19 This shall be the ^apunishment of Egypt, and the ^apunishment of all the nations that go not up to keep the feast of tabernacles. 20 In that

Jehovah's Love of Jacob. Impious Priests rebuked

1 The ^{1a}burden of the word of Jehovah to Israel by ²Malachi.

2 I have ^bloved you, saith Jehovah. Yet ye say, ^cWherein hast thou loved us? ³Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith Jehovah: yet I ^dloved Jacob: ³but Esau I hated, and ^emade his mountains a desolation, and ^fgave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness. ⁴Whereas Edom saith, We are ^gbeaten down, but we will ^hreturn and build the waste places; thus saith Jehovah of hosts, They shall ⁱbuild, but I will throw down; and men shall call them The border of wickedness, and The people against whom Jehovah hath indignation ^jfor ever. ⁵And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, Jehovah ^kbe ^lmagnified ^mbeyond the border of Israel.

6 A son ⁿhonoreth his father, and a servant his master: if then I am a ^ofather, where is mine honor? and if I am a master, where is my ^pfear? saith Jehovah of hosts unto you, O ^qpriests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name? ^r7 Ye offer ^spolluted ^tbread upon mine altar. And ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The ^utable of Jehovah is contemptible. ⁸And when ye offer the ^vblind for sacrifice, it is no evil! and when ye offer the lame and sick, it is no evil! Present it now unto thy governor: will he be pleased with thee? or will he accept thy person? saith Jehovah of hosts. ⁹And now, I pray you, ^wentreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious unto us: this hath been ^xby your means: will he ^yaccept any of your persons? saith Jeho-

"covenant may be with Levi, saith Jehovah of hosts. 5 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might fear; and he feared me, and stood in awe of my name. 6 The "law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips; he walked "with me in peace and uprightness, and "turned many away from iniquity. 7 For the priest's lips should keep "knowledge, and they should "seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of Jehovah of hosts. 8 But ye are "turned aside out of the way; ye have caused many to "stumble in the law; ye have "corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith Jehovah of hosts. 9 Therefore have I also made you "contemptible and "base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have had "respect of persons in the law.

10 Have we not all "one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal "treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the "covenant of our fathers? 11 Judah hath dealt "treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath "profaned the holiness of Jehovah which he loveth, and hath married the daughter of a foreign god. 12 "Jehovah will cut off, to the man that doeth this, him that waketh and him that answereth, out of the tents of Jacob, and him that "offereth an offering unto Jehovah of hosts. 13 And this "again ye do: ye cover the altar of Jehovah with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, insomuch that he "regardeth not the offering any more, neither receiveth it with good will at your hand. 14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because Jehovah hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt "treacherously, though she is thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. 15 "And did he not "make one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? And wherefore one? He sought a "godly seed. Therefore take heed to your

THIS edition of the Revised New Testament of 1881 embodies a purpose entertained by many members of the American Revision Committee almost from the publication of the work. The list of passages in which the New Testament Company dissented from the decisions of their English associates, when it was transmitted to them, bore the heading, "The American New Testament Revision Company, having in many cases yielded their preference for certain readings and renderings, present the following instances in which they differ from the English Company, as in their view of sufficient importance to be appended to the revision, in accordance with an understanding between the Companies."

The knowledge of the existence of these suppressed deviations naturally stirred a desire that they should be made accessible to at least the American public. This desire, especially on the part of those whose generous interest in the work from its inception had enabled the American revisers to meet the pecuniary outlay its preparation involved, they were not unwilling to gratify. The obligation they felt, however, to guard as far as they might the purity and integrity of the version, led them to pledge their support for fourteen years to the editions issued by the University Presses of Oxford and Cambridge. But the reiterated suggestion to those Presses to publish an edition especially for American readers not having met with favor, they acceded to the overtures of the Messrs. Nelson and engaged in preparing gratuitously the desired edition, to be issued when the expiration of the period specified should open the way for its honorable publication. The publishers, on their part, agreed to protect the version in its integrity, and to sell the book at a price not exceeding a fair profit on its cost.

In the preparation of this edition no attempt has been made to preserve a full record of the other readings and renderings than those that appeared in the work as published in 1881 which were preferred by the American revisers. The Appendix of that edition, however, was not only hastily compiled under pressure from the University Presses, but its necessarily limited compass compelled, as the original heading intimated, the exclusion of many suggestions that the American Company held to be of interest and importance. These, amounting in the aggregate to a considerable number, have been incorporated in the present edition. The opportunity has been taken also to introduce not a few alterations, individually of slight importance, yet as a body contributing decidedly to the perfection of the work. But the survivors of the New Testament Company have not felt at liberty to make new changes of moment which were not favorably passed upon by their associates at one stage or another of the original preparation of the work.

Respecting details, but little need be added to the ample statements made in the Preface prefixed to the work on its first appearance.

In the delicate matter of rendering the names of the several coins that occur in the New Testament, we have departed somewhat from our English brethren. For the Greek λεπτόν the term "mite" has been retained, and for κοδράντης the rendering "farthing" (see Mk. xii. 42). But ἀσσάριον has been translated "penny" (Matt. x. 29; Lk. xii. 6); while in thirteen out of the sixteen instances where in the edition of 1881 the Greek δηνάριον was represented by this English word, the term "shilling" has been substituted, not only as corresponding more nearly to the coin's relative value, but also because "penny," according to its modern use, is in some cases highly inappropriate (see Matt. xx. 2; Lk. x. 35; Rev. vi. 6). In the three remaining instances (Matt. xxii. 19; Mk. xii. 15; Lk. xx. 24), the Greek name of the coin has been introduced, in order to meet the obvious requirement of the context. Where the English value of coins is given in the margin, we have added the equivalents in our national currency; but in the case of the talent (Matt. xviii. 24) what is believed to be a more accurate valuation has been given.

In formal particulars, this new edition will show but slight and infrequent deviations from its predecessor. The division of the text into paragraphs in that edition has not been often departed from; and then chiefly in cases where the same matter is found in more than one of the Gospels, and hence uniformity of division seemed desirable. Further, in the Epistles and the Revelation the more decided transitions to a new topic have been indicated by leaving a line blank. The somewhat ponderous and peculiar system of punctuation of the original edition has been in the main adhered to; although, pursuant to the principle there followed, a comma has here and there been dropped which seemed likely to obstruct the reader, and the gradations of thought have been occasionally indicated more distinctly by substituting a semicolon for the overworked colon. The titles of the books, which in the former edition were given as printed in 1611, have been somewhat abbreviated, at the dictate of convenience, and agreeably to usage, ancient as well as modern. They have been altered only in the few instances where the former heading was erroneous (as in the case of the Epistle to the Hebrews), or apt to mislead (as in the case of the Book of Acts), or hardly intelligible to the ordinary reader (as the "General" in the heading of some of the shorter Epistles), or founded in a misapprehension (as in the case of "Saint" prefixed to the names of the Evangelists). Moreover, the alternate title of the New Testament, and the mode of printing the headings of the Four Evangelists' narratives, are designed to recall to mind the inherent signification and primitive use of the terms "Testament" (compare Hebrews ix. 15 f.) and "Gospel." In the Book of Revelation, also, the "Glorias," "Trisagia," etc., have been marked typographically.

In dealing with the Language, the American revisers have endeavored to act with becoming deference and reserve. A few archaisms, such as "how that," "for to," "the which," "howbeit," etc., which are becoming uncouth to a modern ear, have been generally although not invariably discarded. Not a few of the instances of the superfluous use of "do" and "did" as auxiliaries, of "that" as equivalent to "that which," and the like, have also been removed; and current usage has been recognized in the case of forms which King James's revision employed indiscriminately, as "beside" and "besides" (see Luke xvi. 26; xxiv. 21). But in making these and other slight changes, the American editors have not forgotten that they were dealing with a venerable monument of English usage, and have been careful not to obliterate the traces of its historic origin and descent.

The two most obvious departures of this edition from that of 1881 consist in the addition of references to parallel and illustrative Biblical passages, and of running headings to indicate the contents of the pages.

The references have been selected in the main from a numerous collection provisionally attached to the text at one stage of the preparation of the original work, but withheld at the time of its publication. In selecting them, however, other similar collections and the better commentaries have not been neglected; but the aim has been to avoid multiplying them to such a degree as to embarrass or discourage a student. Accordingly, references which may be said to be of a hortatory or dogmatic character have been comparatively neglected, as belonging less to the study of Scripture than to its application, whether in the realm of thought or of life. On the other hand, prominence has been given to those which illustrate national customs, characteristic phrases, peculiarities of vocabulary or style, correspondences between different Biblical books, and the like. Some attempt has been made, also, to group references topically; as for example, in the case of Matthew's allusions to the "words" of Christ; of the "we" sections in Acts; of the use of "brethren" in addressing Christians on the one hand, and Jews on the other; of "Jews" as employed in a national and a hierarchical reference; and the like. In order further to lessen the number of "superiors" tending to distract a reader's eye, the different references belonging to a verse have often been consolidated, with the result occasionally that in the given group of passages one may illustrate one part of a verse, another another. References printed in italics designate parallel passages; in such cases the comprehensive reference is generally held to suffice for all details falling within the limits of the parallels, especially in the Gospels. In many cases, however, striking aphorisms, particularly when not found in all of the parallel narratives, have received a notation of their own. As the references constitute an apparatus mainly for Biblical study, and as their selection has been inevitably influenced somewhat by modern exegetical opinion, they have been separated from the citations and express allusions for which the sacred writer is responsible, by printing this latter class with Roman chapter-numerals and setting them at the foot of the page.

Notwithstanding the caution — as wise perhaps as prudent — which led the English Committee wholly to omit the headings of chapters and pages, and in spite of the disfavor which has been the fate of many attempts to furnish them from the days of Dr. Blayney, who, with four assistants, produced a set which speedily fell into neglect, it has been deemed best to equip the present edition with running headlines, which may serve in some sort instead of a detailed Table of Contents, and as landmarks to a reader familiar with the text. In preparing them it has been the constant aim to avoid as far as possible all pre-commitments, whether doctrinal or exegetical; and with this object in view, the forms of statement employed have been drawn in the main from the Biblical text. Often a fragmentary quotation which might serve as a catchword or reminder of a well-known passage has been deemed sufficient. The limitations of space have frequently compelled a partial selection from the contents of a given page, the continuation of a heading from one page to the next, or even the entry of the kernel of a statement on a page adjoining that on which it appears in the text. Slight displacement in such a case seemed preferable to total omission.

It is not superfluous to mention expressly the fact that in this edition the variant readings and renderings are placed at the foot of the pages, but in as close juxtaposition as possible with the passages to which they relate. The reader's attention is thereby drawn to the circumstance that some degree of uncertainty still cleaves, in the judgment of scholars, either to the text of the passage before him, or to its translation, or to both. Accordingly, when he remembers that, by the rule of procedure which the Committee followed, the translation of 1611 held its place in every instance until an alteration commanded the votes of two-thirds of the revisers, it will become evident to him that a rendering given in the margin may have commended itself to a majority, while still falling short of the degree of approval necessary to enable it to supplant the text. It is known that this was the case in a considerable number of instances, of which the established term "Comforter" as the appellation of the Holy Spirit in the fourteenth chapter of the Gospel of John is a notable representative.

The present volume, it is believed, will on the one hand bring a plain reader more closely into contact with the exact thought of the sacred writers than any version now current in Christendom, and on the other hand prove itself especially serviceable to students of the Word. In this belief the editors bid it anew God-speed, and in the realization of this desired result they will find their all-sufficient reward.

¹⁸ Now the ⁸ birth ⁹ of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When his ¹⁰ mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was ¹¹ found with child of the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹ And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. ²⁰ But when he thought on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is ¹⁰ conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. ²¹ And she shall bring forth a son; and ¹¹ thou shalt call his name JESUS; for it is he that ¹² shall save his people from their sins. ²² Now all this is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, ²³ ¹¹ Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, which is, being interpreted, God with us. ²⁴ And Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took unto him his wife; ²⁵ and knew her not till she had brought forth a son: and ¹³ he called his name JESUS.

¹⁶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the ¹ Wise-men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had exactly learned of the ¹ Wise-men. ¹⁷ Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

And she would not be comforted, because they are not.

¹⁹ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord ^j appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, ²⁰ Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead that sought the young child's life. ²¹ And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. ²² But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being ^k warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee, ²³ and came and dwelt in a city called ^l Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, ^m that he should be called a ⁿ Nazarene.

3 And ⁿ in those days cometh John the Baptist, preaching in ^o the wilderness of Judaea, saying, ² Repent ye; for ^p the kingdom of heaven is at hand. ³ For this is he that was spoken of through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

13 ^uThen cometh Jesus ^vfrom Galilee to the Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. 14 But John would have hindered him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? 15 But Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer ^wit now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffereth him. 16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway from the water: and lo, the heavens were opened ^xunto him, and ^yhe saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming upon him; 17 and lo, a voice out of the heavens, saying, ^zThis is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

4 ^aThen was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. 2 And when he had ^bfasted forty days and forty nights, he afterward hungered. 3 And ^cthe tempter came

Jesus calls the Four. The Sermon on the Mount. The Beatitudes. The Disciples and the World. Jesus comes

And to them that sat in the region and shadow of death, To them did light spring up.

17 From that time began Jesus to preach, and to say, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 And walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brethren, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you fishers of men. 20 And they straightway left the nets, and followed him. 21 And going on from thence he saw two other brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them. 22 And they straightway left the boat and their father, and followed him.

23 And Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people. 24 And the report of him went forth into all Syria: and they brought unto him all that were sick, holden with divers diseases and torments, possessed with demons, and epileptic, and palsied; and he healed them. 25 And there followed him great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judæa and from beyond the Jordan.

5 And seeing the multitudes, he went up into the mountain: and when he had sat down, his disciples came unto him: 2 and he opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God.

10 Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 11 Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. 12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets that were before you.

13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under foot of men. 14 Ye are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid. 15 Neither do men light a lamp, and put it under the bushel, but on the stand; and it shineth unto all that are in the house. 16 Even so let your light shine before men; that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

17 Think not that I came to destroy the law or the prophets: I came not to destroy, but to fulfil. 18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the law, till all things be accomplished. 19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.

thieves ^abreak through and steal: 20 but lay up for yourselves ^btreasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not ^cbreak through nor steal: 21 for ^dwhere thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also. 22 ^eThe lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. 23 But if ^fthine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness! 24 ^gNo man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and ^hmammon. 25 ⁱTherefore I say unto you, Be not ^janxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment? 26 ^kBehold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they? 27 And which of you by being ^lanxious can ^madd one cubit unto ⁿthe measure of his life? 28 And why are ye ^oanxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: 29 yet I say unto you, that even ^pSolomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 30 But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, ^qshall he not much more ^rclothe you, ^sO ye of little faith? 31 Be not therefore ^tanxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? 32 For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for ^uyour heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. 33 But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and ^vall these things shall be added unto you. 34 Be not therefore ^wanxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Of Judging Others. The Golden Rule. The Two Ways. The Two Foundations. The Commended Centurion

7 ^aJudge not, that ye be not judged. 2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and ^bwith what measure ye mete, it shall be measured unto you. 3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? 4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me cast out the mote out of thine eye; and lo, the beam is in thine own eye? 5 Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast your pearls before the swine, lest haply they trample them under their feet, and turn and rend you.

7 ^cAsk, and ^dit shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: 8 for every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. 9 Or what man is there of you, who, if his son shall ask him for a loaf, will give him a stone; 10 or if he shall ask for a fish, will give him a serpent? 11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? 12 ^eAll things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them: for ^fthis is the law and the prophets.

13 ^gEnter ye in by the narrow gate: for wide ^his the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many are they that enter in thereby. 14 ⁱFor narrow is the gate, and straitened the way, that leadeth unto life, and few are they that find it.

15 Beware of ^jfalse prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ^kravens wolves. 16 ^lBy their fruits ye shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? 17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but the corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt

23 And when he was entered into a boat, his disciples followed him. 24 And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, inasmuch that the boat was covered with the waves: but he was asleep. 25 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Save, Lord; we perish. 26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. 27 And the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?

28 And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gadarenes, there met him two ²⁹possessed with demons, coming forth out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man could pass by that way. 29 And behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time? 30 Now there was afar off from them a herd of many swine feeding. 31 And the demons besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, send us away into the herd of swine. 32 And he said unto them, Go. And they came out, and went into the swine: and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep into the sea, and perished in the waters. 33 And they that fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, and what was befallen to them that were ³⁴possessed with demons. 34 And behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart from their borders.

9 And he entered into a boat, and crossed over, and came into his own city. 2 And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy, ³Son, be of good cheer; thy sins are forgiven. 3 And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. 4 And Jesus ⁵knowing their thoughts

10 "And he called unto him his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to "heal all manner of disease and all manner of sickness.

rows sold for a penny? and not one of them shall fall on the ground without your Father: 30 but the very hairs of your head are all numbered. 31 Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows. 32 Every one therefore who shall confess me before men, him will I also confess before my Father who is in heaven. 33 But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven. 34 Think not that I came to send peace on the earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. 35 For I came to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law: 36 and a man's foes shall be they of his own household. 37 He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. 38 And he that doth not take his cross and follow after me, is not worthy of me. 39 He that findeth his life shall lose it; and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

40 He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. 41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward: and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. 42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you he shall in no wise lose his reward.

11 And it came to pass when Jesus had finished commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and preach in their cities.

2 Now when John heard in the prison the works of the Christ, he sent by his disciples 3 and said unto him, Art thou he that cometh, or look we for another? 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and tell John the things which ye hear and see: 5 the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good tidings preached to them. 6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall find no occasion of stumbling in me.

7 And as these went their way, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken with the wind? 8 But what went ye out to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft raiment are in kings' houses. 9 But wherefore went ye out to see a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. 10 This is he, of whom it is written,

Who shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not arisen a greater than John the Baptist: yet he that is but little in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. 12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and men of violence take it by force. 13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. 14 And if ye are willing to receive it, this is Elijah, that is to come. 15 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. 16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the marketplaces, who call unto their fellows 17 and say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not mourn. 18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a demon. 19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a gluttonous man and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! And wisdom is justified by her works.

36 And I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in ^athe day of judgment. 37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, Teacher, ^awe would see a sign from thee. 39 But he answered and said unto them, ^aAn evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of ^aJonah the prophet: 40 for as ^aJonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the ^awhale; so shall ^athe Son of man be ^athree days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 ^aThe men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for ^athey repented at the preaching of ^aJonah; and behold, ^aa greater than ^aJonah is here. 42 ^aThe queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, ^aa greater than Solomon is here. 43 ^aBut the unclean spirit, when ^ahe is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest, and findeth it not. 44 Then ^ahe saith, I will return into my house whence I came out; and when ^ahe is come, ^ahe findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. 45 Then goeth ^ahe, and taketh with ^ahimself seven other spirits more evil than ^ahimself, and they enter in and dwell there: and ^athe last state of that man cometh worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this evil generation.

46 ^aWhile he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his ^amother and his ^abrethren stood without, seeking to speak to him. 47 ^aAnd one said unto him, Behold, thy ^amother and thy ^abrethren stand without, seeking to speak to thee. 48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? 49 And he stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, and said, Behold, my mother and my brethren! 50 For whosoever shall do the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

13 On that day went Jesus out of ^athe house, and sat ^bby the sea side. 2 And there were gathered unto him great multitudes, so that ^che entered into a boat, and sat; and all the multitude stood on the beach. 3 And he spake to them many things in ^dparables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sow; 4 and as he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them: 5 and others fell upon the rocky places, where they had not much earth: and straightway they sprang up, because they had no deepness of earth: 6 and when the sun was risen, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. 7 And others fell upon the thorns; and the thorns grew up and choked them: 8 and others fell upon the good ground, and yielded fruit, some a ^ehundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. 9 ^fHe that hath ears¹, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? 11 And he answered and said unto them, ^gUnto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. 12 ^hFor whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have abundance; ⁱbut whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath. 13 Therefore speak I to them in parables; because ^jseeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. 14 And unto them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which saith,

^kBy hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand; And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, And their ears are dull of hearing, And their eyes have closed;

Lest haply they should perceive with their eyes, And hear with their ears, And understand with their heart, And should turn again, And I should heal them.

16 ^zBut blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. 17 For verily I say unto you, that ^{aa}many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not. 18 ^{ab}Hear then ye the parable of the sower. 19 When any one heareth ^{ac}the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, ^{ad}then cometh ^{ae}the evil one, and snatcheth away that which hath been sown in his heart. This is he that was sown by the way side. 20 And he that was sown upon the rocky places, this is he that heareth the word, and straightway with joy receiveth it; 21 yet hath he not root in himself, but endureth for a while; and when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway he ^{af}stumbleth. 22 And he that was sown among the thorns, this is he that heareth the word; and the care of ^{ag}the ^{ah}world, and the ^{ai}deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. 23 And he that was sown upon the good ground, this is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; who verily beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some ^{aj}a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 Another parable set he before them, saying, ^{ak}The kingdom of heaven is likened unto ^{al}a man that sowed good seed in his field: 25 but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed ^{am}tares also among the wheat, and went away. 26 But when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. 27 And the ^{an}servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it tares? 28 And he said unto them, ^{ao}An enemy hath done this. And the ^{ap}servants say unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? 29 But he saith, Nay; lest haply while ye gather up the tares, ye root up the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but "gather the wheat into my barn.

31 Another parable set he before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like unto "a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: 32 which indeed is less than all seeds; but when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becometh a tree, so that "the birds of the heaven come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 Another parable spake he unto them; "The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in "three ¹measures of meal, till it was all leavened:

34 All these things spake Jesus in parables unto the multitudes; and "without a parable spake he nothing unto them: 35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

I will utter things hidden from the foundation ³of the world.

36 Then he left the multitudes, and went into "the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, "Explain unto us the parable of the tares of the field. 37 And he answered and said, He that soweth the good seed is "the Son of man; 38 and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are "the sons of the kingdom; and the tares are "the sons of "the evil one; 39 and the enemy that sowed them is the devil: and the harvest is "the end of the world; and the reapers are angels. 40 As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned with fire; so shall it be in the "end of the world. 41 "The Son of man "shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and them that do iniquity, 42 and "shall cast them into the furnace of fire: "there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. 43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. "He that hath ears, let him hear.

44 "The kingdom of heaven is like unto a treasure hidden in the field; which a man found, and hid; and "in his joy he goeth and "selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 Again, "the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a merchant seeking goodly pearls: 46 and having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 Again, "the kingdom of heaven is like unto a "net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: 48 which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach; and they sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but the bad they cast away. 49 So shall it be in "the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the righteous, 50 and "shall cast them into the furnace of fire: "there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.

51 Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea. 52 And he said unto them, Therefore every scribe who hath been made a disciple to the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, who bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 "And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 "And coming into his own country he "taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that "they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these "mighty works? 55 Is not this the carpenter's son? is not "his mother called Mary? and his "brethren, "James, and Joseph, and Simon, and Judas? 56 And "his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things? 57 And they were "offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, "A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country, and in his own house. 58 And he did not many "mighty

tude to sit down on the ground; 36 and he took the seven loaves and the fishes; and he gave thanks and brake, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. 37 And they all ate, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, seven baskets full. 38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, besides women and children. 39 And he sent away the multitudes, and entered into the boat, and came into the borders of Magadan.

16 And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and trying him asked him to show them a sign from heaven. 2 But he answered and said unto them, ^{1a} When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the heaven is red. 3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day: for the heaven is red and lowering. Ye know how to discern the face of the heaven; but ye cannot discern the signs of the times. 4 An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of Jonah. And he left them, and departed.

5 And the disciples came to the other side and forgot to take bread. 6 And Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, We took no bread. 8 And Jesus perceiving it said, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have no bread? 9 Do ye not yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? 10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? 11 How is it that ye do not perceive that I spake not to you concerning bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 12 Then understood they that he bade them not beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

21 From that time began Jesus to show unto his disciples, that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up. 22 And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall never be unto thee. 23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art a stumbling-block unto me: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men. 24 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. 25 For whosoever would save his life shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake shall find it. 26 For what shall a man be profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? or what shall a man give in exchange for his life? 27 For the Son of man

17 ^aAnd after six days Jesus taketh with him ^aPeter, and ^aJames, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart: 2 and he was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his garments became white as the light. 3 And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah talking with him. 4 And Peter ^aanswered, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, ^aI will make here three ^atabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. 5 While he was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, ^aa voice out of the cloud, saying, ^a"This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. 6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. 7 And Jesus came and touched them and said, Arise, and ^abe not afraid. 8 And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, save Jesus only.

9 ^aAnd as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, ^m"Tell the vision to no man, until ⁿthe Son of man be ^arisen from the dead. 10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that ⁿElijah must first come? 11 And he answered and said, Elijah indeed cometh, and shall restore all things: 12 but I say unto you, that Elijah is come already, and they knew him not, but did unto him whatsoever they would. Even so shall ⁿthe Son of man also suffer of them. 13 Then understood the disciples that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 ^aAnd when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling to him, and saying, 15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is ^aepileptic, and suffereth grievously; for oft-times he falleth into the fire, and oft-times into the water. 16 And I

The Question of Rank. Of Stumbling-Blocks. The Lost Sheep. Duty towards Offenders. The Unmerciful Servant

Verily I say unto you, Except ye turn, and ¹become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven. 4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the ¹greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me: 6 but ²whoso shall ³cause one of these little ones that believe on me to stumble, it is profitable for him that ²a great millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depth of the sea.

7 Woe unto the world because of occasions of stumbling! for ⁴it must needs be that the occasions come; but woe to that man through whom the occasion cometh! 8 And ⁵if thy hand or thy foot ⁶causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire. 9 And ⁷if thine eye ⁸causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the ³hell of fire. 10 See that ye despise not one of these little ones: for I say unto you, that in heaven ⁹their angels do always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven.⁴ 12 How think ye? ¹⁰if any man have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and go unto the mountains, and seek that which goeth astray? 13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth over it more than over the ninety and nine which have not gone astray. 14 Even so it is not ¹¹the will of ¹²your Father who is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 And ¹³if thy brother sin ¹⁴against thee, go, show him his fault between thee and him alone: if he hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. 16 But if he hear thee not, take with thee one or two 16 ^gAnd behold, one came to him and said, ^hTeacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have ⁱeternal life? 17 And he said unto him, ^jWhy askest thou me concerning that which is good? One there is who is good: but ^kif thou wouldest enter into life, keep the commandments. 18 He saith unto him, Which? And Jesus said, ^lThou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 ^mHonor thy father and thy mother; and, ⁿThou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I observed: what lack I yet? 21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wouldest be perfect, go, ^osell that which thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have ^ptreasure in heaven: and come, follow me. 22 But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sorrowful; for he was one that had great possessions.

23 And Jesus said unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, ^qIt is hard for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of heaven. 24 And again I say unto you, ^rIt is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. 25 And when the disciples heard it, they were astonished exceedingly, saying, Who then can be saved? 26 And Jesus looking upon them said to them, "With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. 27 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee; what then shall we have? 28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye who have followed me, in the regeneration when ^othe Son of man shall sit on the throne of his glory, ^cye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29 And ^eevery one that hath left houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, ¹or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive ^aa hundred-fold, and shall inherit eternal life. 30 ^eBut many shall be last that are first; and first that are last.

20 1 For ^rthe kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that was a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his ^gvineyard. 2 And when he had agreed with the laborers for a ^sshilling a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing in the marketplace idle; 4 and to them he said, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. 5 Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. 6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing; and he saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? 7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard. 8 And when ^aeven was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his ^ssteward, Call the laborers, and pay them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. 9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a ^sshilling. 10 And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received every man a ^sshilling. 11 And

29 ^cAnd as they went out from Jericho, a great multitude followed him. 30 And behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, Lord, ^dhave mercy on us, thou ^eson of David. 31 And the multitude rebuked them, that they should hold their peace: but they cried out the more, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou ^fson of David. 32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I should do unto you? 33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. 34 And Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and straightway they received their sight, and followed him.

21 ^gAnd when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and came unto Bethphage, unto ^hthe mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, 2 saying unto them, Go into the village that is over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose ⁱthem, and bring ^jthem unto me. 3 And if any one say aught unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them. 4 ^kNow this is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

6 And the disciples went, and did even as Jesus appointed them, 7 and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their garments; and he sat thereon. 8 And the most part of the multitude ^mspread their garments in the way; and others cut branches from the trees, and spread them in the way. 9 And the multitudes that went before him, and that followed, cried, saying, ⁿHosanna to the ^oson of David: ^pBlessed ^qis he that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna ^rin the highest. 10 And

and said unto them, I also will ask you one ¹question, which if ye tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven or from men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why then did ye not believe him? 26 But if we shall say, From men; we fear the multitude; for all hold John as ^aa prophet. 27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We know not. He also said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things. 28 But what think ye? A man had two ²sons; and he came to the first, and said, ³Son, go work to-day in the ^bvineyard. 29 And he answered and said, I will not; but afterward he repented himself, and went. 30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. 31 Which of the two did the will of his father? They say, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ^cthe ^dpublicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. 32 For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not; but ^ethe ^fpublicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye saw it, did not even repent yourselves afterward, that ye might believe him.

3 all things therefore whatsoever they bid you, these do and observe: but do not ye after their works; for they say, and do not. 4 Yea, ^athey bind heavy burdens ^band grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with their finger. 5 But all their works they do ^cto be seen of men: for they ^dmake broad their phylacteries, and enlarge ^ethe borders of their garments, 6 and ^flove the chief place at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, 7 and the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called of men, ^gRabbi. 8 But ^hbe not ye called ⁱRabbi: for one is your teacher, and all ye are brethren. 9 And call no man your father on the earth: for ^jone is your Father, ^keven he who is in heaven. 10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your master, ^leven the Christ. 11 But he that is ^mgreatest among you shall be your ⁿservant. 12 And ^owhosoever shall exalt himself shall be humbled; and whosoever shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! ^pbecause ye shut the kingdom of heaven ^qagainst men: for ye enter not in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering in to enter.⁶

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one ^rproselite; and when he is become so, ye make him twofold more a son of ^shell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, ye ^tblind guides, that say, ^uWhosoever shall swear by the ^vtemple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the ^wtemple, he is ^xa debtor.

17 Ye fools and blind: for ^ywhich is greater, the gold, or the ^ztemple that hath sanctified the gold? 18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gift that is upon it, he is ^{aa}a debtor. 19 Ye blind: for ^{ab}which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

32 Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh; 33 even so ye also, when ye see all these things, know ye that ³he is nigh, even ⁴at the doors. 34 Verily I say unto you, ⁵This generation shall not pass away, till all these things be accomplished. 35 ⁶Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. 36 But ⁷of that day and hour knoweth no one, not even the angels of heaven, ⁸neither the Son, but the Father only. 37 ⁹And as were the days of Noah, so shall be the ¹⁰coming of the Son of man. 38 For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, ¹¹marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, 39 and they knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall be the ¹²coming of the Son of man. 40 Then shall two men be in the field; one is taken, and one is left: 41 ¹³two women shall be grinding at the mill; one is taken, and one is left. 42 ¹⁴Watch therefore: for ye know not on what day your Lord cometh. 43 ¹⁵But know this, that ¹⁶if the master of the house had known in what ¹⁷watch the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be ¹⁸broken through. 44 Therefore ¹⁹be ye also ready; for in an hour that ye think not ²⁰the Son of man cometh.

45 ²¹Who then is the ²²faithful and ²³wise ²⁴servant, whom his lord ²⁵hath set over his household, to give them their food in due season? 46 Blessed is that ²⁶servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. 47 Verily I say unto you, that ²⁷he will set him

The Plot to kill Jesus. The Precious Ointment.

The Bargain of Judas. The Supper. Peter's Denial foretold

* the court of the high priest, who was called ¹ Caiaphas; ⁴ and they * took counsel together that they might take Jesus by subtlety, and kill him. ⁵ But they said, Not during the feast, ⁶ lest a tumult arise among the people.

¹⁴ * Then one of the twelve, who was called ¹ Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, ¹⁵ and said, What are ye willing to give me, and I will ² deliver him unto you? And ³ they weighed unto him thirty pieces of silver. ¹⁶ And from that time he sought opportunity to ⁴ deliver him unto them.

¹⁷ * Now on the first day of ¹ unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Where wilt thou that we make ready for thee to eat the passover? ¹⁸ And he said, Go into the city to ² such a man, and say unto him, The Teacher saith, ³ My time is at hand; I keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. ¹⁹ And the disciples did as Jesus appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

²⁰ * Now when even was come, he was ¹ sitting at meat with the twelve ² disciples; ²¹ and as they were eating, he said, ³ Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall ⁴ betray me. ²² And they

ples, Sit ye here, while I go yonder and pray. 37 And he took with him ^aPeter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and sore troubled. 38 Then saith he unto them, ^bMy soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: abide ye here, and ^cwatch with me. 39 And he went forward a little, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, My Father, if it be possible, let ^dthis cup pass away from me: ^enevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. 40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not ^fwatch with me one hour? 41 ^gWatch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: ^hthe spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. 42 Again a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, My Father, if this ⁱcannot pass away, except I drink it, ^jthy will be done. 43 And he came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. 44 And he left them again, and went away, and prayed a third time, saying again the same words. 45 Then cometh he to the disciples, and saith unto them, ^kSleep on now, and take your rest: behold, ^lthe hour is at hand, and the Son of man is ^mbetrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Arise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that ⁿbetrayeth me.

47 ^oAnd while he yet spake, lo, ^pJudas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. 48 Now he that ^qbetrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he: take him. 49 And straightway he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, ^rRabbi; and ^skissed him. 50 And Jesus said unto him, ^tFriend, do that for which thou art come. Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. 51 And behold, ^uone of them that were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his ^vsword, and smote the ^wservant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. 52 Then saith Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into its place: for ^xall they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. 53 Or thinkest thou that I cannot beseech my Father, and he shall even now send me more than twelve ^ylegions of ^zangels? 54 How then should ^{aa}the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be? 55 In that hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and stave to seize me? I ^{ab}sat daily in the temple teaching, and ye took me not. 56 But all this is come to pass, that ^{ac}the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples left him, and fled.

57 ^{ad}And they that had taken Jesus led him away to the house of ^{ae}Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. 58 But ^{af}Peter followed him afar off, unto the ^{ag}court of the high priest, and entered in, and sat with the ^{ah}officers, to see the end. 59 Now the chief priests and the whole ^{ai}council sought false witness against Jesus, that they might put him to death; 60 and they found it not, though many false witnesses came. But afterward came ^{aj}two, 61 and said, This man said, ^{ak}I am able to destroy the ^{al}temple of God, and to build it in three days. 62 And the high priest stood up, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? 63 But ^{am}Jesus held his peace. ^{an}And the high priest said unto him, I ^{ao}adjure thee by ^{ap}the living God, that thou tell us whether thou art the Christ, ^{aq}the Son of God. 64 Jesus saith unto him, ^{ar}Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Henceforth ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of Power, and ^{as}coming on the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest ^{at}rent his garments, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy: what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard the blasphemy: 66 what think ye? est unto us, thou Christ: who is he that struck thee?

69 ^a Now Peter was sitting without in the ^b court: and a maid came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus the Galilaean. 70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. 71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and saith unto them that were there, This man also was with Jesus of Nazareth. 72 And again he denied with an oath, I know not the man. 73 And after a little while they that stood by came and said to Peter, Of a truth thou also art one of them; ^c for thy speech maketh thee known. 74 Then began he to curse and to swear, I know not the man. And straightway the cock crew. 75 And Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said, ^d Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

27 ^e Now when morning was come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: 2 and they bound him, and led him away, and ^f delivered him up to ^g Pilate the governor.

3 Then ^h Judas, who ⁱ betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought back ^j the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, 4 saying, I have sinned in that I ^k betrayed ^l innocent blood. about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is, My God, my God, "why hast thou forsaken me? 47 And some of them that stood there, when they heard it, said, This man calleth Elijah. 48 And "straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. 49 And the rest said, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to save him.¹⁰ 50 And Jesus "cried again with a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit. 51 "And behold, "the veil of the "temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom; and "the earth did quake; and the rocks were rent; 52 and the tombs were opened; and many bodies of the saints that had "fallen asleep were raised; 53 and coming forth out of the tombs after his resurrection they entered into "the holy city and appeared unto many. 54 "Now the centurion, and they that were with him "watching Jesus, when they saw "the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, Truly this was "the "Son of God. 55 "And many women were there beholding from afar, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, "ministering unto him: 56 among whom was "Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of ¹²James and ¹³Joses, and "the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

57 "And when even was come, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: 58 this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded it to be given up. 59 And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled "a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. 61 And "Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 Now on the morrow, which is the day after "the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together unto Pilate, 63 saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said while he was yet alive, 'After three days I rise again. 64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest haply his disciples come and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: and the last error will be worse than the first. 65 Pilate said unto them, 'Ye have a guard: go, ²make it as sure as ye can. 66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, "sealing ³the stone, ⁴the guard being with them.

28 Now late on the sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came ⁵Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. 2 And behold, there was a great earthquake; for ⁶an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away ⁷the stone, and sat upon it. 3 ⁸His appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow: 4 and for fear of him the watchers did quake, and became as dead men. 5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, ⁹Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, who hath been crucified. 6 He is not here: for he is risen, ¹⁰even as he said. Come, see the place ¹¹where the Lord lay. 7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples, He is risen from the dead: and lo, he goeth before you ¹²into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. 8 And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word. 9 And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and took hold of his feet, and ¹³worshipped him. 10 Then saith Jesus unto them, ¹⁴Fear not: go tell ¹⁵my brethren that they depart ¹⁶into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 Now while they were going, behold, some of ¹⁷the guard came into the city, and told unto the chief priests all the things that were come to pass. 12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave much money unto the soldiers, 13 saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. 14 And if this ¹⁸come to ¹⁹the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and rid you of care. 15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying was ²⁰spread abroad among the Jews, and continueth ²¹until this day.

16 But the eleven disciples went ²²into Galilee, unto the mountain where Jesus had appointed them. 17 And when they saw him, they ²³worshipped him; but ²⁴some doubted. 18 And Jesus came to them and spake unto them, saying, ²⁵All authority hath been given unto me in heaven and on earth. 19 ²⁶Go ye therefore, and ²⁷make disciples of ²⁸all the nations, ²⁹baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: 20 teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, ³⁰I am with you ³¹always, even unto ³²the end of the world.

ACCORDING TO MARK

Preaching of the Baptist. Baptism of Jesus. Temptation of Jesus. He preaches in Galilee. Teaches in Capernaum

1 The beginning of the ¹gospel of Jesus Christ, ^{2a} the Son of God.

2 ^bEven as it is written ³in Isaiah the prophet,

^{4c} Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,

3 ^{5a} The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

Make ye ready the way of the Lord,

Make his paths straight;

4 John came, who baptized in the wilderness and ^cpreached the baptism of repentance unto ^dremission of sins. 5 And there went out unto him all the country of Judæa, and all they of Jerusalem; and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. 6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and had a leathern girdle about his loins, and did eat locusts and wild honey. 7 And he preached, saying, There cometh after me he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not ^eworthy to stoop down and unloose. 8 I baptized you ^fin water; but he shall baptize you ^gin the Holy Spirit.

9 ^hAnd it came to pass in those days, that Jesus ⁱcame from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John ^jin the Jordan. 10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens rent asunder, and the Spirit as a dove descending upon him: 11 and a voice came out of the heavens, ^k'Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased.

12 ^lAnd straightway the Spirit driveth him forth into the wilderness. 13 And he was in the wilderness forty days tempted of ^m'Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

14 ⁿNow after John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, ^opreaching the ¹gospel of God, 15 and saying, ^pThe time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: ^qrepent ye, and believe in the ¹gospel.

16 ^rAnd passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net in the sea; for they were fishers. 17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men. 18 And straightway they left the nets, and followed him. 19 And going on a little further, he saw ^sJames the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending the nets. 20 And straightway he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 ^tAnd they go into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day ^uhe entered into the synagogue and taught. 22 And ^v'they were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes. 23 And straightway there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 saying, ^w'What have we to do with thee, Jesus thou ^x'Nazarene? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, ^y'the Holy One of God. 25 And Jesus rebuked ^zhim, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. 26 And the unclean spirit, ^{aa}'tearing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. 27 And they were all ^{ab}'amazed, inasmuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What is this? a new teaching! with authority he commandeth even the unclean spirits, pointed twelve,¹ that they might be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach, ¹⁵ and to have authority to cast out demons: ¹⁶ ^{2a} and Simon he surnamed Peter; ¹⁷ and ³ James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of ³ James; and them he surnamed Boanerges, which is, Sons of thunder: ¹⁸ and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and ³ James, the son of Alphæus, and Thaddæus and Simon the ⁴ Cananæan, ¹⁹ and Judas Iscariot, who also ⁵ betrayed him.

And he cometh ^{6b} into a house. ²⁰ And ^a the multitude cometh together again, ^a so that they could not so much as eat bread. ²¹ And when ^a his friends heard it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, ^a He is beside himself. ²² And the scribes that came down ^a from Jerusalem said, He hath ^{7a} Beelzebub, and, ^{8a} By the prince of the demons casteth he out the demons. ²³ ^a And he called them unto him, and said unto them in ^a parables, How can ^m Satan cast out Satan? ²⁴ And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵ And if a house be divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. ²⁶ And if ^m Satan hath risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. ²⁷ ⁿ But no one can enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house. ²⁸ ^a Verily I say unto you, All their sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and their blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: ²⁹ but whosoever shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin: ³⁰ because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

³¹ ^a And there come his mother and his brethren; and, standing without, they sent unto him, calling him. ³² And a multitude was sitting about him; and they say unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee. ³³ And he answereth them, and saith, Who is my mother and my brethren? ³⁴ And looking round on them that sat round about him, he saith, Behold, my mother and my brethren! ³⁵ For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

4 ^a And again he began to teach ^a by the sea side. And there is gathered unto him a very great multitude, so that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and all the multitude were by the sea on the land. ² And he taught them many things in ^a parables, and said unto them in his teaching, ³ Harken: Behold, the sower went forth to sow: ⁴ and it came to pass, as he sowed, some seed fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured it. ⁵ And other fell on the rocky ground, where it had not much earth; and straightway it sprang up, because it had no deepness of earth: ⁶ and when the sun was risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. ⁷ And other fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. ⁸ And others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing; and brought forth, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold. ⁹ And he said, ^a Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

¹⁰ And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parables. ¹¹ And he said unto them, Unto you is given the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto ^a them that are without, all things are done ^a in parables: ¹² ^a that seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest haply they should turn again, and it should be forgiven them. ¹³ ^a And he saith unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how shall ye know all the parables? ¹⁴ The sower soweth the word. ¹⁵ And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; and when they have heard, straightway cometh ^m Satan, and taketh away the word which hath been sown in them. ¹⁶ And these in like manner are they that are sown upon the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, straightway receive it with joy;

17 and they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway they stumble. 18 And others are they that are sown among the thorns; these are they that have heard the word, 19 and the cares of ^athe ¹world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. 20 And those are they that were sown upon the good ground; such as hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold.

21 And he said unto them, ^bIs the lamp brought to be put under the bushel, or under the bed, and not to be put on the stand? 22 ^cFor there is nothing hid, save that it should be manifested; neither was ^danything made secret, but that it should come to light. 23 ^eIf any man hath ears to hear, let him hear. 24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: "with what measure ye mete it shall be measured unto you; and more shall be given unto you. 25 ^fFor he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath.

26 And he said, ^gSo is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed upon the earth; 27 and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he knoweth not how. 28 The earth ^hbeareth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. 29 But when the fruit ⁱis ripe, straightway he ^jputteth forth the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ^kAnd he said, How shall we liken the kingdom of God? or in what parable shall we set it forth? 31 ^lIt is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown upon the earth, though it be less than all the seeds that are upon the earth, 32 yet when it is sown, groweth up, and becometh greater than all the herbs, and putteth out great branches; so that the birds of the heaven can lodge under the shadow thereof.

they were able to hear it; 34 and ^kwithout a parable spake he not unto them; but privately to his own disciples he expounded all things.

35 ^lAnd on that day, when even was come, he saith unto them, Let us go over unto the other side. 36 And leaving the multitude, they take him with them, even as he was, ^min the boat. And other boats were with him. 37 And there ariseth a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, insomuch that the boat was now filling. 38 And he himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion: and they awake him, and say unto him, Teacher, carest thou not that we perish? 39 And he awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. 40 And he said unto them, Why are ye fearful? have ye not yet faith? 41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

5 ⁿAnd they came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes. 2 And when he was come out of ^othe boat, straightway there met him out of the tombs a man ^pwith an unclean spirit, 3 who had his dwelling in the tombs: and no man could any more bind him, no, not with a chain; 4 because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been rent asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: and no man had strength to tame him. 5 And always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. 6 And when he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and ^qworshipped him; 7 and crying out with a loud voice, he saith, ^rWhat have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou ^sSon of ^tthe Most High God? I adjure thee by God, torment me not. 8 For he said unto him, Come forth, thou unclean spirit, out of the man. 9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he saith unto him, My name is ^uLegion; for we are many. 10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away

Herod, when he heard thereof, said, John, whom I beheaded, he is risen. 17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for the sake of ^{ba}Herodias, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her. 18 For John said unto Herod, ^{bb}"It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife. 19 And ^{bc}Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him; and she could not; 20 for ^{bd}Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. saith unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while. For there were many coming and going, and ^athey had no leisure so much as to eat. 32 ^bAnd they went away in ^cthe boat to a desert place apart. 33 And the people saw them going, and many knew them, and they ran together there ^don foot from all the cities, and outwent them. 34 And he came forth and ^esaw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because ^fthey were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things. 35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, The place is desert, and the day is now far spent; 36 send them away, that they may go into the country and villages round about, and buy themselves somewhat to eat. 37 But he answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. ^gAnd they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred ^hshillings' worth of bread, and give them to eat? 38 And he saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. 39 And he commanded them that all should ⁱsit down by companies upon the green grass. 40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. 41 And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he ^jblessed, and brake the loaves; and he gave to the disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all. 42 And they all ate, and were filled. 43 And they took up broken pieces, twelve ^kbasketfuls, and also of the fishes. 44 And they that ate the loaves were ^lfive thousand men.

45 ^mAnd straightway he constrained his disciples to enter into ⁿthe boat, and to go before him unto the other side to ^oBethsaida, while he himself sendeth the multitude away. 46 And after he had ^ptaken leave of them, he departed ^qinto the mountain to pray. 47 And when even was come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land. 48 And seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary unto them, about the ^rfourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking on the sea; and he would have passed by them: 49 but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out; 50 for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he straightway spake with them, and saith unto them, ^sBe of good cheer: it is I; ^tbe not afraid. 51 And he went up unto them into ^uthe boat; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves; 52 for ^vthey understood not concerning the loaves, but their heart ^wwas hardened.

53 ^xAnd when they had ^ycrossed over, they came to the land unto Gennesaret, and moored to the shore. 54 And when they were come out of the boat, straightway the people knew him, 55 and ran round about that whole region, and began to carry about on their ^zbeds those that were sick, where they heard he was. 56 And whosoever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the market-places, and besought him that they might ^{aa}touch if it were but ^{ab}the border of his garment: and as many as touched ^{ac}him were made whole.

7 ^{ad}And there are gathered together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, who had come ^{ae}from Jerusalem, 2 and had seen that some of his disciples ate their bread with ^{af}defiled, that is, unwashen, hands. 3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands ^{ag}diligently, eat not, holding the ^{ah}tradition of the elders; 4 and when they come from the marketplace, except they ^{ai}bathe themselves, they eat not; and many other things there are, which they have received to hold, ^{aj}washings of ^{ak}cups, and pots, and brassen vessels^{al}.) 5 And the Pharisees and the scribes ask him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the ^{am}tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with ^{an}defiled hands? 6 And he said unto them,

The Syrophenician Woman. Care of a Deaf-mute

Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written,

¹This people honoreth me with their lips,

But their heart is far from me.

7 But in vain do they worship me, Teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men.

8 Ye leave the commandment of God, and hold fast the ^atradition of men. 9 And he said unto them, Full well do ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your ^atradition. 10 For Moses said, ²Honor thy father and thy mother; and, He that speaketh evil of father or mother, let him ³die the death: 11 but ye say, If a man shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have been profited by me is ⁴Corban, that is to say, Given to God; 12 ye no longer suffer him to do aught for his father or his mother; 13 making void the word of God by your ^atradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things ye do. 14 And he called to him the multitude again, and said unto them, Hear me all of you, and understand: 15 there is nothing from without the man, that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man.⁴ 17 And when he was entered ⁵into the house from the multitude, ^ahis disciples asked of him the parable. 18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Perceive ye not, that whatsoever from without goeth into the man, it cannot defile him; 19 because it goeth not into his heart, but into his belly, and goeth out into the draught? This he said, ⁶making all meats ⁷clean.

20 And he said, ⁸That which proceedeth out of the man, that defileth the man. 21 For from within, out of the heart of men, ⁹evil thoughts proceed, fornications, thefts, murders, adulteries, 22 covetings, wickednesses, deceit, lasciviousness, an ¹⁰evil eye, railing, pride, foolishness: 23 all these evil things proceed from within, and defile the man.

and went away into the borders of ^aTyre ^band Sidon. And he entered into a house, and would have no man know it; and he could not be hid. 25 But straightway a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet. 26 Now the woman was a ^cGreek, a Syrophenician by race. And she besought him that he would cast forth the demon out of her daughter. 27 And he said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's ^dbread and cast it to the dogs. 28 But she answered and saith unto him, Yea, Lord; even the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. 29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the demon is gone out of thy daughter. 30 And she went away unto her house, and found the child laid upon the bed, and the demon gone out.

31 And again he went out from the borders of ^eTyre, and came through Sidon unto ^fthe sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of ^gDecapolis. 32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to ^hlay his hand upon him. 33 And ⁱhe took him aside from the multitude privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he ^jspat, and touched his tongue; 34 and looking up to heaven, he ^ksighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. 35 And his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain. 36 And ^lhe charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they ^mpublished it. 37 And they were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well; he maketh even the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

8 In those days, when there was again a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, ⁿhe called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, 2 ^oI have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: 3 and if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way; and some of them are come from far. 4 And his disciples answered him, Whence shall one be able to fill these men with ¹ bread here in a desert place? 5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. 6 And he commandeth the multitude to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he brake, and gave to his disciples, to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. 7 And they had a few small fishes: and ² having blessed them, he commanded to set these also before them. 8 And they ate, and were filled: and they took up, of broken pieces that remained over, seven ³ baskets. 9 And they were about four thousand: and he sent them away. 10 And straightway he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the parts of ⁴ Dalmanutha.

11 ⁴ And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, ⁵ seeking of him a sign from heaven, trying him. 12 And he ⁶ sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation. 13 And he left them, and again entering into the boat departed to the other side.

14 And they forgot to take bread; and they had not in the boat with them more than one loaf. 15 And he charged them, saying, ⁷ Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of ⁸ Herod. 16 And they reasoned one with another, ⁹ saying, ¹⁰ We have no bread. 17 And Jesus perceiving it saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? ¹¹ do ye not yet perceive, neither understand? have ye your heart hardened? 18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember? 19 When I brake ¹² the five loaves among the five thousand, how many ¹³ baskets full of broken pieces took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve. 20 And when ¹⁴ the seven among the four thousand, how many ¹⁵ basketfuls of broken pieces took ye up? And they say unto him, Seven. 21 And he said unto them, ¹⁶ Do ye not yet understand?

22 And they come unto ¹⁷ Bethsaida. And they bring to him a blind man, and beseech him to ¹⁸ touch him. 23 And he took hold of the blind man by the hand, and ¹⁹ brought him out of the village; and when he had ²⁰ spit on his eyes, and ²¹ laid his hands upon him, he asked him, Seest thou aught? 24 And he looked up, and said, I see men; for I behold ²² them as trees, walking. 25 Then again he laid his hands upon his eyes; and he looked stedfastly, and was restored, and saw all things clearly. 26 And he sent him away to his home, saying, ²³ Do not even enter into ²⁴ the village.

27 ²⁵ And Jesus went forth, and his disciples, into the villages of ²⁶ Cæsarea Philippi: and on the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men say that I am? 28 ²⁷ And they told him, saying, John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; but others, One of the prophets. 29 And he asked them, But who say ye that I am? Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ. 30 And ²⁸ he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 ²⁹ And he began to teach them, that ³⁰ the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. 32 And he spake the saying ³¹ openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. 33 But he turning about, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and saith, Get thee behind me, ³² Satan; for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men. 34 And he called unto him the multitude with his disciples, and said unto them, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and ³³ take up his cross, and follow me. 35 For ³⁴ whosoever would save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the ³⁵ gospel's shall save it. 36 For what doth it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? 37 For what should a man give in exchange for his life? 38 For ³⁶ whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, ^athe Son of man also shall be ashamed of him, when he ^bcometh in the glory of his Father with ^cthe holy angels. 1 And he said unto them, ^dVerily I say unto you, There are some here of them that stand ^eby, who shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ^fAnd after six days Jesus taketh with him ^gPeter, and ^hJames, and John, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them; 3 and ⁱhis garments became glistening, exceeding white, so as no fuller on earth can whiten them. 4 And there appeared unto them Elijah with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus. 5 And Peter answereth and saith to Jesus, ^jRabbi, it is good for us to be here: and ^klet us make three ^ltabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. 6 For he knew not what to answer; for they became sore afraid. 7 And there came a cloud overshadowing them: and there came ^ma voice out of the cloud, ⁿThis is my beloved Son: hear ye him. 8 And suddenly looking round about, they saw no one any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 ^oAnd as they were coming down from the mountain, he ^pcharged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, save when the Son of man should have risen again from the dead. 10 And they kept the saying, questioning among themselves what the rising again from the dead should mean. 11 And they asked him, saying, ^qHow is it that the scribes say that ^rElijah must first come? 12 And he said unto them, Elijah indeed cometh first, and restoreth all things: and how is it written of ^sthe Son of man, that ^the should suffer many things and be set at nought? 13 But I say unto you, that Elijah is come, and they have also done unto him whatsoever they would, even as it is written of him.

titude about them, and scribes questioning with them. 15 And straightway all the multitude, when they saw him, were ^vgreatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. 16 And he asked them, What question ye with them? 17 And one of the multitude answered him, Teacher, I brought unto thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit; 18 and where-soever it taketh him, it ^wdasheth him down: and he foameth, and grindeth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast it out; and they were not able. 19 And he answereth them and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him unto me. 20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit ^xtare him grievously; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. 21 And he asked his father, How long time is it since this hath come unto him? And he said, From a child. 22 And oft-times it hath cast him both into the fire and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do anything, have compassion on us, and help us. 23 And Jesus said unto him, If thou canst! ^yAll things are possible to him that believeth. 24 Straightway the father of the child cried out, and said^z, I believe; help thou mine unbelief. 25 And when Jesus saw that ^{aa}a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I command thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. 26 And having cried out, and ^{ab}torn him much, he came out: and ^{ac}the boy became as one dead; insomuch that the more part said, He is dead. 27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose. 28 And when he was come ^{ad}into the house, his disciples asked him privately, ^{ae}How is it that we could not cast it out? 29 And he said unto them, This kind can come out by nothing, save by prayer^{af}.

33 ^aAnd they came to Capernaum: and when he was in ^athe house he asked them, What were ye reasoning on the way? 34 But they held their peace: for ^athey had disputed one with another on the way, who was the ²greatest. 35 And he sat down, and called the twelve; and he saith unto them, ^aIf any man would be first, he shall be last of all, and ²servant of all. 36 And he took a little child, and set him in the midst of them: and taking him in his arms, he said unto them, 37 ^aWhosoever shall receive one of such little children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever receiveth me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ^aJohn said unto him, Teacher, we saw one casting out demons in thy name; and ^awe forbade him, because he followed not us. 39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man who shall do a ^amighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me. 40 ^aFor he that is not against us is for us. 41 For ^awhosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink, ^abecause ye are Christ's, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. 42 And ^awhosoever shall cause one of these little ones that believe ⁶on me to stumble, it were better for him if ^agreat millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea. 43 And ^aif thy hand cause thee to stumble, cut it off: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed, rather than having thy two hands to go into ⁸⁰hell, into the ²unquenchable fire.⁹ 45 And if thy foot cause thee to stumble, cut it off: it is good for thee to enter into life halt, rather than having thy two feet to be cast into

10 ^aAnd he arose from thence, and cometh into the borders of Judaea and beyond the Jordan: and multitudes come together unto him again; and, ^aas he was wont, he taught them again.

2 And there came unto him Pharisees, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? trying him. 3 And he answered and said unto them, ^aWhat did Moses command you? 4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away. 5 But Jesus said unto them, ^aFor your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment. 6 But ^afrom the beginning of the creation, ^aMale and female made he them. 7 ^aFor this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, ¹²and shall cleave to his wife; 8 and the two shall become one flesh: so that they are no more two, but one flesh. 9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. 10 And in the house the disciples asked him again of this matter. 11 And he saith unto them, ^aWhosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her: 12 and ^aif she herself shall put away her husband, and marry another, she committeth adultery.

13 ^aAnd they were bringing unto him little children, that he should touch them: and the disciples rebuked them. 14 But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not: ^afor ¹³to such belongeth the kingdom of God. 15 Verily I say unto you, ^aWhosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein. 16 And he took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands upon them.

17 And as he was going forth into the way, there ran one to him, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? 18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good save one, even God. 19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not kill, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor thy father and mother. 20 And he said unto him, Teacher, all these things have I observed from my youth. 21 And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. 22 But his countenance fell at the saying, and he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! 24 And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. 26 And they were astonished exceedingly, saying unto him, Then who can be saved? 27 Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for all things are possible with God. 28 Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee. 29 Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or lands, for my sake, and for the gospel's sake, 30 but he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions, and in the world to come eternal life. 31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 And they were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going before them: and they were amazed; and they that followed were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were to happen unto him, 33 saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and the scribes; and they shall condemn him unto death, and shall deliver him unto the Gentiles: 34 and they shall mock him, and shall spit upon him, and shall scourge him, and shall kill him; and after three days he shall rise again.

35 And there come near unto him James and John, the sons of Zebedee, saying unto him, Teacher, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall ask of thee. 36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you? 37 And they said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in thy glory. 38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink the cup that I drink? or to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? 39 And they said unto him, We are able. And Jesus said unto them, The cup that I drink ye shall drink: and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized: 40 but to sit on my right hand or on my left hand is not mine to give; but it is for them for whom it hath been prepared. 41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be moved with indignation concerning James and John. 42 And Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they who are accounted to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them; and their great ones exercise authority over them. 43 But it is not so among you: but whosoever would become great among you, shall be your minister; 44 and whosoever would be first among you, shall be ¹servant of all. 45 For the Son of man ^aalso came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ^aAnd they come to Jericho: and ^aas he went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timæus, Bartimeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the way side. 47 And when he heard that it was Jesus the ^aNazarene, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou ^ason of David, have mercy on me. 48 And many rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou ^ason of David, have mercy on me. 49 And Jesus stood still, and said, Call ye him. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, ^aBe of good cheer: rise, he calleth thee. 50 And he, casting away his garment, sprang up, and came to Jesus. 51 And Jesus answered him, and said, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And the blind man said unto him, ^aRabboni, that I may receive my sight. 52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; ^athy faith hath ^amade thee whole. And straightway he received his sight, and followed him in the way.

11 ^aAnd when they draw nigh unto Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and ^aBethany, at ^athe mount of Olives, he sendeth two of his disciples, 2 and saith unto them, Go your way into the village that is over against you: and straightway as ye enter into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat; loose him, and bring him. 3 And if any one say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye, The Lord hath need of him; and straightway he ^awill send him ^aback hither. 4 And they went away, and found a colt tied at the door without in the open street; and they loose him. 5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt? 6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had said: and they let them go. 7 ^mAnd they bring the colt unto Jesus, and cast on him their garments; and he sat upon him. 8 And many spread their garments upon the way; and others ^abranches, which they had cut from the fields. 9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, "Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord: 10 Blessed is the kingdom that cometh, the kingdom of our father David: Hosanna" in the highest.

11 And ^ahe entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; and when he had looked round about upon all things, it being now eventide, ^ahe went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 ^aAnd on the morrow, when they were come out from Bethany, he hungered. 13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season of figs. 14 And he answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ^aAnd they come to Jerusalem: and he entered into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and them that bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold the doves; 16 and he would not suffer that any man should carry a vessel through the temple. 17 And he taught, and said unto them, Is it not written, ^aMy house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations? ^abut ye have made it a den of robbers. 18 And the chief priests and the scribes heard it, and ^asought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, for ^aall the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

19 And ^aevery evening ¹⁰he went forth out of the city.

20 ^aAnd as they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots. 21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, ^aRabbi, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away. 22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, ^aHave faith in God. 23 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall say

¹³ And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the ¹ Herodians, that they might "catch him in talk. ¹⁴ And when they were come, they say unto him, Teacher, we know that thou art true, and carest not for any one; for thou regardest not the person of men, but of a truth teachest the way of God: Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? ¹⁵ Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why make ye trial of me? bring me a ⁶ denarius, that I may see it. ¹⁶ And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cæsar's. ¹⁷ And Jesus said unto them, "Render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's. And they marvelled greatly at him.

¹⁸ And there come unto him Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, ¹⁹ Teacher, Moses wrote unto us, ⁹ If a man's brother die, and leave a wife behind him, and leave no child, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. 20 There were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed; 21 and the second took her, and died, leaving no seed behind him; and the third likewise: 22 and the seven left no seed. Last of all the woman also died. 23 In the resurrection whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife. 24 Jesus said unto them, Is it not for this cause that ye err, that ye know not the scriptures, nor the power of God? 25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as angels in heaven. 26 But as touching the dead, that they are raised; have ye not read in the book of Moses, ^ain the place concerning the Bush, how God spake unto him, saying, ¹I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? 27 ^bHe is not the God of the dead, but of the living: ye do greatly err.

28 ^cAnd one of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together, and ^dknowing that he had answered them well, asked him, What commandment is the first of all? 29 Jesus answered, The first is, ²Hear, O Israel; ³The Lord our God, the Lord is one: 30 and thou shalt love the Lord thy God ⁴with all thy heart, and ⁴with all thy soul, and ⁴with all thy mind, and ⁴with ^eall thy strength. 31 The second is this, ⁵Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. 32 And the scribe said unto him, Of a truth, Teacher, thou hast well said that ⁶he is one; and ⁷there is none other but he: 33 and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, ⁸is much more than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices. 34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. ⁹And no man after that durst ask him any question.

Christ is the 'son of David?' 36 David himself said in the Holy Spirit, ¹The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies ²the footstool of thy feet.

37 David himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he his son? And ³the common people heard him gladly.

38 ^aAnd in his teaching he said, Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and to have ^bsalutations in the marketplaces, 39 and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts: 40 ^cthey that devour widows' houses, ^dand for a pretence make long prayers; these shall receive greater condemnation.

41 ^eAnd he sat down over against ^fthe treasury, and beheld how the multitude ^gcast ^hmoney into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. 42 And there came ⁱa poor widow, and she cast in two mites, which make a farthing. 43 And he called unto him his disciples, and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than all they that are casting into the treasury: 44 for they all did cast in of their superfluity; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, ^jeven all her ^kliving.

13 ^aAnd as he went forth out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Teacher, behold, what manner of stones and what manner of buildings! 2 And Jesus said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? ^bthere shall not be left here one stone upon another, which shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat on ^cthe mount of Olives over against the temple, ^dPeter and ^eJames and John and Andrew asked him privately, 4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what ^fshall be the sign when these things are all about to be accomplished? 5 And Jesus began to say unto them, Take heed that no man lead you astray. 6 Many shall come in my name, saying, ^gI am he; and shall lead many astray. 7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, be not troubled: these things must needs come to pass; but the end is not yet. 8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there shall be earthquakes in divers places; there shall be famines: these things are the beginning of travail.

9 But take ye heed to yourselves: for they shall ^adeliver you up to councils; and ^bin synagogues shall ye be beaten; and before governors and kings shall ye stand for my sake, for a testimony unto them. 10 ^cAnd the ^dgospel must first be preached unto all the nations. 11 ^eAnd when they lead you to judgment, and deliver you up, be not anxious beforehand what ye shall speak: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye; for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Spirit. 12 And brother shall ^fdeliver up brother to death, and the father his child; and children shall rise up against parents, and ^gcause them to be put to death. 13 And ^hye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved.

14 But ⁱwhen ye see the abomination of desolation standing where he ought not (let him that readeth understand), then let them that are in Judæa flee unto the mountains: 15 and let him that is on the housetop not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out of his house: 16 and let him that is in the field not return back to take his cloak. 17 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! 18 And pray ye that it be not in the winter. 19 For those days shall be tribulation, such as there hath not been the like ^jfrom the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never shall be. 20 And except the Lord had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the elect's sake, whom he chose, he shortened the days. 21 And then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ; or, Lo, there; believe

And they murmured against her. 6 But Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me. 7 *For ye have the poor always with you, and whensoever ye will ye can do them good: but me ye have not always. 8 She hath done what she could; she hath anointed my body beforehand for the burying. 9 And verily I say unto you, Whosoever the gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, that also which this woman hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

Peter's Denial. Jesus before Pilate. Not Jesus, but Barabbas. The Mockery. The Crucifixion

seeing Peter ^awarming himself, she looked upon him, and saith, 'Thou also wast with the ^bNazarene, even Jesus. 68 But he denied, saying, ^cI neither know, nor understand what thou sayest: and he ^dwent out into the ^eporch; ^fand ^gthe cock crew. 69 And the maid saw him, and began again to say to them that stood by, 'This is one of them. 70 But ^hhe again denied it. And after a little while again they that stood by said to Peter, 'Of a truth thou art one of them; ⁱfor thou art a Galilean. 71 But he began to curse, and to swear, I know not this man of whom ye speak. 72 And straightway the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word, how that Jesus said unto him, Before ^jthe cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. ^kAnd when he thought thereon, he wept.

15 ^lAnd straightway in the morning the chief priests with the elders and scribes, and the whole ^mcouncil, held a consultation, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate. 2 ⁿAnd Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering saith unto him, Thou sayest. 3 And the chief priests accused him of many things. 4 And Pilate again asked him, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they accuse thee of. 5 But Jesus ^ono more answered anything; inso-much that Pilate marvelled.

6 ^pNow at ^qthe feast he used to release unto them one prisoner, whom they asked of him. 7 And there was one called Barabbas, ^rlying bound with them that had made insurrection, men who in the insurrection had committed murder. 8 And the multitude went up and began to ask him to do as he was wont to do unto them. 9 And Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews? 10 For he perceived that for envy the chief priests had delivered him up. 11 But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, ^sthat he should rather release Barabbas unto them. 12 And Pilate again answered and said unto them, What then shall I do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews? 13 And they cried out again, Crucify him. 14 And Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly, Crucify him. 15 And Pilate, wishing to content the multitude, released unto them Barabbas, and delivered Jesus, when he had ^tscourged him, to be crucified.

16 ^uAnd the soldiers led him away within ^vthe court, which is the ^wPrætorium; and they call together the whole ^xband. 17 And they clothe him with purple, and plating a crown of thorns, they put it on him; 18 and they began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews! 19 And they smote his head with a reed, and spat upon him, and bowing their knees ^yworshipped him. 20 And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the purple, and put on him his garments. And they lead him out to crucify him.

21 ^zAnd they ^{aa}compel one passing by, Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, that he might bear his cross.

22 ^{ab}And they bring him unto the place ^{ac}Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull. 23 And they offered him ^{ad}wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not. 24 And they crucify him, and part his garments among them, ^{ae}casting lots upon them, what each should take. 25 And it was the ^{af}third hour, and they crucified him. 26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, ^{ag}THE KING OF THE JEWS. 27 And with him they crucify two robbers; one on his right hand, and one on his left. ^{ah}29 And they that passed by railed on him, ^{ai}wagging their heads, and saying, Ha! thou that ^{aj}destroyst the ^{ak}temple, and buildest it in three days, 30 save thyself, and come down from the cross. 31 In like manner also the chief priests mocking him among themselves with the scribes said, ^{al}He saved others; ^{am}himself he cannot save. 32 Let the Christ, "the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reproached him.

33 "And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. 34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? 35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elijah. 36 And one ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to take him down. 37 "And Jesus uttered a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. 38 "And the veil of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom. 39 "And when the centurion, who stood by over against him, saw that he so gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God. 40 "And there were also women beholding from afar: among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joseph, and Salome; 41 who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him; and many other women that came up with him unto Jerusalem.

42 "And when even was now come, because it was the Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, 43 there came Joseph of Arimathea, a councillor of honorable estate, who also himself was looking for the kingdom of God; and he boldly went in unto Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. 44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead; and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead. 45 And when he learned it of the centurion, he granted the corpse to Joseph. 46 And he bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of a rock; and he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. 47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph beheld where he was laid.

16 "And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him. 2 And very early on the first day of the week, they come to the tomb when the sun was risen. 3 And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the tomb? 4 and looking up, they see that the stone is rolled back: for it was exceeding great. 5 And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they were amazed. 6 And he saith unto them, Be not amazed: ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who hath been crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold, the place where they laid him! 7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter, "He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you. 8 And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them; and they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

9 "Now when he was risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. 10 She went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept. 11 And they, when they heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, disbelieved.

12 And after these things he was manifested in another form unto two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country. 13 And they went away and told it unto the rest: neither believed they them.

14 And afterward he was manifested unto the eleven themselves as they sat at meat; and he upbraided them with their unbelief

Preface. Birth of the Baptist foretold

1 Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to draw up a narrative concerning those matters which ^ahave been ¹fulfilled among us, 2 even as they delivered them unto us, who ^bfrom the beginning were ^ceyewitnesses and ^dministers of ^ethe word, 3 it seemed good to me also, ^fhaving traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write unto thee ^gin order, ^hmost excellent ⁱTheophilus; 4 that thou mightest know the certainty concerning the ^jthings ^kwherein thou ^lwast instructed.

5 There was ^min the days of Herod, king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the ⁿcourse of Abijah: and he had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. 6 And they were both ^orighteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord ^pblameless. 7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were ^qnow ^rwell stricken in years.

8 Now it came to pass, while ^she executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, 9 according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was ^tto enter into the ^utemple of the Lord and burn incense. 10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying ^vwithout at the hour of incense. 11 And there appeared unto him ^wan angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12 And Zacharias was troubled when he saw ^xhim, and fear fell upon him. 13 But the angel said unto him, ^yFear not, Zacharias: because thy supplication is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and ^zthou shalt call his name John. 14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many

26 Now in the sixth month the angel ¹Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named ²Nazareth, 27 to ³a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, ⁴of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. 28 And he came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art ¹highly favored, the Lord is with thee. 29 But she ²was greatly troubled at the saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this might be. 30 And the angel said unto her, ³Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found ⁴favor with God. 31 And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and ⁵shalt call his name Jesus. 32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of ⁶the Most High: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: 33 ⁷and he shall reign over the house of Jacob ⁸for ever; ⁹and of his kingdom there shall be no end. 34 And Mary said unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? 35 And the angel answered and said unto her, ¹⁰The Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and the power of ¹¹the Most High shall overshadow thee: wherefore also ¹²the holy thing which is begotten ¹³shall be called ¹⁴the Son of God. 36 And behold, Elisabeth thy kinswoman, she also hath conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her that ¹⁵was called barren. 37 For ¹⁶no word from God shall be void of power. 38 And Mary said, Behold, the ¹⁷handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in these days and went into ¹⁸the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah; 40 and entered into the house of Zacharias and saluted Elisabeth. 41 And it came to pass, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was ¹⁹filled with the Holy Spirit: 42 and she lifted up her voice with a loud cry, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. 43 And

2 Now it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from ^bCæsar Augustus, that ^call ^dthe world should be enrolled. 2 This was the first enrolment made when Quirinius was governor of ^eSyria. 3 And all went to enrol themselves, every one to his own city. 4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because ^fhe was of the house and family of David; 5 to enrol himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him, being great with child. 6 And it came to pass, while they were there, the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered. 7 And she brought forth her firstborn son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping ^gwatch by night over their flock. 9 And ^han angel of the Lord ⁱstood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. 10 And the angel said unto them, ^jBe not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: 11 for there is born to you this day in the city of David a ^kSaviour, who is ^lChrist ^mthe Lord. 12 And ⁿthis ^ois the sign unto you: Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. 13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 ^pGlory to God in the highest, And on earth ^qpeace among ^rmen ^sin whom he is well pleased.

15 And it came to pass, when the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to

21 And when^a eight days were fulfilled for circumcising him, his name was called JESUS, which was so called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the days of their purification^a according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord 23 (as it is written in the law of the Lord, ^aEvery male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord), 24 and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, ^aA pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons. 25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Spirit was upon him. 26 And^a it had been revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not^a see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. 27 And he came in the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, that they might do concerning him after the custom of the law, 28 then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said, 33 And his father and^a his mother were marvelling at the things which were spoken concerning him; 34 and Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary^a his mother, Behold, this child is set for^a the falling and the rising of many in Israel; and for a sign which is spoken against; 35 yea and a sword shall pierce through thine own soul; that thoughts out of many hearts may be revealed. 36 And there was one Anna, a^a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of^a the tribe of Asher (she was^a of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, 37 and she had been a widow even unto fourscore and four years), who departed not from the temple, worshipping with fastings and supplications night and day. 38 And coming up at that very hour she gave thanks unto God, and spake of him to all them that were^a looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. 39 And when they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to^a their own city Nazareth.

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar, ^kPontius Pilate being governor of Judæa, and ^lHerod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituræa and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2 in the high-priesthood of ^mAnnas and ⁿCaiaphas, ^othe word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. 3 And he came into all ^pthe region round about the Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance unto remission of sins; 4 as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, 21 ^{bt}Now it came to pass, when all the people were baptized, that, Jesus also having been baptized, and ^{bu}praying, the heaven was opened, 22 and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form, as a dove, upon him, and a voice came out of heaven, ^{bv}Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

The Wonderful Draught of Fishes. Jesus cleanses a Leper. Calls Levi. Is blamed for associating with Sinners

4 And when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. 5 And Simon answered and said, Master, we toiled all night, and took nothing; but at thy word I will let down the nets. 6 And when they had done this, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes; and their nets were breaking; 7 and they beckoned unto their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. 8 But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. 9 For he was amazed, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken; 10 and so were also James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men. 11 And when they had brought their boats to land, they left all, and followed him.

12 And it came to pass, while he was in one of the cities, behold, a man full of leprosy: and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. 13 And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway the leprosy departed from him. 14 And he charged him to tell no man; but go thy way, and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. 15 But so much the more went abroad the report concerning him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed of their infirmities. 16 But he withdrew himself in the deserts, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on one of those days, that he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, who were come out of every village of Galilee and Judæa and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was with him to heal. 18 And behold, men bring on a bed a man that was palsied: and they sought to bring him in, and to lay him before him. 19 And not finding by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his couch into the midst before Jesus. 20 And seeing their faith, he said, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. 21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone? 22 But Jesus perceiving their reasonings, answered and said unto them, Why reason ye in your hearts? 23 Which is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Arise and walk? 24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authority on earth to forgive sins (he said unto him that was palsied), I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto thy house. 25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his house, glorifying God. 26 And amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God; and they were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day.

27 And after these things he went forth, and beheld a publican, named Levi, sitting at the place of toll, and said unto him, Follow me. 28 And he forsook all, and rose up and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his house: and there was a great multitude of publicans and of others that were sitting at meat with them. 30 And the Pharisees and their scribes murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with the publicans and sinners? 31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are in health have no need of a physician; but they that are sick. 32 I am not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance.

to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my ¹servant, Do this, and he doeth it. 9 And when Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned and said unto the multitude that followed him, I say unto you, ^aI have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. 10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the ¹servant whole.

11 And it came to pass ²soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain; and his disciples went with him, and a great multitude. 12 Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, there was carried out one that was dead, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her. 13 And when ^bthe Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. 14 And he came nigh and touched the bier: and the bearers stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. 15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother. 16 And ^cfear took hold on all: and they ^dglorified God, saying, A great ^eprophet is arisen among us: and, God hath visited his people. 17 ^fAnd this report went forth concerning him in the whole of Judæa, and all the region round about.

18 ^gAnd the disciples of John told him of all these things. 19 And John calling unto him ^htwo of his disciples sent them to ⁱthe Lord, saying, Art thou he that cometh, or look we for another? 20 And when the men were come unto him, they said, John the Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that cometh, or look we for another? 21 In that hour he ^jcured many of diseases and ^kplagues and evil spirits; and on many that were blind he bestowed sight. 22 And he answered and said unto them, Go and tell John the things which ye have seen and heard; the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have ^lgood tidings preached to them. 23 And blessed is he, who-

24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken with the wind? 25 But what went ye out to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. 26 But what went ye out to see? a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. 27 This is he of whom it is written,

Who shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there is none greater than John: yet he that is ⁷but little in the kingdom of God is greater than he. 29 And all the people when they heard, and the ⁸publicans, ⁹justified God, ¹⁰being baptized with ¹¹the baptism of John. 30 But the Pharisees and the ¹²lawyers rejected for themselves the counsel of God, ¹³being not baptized of him.

31 Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation, and to what are they like? 32 They are like unto children that sit in the marketplace, and call one to another; who say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not weep. 33 For John the Baptist is come ¹⁴eating no bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a demon. 34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of ¹⁵publicans and sinners! 35 And wisdom ¹⁶is justified of all her children.

36 And one of the Pharisees desired him, that he would eat with him. And he saith, Teacher, say on. 41 A certain lender had two debtors: the one owed five hundred ^{3b}shillings, and the other fifty. 42 When they ^chad not wherewith to pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most? 43 Simon answered and said, He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged. 44 And turning to the woman, he said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thy house, thou ^dgavest me no water for my feet: but she hath wetted my feet with her tears, and wiped them with her hair. 45 Thou ^egavest me no kiss: but she, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to ^fkiss my feet. 46 ^gMy head with oil thou didst not anoint: but she hath anointed my feet with ointment. 47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little. 48 And he said unto her, ^hThy sins are forgiven. 49 And they that ⁱsat at meat with him began to say ^jwithin themselves, Who is this that even forgiveth sins? 50 And he said unto the woman, ^kThy faith hath saved thee; ^lgo in peace.

4 ^xAnd when a great multitude came together, and they of every city resorted unto him, he spake by a parable: 5 The sower went forth to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden under foot, and the birds of the heaven devoured it. 6 And other fell on the rock; and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. 7 And other fell amidst the thorns; and the thorns grew with it, and choked it. 8 And other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit a hundredfold. As he said these things, he cried, ^yHe that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 ^zAnd his disciples asked him what this parable might be. 10 And he said, ^{aa}Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to the rest in parables; ^{ab}that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. 11 Now the parable is this: ^{ac}The seed is the word of God. 12 And those by the way side are they that have heard; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. 13 And those on the rock ^{ad}are they who, when they have heard, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. 14 And that which fell among the thorns, these are they that have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. 15 And that in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and bring forth fruit with ^{ae}patience.

16 And ^{af}no man, when he hath lighted a lamp, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but putteth it on a stand, that they that enter in may see the light. 17 ^{ag}For nothing is hid.

fetters; and breaking the bands asunder, he was driven of the demon into the deserts. 30 And Jesus asked him, What is thy name? And he said, ¹Legion; for many demons were entered into him. 31 And they entreated him that he would not command them to depart into ²the abyss. 32 Now there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they entreated him that he would give them leave to enter into them. And he gave them leave. 33 And the demons came out from the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into ³the lake, and were drowned. 34 And when they that fed them saw what had come to pass, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country. 35 And they went out to see what had come to pass; and they came to Jesus, and found the man, from whom the demons were gone out, sitting, clothed and in his right mind, ⁴at the feet of Jesus: and they were afraid. 36 And they that saw it told them how he that was ⁵possessed with demons was ⁶made whole. 37 And all the people of the country of the Gerasenes round about asked him to depart from them; for they were holden with great fear: and he entered into a boat, and returned. 38 ⁷But the man from whom the demons were gone out prayed him that he might be with him: but he sent him away, saying, 39 Return to thy house, and declare how great things God hath done for thee. And he went his way, publishing throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done for him.

40 ⁸And as Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed him; for they were all waiting for him. 41 ⁹And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was ¹⁰a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him to come into his house; 42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. that one of the old prophets is risen again. 20 And he said unto them, But who say ye that I am? And Peter answering said, "The Christ of God. 21 But he ^o charged them, and commanded them to tell this to no man; 22 ^o saying, "The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up. 23 And he said unto all, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and ^o take up his cross daily, and follow me. 24 For ^o whosoever would save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it. 25 For what is a man profited, if he gain the whole world, and ^o lose or forfeit his own self? 26 ^o For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in his own glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels. 27 But I tell you of a truth, "There are some of them that stand here, who shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ^o And it came to pass about eight days after these sayings, that he took with him ^o Peter and John and James, and ^m went up into the mountain ^o to pray. 29 And as he was ^o praying, the fashion of his countenance ^o was altered, and his raiment became white and dazzling. 30 And behold, there talked with him two men, who were Moses and Elijah; 31 who appeared in glory, and spake of his ^{1p} decease which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. 32 Now Peter and they that were with him ^o were heavy with sleep; but ² when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. 33 And it came to pass, as they were parting from him, Peter said unto Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here: and ^o let us make three ³ tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: "not knowing what he said. 34 And while he said these things, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. 35 And ^o a voice came out

37 ^o And it came to pass, on the next day, when they were come down from the mountain, a great multitude met him. 38 And behold, a man from the multitude cried, saying, Teacher, I beseech thee to look upon my son; for he is mine only child: 39 and behold, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it ^o teareth him that he foameth, and it hardly departeth from him, bruising him sorely. 40 And I besought thy disciples to cast it out; and they could not. 41 And Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? bring hither thy son. 42 And as he was yet a coming, the demon ⁷ dashed him down, and ^o tare him grievously. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. 43 And they were all astonished at the ^o majesty of God.

^o But while all were marvelling at all the things which he did, he said unto his disciples, 44 Let these words sink into your ears: ^o for the Son of man shall be ⁸ delivered up into the hands of men. 45 But ^o they understood not this saying, and it was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

46 ^o And there arose a ⁹ reasoning among them, which of them was the ¹¹ greatest. 47 But when Jesus ^o saw the ¹⁰ reasoning of their heart, he took a little child, and set him by his side, 48 and said unto them, ^o Whosoever shall receive this little child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: ^o for he that is ¹² least among you all, the same is great.

51 And it came to pass, when the days¹ were well-nigh come that² he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face³ to go to Jerusalem, 52 and sent messengers before his face; and they went, and entered into a village of the⁴ Samaritans, to make ready for him. 53 And they did not receive him, "because his face was as though he were going to Jerusalem. 54 And when his disciples⁵ James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we bid fire to come down from heaven, and consume them?⁶ 55 But he turned, and rebuked them⁷. 56 And they went to another village.

10 Now after these things⁸ the Lord appointed seventy⁹ "others, and sent them "two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself was about to come. 2 And he said unto them, "The harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth laborers into his harvest. 3 Go your ways; "behold, I send you forth as lambs in the midst of wolves. 4 "Carry no purse, no wallet, no shoes; and salute no man on the way. 5 And

Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes : yea, Father ; ¹for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight. 22 All things have been delivered unto me of my Father : and no one knoweth who the Son is, save the Father ; and who the Father is, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal him. 23 ^aAnd turning to the disciples, he said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see : 24 for I say unto you, that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not ; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not.

25 ^bAnd behold, a certain ^clawyer stood up and made trial of him, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life ? 26 And he said unto him, What is written in the law ? how readest thou ? 27 And he answering said, ²Thou shalt love the Lord thy God ³with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind ; ⁴and thy neighbor as thyself. 28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right : ^athis do, and thou shalt live. 29 But he, desiring ^eto justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbor ? 30 Jesus made answer and said. A certain man was ^fgoing down from Jerusalem to Jericho ; and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. 31 And by chance a certain priest was going down that way : and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. 32 And in like manner a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. 33 But a certain ^gSamaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was : and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion, 34 and came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on them oil and wine ; and he set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35 And on the morrow he took out two ^hshillings, and gave them to the host, and said, Take care of him ;

fore ¹dinner. 39 And ^athe Lord said unto him, Now ^bye the Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter; but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. 40 ^cYe foolish ones, did not he that made the outside make the inside also? 41 But ^dgive for alms those things which ^eare within; and behold, all things are ^fclean unto you.

42 ^gBut woe unto you Pharisees! for ye ^htithe the mint and rue and every herb, and pass over justice and the love of God: but these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. 43 Woe unto you Pharisees! for ye ⁱlove the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces. 44 ^jWoe unto you! for ye are as the tombs which appear not, and the men that walk over them know it not.

45 And one of the ^klawyers answering saith unto him, Teacher, in saying this thou reproachest us also. 46 And he said, Woe unto you ^llawyers also! for ^mye load men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. 47 ⁿWoe unto you! for ye build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 So ye are witnesses and consent unto the works of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye build ^otheir tombs. 49 Therefore also said ^pthe wisdom of God, ^qI will send unto them prophets and apostles; and some of them they shall kill and persecute; 50 that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed ^rfrom the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; 51 from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the ^ssanctuary: yea, I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation. 52 Woe unto you ^tlawyers! for ye took away the key of knowledge: ^uye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

53 And when he was come out from thence, the scribes and the Pharisees began to ^vpress upon him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of ^wmany things; 54

12 ^aIn the mean time, when the many thousands of the multitude were gathered together, inasmuch that they trod one upon another, he began to ^bsay unto his disciples first of all, ^cBeware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2 ^dBut there is nothing covered up, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. 3 Wherefore whatsoever ye have said in the darkness shall be heard in the light; and what ye have spoken in the ear in the inner chambers shall be proclaimed upon ^ethe housetops. 4 And I say unto you ^fmy friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. 5 But I will warn you whom ye shall fear: ^gFear him, who after he hath killed hath ^hpower to cast into ⁱhell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. 6 Are not ^jfive sparrows sold for two pence? and not one of them is forgotten in the sight of God. 7 ^kBut the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not: ye are of more value than many sparrows. 8 And I say unto you, Every one who shall confess ^lme before men, ^mhim shall the Son of man also confess ⁿbefore the angels of God: 9 but ^ohe that denieth me in the presence of men shall be denied ^pin the presence of the angels of God. 10 ^qAnd every one who shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven. 11 And when they bring you before ^rthe synagogues, and the rulers, and the authorities, be not ^sanxious how or what ye shall answer, or what ye shall say: 12 for ^tthe Holy Spirit shall teach you in that very hour what ye ought to say.

13 And one out of the multitude said unto him, Teacher, bid my brother divide the inheritance with me. 14 But he said unto him, ^uMan, who made me a judge or a divider over you? 15 And he said unto them, ^vTake heed, and keep yourselves from all covetousness:

22 And he said unto his disciples, ⁹ Therefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for ¹⁰ your ¹¹ life, what ye shall eat ; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. 23 For the ¹² life is more than the food, and the body than the raiment. 24 Consider the ¹³ ravens, that they sow not, neither reap ; which have no store-chamber nor ¹⁴ barn ; and God feedeth them : of how much more value are ye than the birds! 25 And which of you by being anxious can add a ¹⁵ cubit unto ¹⁶ the measure of his life? 26 If then ye are not able to do even that which is least, why are ye anxious concerning the rest? 27 Consider the lilies, how they grow : they toil not, neither do they spin ; yet I say unto you, Even ¹⁷ Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 28 But if God doth so clothe the grass in the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven ; how much more ¹⁸ shall he clothe you, O ye of little faith? 29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, and what ye shall drink, neither be ye ¹⁹ of doubtful mind. 30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after : but your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. 31 Yet seek ye ²⁰ his king-blessed; because they have not wherewith to recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed in "the resurrection of the just.

15 And when one of them that ¹sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, ²Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. 16 But he said unto him, ³A certain man made a great supper; and he bade many: 17 and he sent forth his ²servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready. 18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a field, and I must needs go out and see it; I pray thee have me excused. 19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them; I pray thee have me excused. 20 And another said, ⁴I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. 21 And the ²servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his ²servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and blind and lame. 22 And the ²servant said, Lord, what thou didst command is done, and yet there is room. 23 And the lord said unto the ²servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house may be filled. 24 For I say unto you, that none of those men that were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 Now there went with him great multitudes: and he turned, and said unto them, 26 ⁵If any man cometh unto me, and hateth not his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. 27 Whosoever doth not ⁶bear his own cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. 28 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the cost, whether he have wherewith to complete it? 29 Lest haply, when he hath laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all that behold begin to mock him, 30 saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. 31 Or what king, as he goeth to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? 32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassador, and asketh conditions of peace. 33 So therefore whosoever he be of you that ⁷renounceth not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. 34 Salt therefore is good: but ⁸if even the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be seasoned? 35 It is fit neither for the land nor for the dunghill: men cast it out. ⁹He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

15 Now all the ¹⁰publicans and sinners were drawing near unto him to hear him. 2 And both the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and ¹¹eateth with them.

3 And he spake unto them this parable, saying, 4 ¹²What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? 5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and his neighbors, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost. 7 I say unto you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine righteous persons, who need no repentance.

8 Or what woman having ten ¹³pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she find it? 9 And when she hath found it, she calleth together her friends and neighbors, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost. 10 Even so, I say unto you, there is joy ¹⁴"in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

And he divided unto them his ^cliving. 13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together and took his journey into a far country; and there he wasted his substance with riotous living. 14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that country; and he began to be in want. 15 And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. 16 And he would fain ^dhave filled his belly with ^ethe husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. 17 But when he came to himself he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish here with hunger! 18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: 19 I am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. 20 And he arose, and came to his father. 16 And he said also unto the disciples, There was a certain rich man, who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was ^awasting his goods. 2 And he called him, and said unto him, What is this that I hear of thee? render the account of thy stewardship; for thou canst be no longer steward. 3 And the steward said within himself, What shall I do, seeing that my lord taketh away the stewardship from me? I have not strength to dig; to beg I am ashamed. 4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. 5 And calling to him each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? 6 And he said, A hundred ^bmeasures of oil. a very little is faithful also in much: and he that is unrighteous in a very little is unrighteous also in much. 11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous "mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? 12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is ¹your own? 13 ²No² servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and ^a"mammon.

14 And the Pharisees, who were ^alovers of money, heard all these things; and they ^a"scoffed at him. 15 And he said unto them, Ye are they that ^a"justify yourselves in the sight of men; but ^aGod knoweth your hearts: for that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. 16 ^aThe law and the prophets ^awere until John: from that time ^athe ^a"gospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and every man entereth violently into it. 17 ^aBut ^ait is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tittle of the law to fall.

19 Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, ^afaring sumptuously every day: 20 and a certain beggar named Lazarus ^awas laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 and desiring to be fed with the ^acrumbs that fell from the rich man's table; yea, even the dogs came and licked his sores. 22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels into ^aAbraham's bosom: and the rich man also died, and was buried. 23 And in ^a"Hades he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. 24 And he cried and said, ^aFather Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am in anguish in ^athis flame. 25 But Abraham said, ^aSon, remember that ^a"thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things: but now here he is comforted, and thou art in anguish. 26 And ^abesides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that they that would pass from hence to you may not be able, and that none may cross over from thence to us. 27 And he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house; 28 for I have five brethren; that he may ^a"testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. 29 But Abraham saith, They have ^a"Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. 30 And he said, Nay, ^afather Abraham: but if one go to them from the dead, they will repent. 31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, if one rise from the dead.

17 And he said unto his disciples, ^a"It is impossible but that occasions of stumbling should come; but woe unto him, through whom they come! 2 ^a"It were well for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. 3 Take heed to yourselves: ^a"if thy brother sin, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. 4 And if he sin against thee ^a"seven times in the day, and seven times turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

9 And he spake also this parable unto certain who ^b trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and ^c set ² all others at nought: 10 Two men ^a went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a ^a publican. 11 The Pharisee ^a stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this ^a publican. 12 I ^a fast twice in the week; I ^a give tithes of all that I get. 13 But the ^a publican, ^a standing afar off, ^a would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but ^a smote his breast, saying, God, ^a be thou merciful to me ^a a sinner. 14 I say unto you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: ^a for every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; but he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 ^a And they were bringing unto him also their babes, that he should touch them: but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. 16 But Jesus called them unto him, saying, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for ^a to such belongeth the kingdom of God. 17 Verily I say unto you, ^m Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein.

18 ^a And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? 19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, even God. 20 Thou knowest the commandments, ⁷ Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor thy father and mother. 21 And he said, All these things have I observed from my youth up. 22 And when Jesus heard it, he said unto him, One thing thou lackest yet: ^a sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have ^a treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. 23 But when he heard these things, he became exceeding sorrowful; for he was very rich.

24 And Jesus seeing him said, ^a How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! 25 For ^a it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. 26 And they that heard it said, Then who can be saved? 27 But he said, ^a The things which are impossible with men are possible with God. 28 And Peter said, Lo, ^a we have left ^a our own, and followed thee. 29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, ^a There is no man that hath left house, or wife, or brethren, or parents, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 who shall not receive manifold more in this time, and in ^a the ^a world to come eternal life.

31 ^a And he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, ^a we go up to Jerusalem, and ^a all the things that are written through the prophets shall be accomplished unto the Son of man. 32 ^a For he shall be ¹⁰ delivered up unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shamefully treated, and spit upon: 33 and they shall scourge and kill him: and the third day he shall rise again. 34 And ^a they understood none of these things; and this saying was hid from them, and they perceived not the things that were said.

35 ^a And it came to pass, ^a as he drew nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging: 36 and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant. 37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by. 38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou ^a son of David, have mercy on me. 39 And they that went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou ^a son of David, have mercy on me. 40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight. 42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: ^a thy faith hath ¹¹ made thee whole. 43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, ^a glorifying God:

and "all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

19 And he ^bentered and was passing through Jericho. 2 And behold, a man called by name Zacchæus; and he was a chief publican, and he was rich. 3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the crowd, because he was little of stature. 4 And he ran on before, and climbed up into a ^csycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. 5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down: for to-day I must abide at thy house. 6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. 7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, He is gone in to lodge with a man that is a sinner. 8 And Zacchæus stood, and said unto "the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have ^dwrongfully exacted aught of any man, I restore ^efourfold. 9 And Jesus said unto him, To-day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is ^fa son of Abraham. 10 For ^gthe Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because ^hhe was nigh to Jerusalem, and ⁱbecause they supposed that ^jthe kingdom of God was immediately to appear. 12 He said therefore, ^kA certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. 13 And he called ten ^lservants of his, and gave them ten ^mpounds, and said unto them, Trade ye ⁿherein ^otill I come. 14 But his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassador after him, saying, We will not that this man reign over us. 15 And it came to pass, when he was come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these ^pservants, unto whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by trading. 16 And the first came before him, saying, Lord, thy pound hath made ten pounds more. 17 And he said unto him, Well done, thou good ^qservant:

13 And the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will ^jreverence him. 14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned one with another, saying, This is the heir; let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 And they cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. Whose image and superscription hath it? And they said, Caesar's. 25 And he said unto them, Then ^g render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's. 26 And they were not able to ^h take hold of the saying before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ⁱ And there came to him certain of the Sadducees, they that say that there is no resurrection; 28 and they asked him, saying, Teacher, ^j Moses wrote unto us, that if a man's brother die, having a wife, and he be childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. 29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died childless; 30 and the second: 31 and the third took her; and likewise the seven also left no children, and died. 32 Afterward the woman also died. 33 In the resurrection therefore whose wife of them shall she be? for the seven had her to wife. 34 And Jesus said unto them, The sons of ^k this ^l world marry, and are given in marriage: 35 but they that are accounted worthy to attain to ^m that ⁿ world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: 36 for neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are ^o sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. 37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in ^p the place concerning the Bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. 38 ^q Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living: for ^r all live unto him. 39 And certain of the scribes answering said, Teacher, thou hast well said. 40 For ^s they durst not any more ask him any question.

41 ^t And he said unto them, How say they that the Christ is ^u David's son? 42 For David himself saith in the book of Psalms,

^v The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

43 Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, and how is he his son?

45 ^w And in the hearing of all the people he said unto his disciples, 46 Beware of the scribes, ^x who desire to walk in long robes, and love salutations in the marketplaces, and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts; 47 who devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater condemnation.

21 ^y And he looked up, ^z and saw the rich men that were casting their gifts into the treasury. 2 And he saw a certain poor widow casting in thither ^{aa} two mites. 3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than they all: 4 for all these did of their superfluity cast in unto the gifts; but she of her want did cast in all the ^{ab} living that she had.

5 ^{ac} And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and offerings, he said, 6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in which ^{ad} there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. 7 And they asked him, saying, Teacher, when therefore shall these things be? and what ^{ae} shall be the sign when these things are about to come to pass? 8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not led astray: for many shall come in my name, saying, ^{af} I am he; and, The time is at hand: ^{ag} go ye not after them. 9 And when ye shall hear of wars and tumults, be not terrified: for these things must needs come to pass first; but the end is not immediately.

8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for ^che was of a long time desirous to see him, because he had heard concerning him; and he hoped to see some miracle done by him. 9 And he questioned him in many words; but ^dhe answered him nothing. 10 And the chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him. 11 And Herod with his soldiers set him at nought, and mocked him, and ^earraying him in gorgeous apparel sent him back to Pilate. 12 And Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate called together the chief priests and the ^frulers and the people, 14 and said unto them, Ye brought unto me this man, as one that ^gperverteth the people: and behold, I, having examined him before you, ^hfound no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: 15 no, nor yet ⁱHerod: for ^jhe sent him back unto us; and behold, nothing worthy of death hath been done by him. 16 I will therefore ^kchastise him, and release him.³ 18 But they cried out all together, saying, ^l'Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:—19 one who for a certain insurrection made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison. 20 And Pilate spake unto them again, desiring to release Jesus; 21 but they shouted, saying, Crucify, crucify him. 22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath this man done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore ^mchastise him and release him. 23 But they were urgent with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. The Death of Jesus. The Entombment. The Empty Tomb. The Interview on the Way to Emmaus justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. 42 And he said, Jesus, remember me when thou comest in thy kingdom. 43 And he said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

44 And it was now about the sixth hour, and a darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour, 45 the sun's light failing: and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst. 46 And Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said this, he gave up the ghost. 47 And when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man. 48 And all the multitudes that came together to this sight, when they beheld the things that were done, returned smiting their breasts. 49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed with him from Galilee, stood afar off, seeing these things.

50 And behold, a man named Joseph, who was a councillor, a good and righteous man 51 (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), a man of Arimathæa, a city of the Jews, who was looking for the kingdom of God: 52 this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. 53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was hewn in stone, where never man had yet lain. 54 And it was the day of the Preparation, and the sabbath drew on. 55 And the women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and beheld the tomb, and how his body was laid. 56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments.

24 1 But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came unto the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared. 2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 And it came to pass, while they were perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel: 5 and as they were affrighted and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead? 6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, 7 saying that the Son of man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. 8 And they remembered his words, 9 and returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. 10 Now they were Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James: and the other women with them told these things unto the apostles. 11 And these words appeared in their sight as idle talk; and they disbelieved them. 12 But Peter arose, and ran unto the tomb; and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths by themselves; and he departed to his home, wondering at that which was come to pass.

13 And behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was threescore furlongs from Jerusalem. 14 And they communed with each other of all these things which had happened. 15 And it came to pass, while they communed and questioned together, that Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. 16 But their eyes were holden that they should not know him. 17 And he said unto them, What communications are these that ye have one with another, as ye walk? And they stood still, looking sad. 18 And one of them, named Cleopas, answering said unto him, Dost thou alone sojourn in Jerusalem and not know the things which are come to pass there in these days? 19 And he said unto them, What things? ACCORDING TO JOHN

The Prologue. The Baptist's Disclaimer. The Baptist's Testimony

1 ^aIn the beginning was ^bthe Word, and the Word was ^cwith God, and ^dthe Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 ^eAll things were made through him; and without him ^fwas not anything made that hath been made. 4 ^gIn him was life; and the life was ^hthe light of men. 5 And ⁱthe light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness ^japprehended it not. 6 There came a man, sent from God, whose name was ^kJohn. 7 The same came ^lfor witness, that he might bear witness of the light, ^mthat all might believe through him. 8 ⁿHe was not the light, but ^ocame that he might bear witness of the light. 9 ^pThere was ^qthe true light, ^reven the light which lighteth ^severy man, coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and ^tthe world was made through him, and the world knew him not. 11 He came unto ^uhis own, and they that were his own received him not. 12 But as many as received him, to them gave he the right to become ^vchildren of God, ^weven ^xto them that believe on his name: 13 ^ywho were ^zborn, not of ^{aa}blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. 14 And ^{ab}the Word ^{ac}became flesh, and ^{ad}dwelt among us (and ^{ae}we beheld his glory, glory as of ^{af}the only begotten from the Father), full of ^{ag}grace and ^{ah}truth. 15 John ^{ai}bear-eth witness of him, and crieth, saying, ^{aj}This was he of whom I said, ^{ak}He that cometh after me is become before me: ^{al}for he was ^{am}before me. 16 For of his ^{an}fulness we all received, and ^{ao}grace for grace.

Jesus answered and said unto him, Before ⁷Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. 49 Nathanael answered him, ⁸Rabbi, thou art ⁹the Son of God; thou art ¹⁰King of Israel. 50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee underneath the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. 51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye shall see ¹¹the heaven opened, and ¹²the angels of God ascending and descending upon ¹³the Son of man.

2 And ¹⁴the third day there was a marriage in ¹⁵Cana of Galilee; and the ¹⁶mother of Jesus was there: 2 and Jesus also was bidden, and his ¹⁷disciples, to the marriage. 3 And when the wine failed, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. 4 And Jesus saith unto her, ¹⁸Woman, ¹⁹what have I to do with thee? ²⁰mine hour is not yet come. 5 His ²¹mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. 6 Now there were six waterpots of stone set there ²²after the Jews' manner of purifying, containing two or three firkins apiece. 7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. 8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the ²³ruler of the feast. And they bare it. 9 And when the ruler of the feast tasted the water ²⁴now become wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants that had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast calleth the bridegroom, 10 and saith unto him, Every man setteth on first the good wine; and when ²⁵men ²⁶have drunk freely, ²⁷then that

12 After this he went down to ^dCapernaum, he, and his ^emother, and his ^fbrethren, and his ^gdisciples; and there they abode not many days.

13 And ^hthe passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus ⁱwent up to Jerusalem. 14 ^jAnd he found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: 15 and he made a scourge of cords, and cast all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the ^kchangers' money, and overthrew their tables; 16 and to them that sold ^lthe doves he said, Take these things hence; make not ^mmy Father's house a house of merchandise. 17 His ⁿdisciples remembered that it was written, ^oZeal for thy house shall eat me up. 18 ^pThe Jews therefore answered and said unto him, ^qWhat sign showest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? 19 Jesus answered and said unto them, ^rDestroy this ^stemple, and in three days I will raise it up. 20 ^tThe Jews therefore said, ^uForty and six years was this ^vtemple in building, and wilt thou raise it up in three days? 21 But he spake of ^wthe ^xtemple of his body. 22 When therefore he was raised from the dead, his ^ydisciples ^zremembered that he spake this; and they believed ^{aa}the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at ^{ab}the passover, during the feast, many believed on his name, ^{ac}beholding his signs which he did. 24 But Jesus did not trust himself unto them, for that he knew all men, 25 and because he needed not that any one should bear witness concerning ^{ad}man; ^{ae}for he himself knew what was in man.

3 Now there was a man of the ^{af}Pharisees, named ^{ag}Nicodemus, a ^{ah}ruler of the Jews: 2 the same came unto him by night, and said to him, ^{ai}Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no one can do these ^{aj}signs that thou doest, except ^{ak}God be with him. 3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except one ^{al}be born ^{am}anew, he cannot see ^{an}the kingdom of God. 4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born? 5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except one be born of ^{ao}water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into ^{ap}the kingdom of God. 6 ^{aq}That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born ^{ar}anew. 8 ^{as}The wind bloweth where it will, and thou hearest the voice thereof, but knowest not whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. 9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? 10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou ^{at}the teacher of Israel, and understandest not these things? 11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, ^{au}We speak that which we know, and ^{av}bear witness of that which we have seen; and ^{aw}ye receive not our witness. 12 If I told you earthly things and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you heavenly things? 13 And ^{ax}no one hath ascended into heaven, but ^{ay}he that descended out of heaven, ^{az}even ^{ba}the Son of man, ^{bb}who is in heaven. 14 And as ^{bc}Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must ^{bd}the Son of man ^{be}be lifted up; 15 that whosoever ^{bf}believeth may ^{bg}in him have eternal life.

16 For God so ^{bh}loved the world, that he ^{bi}gave his ^{bj}only begotten Son, that whosoever ^{bj}believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life. 17 For God ^{bk}sent not the Son into the world ^{bl}to judge

22 After these things came Jesus and his ^jdisciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them, and ^kbaptized. 23 And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there ^lwas much water there: and they came, and were baptized. 24 For ^m"John was not yet cast into prison. 25 There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John's disciples with a Jew about ⁿpurifying. 26 And they came unto John, and said to him, ^o"Rabbi, he that was with thee ^pbeyond the Jordan, to whom thou ^qhast borne witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. 27 John answered and said, ^r"A man can receive nothing, except it have been given him from heaven. 28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, ^s"I am not the Christ, but, that I am sent before him. 29 He that hath the bride is ^tthe bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, that standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my ^ujoy therefore is made full. 30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 ^v"He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is of the earth, and ^wof the earth he speaketh: ^x"he that cometh from heaven is above all. 32 What he hath seen and heard, of that he ^ybeareth witness; and ^z"no man receiveth his witness. 33 He that hath received his witness ^{aa}hath set his seal to this, that God is true.

They said therefore unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. 53 So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and ^ahis whole house. 54 This is again the ²second ^asign that Jesus did, having ^acome out of Judæa into Galilee.

5 ² After these things there was ^aa feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is in Jerusalem by ^athe sheep gate a pool, which is called ³in Hebrew ^aBethesda, having five porches. 3 In these lay a multitude of them that were sick, blind, halt, withered⁴. 5 And a certain man was there, who had been thirty and eight years in his infirmity. 6 When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wouldest thou be made whole? 7 The sick man answered him, ^aSir, I have no man, when ^athe water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another step-peth down before me. 8 Jesus saith unto him, ^aArise, take up thy ^abed, and walk. 9 And straightway the man was made whole, and took up his ^abed and walked.

^aNow it was the sabbath on that day. 10 So ^athe Jews said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath, and ^ait is not lawful for thee to take up thy ^abed. 11 But he answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy ^abed, and walk. 12 They asked him, Who is the man that said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? 13 But he that was healed knew not who it was; for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in the 19 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^aThe Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing: for what things soever he doeth, these the Son also doeth in like manner. 20 ^aFor the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and ^agreater works than these will he show him, that ye may marvel. 21 For as the Father raiseth the dead and ^agiveth them life, even so ^athe Son also giveth life to whom he will. 22 For neither doth the Father judge any man, but ^ahe hath given all judgment unto the Son; 23 that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. ^aHe that honoreth not the Son honoreth not the Father that sent him. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and ^abelieveth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and ^acometh not into judgment, but hath ^apassed out of death into life. 25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^aThe hour cometh, and now is, when ^athe dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that ^ahear shall live. 26 For as the Father hath life in himself, even so ^agave he to the Son also to have life in himself: 27 and he gave him authority to ^aexecute judgment, because he is a son of man. 28 Marvel not at this: for ^athe hour cometh, in which ^aall that are in the tombs shall hear his voice, 29 and shall come forth; ^athey that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have ^adone evil, unto the resurrection of judgment.

And Jesus went up into ^athe mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. 4 Now ^athe passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. 5 Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude cometh unto him, saith unto ^aPhilip, Whence are we to buy ³bread, that these may eat? 6 And this he said to ^aprove him: for he himself knew what he would do. 7 ^aPhilip answered him, ^aTwo hundred ^ashillings' worth of ³bread is not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little. 8 One of his ^adisciples, ^aAndrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, who hath five barley loaves, and two ^ofishes: but what are these among so many? 10 Jesus said, Make the people sit down. Now there was ^amuch grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about ^afive thousand. 11 Jesus therefore took the loaves; and ^ahaving given thanks, he distributed to them that were set down; likewise also of the ^ofishes as much as they would. 12 And when they were filled, he saith unto his ^adisciples, Gather up the broken pieces which remain over, that nothing be lost. 13 So they gathered them up, and filled twelve ^abaskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which remained over unto them that had eaten. 14 When therefore the people saw the ^asign which he did, they said, This is of a truth the ^aprophet that cometh into the world.

15 Jesus therefore perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, ^ato make him king, ^awithdrew again into ^athe mountain himself alone.

16 And when evening came, his ^adisciples went down unto the sea; 17 and they entered into a boat, and were going over the sea ^aunto Capernaum. Many Disciples desert. Peter's "To whom shall we go?" The Brethren of Jesus carp at him. Opinions concerning

52 "The Jews therefore strove one with another, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? 53 Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, ye have not life in yourselves. 54 He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. 56 He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood abideth in me, and I in him. 57 As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he that eateth me, he also shall live because of me. 58 This is the bread which came down out of heaven; not as the fathers ate, and died; he that eateth this bread shall live forever. 59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they heard this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear it? 61 But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said unto them, Doth this cause you to stumble? 62 What then if ye should behold the Son of man ascending where he was before? 63 It is the spirit that giveth life; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I have spoken unto you are spirit, and are life. 64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who it was that should betray him. 65 And he said, For this cause have I said unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it be given unto him of the Father.

66 Upon this many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. 67 Jesus said therefore unto the twelve, Would ye also go away? 68 Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life. 69 And we have believed and know that thou art the Holy One of God. 70 Jesus answered them, Did not I choose you the twelve, and one of you is a devil? 71 Now he spake of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

7 And after these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judaea, because the Jews sought to kill him. 2 Now the feast of the Jews, the feast of tabernacles, was at hand. 3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may behold thy works which thou doest. 4 For no man doeth anything in secret, and himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, manifest thyself to the world. 5 For even his brethren did not believe on him. 6 Jesus therefore saith unto them, My time is not yet come; but your time is always ready. 7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that its works are evil. 8 Go ye up unto the feast: I go not up unto this feast; because my time is not yet fulfilled. 9 And having said these things unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone up unto the feast, then went he also up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. 11 The Jews therefore sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? 12 And there was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him: some said, He is a good man; others said, Not so, but he leadeth the multitude astray. 13 Yet no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 But when it was now the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught. 15 The Jews therefore marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? 16 Jesus therefore answered them, and said, My teaching is not mine, but his that sent me. 17 If any man willet to do his will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it is of God, or whether I speak from go unto ¹the Dispersion ²among ³the Greeks, and teach ⁴the Greeks? 36 What is this word that he said, ⁵'Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me; and where I am, ye cannot come?'

37 Now on ⁶the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, ⁷'If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink. 38 He that believeth on me, ⁸as the scripture hath said, ⁹'from within him shall flow rivers of ¹⁰living water. 39 But this spake he ¹¹of the Spirit, which they that believed on him were to receive: ¹²for ¹³the Spirit was not yet given; because Jesus was not yet ¹⁴glorified. 40 Some of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, This is of a truth ¹⁵the prophet. 41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, What, ¹⁶doth the Christ come out of Galilee? 42 ¹⁷Hath not the scripture said that the Christ cometh of ¹⁸the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was? 43 So ¹⁹there arose a division in the multitude because of him. 44 And ²⁰some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 The ²¹officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why did ye not bring him? 46 The ²²officers answered, ²³'Never man so spake. 47 The Pharisees therefore answered them, Are ye ²⁴also led astray? 48 ²⁵Hath any of ²⁶the rulers believed on him, or of the Pharisees? 49 But this multitude that knoweth not the law are accursed. 50 ²⁷Nicodemus saith unto them (he that came to him before, being one of them), 51 ²⁸Doth our law judge a man, except it first hear from himself and know what he doeth? 52 They answered and said unto him, ²⁹Art thou also of

unto his own house: 1 but Jesus went unto ³the mount of Olives. 2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and ⁴he sat down, and taught them. 3 And the scribes and the Pharisees bring a woman taken in adultery; and having set her in the midst, ⁴they say unto him, Teacher, this woman hath been taken in adultery, in the very act. 5 ³Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such: what then sayest thou of her? 6 And this they said, "trying him, "that they might have whereof to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground.
7 But when they continued asking him, ⁵he lifted up himself, and said unto them, ⁶He that is without sin among you, let him ⁷first cast a stone at her. 8 And again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground. 9 And they, when they heard it, went out one by one, beginning from the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman, where she was, in the midst. 10 And Jesus ⁸lifted up himself, and said unto her, Woman, where are they? did no man condemn thee? 11 And she said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said, ⁹"Neither do I condemn thee: go thy way; from henceforth ⁹sin no more.]

12 Again therefore Jesus spake unto them, saying, "I am the light of the world: ¹⁰he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life.
13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, "Thou bearest witness of thyself; thy witness is not true.
14 Jesus answered and said unto them, ¹¹"Even if I bear witness of myself, my witness is true; for I

away therefore, and washed, and came seeing. 8 The neighbors therefore, and they that saw him aforetime, that he was a beggar, said, Is not this he that ^bsat and begged? 9 Others said, It is he: others said, No, but he is like him. He said, I am he. 10 They said therefore unto him, How then were thine eyes opened? 11 He answered, The man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to ^cSilam, and wash: so I went away and washed, and I received sight. 12 And they said unto him, Where is he? He saith, I know not.

13 They bring to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. 14 Now it was the sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. 15 Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. And he said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and I see. 16 Some therefore of the Pharisees said, This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. But others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such signs? And there was a division among them. 17 They say therefore unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, in that he opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a prophet. 18 The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight, 19 and asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? 20 His parents answered and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: 21 but how he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not: ask him; he is of age; he shall speak for himself. 22 These things said his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. 23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him. 24 So they called a second time the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give glory to God: we know that this man is a sinner. 25 He therefore answered, Whether he is a sinner,

I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. 26 They said therefore unto him, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? 27 He answered them, I told you even now, and ye did not hear; wherefore would ye hear it again? would ye also become his disciples? 28 And they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are disciples of Moses. 29 We know that God hath spoken unto Moses: but as for this man, we know not whence he is. 30 The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is the marvel, that ye know not whence he is, and yet he opened mine eyes. 31 We know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and do his will, him he heareth. 32 Since the world began it was never heard that any one opened the eyes of a man born blind. 33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing. 34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out: and finding him, he said, Dost thou believe on the Son of God? 36 He answered and said, And who is he, Lord, that I may believe on him? 37 Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and he it is that speaketh with thee. 38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him. 39 And Jesus said, For judgment came I into this world, that they that see not may see; and that they that see may become blind. 40 Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said unto him, Are we also blind? 41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye would have no sin; but now ye say, We see: your sin remaineth.

10 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. 2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. 3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep

7 Jesus therefore said unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am ^athe door of the sheep. 8 All that came ^abefore me are ^athieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. 9 ^aI am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and go out, and shall find pasture. 10 The thief cometh not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I came that they ^amay have life, and may ^ahave it abundantly. 11 ^aI am the good shepherd: the good shepherd ^alayeth down his life for the sheep. 12 He that is a hireling, and not a ^ashepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and the wolf snatcheth them, and scattereth them: 13 ^ahe fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. 14 ^aI am the good shepherd; and ^aI know mine own, and mine own know me, 15 even as ^athe Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and ^aI lay down my life for the sheep. 16 And ^aother sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must ^abring, and they shall hear my voice; and ^athey shall become ^aone flock, ^aone shepherd. 17 Therefore doth the Father love me, because I ^alay down my life, that I may take it again. 18 ^aNo one ^ataketh it away from me, but I ^alay it down of myself. I have ^apower to lay it down, and I have ^apower to take it again. ^aThis commandment received I from my Father.

If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. 10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because the light is not in him. 11 These things spake he; and after this he saith unto them, Our ^rfriend Lazarus ^sis fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep. 12 The disciples therefore said unto him, Lord, if he is fallen asleep, he will ^trecover. 13 Now ^uJesus had spoken of his death; but they thought that he spake of taking rest in sleep. 14 Then Jesus therefore said unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. 15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. 16 ^vThomas therefore, who is called ^wDidymus, said unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

9 The ^acommon people therefore of the Jews learned that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, ^bwhom he had raised from the dead. 10 But the chief priests took counsel that they might put Lazarus also to death; 11 because that ^cby reason of him ^dmany of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 On the morrow ^ea great multitude that had come to ^fthe feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 took the ^gbranches of the palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried out, ^hHosanna: Blessed ⁱis he that cometh in the name of the Lord, even the ^jKing of Israel. 14 And Jesus, having found a young ass, sat thereon: as it is written, 15 ^kFear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. 16 ^lThese things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus ^mwas glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. 17 ⁿThe multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, bare witness. 18 ^oFor this cause also the multitude went and met him, ^pfor that they heard that he had done this sign. 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, ^qBehold how ye prevail nothing; lo, the world is gone after him.

20 Now there were certain ^rGreeks among those that went up to worship at ^sthe feast: 21 these therefore came to ^tPhilip, who was of ^uBethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. 22 Philip cometh and telleth ^vAndrew: Andrew cometh, and Philip, and they tell Jesus. 23 And Jesus answereth them, saying, ^wThe hour is come, that the Son of man should ^xbe glorified. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^yExcept a grain of wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself alone; but if it die, it beareth much fruit. 25 ^zHe that loveth his ^{aa}life loseth it; and he that ^ahateth his ^blife in this world shall keep it unto ^clife eternal. 26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and ^dwhere I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will the Father ^ehonor. 27 ^fNow is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? ^gFather, save me from ^hthis ⁱhour. But for this cause came I unto this hour. 28 ^jFather, glorify thy name. There came therefore a ^kvoice out of heaven, ^lsaying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. 29 The multitude therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it had thundered: others said, ^mAn angel hath spoken to him. 30 Jesus answered and said, ⁿThis voice hath not come for my sake, but for your sakes. 31 ^oNow is ^pthe judgment of this world: now shall ^qthe prince of this world be cast out. 32 And I, if I ^rbe lifted up ^sfrom the earth, will ^tdraw all men unto myself. 33 But this he said, ^usignifying by what manner of death he should die. 34 The multitude therefore answered him, We have heard out of ^vthe law that ^wthe Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, ^xThe ^ySon of man must be ^zlifted up? who is this ^{aa}Son of man? 35 Jesus therefore said unto them, ^{ab}Yet a little while is ^{ac}the light ^{ad}among you. ^{ae}Walk while ye have the light, that darkness overtake you not: and he that ^{af}walketh in the darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. 36 While ye have the light, ^{ag}believe on the light, that ye may become ^{ah}sons of light.

These things spake Jesus, and he departed and ^{ai}hid himself from them. 37 But though he had done so many ^{aj}signs before them, yet they believed not on him: 38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, ^{ak}Lord, who hath believed our report?

And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 For this cause they could not believe, for that Isaiah said again,

The Evangelist's Retrospect. Jesus sums up his Claims. Jesus washes the Disciples' Feet

40 ¹ He hath blinded their eyes, and he ² hardened their heart; Lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart,

And should turn,
And I should heal them.

41 These things, said Isaiah, because ¹ he saw his glory; and ² he spake of him. 42 Nevertheless even of ³ the rulers / many believed on him; but ⁴ because of the Pharisees they did not confess ⁵ it, lest they should be ⁶ put out of the synagogue: 43 ⁷ for they loved the glory that ⁸ is of men more than the glory that ⁹ is of God.

44 And Jesus cried and said, ¹ He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. 45 And ² he that beholdeth me beholdeth him that sent me. 46 ³ I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me may not abide in the darkness. 47 And if any man hear my sayings, and keep them not, I judge him not: for ⁴ I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 ⁵ He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my sayings, hath one that judgeth him: ⁶ the word that I spake, the same shall judge him in ⁷ the last day. 49 ⁸ For I spake not from myself; but the Father that sent me, ⁹ he hath given me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. 50 And I know that ¹⁰ his commandment is life eternal; the things therefore which I speak, ¹¹ even as the Father hath said unto me, so I speak.

13 Now before the feast of the passover, Jesus knowing that ¹ his hour was come that he should depart out of this world ² unto the Father, having loved his own that were in the world, he loved them ³ unto the end. 2 And during supper, ⁴ the devil having already put into the heart of ⁵ Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to ⁶ betray him, 3 Jesus, ⁷ knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that ⁸ he came forth from God, and goeth unto God, 4 riseth from supper, and layeth aside his garments; and he took a towel, and ⁹ girded himself. 5 Then he poured water into the basin, and began to ¹ wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. 6 So he cometh to Simon Peter. Jesus points out the Betrayer. The New Commandment. Peter's Denial foretold. The Farewell Discourse

I say unto you, that ^aone of you shall ¹betray me. ²² The disciples looked one on another, ^adoubting of whom he spake. ²³ There was at the table reclining in ^bJesus' bosom one of his disciples, ^cwhom Jesus loved. ²⁴ Simon Peter therefore beckoneth to him, and saith unto him, Tell us who it is of whom he speaketh. ²⁵ He ^aleaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? ²⁶ Jesus therefore answereth, ^a"He it is, for whom I shall dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped the sop, he taketh and giveth it to Judas, ^cthe son of Simon Iscariot. ²⁷ And after the sop, then ^dentered ^eSatan into him. Jesus therefore saith unto him, What thou doest, do quickly. ²⁸ Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. ²⁹ For some thought, because Judas ^ahad the ^bbag, that Jesus said unto him, Buy what things we have need of ^cfor the feast; or, that he should ^dgive something to the poor. ³⁰ He then having received the sop went out straightway: and ^eit was night.

³¹ When therefore he was gone out, Jesus saith, Now ^ais ^bthe Son of man ^c"glorified, and ^dGod ^eis glorified in him; ³² and ^fGod shall glorify him in himself, and straightway shall he glorify him. ³³ ^aLittle children, ^byet a little while I am with you. ^cYe shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say unto you. ³⁴ A ^anew commandment I give unto you, ^bthat ye love one another; ^ceven as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. ³⁵ ^aBy this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

³⁶ Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered, ^aWhither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but ^bthou shalt follow afterwards. ³⁷ Peter saith unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee even now? ^aI will lay down my life for thee. ³⁸ Jesus answereth, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me? Verily, verily, I say unto thee,

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, ^a he went forth with his disciples over ^a the ⁴ brook Kidron, where was ^a a garden, into which he entered, himself and his disciples. 2 Now Judas also, who ^b betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus ^a oft-times resorted thither with his disciples. 3 ³ Judas then, having received ^a the ⁷ band of soldiers, and ^a officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and ^a torches and weapons. 4 Jesus therefore, ^a knowing all the things that were coming upon him, went forth, and saith unto them, ^b Whom seek ye? 5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. 25 ⁹Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore unto him, ¹⁰Art thou also one of his disciples? The Jews said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: 32 that ²³the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should die.

33 Pilate therefore ²⁴entered again into the ²⁵Prætorium, and called Jesus, and said unto him, ²⁶Art thou the King of the Jews? 34 Jesus answered, Sayest thou this of thyself, or did others tell it thee concerning me? 35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? And upon my vesture did they cast lots.

25 These things therefore the soldiers did. 'But there were standing by the cross of Jesus 'his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of 'Clopas, and 'Mary Magdalene. 26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and 'the disciple standing by whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, "Woman, behold, thy son! 27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold, thy mother! And from that hour the disciple took her unto 'his own home.

28 After this Jesus, 'knowing that all things are now finished, 'that the scripture might be accomplished, saith, I thirst. 29 There was set there a vessel full of vinegar: so 'they put a sponge full of the vinegar upon hyssop, and brought it to his mouth. 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, 'It is finished: and he bowed his head, and 'gave up his spirit.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was 'the Preparation, that 'the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a "high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. 32 The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other that 'was crucified with him: 33 but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: 34 howbeit one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came out 'blood and water. 35 And he that hath seen hath 'borne witness, and his witness is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may believe. 36 For these things came to pass, 'that the scripture might be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. 37 And again another scripture saith, 'They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 'And after these things Joseph of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but ^asecretly for ^bfear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took away his body. 39 And there came also ^cNicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, ^dbringing a ^emixture of ^fmyrrh and aloes, about a ^ghundred pounds. 40 So they took the body of Jesus, and ^hbound it in ⁱlinen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. 41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a ^jnew tomb ^kwherein was never man yet laid. 42 There then because of the Jews' ^lPreparation (for the tomb was ^mnigh at hand) they laid Jesus.

20 ⁿNow on the first day of the week cometh ^oMary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth ^pthe stone taken away from the tomb. 2 She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other ^qdisciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, ^r"They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid him." 3 ^sPeter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. 4 And they ran both together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb; 5 and ^tstooping and looking in, he seeth the ^ulinen cloths lying: yet entered he not in. 6 Simon Peter therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb: and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, 7 and ^vthe napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the ^wlinen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. 8 Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, who ^xcame first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed. 9 For as yet ^ythey knew not the scripture, ^zthat he must rise again from the dead. 10 So the disciples went away again ^{aa}unto their own home.

11 ^bBut Mary was standing without at the tomb weeping: so, as she wept, she ^cstooped and looked into the tomb; 12 and she beholdeth ^dtwo angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 13 And they say unto

"My Lord and my God." The Writer's Object. The Epilogue: — the Appearance at the Sea of Tiberias. "Lovest thou me?"

26 And after eight days again his disciples were within; and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace be unto you." 27 Then saith he to Thomas, "Reach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing." 28 Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. 29 Jesus saith unto him, Because thou hast seen me, ¹thou hast believed: "blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed."

30 "Many other signs therefore did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book: 31 but these are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye may have life in his name."

21 After these things Jesus manifested himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and he manifested himself on this wise. 2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. 3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also come with thee. They went forth, and entered into the boat; and that night they took nothing. 4 But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach: yet the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. 5 Jesus therefore saith unto them, Children, have ye aught to eat? They answered him, No. 6 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. 7 "That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his coat about him (for he was naked), and cast himself into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits off), dragging the net full of fishes. 9 So when they got out upon the land, they see a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread. 10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now taken. 11 Simon Peter therefore went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not rent. 12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and break your fast. And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. 13 Jesus cometh, and taketh the bread, and giveth them, and the fish likewise. 14 This is now the third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had broken their fast, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. 16 He saith to him again a second time, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Tend my sheep. 17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. 18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. 19 Now this he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me. 20 Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; who also leaned back on his breast at the supper, and said, Lord, who is he that betrayeth thee? 21 Peter therefore seeing him saith to Jesus,

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, who knowest the hearts of all men, show of these two the one whom thou hast chosen, ²⁵ to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place.
26 And they gave lots for them; and the lot fell upon "Matthias;
and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

² And when the day of Pentecost was now come, they were all together in one place. ² And suddenly there came from heaven a sound as of the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. ³ And there appeared unto them tongues parting asunder, like as of fire; and it sat upon each one of them. ⁴ And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

⁵ Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven.
⁶ And when this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speaking in his own language. ⁷ And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying, Behold, are not all these that speak Galileans?
⁸ And how hear we, every man in our own language wherein we were born? ⁹ Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, in Judæa and "Cappadocia, in Pontus

ye yourselves know; 23 him, being delivered up by the "determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye by the hand of lawless men did crucify and slay: 24 whom God raised up, having loosed the pangs of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. 25 For David saith concerning him,

²I beheld the Lord always before my face;

For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved;

26 Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;

Moreover my flesh also shall dwell in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul unto Hades,

Neither wilt thou give thy Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou madest known unto me the ways of life;

Thou shalt make me full of gladness with thy countenance.

29 Brethren, I may say unto you freely of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us unto this day.

30 Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins he would set one upon his throne;

31 he foreseeing this spake of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he left unto Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption.

32 This Jesus did God raise up, whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Being therefore by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath poured forth this, which ye see and hear. 34 For David ascended not into the heavens: but he saith himself,

³⁵The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

35 Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

36 Let all the house of Israel therefore know assuredly, that God hath made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom ye crucified.

37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, what shall we do? 38 And Peter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For to you is the promise, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call unto him. 40 And with many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked generation. 41 They then that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them in that day about three thousand souls. 42 And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread and the prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. 44 And all that believed were together, and had all things common; 45 and they sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had need. 46 And day by day, continuing stedfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 praising God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to them day by day those that were saved.

3 Now Peter and John were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. 2 And a certain man that was lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple; 3 who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked to receive an alms. 4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on us. 5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something from them. 6 But Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but what I have, that give I thee. ^aIn the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk. 7 And he took him by the right hand, and raised him up; and immediately his feet and his ankle-bones received strength. 8 ^aAnd leaping up, he stood, and began to walk; and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. 9 And "all the people saw him walking and praising God: 10 and they took knowledge of him, that it was he that sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as he held ^aPeter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the ^aporch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. 12 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this ^aman? or why fasten ye your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him to walk? 13 ^aThe God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, ^athe God of our fathers, hath glorified his ^aServant Jesus; whom ^aye delivered up, and denied before the face of ^aPilate, when he had ^adetermined to release him. 14 But ye denied ^athe Holy and Righteous One, and ^aasked for a murderer to be granted unto you, and killed the ^aPrince of life; whom ^aGod raised from the dead; ^awhereof we are ^awitnesses. 16 And ^aby faith ^ain his name hath his name made this man strong, whom ye behold and know: yea, the faith which is through him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. 17 And now, brethren, I know that ^ain ignorance ye did it, as did also your ^arulers. 18 But the things which ^aGod foreshowed by the mouth of all the prophets, ^athat his Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled. 19 ^aRepent ye therefore, and turn again, that your sins may

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their ^arulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem; 6 and ^aAnnas the high priest was there, and ^aCaiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest. 7 And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, By what power, or in what name, have ye done this? 8 Then Peter, ^afilled with the Holy Spirit, said unto them, Ye ^brulers of the people, and elders, 9 if we this day are examined concerning ^ca good deed done to an impotent man, ^dby what means this man is made whole; 10 be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that ^ein the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom ^fGod raised from the dead, ^geven in ^hhim doth this man stand here before you whole. 11 ⁱHe is ^jthe stone which was ^kset at nought of you the builders, which was made the head of the corner. 12 And in ^lnone other is there salvation: for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, wherein we must be saved.

13 Now when they beheld the ^mboldness of ⁿPeter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and ^othey took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. 14 And seeing the man that was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the ^pcouncil, they conferred among themselves, 16 saying, ^q"What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a ^rnotable ^smiracle hath been wrought through them, is manifest to all that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. 17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man ^tin this name. 18 And they called them, and ^ucharged them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. 19 But ^vPeter and John answered and said unto them, ^w"Whether it is right in the sight of God to hearken unto you rather than unto God, judge ye: 20 for ^xwe cannot but speak the things which we saw and heard. 21 And they, when they had further threatened them, let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, ^ybecause of the people; for all men ^zglorified God for that which was done. 22 For the man was more than forty years old, on whom this ^{aa}miracle of healing was wrought.

23 And being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said unto them. 24 And they, when they heard it, lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, O ^{ab}Lord, ^{ac}thou that didst make the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is: 25 ^{ad}who ^{ae}by the Holy Spirit, ^{af}by the mouth of our father David thy servant, didst say, lands or houses ^asold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, 35 and ^blaid them at the apostles' feet: and ^cdistribution was made unto each, according as any one had need.

36 And Joseph, who by the apostles was surnamed ^aBarnabas (which is, being interpreted, Son of ¹exhortation), a Levite, a man of ²Cyprus by race, 37 having a field, sold it, and brought the money and ³laid it at the apostles' feet.

5 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, 2 and ^akept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and ^blaid it at the apostles' feet. 3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath ^cSatan filled thy heart to ²lie ¹to the Holy Spirit, and to ^mkeep back part of the price of the land? 4 While it remained, did it not remain thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thy power? How is it that thou hast conceived this thing in thy heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but ¹unto God. 5 And Ananias hearing these words ^afell down and gave up the ghost: and ^cgreat fear came upon all that heard it. 6 And the ³young men arose and ^bwrapped him round, and they carried him out and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. 8 And Peter ^aanswered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land ²for so much. And she said, Yea, for so much. 9 But Peter ^asaid unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to ¹try ¹the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them that have buried thy husband are at the door, and they shall carry thee out. 10 And she ^afell down immediately at his feet, and gave up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. 11 And ^cgreat fear came upon the whole church, and upon all that heard these things.

17 But the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him (which is ^athe sect of ^bthe Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy, 18 and laid hands on the apostles, and ^aput them in public ward. 19 But ^aan angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them out, and said, 20 Go ye, and stand and speak in the temple to the people all ^athe words of this Life. 21 And when they heard ^athis, they entered into the temple ^aabout daybreak, and taught. But ^athe high priest came, and they that were with him, and called ^athe council together, and all ^athe senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison-house to have them brought. 22 But ^athe officers that came found them not in the prison; and they returned, and told, 23 saying, The prison-house we found shut in all safety, and the keepers standing at the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within. 24 Now when ^athe captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were much perplexed concerning them whereunto this would grow. 25 And there came one and told them, Behold, the men whom ye put in the prison are in the temple standing and teaching the people. 26 Then went ^athe captain with ^athe officers, and brought them, but without violence; for ^athey feared the people; 1; ver. 26 ^m See ver. 24 ⁿ See ver. 22 ^o ch. 4. 21; see ver. 13.

And the high priest asked them, 28 saying, ^aWe ^astrictly charged you not to teach in this name: and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and ^aintend to bring this man's blood upon us. 29 But Peter and the apostles answered and said, ^aWe must obey God rather than men. 30 ^aThe God of our fathers ^araised up Jesus, whom ye ^aslew, hanging him on a tree. 31 ^aHim did God exalt ^awith his right hand to be ^aa ^aPrince and a ^aSaviour, to give ^arepentance to Israel, and remission of sins. 32 And we are ^awitnesses ^aof these ^athings; ^aand ^aso ^ais the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 But they, when they heard this, were ^acut to the heart, and were minded to slay them. 34 But there stood up one in ^athe council, a Pharisee, named ^aGamaliel, a ^adoctor of the law, had in honor of all the people, and commanded to put the men forth a little while. 35 And he said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as touching these men, what ye are about to do. 36 For before these days rose up Theudas, ^agiving himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nought. 37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of ^athe enrolment, and drew away ^asome of the people after him: he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. 38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work ^abe of men, it will be overthrown: 39 but if it is of God, ye will not be able to overthrow them; lest haply ye be found even to be ^afighting against God. 40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles unto them, they ^abeat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. 41 They

Stephen. 10 And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they suborned men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. 12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and seized him, and brought him into the council, 13 and set up false witnesses, who said, This man ceaseth not to speak words against this holy place, and the law: 14 for we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered unto us. 15 And all that sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

7 And the high priest said, Are these things so? 2 And he said,

Brethren and fathers, hearken: The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, 3 and said unto him, Get thee out of thy land, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall show thee. 4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Haran: and from thence, when his father was dead, God removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell: 5 and he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: and he promised that he would give it to him in possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. 6 And God spake on this wise, that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and treat them ill, four hundred years. 7 And the nation to which they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. 8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob the twelve patriarchs. 9 And the patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt: and God was with him, 10 and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. 11 Now there came a famine over all Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance. 12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent forth our fathers the first time. 13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's race became manifest unto Pharaoh. 14 And Joseph sent, and called to him Jacob his father, and all his kindred, three-score and fifteen souls. 15 And Jacob went down into Egypt; and he died, himself and our fathers; 16 and they were carried over unto Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver of the sons of Hamor in Shechem. 17 But as the time of the promise drew nigh which God vouchsafed unto Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 till there arose another king over Egypt, who knew not Joseph. 19 The same dealt craftily with our race, and ill-treated our fathers, that they should cast out their babes to the end they might not live. 20 At which season Moses was born, and was exceeding fair; and he was nourished three months in his father's house: 21 and when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. 22 And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians; and he was mighty in his words and works. 23 But when he was well-nigh forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. 24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, smiting the Egyptian: 25 and he supposed that his brethren understood that God by his hand was giving them deliverance; but they understood not. 26 And the day following he appeared unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another? 27 But he that did his neighbor wrong thrust him away, opened, and "the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. 57 But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed upon him with one accord; 58 and they "cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and "the witnesses "laid down their garments at the feet of "a young man named Saul. 59 And they stoned Stephen, "calling upon the Lord, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. 60 And he "kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, "lay not this sin to their charge.

8 And when he had said this, he "fell asleep. 1 And "Saul was consenting unto his death.

And there arose on that day a great persecution against "the church which was in Jerusalem; and they were all "scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and "Samarina, except the apostles. 2 And devout men buried Stephen, and made great lamentation over him. 3 But "Saul laid waste the church, entering into every house, and "dragging men and women committed them to prison.

4 They therefore that "were scattered abroad went about "preaching the word. 5 And "Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed unto them the Christ. 6 And the multitudes gave heed with one accord unto the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard, and saw the signs which he did. 7 "For from many of those that had "unclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice: and many that were "palsied, and that were lame, were healed. 8 And there was "much joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who beforetime in the city used "sorcery, and amazed the "people of Samaria, "giving out that himself was some great one: 10 to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is that power of God which is called Great. 11 And they gave heed to him, because that of long time he had amazed them with his "sorceries. 12 But when they believed Philip "preaching good tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were "baptized, both men and women. 13 And Simon also himself believed: and being baptized, he continued with Philip; and beholding "signs and "great "miracles wrought, he was amazed.

14 Now when "the apostles that were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them "Peter and John: 15 who, when they were come down, prayed for them, "that they might receive the Holy Spirit: 16 for as yet it was fallen upon none of them: only they had been "baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then "laid they their hands on them, and they "received the Holy Spirit. 18 Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the "Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, 19 saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit. 20 But Peter said unto him, Thy silver perish with thee, because thou hast thought "to obtain the gift of God with money. 21 Thou hast "neither part nor lot in this "matter: for thy heart is not "right before God. 22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee. 23 For I see that thou "art in the gall of bitterness and in "the bond of iniquity. 24 And Simon answered and said, Pray ye for me to the Lord, that none of the things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 They therefore, when they had "testified and spoken "the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and "preached the gospel to many villages of the "Samaritans.

26 But "an angel of the Lord spake unto "Philip, saying, Arise and go "toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto "Gaza: the same is desert. 27 And he arose and went, and behold, "a man of Ethiopia, :

Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch. The Conversion of Saul, who is visited by Ananias

eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who ^ahad come to Jerusalem to worship; 28 and he was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah. 29 And ^athe Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. 30 And Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? 31 And he said, How can I, except some one shall guide me? And he besought Philip to come up and sit with him. 32 Now the passage of the scripture which he was reading was this,

¹He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;
And as a lamb before his shearer is dumb,

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away:

For his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other? 35 And Philip ^aopened his mouth, and ^abeginning from this scripture, ^apreached unto him Jesus. 36 And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water; ^awhat doth hinder me to be baptized? ³38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water; both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. 39 And when they came up out of the water, ^athe Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found at ^aAzotus; and passing through he ^apreached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to ^aCæsarea.

⁹But Saul, yet ^abreathing threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, 2 and asked of him ^aletters to ^aDamas-

cus unto ^athe synagogues, that if he found any that were of ^athe Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. 3 And as he journeyed, it came to pass that he drew nigh unto Damascus: and ^asuddenly there shone round about him a light out of heaven: 4 and ^ahe fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? 5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: 6 but rise, and enter into the city, and ^ait shall be told thee what thou must do. 7 And the men that journeyed with him ^astood speechless, ^ahearing the ^avoice, but beholding no man. 8 And Saul arose from the earth; and ^awhen his eyes were opened, he saw nothing; and they led him by the hand, and brought him into ^aDamascus. 9 And he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink.

10 Now there was a certain disciple at ^aDamascus, named ^aAnanias; and the Lord said unto him in ^aa vision, Ananias. Saul preaches at Damascus. He escapes the Jews' Plot, and is sent to Tarsus. Peter cures Æneas, and raises Dorcas tered into the house; and ^alaying his hands on him said, ^bBrother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way which thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight, and be ^cfilled with the Holy Spirit. 18 And straightway there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and he received his sight; and he arose and was baptized; 19 and he took food and was strengthened.

And ^dhe was certain days with ^ethe disciples that were at Damascus. 20 And straightway ^fin the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, that he is ^gthe Son of God. 21 And all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that in Jerusalem ^hmade havoc of them that ⁱcalled on this name? and he had come hither for this intent, that he might bring them bound before the chief priests. 22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews that dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

23 And when ^jmany days were fulfilled, ^kthe Jews took counsel together to kill him: 24 but ^ltheir plot became known to Saul. And ^mthey watched the gates also day and night that they might kill him: 25 but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a ⁿbasket.

26 And ^owhen he was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to ^pthe disciples: and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. 27 But ^qBar-nabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had ^rseen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how ^sat Damascus he had ^tpreached boldly in the name of Jesus. 28 And he was with them going in and going out at Jerusalem, 29 ^upreaching boldly in the name of the Lord: and he spake and disputed against the ^vGrecian Jews; but they were seeking to kill him. 30 And when ^wthe brethren knew it, they brought him down to ^xCæsarea, and ^ysent him forth to ^zTarsus.

31 So ^athe church throughout all Judæa and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being ^bedified; and, walking ^cin the fear of the Lord and ^din the comfort of the Holy Spirit, was multiplied.

32 And it came to pass, as Peter went throughout all parts, he came down also to ^ethe saints that dwelt at ^fLydda. 33 And there he found a certain man named Æneas, who had kept his bed eight years; for he was palsied. 34 And Peter said unto him, Æneas, Jesus Christ healeth thee: arise, and make thy bed. And straightway he arose. 35 And all that dwelt at ^gLydda and in ^hSharon saw him, and they ⁱturned to the Lord.

36 Now there was at ^jJoppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called ^kDorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. 37 And it came to pass in those days, that she fell sick, and died: and when they had washed her, they laid her in an ^lupper chamber. 38 And as Lydda was nigh unto ^mJoppa, ⁿthe disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men unto him, entreating him, Delay not to come on unto us. 39 And Peter arose and went with them. And when he was come, they brought him into the ^oupper chamber: and all the ^pwidows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. 40 But Peter ^qput them all forth, and ^rkneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, he said, ^sTabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 And he gave her his hand, and raised her up; and calling ^tthe saints and ^uwidows, he presented her alive. 42 And it became known throughout all ^vJoppa: and ^wmany believed on the Lord. 43 And it came to pass, that he abode many days in ^xJoppa with ^yone Simon a tanner.

10 Now there was a certain man in ^aCæsarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of ^bthe ^cband called the Italian band, ^da devout man, and ^eone that feared God with all his house, who ^fgave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always. 3 He saw ^gin a vision openly, as it were about ^hthe ninth hour of the day, "an angel of God coming in unto him, and saying to him, Cornelius. 4 And he, "fastening his eyes upon him, and being affrighted, said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms "are gone up "for a memorial before God. 5 And now send men to "Joppa, and fetch one Simon, who is surnamed Peter: 6 he lodgeth with "one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side. 7 And when the angel that spake unto him was departed, he called two of his household-servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; 8 and having rehearsed all things unto them, he sent them to "Joppa.

9 Now on the morrow, as they were on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, "Peter went up upon "the housetop to pray, about "the sixth hour: 10 and he became hungry, and desired to eat: but while they made ready, he "fell into a trance; 11 and he beholdeth "the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet, let down by four corners upon the earth: 12 wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts and creeping things of the earth and birds of the heaven. 13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill and eat. 14 But Peter said, Not so, "Lord; for "I have never eaten anything that is common and unclean. 15 And a voice came unto him again the second time, "What God hath cleansed, make not thou common. 16 And this was done thrice: and straightway the vessel was received up into heaven.

17 Now while Peter was much perplexed in himself what "the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, "the men that were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate, 18 and called and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, were lodging there. 19 And while Peter thought on "the vision, "the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. 20 But arise, and get thee down, and "go with them, nothing doubting: for I have sent them. 21 And Peter went down to the men, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come? 22 And they said, Cornelius a centu-

3 Or, how unlawful it is for a man do.

The Hearers receive the Holy Spirit. At Jerusalem Peter justifies his Conduct

him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him. 36 The word which he sent unto the children of Israel, ^apreaching ²good tidings of ^bpeace by Jesus Christ (he is ^cLord of all)—37 that saying ye yourselves know, which was published throughout all Judæa, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; 38 even ^aJesus of Nazareth, how God ^aanointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power: ^cwho went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for ^aGod was with him. 39 And we are ^awitnesses of all things which he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom also they ^aslew, hanging him on a tree. 40 Him ^aGod raised up the third day, and gave him to be made manifest, 41 ^anot to all the people, but unto ^awitnesses that were chosen before of God, even to us, ^mwho ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. 42 And he ^acharged us to preach unto the people, and to ^atestify that this is he who is ^aordained of God to be the ^aJudge of the living and the dead. 43 To him bear ^aall the prophets witness, that through ^ahis name every one that believeth on him shall receive remission of sins.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, ^athe Holy Spirit fell on all them that heard the word. 45 And ^athey of the circumcision that believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was ^apoured out the gift of the Holy Spirit. 46 For they heard them ^aspeak with tongues, and magnify God. Then ^aanswered Peter, 47 ^aCan any man forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, who ^ahave received the Holy Spirit as well as we? 48 And he ^acommanded them to be baptized ^ain the name of Jesus Christ. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

11 Now the apostles and ^athe brethren that were in Judæa heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. 2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, ^athey that were of the circumcision ^acontended with him,

And ^athese six brethren also accompanied me; and we entered into the man's house: 13 and he told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying, Send to Joppa, and fetch Simon, whose surname is Peter; 14 who shall speak unto thee ^awords, whereby thou shalt be saved, thou and ^aall thy house. 15 And as I began to speak, ^athe Holy Spirit fell on them, even ^aas on us at the beginning. 16 And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, ^aJohn indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized ^ain the Holy Spirit. 17 If then ^aGod gave unto them the like gift as he did also unto us, when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, ^awho was I, that I could withstand God? 18 And when they heard these things, they held their peace, and ^aglorified God, saying, Then to the Gentiles also hath God granted ^arepentance unto life.

And it came to pass, that even for a whole year they were gathered together ⁴with the church, and taught much people; and that ^othe disciples were called ^pChristians first in ^cAntioch.

27 Now in these days there ^qcame down ^rprophets from Jerusalem unto ^cAntioch. 28 And there stood up one of them named ^sAgabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be a great famine over ^{all} the world: which came to pass in the days of ^tClaudius. 29 And ^othe disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send ⁶relief unto ^uthe brethren that dwelt in Judea: 30 ⁷which also they did, sending it to the ^velders by the hand of ^dBarnabas and Saul.

12 Now about that time Herod the king put forth his hands to afflict certain of the church. 2 And he ⁸killed James the brother of John with the sword. 3 And when he saw that it ⁹pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four ^oquaternions of soldiers to guard him; intending after ¹⁰the Passover to bring him forth to the people. 5 Peter therefore was kept in the prison: but prayer was made earnestly of the church unto God for him. 6 And when Herod was about to bring him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, ¹¹bound with two chains: and guards before the door kept the prison. 7 And behold, ¹²an angel of the Lord ¹³stood by him, and a light shined in the cell: and he smote Peter on the side, and awoke him, saying, Rise up quickly. And ¹⁴his chains fell off from his hands. 8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And he did so. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. 9 And he went out, and followed; and he knew not that it was true which was done ¹⁵by the angel, but thought he saw ¹⁶a vision. 10 And when they were past the first and the second guard, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth into the city; which ¹⁷opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and straightway the angel departed from him. 11 And when Peter ¹⁸was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a truth, that ¹⁹the Lord hath sent forth his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. 12 And when he had considered ²⁰the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of ²¹John whose surname was Mark: where many were gathered together and ²²were praying. 13 And when he knocked at the door of the gate, ²³a maid came to answer, named Rhoda. 14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate ²⁴for joy, but ran in, and told that Peter stood before the gate. 15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. Herod's Terrible Death. In Cyprus Elymas made blind and Sergius Paulus converted. John Mark quits Paul tinued knocking: and when they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. 17 But he, ^abeckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him forth out of the prison. And he said, Tell these things unto ^bJames, and to ^cthe brethren. And he departed, and went to another place. 18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter. 19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should ^dbe ^eput to death. And he went down from Judæa to ^fCæsarea, and tarried there.

20 Now he was highly displeased with them of ^gTyre and ^hSidon: and they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, they asked for peace, because ⁱtheir country was fed from the king's country. 21 And upon a set day Herod arrayed himself in royal apparel, and sat on the ^jthrone, and made an oration unto them. 22 And the people shouted, saying, The voice of a god, and not of a man. 23 And immediately ^kan angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he ^lwas eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 But ^mthe word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And ⁿBarnabas and ^oSaul returned ^pfrom Jerusalem, ^qwhen they had fulfilled their ministration, taking with them ^rJohn whose surname was Mark.

13 Now there were at ^sAntioch, in the ^tchurch that was ^uthere, ^vprophets and ^wteachers, ^xBarnabas, and Symeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of ^yCyrene, and Manaen the foster-brother of ^zHerod the tetrarch, and ^{aa}Saul. 2 And as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, ^{ab}the Holy Spirit said, Separate me ^{ac}Barnabas and ^{ad}Saul for ^{ae}the work whereunto I have called them. 3 Then, when they had fasted and ^{af}prayed and ^{ag}laid their hands on them, ^{ah}they sent them away.

the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to ^aCyprus. 5 And when they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in ^bthe synagogues of the Jews: and they had also ^cJohn as their attendant. 6 And when they had gone through the whole island unto Paphos, they found a certain ^dsorcerer, a ^efalse prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus; 7 who was with the ^fproconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. The same called unto him Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. 8 But Elymas the ^gsorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the ^hproconsul from ⁱthe faith. 9 But Saul, who is also ^jcalled Paul, ^kfilled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him, 10 and said, O full of all guile and all villany, thou ^lson of the devil, thou ^menemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert ⁿthe right ways of the Lord? 11 And now, behold, ^othe hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun ^pfor a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. 12 Then the ^qproconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at ^rthe teaching of the Lord.

13 Now Paul and his company set sail from ^sPaphos, and came to ^tPerga in ^uPamphylia: and ^vJohn departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. 14 But they, passing through from Perga, came to ^wAntioch of ^xPisidia; and they went into ^ythe synagogue on ^zthe sabbath day, and sat down. 15 And after ^{aa}the reading of the law and ^{ab}the prophets ^{ac}the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on. 16 And Paul stood up, and ^{ad}beckoning with the hand said,

Paul's Address at Antioch of Pisidia. Asked to speak on the next Sabbath

God, hearken: 17 The God of this people Israel "chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they sojourned in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm led he them forth out of it. 18 And for about ¹the time of forty years ^{1a}as a nursing-father bare he them in the wilderness. 19 And "when he had destroyed ^{1b}seven nations in the land of Canaan, he ^{1c}gave them their land for an inheritance, for ^{1d}about four hundred and fifty years: 20 and after these things he ^{1e}gave them judges until "Samuel the prophet. 21 And afterward they ^{1f}asked for a king: and God gave unto them "Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for the space of forty years. 22 And when he had ^{1g}removed him, he raised up David to be their king; to whom also he bare witness and said, ^{1h}I have found "David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who shall do all my ¹ⁱwill. 23 "Of this man's seed hath God ^{1j}according to promise brought unto Israel ^{1k}a Saviour, Jesus: 24 when "John had first preached ^{1l}before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 And as John ^{1m}was fulfilling his course, ¹ⁿhe said, What suppose ye that I am? I am not ^{1o}he. But behold, there cometh one after me the shoes of whose feet I am not worthy to unloose. 26 Brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you that fear God, to us is the word of ^{1p}this salvation sent forth. 27 For they that dwell in Jerusalem, and their ^{1q}rulers, "because they knew him, not, nor the voices of ^{1r}the prophets which are ^{1s}read every sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him. 28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet ^{1t}asked they of Pilate that he should be slain. 29 And when they had ^{1u}fulfilled all things that were written of him, ^{1v}they took him down from ^{1w}the tree, and laid him in a tomb. 30 But God ^{1x}raised him from the dead: 31 and he was seen for many days of them that came up with him ^{1y}from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now ^{1z}his witnesses unto the people. 32 And we ^{1aa}bring you good tidings of ^{1ab}the promise made unto the fathers, 33 that God hath fulfilled the same unto our children, in that he ¹raised up Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, ²Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. 34 And as concerning that he ³raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he hath spoken on this wise, ⁴I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David. 35 Because he saith also in another psalm, ⁵Thou wilt not give thy Holy One to see corruption. 36 For ⁶David, after he had ⁷in his own generation served ⁸the counsel of God, ⁹fell asleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: 37 but he whom God ¹⁰raised up saw no corruption. 38 Be it known unto you therefore, brethren, that ¹¹through this man is proclaimed unto you remission of sins: 39 and by him ¹²every one that believeth is justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. 40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken ¹³in the prophets:

For I work a work in you days, A work which ye shall in no wise believe, if one declare it unto you.

42 And as they went out, they besought that these words might be spoken to them the next ¹⁶sabbath. 43 Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the ¹⁷devout ¹⁸proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in ¹⁹the grace of God.

44 And the next ²⁰sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of ²¹God. 45 But when ²²the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and ²³blasphemed. 46 And Paul and Barnabas spake out boldly, and said, It was necessary that the word him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath.

22 Then it seemed good to "the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to ^bAntioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas called Barsabbas, and ^cSilas, chief men among "the brethren: 23 and they wrote ^dthus by them, ^e1^a The apostles and the elders, brethren, unto "the brethren who are of the Gentiles in ^bAntioch and ^cSyria and ^dCilicia, ^egreeting: 24 Forasmuch as we have heard that "certain "who went out from us have "troubled you with words, subverting your souls; to whom we gave no commandment; 25 "it seemed good unto us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 men that have "hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We have sent therefore ^mJudas and ⁿSilas, who themselves also shall tell you the same things by word of mouth. 28 For "it seemed good to "the Holy Spirit, and to ^pus, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: 29 that ye abstain from "things sacrificed to idols, and from "blood, and from "things strangled, and "from "fornication; from which ^qye keep yourselves, it shall be well with you. Fare ye well.

30 So they, when they were dismissed, "came down to Antioch; and having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle. 31 And when they had read it, they rejoiced for the ^rconsolation. 32 And ^mJudas and ⁿSilas, being themselves also "prophets, "exhorted "the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. 33 And after they had spent some time ^sthere, they were dismissed "in peace from the brethren unto those that had "sent them forth.⁵ 35 But ^tPaul and Barnabas tarried in Antioch, teaching and ^upreaching "the word of the Lord, with many others also.

Paul at Philippi. Lydia. The Soothsaying Maid exorcised. Paul and Silas beaten and imprisoned. The Jailor becomes a standing, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. 10 And when he had seen ^athe vision, straightway ^bwe sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to ^{1c}preach the gospel unto them.

11 Setting sail therefore from ^dTroas, we made ^ea straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; 12 and from thence to ^fPhilippi, which is a city of ^gMacedonia, the first of the district, ^ha Roman colony: and we were in this city tarrying certain days. 13 And on ⁱthe sabbath day we went forth without the gate by a river side, ^jwhere we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down, and spake unto the women that were come together. 14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of ^kThyatira, ^lone that worshipped God, heard us: ^mwhose heart the Lord opened to give heed unto the things which were spoken by Paul. 15 And when she was baptized, and ⁿher household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide ^othere. And she constrained us.

16 And it came to pass, as we were going to ^pthe place of prayer, that a certain maid having ^qa spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by soothsaying. 17 The same following after Paul and us cried out, saying, These men are ^rservants of ^sthe Most High God, who proclaim unto you ^tthe way of salvation: 18 And this she did for many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, turned and said to the spirit, I charge thee ^uin the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out that very hour.

19 But when her masters saw that the hope of their ^vgain was ^wgone, they laid hold on Paul and Silas, and ^xdragged them into the marketplace before the rulers, 20 and when they had brought them unto the ^ymagistrates, they said, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 and ^zset forth customs which it is not lawful for us to receive, or to observe, being ^{aa}Romans. 22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the ^{ab}magistrates rent their garments off them, and commanded to ^{ac}beat them with rods. 23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging ^{ad}the jailor to keep them safely: 24 who, having received such a charge, cast them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in ^{ae}the stocks. 25 But about midnight ^{af}Paul and Silas were praying and ^{ag}singing hymns unto God, and the prisoners were listening to them; 26 and suddenly ^{ah}there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison-house were shaken: and immediately ^{ai}all the doors were opened; and every one's ^{aj}bands were loosed. 27 And ^{ak}the jailor, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about ^{al}to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. 28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. 29 And he called for lights and sprang in, and, trembling for fear, fell down before ^{am}Paul and Silas, 30 and brought them out and said, Sirs, ^{an}what must I do to be saved? 31 And they said, ^{ao}Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou and ^{ap}thy house. 32 And they spake the word of ^{aq}the Lord unto him, with all that were in his house. 33 And he took them ^{ar}the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, immediately. 34 And he brought them up into his house, and set ^{as}food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with ^{at}all his house, ^{au}having believed in God.

35 But when it was day, the ^{av}magistrates sent the ^{aw}serjeants, saying, Let those men go. 36 And ^{ax}the jailor reported the words to Paul, ^{ay}saying, The ^{az}magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore come forth, and go ^{ba}in peace. 37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us publicly, uncondemned.

synagogue of the Jews. 11 Now these were more noble than those in ¹Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the scriptures daily, whether these things were so. 12 Many of them therefore believed; also of the ²Greek women ³of honorable estate, and of men, not a few. 13 But when the Jews of ⁴Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed of Paul at ⁵Berea also, they came thither likewise, stirring up and troubling the multitudes. 14 And then immediately ⁶the brethren sent forth Paul to go as far as to the sea; and ⁷Silas and ⁸Timothy abode there still. 15 But ⁹they that conducted Paul brought him as far as ¹⁰Athens: and receiving a commandment unto ¹¹Silas and Timothy that they should ¹²come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at ¹Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he beheld the city full of idols. 17 So he reasoned ²in the synagogue with the Jews and the ³devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with them that met him. 18 And certain also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, What would ⁴this babbler say? others, He seemeth to be a setter forth of ⁵strange ⁶gods: because he ⁷preached ⁸Jesus and the resurrection. 19 And they ⁹took hold of him, and brought him ¹⁰unto ¹¹the Areopagus, saying, May we know what ¹²this new teaching is, which is spoken by thee? 20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. 21 (Now all the Athenians and the strangers ²²sojourning there ²³spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.) 22 And Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, and said,

Ye men of ¹Athens, in all things I perceive that ye are ²very ³religious. 23 For as I passed along, and observed the "objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. What therefore ye worship in ignorance, this I set forth unto you. 24 "The God that made the world and all things therein, he, being "Lord of heaven and earth, "dwelleth not in "temples made with hands; 25 neither is he served by men's hands, "as though he needed anything, seeing he himself giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; 26 and "he made of one every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, having "determined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation; 27 that they should seek God, if haply they might feel after him and find him, "though he is not far from each one of us: 28 for "in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain even of your own poets have said,

For we are also his offspring. 29 Being then the offspring of God, we "ought not to think that "the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and device of man. 30 "The times of ignorance therefore God "overlooked; but "now he "commandeth men that they should all everywhere repent: 31 inasmuch as he hath appointed "a day in which "he will judge "the world in righteousness "by "the man whom he hath "ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he "hath raised him from the dead.

32 Now when they heard of "the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, We will hear thee concerning this yet again. 33 Thus Paul went out from among them. 34 But certain men clave unto him, and believed: among whom also was Dionysius the "Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 After these things he departed from "Athens, and came to "Corinth. 2 And he found a certain Jew named "Aquila, a man of "Pontus by race, lately come from "Italy, with his wife "Priscilla, because "Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome: and he came unto them; 3 and because he was of the same trade, he abode with them, and "they wrought; for by their trade they were tentmakers. 4 And he reasoned "in the synagogue every "sabbath, and "persuaded "Jews and Greeks.

5 But when "Silas and Timothy "came down from "Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the word, "testifying to the Jews that "Jesus was the Christ. 6 And when they opposed themselves and "blasphemed, he "shook out his raiment and said unto them, "Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go "unto the Gentiles. 7 And he departed thence, and went into the house of a certain man named Titus Justus, "one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. 8 And "Crispus, "the ruler of the synagogue, "believed in the Lord "with all his house; and many of the "Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. 9 And the Lord said unto Paul in the night by "a vision, Be not afraid, but speak and hold not thy peace: 10 for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to harm thee: for I have much people in this city. 11 And he dwelt there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 But when Gallio was "proconsul of "Achaia, "the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before "the judgment-seat, 13 saying, This man persuadeth men to worship God contrary to "the law. 14 But when Paul was about to "open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked villany, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: 15 but if they are "questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves; I am not minded to be a judge of these matters. 16 And

18 And Paul, having tarried after this yet many days, "took his leave of "the brethren, and sailed thence for "Syria, and with him "Priscilla and "Aquila; having "shorn his head in "Cenchreae; "for he had a vow. 19 And they came to "Ephesus, and he left them there: but he himself entered into "the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. 20 And when they asked him to abide a longer time, he consented not; 21 but "taking his leave of them, and saying, I will return again unto you "if God will, he set sail from "Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at "Caesarea, he went up and saluted the church, and went down to "Antioch. 23 And having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of "Galatia, and "Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples.

24 Now a certain Jew named "Apollos, an "Alexandrian by race. But when "Priscilla and "Aquila heard him, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him "the way of God more accurately. 27 And when he was minded to pass over into "Achaia, "the brethren encouraged him, and wrote to "the disciples to receive him: and when he was come, he "helped them much that had believed through grace; 28 for he powerfully confuted the Jews, "and that publicly, showing "by the scriptures that "Jesus was the Christ.

laid against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for "Syria, he determined to return through "Macedonia. 4 And there accompanied him "as far as "Asia, Sopater of "Berea, the son of Pyrrhus; and of the "Thessalonians, "Aristarchus and Secundus; and "Gaius of "Derbe, and "Timothy; and of "Asia "Tychicus and "Trophimus. 5 But these "had gone before, and were waiting for "us at "Troas. 6 And "we sailed away from "Philippi after "the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to "Troas in five days; where we tarried seven days.

7 And upon "the first day of the week, when "we were gathered together to "break bread, Paul discoursed with them, intending to depart on the morrow; and prolonged his speech until midnight. 8 And there were many "lights in the "upper chamber where we were gathered together. 9 And there sat in the window a certain young man named Eutychus, borne down with deep sleep; and as Paul discoursed yet longer, being borne down by his sleep he fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead. 10 And Paul went down, and "fell on him, and embracing him "said, Make ye no ado; for his life is in him. 11 And when he was gone up, and had "broken the bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even till break of day, so he departed. 12 And they brought the lad alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 But "we, going before to the ship, set sail for Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, intending himself to go "by land. 14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene. 15 And sailing from thence, we came the following day over against Chios; and the next day we touched at Samos; and "the day after we came to "Miletus. 16 For Paul had determined to sail past "Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in "Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, "to be at Jerusalem "the day of Pentecost.

therefore? they will certainly hear that thou art come. 23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men that "have a vow on them; 24 these take, and "purify thyself with them, and beat charges for them, that they may "shave their heads: and all shall know that there is no truth in the things whereof they have been informed concerning thee; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, keeping the law. 25 But as touching the Gentiles that have believed, we "wrote, "giving judgment that they should keep themselves from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from fornication. 26 Then Paul "took the men, and the next day "purifying himself with them "went into the temple, declaring the fulfilment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them.

27 And when "the seven days were almost completed, "the Jews from "Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude and laid hands on him, 28 crying out, Men of Israel, help: "This is the man that teacheth all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place; and moreover he brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath "defiled this "holy place. 29 For they had before seen with him in the city "Trophimus the "Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple. 30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together; and they laid hold on Paul, and "dragged him out of the temple: and straightway the doors were shut. 31 And as they were seeking to kill him, tidings came up to the "chief captain of the "band, that all Jerusalem was in confusion. 32 And forthwith he "took soldiers and centurions, and ran down upon them: and they, when they saw the "chief captain and the soldiers, left off beating Paul. 33 Then the "chief captain came near, and laid hold on him, and commanded him to be "bound with "two chains; and inquired who he was, and what he had done.

And he said, Yea. 28 And the ^g chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this citizenship. And Paul said, But I am a Roman born. 29 They then that were about to ^h examine him straightway departed from him: and the ⁱ chief captain also ^j was afraid when he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had ^k bound him.

30 But on the morrow, ^l desiring to know the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he ^m loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all ⁿ the council to come together, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

23 And Paul, looking stedfastly on ^a the council, said, ^b Brethren, ^c I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day. 2 And the high priest ^d Ananias commanded them that stood by him ^e to smite him on the mouth. 3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, ^f thou whited wall: and ^g sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? 4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest? 5 And Paul said, I knew not, brethren, that he was high priest: for it is written, ^h Thou shalt not speak evil of a ruler of thy people. 6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were ⁱ Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in ^j the council, ^k Brethren, ^l I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees: touching ^m the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. 7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and Sadducees; and the assembly was divided.

8 For^a the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both. 9 And there arose a great clamor: and some of^b the scribes of the Pharisees' part stood up, and strove, saying, "We find no evil in this man: and^c what if a spirit hath spoken to him, or an angel? 10 And when there arose a great dissension, the^d chief captain, fearing lest Paul should be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into^e the castle.

11 And^f the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, "Be of good cheer: for^g as thou hast testified concerning me at Jerusalem, so must thou bear^h witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, ⁱthe Jews banded together, and^j bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. 13 And they were more than forty that made this conspiracy. 14 And they came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, We have^k bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. 15 Now therefore do ye with^l the council signify to the^m chief captain that he bring him down unto you, as though ye would judge of his case more exactly: and we, before he comes near, are ready to slay him. 16 But Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, ⁿand he came and entered into^o the castle and told Paul. 17 And Paul called unto him one of the centurions, and said, Bring this young man unto the^p chief captain; for he hath something to tell him. 18 So he took him, and brought him to the^q chief captain, and saith, Paul^r the prisoner called me unto him, and asked me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say to thee. 19 And the^s chief captain took him by the hand, and going aside asked him privately, What is it that thou hast to tell me? 20 And he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask thee to bring down Paul to-morrow unto^t the council, as though thou would-

"accusers also are come: and he commanded him to be kept in Herod's palace.

24 And after five days the high priest Ananias came down with certain elders, and with an orator, one Tertullus; and they informed the governor against Paul. 2 And when he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying,

Seeing that by thee we enjoy much peace, and that by thy providence evils are corrected for this nation, 3 we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. 4 But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I entreat thee to hear us of thy clemency a few words. 5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarenes: 6 who moreover assayed to profane the temple: on whom also we laid hold: 8 from whom thou wilt be able, by examining him thyself, to take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him. 9 And the Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that these things were so.

Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I cheerfully make my defence: 11 seeing that thou canst take knowledge that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem: 12 and neither in the temple did they find me disputing with any man or stirring up a crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city. 13 Neither can they prove to thee the things whereof they now accuse me. 14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the Way which they call a sect, so serve I the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets: 15 having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there shall be a resurrection both of the just and unjust. 16 Herein I also exercise myself to have a conscience void of offence toward God and men always. 17 Now after some years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings: 18 amidst which they found me purified in the temple, with no crowd, nor yet with tumult: but there were certain Jews from Asia—19 who ought to have been here before thee, and to make accusation, if they had aught against me. 20 Or else let these men themselves say what wrong-doing they found when I stood before the council, 21 except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question before you this day.

22 But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will determine your matter. 23 And he gave order to the centurion that he should be kept in charge, and should have indulgence; and not to forbid any of his friends to minister unto him.

24 But after certain days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. 25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, and self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, Go thy way for this time; and when I have a convenient season, I will call thee unto me. 26 He hoped withal that money would be given him of Paul: wherefore also he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. 27 But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and desiring to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

25 Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Cæsarea. 2 And the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul; and they besought him, 3 asking a favor against him, that he would send for him to Jerusa-

Festus calls him mad

Defence before thee this day touching all the things whereof I am accused by the Jews: 3¹ especially because thou art expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. 4⁶ My manner of life then from my youth up, which was from the beginning among mine own nation and at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; 5 having knowledge of me from the first, if they be willing to testify, that after the straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. 6 And now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers; 7 unto which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. And concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, O king! 8 Why is it judged incredible with you, if God doth raise the dead? 9 I verily thought with myself that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. 10 And this I also did in Jerusalem: and I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them. 11 And punishing them oftentimes in all the synagogues, I strove to make them blasphemers; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto foreign cities. 12 Whereupon as I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests, 13 at midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them that journeyed with me. 14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying unto me in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the goad. 15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. 16 But arise, and stand upon thy feet: for to this end have I appeared unto thee, to appoint thee a minister and a witness both of the things wherein thou hast seen me, and of the things wherein I will appear unto thee; 17 delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom I send thee, 18 to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among them that are sanctified by faith in me. 19 Wherefore, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: 20 but declared both to them of Damascus first, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judaea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. 21 For this cause the Jews seized me in the temple, and assayed to kill me. 22 Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand unto this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses did say should come; 23 how that the Christ must suffer, and how that he first by the resurrection of the dead should proclaim light both to the people and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus made his defence, Festus saith with a loud voice, Paul, thou art mad; thy much learning is turning thee mad. 25 But Paul saith, I am not mad, most excellent Festus; but speak forth words of truth and soberness. 26 For the king knoweth of these things, unto whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him; for this hath not been done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest. 28 And Agrippa said unto Paul, With but little persuasion thou wouldest fain make me a Christian. 29 And Paul said, I would to God, that whether with little or with much, not thou only, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except these bonds.

Paul might have been set at Liberty but for his Appeal. Paul sails for Italy. The Voyage Dangerous

30 And "the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them: 31 and when they had withdrawn, they spake one to another, saying, "This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. 32 And Agrippa said unto Festus, This man might have been "set at liberty, if he had not "appealed unto Cæsar.

27 And when it was determined that "we should sail for "Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan "band. 2 And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail unto the places on the coast of "Asia, we put to sea, "Aristarchus, a "Macedonian of "Thessalonica, being with us. 3 And the next day we touched at "Sidon: and Julius "treated Paul kindly, and "gave him leave to go unto his friends and "refresh himself. 4 And putting to sea from thence, we sailed under the lee of "Cyprus, because "the winds were contrary. 5 And when we had sailed across the sea which is off "Cilicia and "Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. 6 And there the centurion found a "ship of Alexandria sailing for "Italy; and he put us therein. 7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty over against Caidus, "the wind not "further suffering us, we sailed under the lee of "Crete, over against Salmone; 8 and with difficulty "coasting along it we came unto a certain place called Fair Havens: nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 And when much time was spent, and the voyage was now dangerous, because "the Fast was now already gone by, Paul admonished them, 10 and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with "injury and much loss, not only of the lading and the ship, but also of our lives. 11 But the centurion gave more heed to the "master and to the owner of the ship, than to those things which were spoken by Paul. 12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to put to sea from thence, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there; which is a haven of "Crete, looking "north-east and south-east. 13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and "sailed along "Crete, close in shore. 14 But after no long time there "beat down from it a tempestuous wind, which is called Euraquilo: 15 and when the ship was caught, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven. 16 And running under the lee of a small island called "Cauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat: 17 and when they had hoisted it up, they used helps, under-girding the ship; and, fearing lest they should "be cast upon the Syrtis, they lowered the gear, and so were driven. 18 And as we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to "throw the freight overboard; 19 and the third day they cast out with their own hands the "tackling of the ship. 20 And when neither sun nor stars shone upon us for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was now taken away. 21 And when they had been long without food, then Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, "Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have set sail from "Crete, and have gotten this "injury and loss. 22 And now I exhort you to be "of good cheer; for there shall be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. 23 For "there stood by me this night "an angel of the God whose I am, "whom also I serve, 24 saying, Fear not, Paul; "thou must stand before Cæsar: and lo, God hath granted thee "all them that sail with thee. 25 Wherefore, sirs, be "of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even so as it hath been spoken unto me. 26 But we must "be cast upon a certain "island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven to and fro in the sea of Adria, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some country: 28 and they sounded, and found twenty fathoms; and after a little space, they sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms. 29 And fearing lest haply we should ^a be cast ashore on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and ^b wished for the day. 30 And as the sailors were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had lowered ^c the boat into the sea, under color as though they would lay out anchors from the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. 33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take some food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. 34 Wherefore I beseech you to take some food: for this is for your safety: for ^d there shall not a hair perish from the head of any of you. 35 And when he had said this, and had taken bread, he ^e gave thanks to God in the presence of all; and he brake it, and began to eat. 36 Then were they all ^f of good cheer, and themselves also took food. 37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen ^g souls. 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, ^h throwing out the wheat into the sea. 39 And when it was day, ⁱ they knew not the land: but they perceived a certain bay with a beach, and they took counsel whether they could ^j drive the ship upon it. 40 And casting off ^k the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosing the bands of the rudders; and hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. 41 But lighting upon a place where two seas met, and they ran the vessel aground; and the foreship struck and remained unmoveable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves. 42 And the soldiers' counsel was to ^l kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. 43 But the centurion, ^m desiring to save Paul, stayed them from their purpose; and commanded that they who could swim should cast themselves overboard, and get first to the land; 44 and the rest, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship And so it came to pass, that ⁿ they all escaped safe to the land.

28 And when ^o we were escaped, ^p then we knew that ^q the island was called ^r Melita. 2 And ^s the barbarians showed us no common kindness: for they kindled a fire, and ^t received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. 3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out ^u by reason of the heat, and fastened on his hand. 4 And when ^v the barbarians saw the venomous creature hanging from his hand, they said one to another, ^w No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped from the sea, yet ^x Justice hath not suffered to live. 5 Howbeit ^y he shook off the creature into the fire, and took no harm. 6 But they expected that he would have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but when they were long in expectation and beheld nothing amiss come to him, they changed their minds, and ^z said that he was a god.

7 Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius; who received us, and entertained us three days courteously. 8 And it was so, that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery: unto whom Paul entered in, and ^{aa} prayed, and ^{ab} laying his hands on him healed him. 9 And when this was done, the rest also that had diseases in the island came, and were cured: 10 who also honored us with many honors; and when we sailed, they put on board such things as we needed.

11 And after three months we set sail in ^{ac} a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was ^{ad} The Twin Brothers. 12 And touching at Syracuse, we tarried there three days. 13 And from thence we ^{ae} made a circuit, and arrived at Rhagium; and after one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli; 14 where

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE ROMANS

Salutation. Personal Explanations. The Gospel. The Gentiles' Need of Righteousness

1 Paul, a ¹servant of Jesus Christ, ²called to be an apostle, ³separated unto ⁴the ⁵gospel of God, ⁶2 which he ⁷promised afore through his ⁸prophets in the holy scriptures, ⁹3 concerning his Son, who was born ¹⁰of the seed of David ¹¹according to the flesh, ¹²4 who was ¹³declared to be ¹⁴the Son of God ¹⁵with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection ¹⁶from the dead; even Jesus Christ our Lord, ¹⁷5 through whom we received grace and ¹⁸apostleship, unto ¹⁹obedience ²⁰of faith among ²¹all the ²²nations, for his name's sake; ²³6 among whom are ye also, ²⁴called to be Jesus Christ's: ²⁵7 to all that are in Rome, ²⁶beloved of God, ²⁷called to be ²⁸saints: ²⁹Grace to you and peace ³⁰from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, ⁹I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, ¹⁰that ¹¹your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. ¹²9 For ¹³God is my witness, whom I ¹⁴serve in my spirit in the ¹⁵gospel of his Son, how unceasingly ¹⁶I make mention of you, always in my prayers ¹⁷10 making request, if by any means now at length I may be prospered ¹⁸by ¹⁹the will of God to come unto you. ²⁰11 For ²¹I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; ²²12 that is, that I with you may be comforted ²³10 in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine. ²⁴13 And ²⁵I would not have you ignorant, ²⁶brethren, that oftentimes I ²⁷purposed to come unto you (and was hindered hitherto), that I might have some ²⁸fruit ²⁹10 in you also, even as, ³⁰10 in the rest of the Gentiles. ³¹14 ³²I am debtor both to

Superiority in Privilege does not diminish Guilt. Jew and Gentile alike under Sin, as the Scriptures testify

19 and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them that are in darkness, 20¹ a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babes, having in the law^a the form of knowledge and of the truth; 21 thou therefore^b that teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? 22 thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou^c rob temples? 23 thou who^d gloriest in the law, through thy transgression of the law dishonorest thou God? 24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles^e because of you,^f even as it is written. 25 For circumcision indeed profiteth, if thou be a doer of the law: but if thou be a transgressor of the law,^g thy circumcision is become uncircumcision. 26^h If therefore the uncircumcisionⁱ keep the ordinances of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision? 27 and shall not the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who^j with the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the law? 28 For^k he is not a Jew who is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh: 29 but^l he is a Jew who is one inwardly: and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit not in the letter; ^mwhose praise is not of men, but of God.

3 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision? 2 Much every way: first of all, thatⁿ they were intrusted with the oracles of God. 3 For what if^o some were without faith? shall their want of faith make of none effect the faithfulness of God? 4³ God forbid: yea, let God be found true, but every man^p a liar; as it is written,

That thou mightest be justified in thy words,

And mightest prevail when thou comest into judgment.

5 But if our unrighteousness^q commendeth the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who visiteth with wrath? (I speak after the manner of men.) 6³ God forbid: for then how shall ^{am} God judge the world? 7⁵ But if the truth of God through^{an} my lie abounded unto his glory,^{ao} why am I also still judged as a sinner? 8 and why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say),^{ap} Let us do evil, that good may come? whose condemnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we before laid to the charge both of Jews and Greeks, that they are^{aq} all under sin; 10 as it is written,

There is none righteous, no, not one;

11 There is none that understandeth.

There is none that seeketh after God;

12 They have all turned aside, they are together become unprofitable;

There is none that doeth good, no, not so much as one:

13 Their throat is an open sepulchre;

With their tongues they have used deceit:

^{ar} The poison of asps is under their lips:

14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways;

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it speaketh to them that are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God: 20 because^{as} by the works of the law shall no flesh be^{at} justified in his sight; for^{au} through the law cometh the knowledge of sin.

the law and the prophets; 22 even the "righteousness of God through faith" in Jesus Christ unto "all" them that believe; for "there is no distinction; 23 for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; 24 being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: 25 whom God set forth to be a propitiation, through faith, in his blood, to show his righteousness because of the "passing over of the sins done aforetime, in the forbearance of God; 26 for the showing, I say, of his righteousness at this present season: that he might himself be just, and the justifier of him that hath faith in Jesus. 27 Where then is the glorying? It is excluded. By what manner of law? of works? Nay: but by a law of faith. 28 We reckon therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. 29 Or is not the God of Jews only? is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yea, of Gentiles also: 30 if so be that God is one, and he shall justify the circumcision by faith, and the uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make the law of none effect through faith? God forbid: nay, we establish the law.

4 What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather, hath found according to the flesh? 2 For if Abraham was justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not toward God. 3 For what saith the scripture? "And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. 4 Now to him that worketh, the reward is not reckoned as of grace, but as of debt. 5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness. 6 Even as David also pronounceth blessing upon the man, unto whom God reckoneth righteousness apart from works, 7 saying,

9 Is this blessing then pronounced upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say, To Abraham his faith was reckoned for righteousness. 10

How then was it reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision: 11 and he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might be reckoned unto them; 12 and the father of circumcision to them who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had in uncircumcision. 13 For not through the law was the promise to Abraham or to his seed that he should be heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For if they that are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect: 15 for the law worketh wrath: but where there is no law, neither is there transgression. 16 For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace; to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all 17 (as it is written, A father of many nations have I made thee) before him whom he believed, even God, who giveth life to the dead, and calleth the things that are not, as though they were. 18 Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, So shall thy seed be. 19 And without being weakened in faith he considered his own body¹ now² as good as dead (³he being about a hundred years old), and ⁴the deadness of Sarah's² womb; 20 yet, looking unto the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but waxed strong through faith, ⁵giving glory to God, 21 and ⁶being fully assured that ⁷what he had promised, he was able also to perform. 22 Wherefore also⁸ it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. 23 Now ⁹it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned unto him; 24 but for our sake also, unto whom it shall be reckoned, ¹⁰who believe on him that ¹¹raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 who was ¹²delivered up for our trespasses, and was ¹³raised for our justification.

5 ¹⁴Being therefore justified ¹⁵by faith, ¹⁶we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; 2 through whom also we have ¹⁷had our access¹⁸ ¹⁹by faith into this grace²⁰ wherein we stand; and ²¹we ²²rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 ²³And not only so, but ²⁴we also ²⁵rejoice in our tribulations: knowing that tribulation worketh ²⁶steadfastness; 4 and ²⁷steadfastness, ²⁸approvedness; and approvedness, hope: 5 and hope ²⁹putteth not to shame; because the love of God hath been ³⁰shed abroad in our hearts through the Holy Spirit which was given unto us. 6 For while we were yet ³¹weak, ³²in due season ³³Christ died for the ungodly. 7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for peradventure for the good man some one would even dare to die. 8 But God ³⁴commendeth ³⁵his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, ³⁶Christ died for us. 9 Much more then, being now justified, ³⁷by his blood, shall we be saved³⁸ from the wrath of God through him. 10 For if, while we were ³⁹enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, shall we be saved³⁹ ⁴⁰by his life; 11 ⁴¹and not only so,

¹¹ but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received ¹²the reconciliation.

12 Therefore, as through ¹³one man sin entered into the world, and ¹⁴death through sin; and ¹⁵so death passed unto all men, for that all sinned:—13 for until the law sin was in the world; but ¹⁶'sin is not imputed when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over them that had not sinned ¹⁷'after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a ¹⁸'figure of him that was to come. 15 But not as the trespass, so also is the free gift. For if by the trespass of ¹⁹'the one ²⁰'the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by ²¹'the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound unto ²²'the many. 16 And not as through one that sinned, so is the gift: for ²³'the judgment came of one unto condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses unto ²⁴'justification. 17 For if, by the trespass of the one, death reigned ²⁵'through the one; much more shall they that receive the abundance of grace and ²⁶'of the gift of righteousness ²⁷'reign in life through the one, even Jesus Christ. 18 So then as through ²⁸'one trespass the judgment came unto all men to condemnation; even so through one ²⁹'act of righteousness the free gift came unto all men to ³⁰'justification of life. 19 For as through the one man's disobedience ³¹'the many ³²'were made sinners, even so through ³³'the obedience of the one shall ³⁴'the many be made righteous. 20 And ³⁵'the law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, ³⁶'grace did abound more exceedingly: 21 that, as ³⁷'sin reigned in death, even so might ³⁸'grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Believer dead to Sin but alive unto God. Grace and Sin Incompatible. The Believer is dead to the Law and alive unto God

6 "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? 2 God forbid. We who died to sin, how shall we any longer live therein? 3 Or are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? 4 We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. 5 For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection; 6 knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away, that so we should no longer be in bondage to sin; 7 for he that hath died is justified from sin. 8 But if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him; 9 knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death no more hath dominion over him. 10 For the death that he died, he died unto sin once; but the life that he liveth, he liveth unto God. 11 Even so reckon ye also yourselves to be dead unto sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus.

12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey the lusts thereof: 13 neither present your members unto sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves unto God, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. 14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? God forbid. 16 Know ye not, that to whom ye present yourselves as servants unto obedience, his servants ye are whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? 17 But thanks be to God, that, whereas ye were servants of sin, ye became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching whereunto ye were delivered; 18 and being made free from sin, ye became servants of righteousness. 19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness unto sanctification. 20 For when ye were servants of sin, ye were free in regard of righteousness. 21 What fruit then had ye at that time in the things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. 22 But now being made free from sin and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end eternal life. 23 For the wages of sin is death; but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 Or are ye ignorant, brethren (for I speak to men who know the law), that the law hath dominion over a man for so long time as he liveth? 2 For the woman that hath a husband is bound by law to the husband while he liveth; but if the husband die, she is discharged from the law of the husband. 3 So then if, while the husband liveth, she be joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if the husband die, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to another man. 4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit unto God. 5 For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions, which were through the law, wrought in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. 6 But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that wherein we were held; so that we serve in ¹newness of ²the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

7 ¹What shall we say then? Is the law sin? ²God forbid. Howbeit, ³I had not known sin, except through ⁴the law: for I had not known ⁵coveting, except the law had said, ⁶Thou shalt not ⁷covet: 8 but sin, ⁸finding occasion, wrought in me ⁹through the commandment all manner of ¹⁰coveting: for ¹¹apart from ¹²the law sin ¹³is dead. 9 And I was alive apart from ¹⁴the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died; 10 and the commandment, which ¹⁵was ¹⁶unto life, this I found to be unto death: 11 for sin, ¹²finding occasion, ¹³through the commandment ¹⁴beguiled me, and through it slew me. 12 ¹⁵So that the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good. 13 Did then that which is good become death unto me? ¹⁴God forbid. But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; — that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. 14 For we know that the law is ¹⁵spiritual: but I am ¹⁶carnal, ¹⁷sold ¹⁸under sin. 15 For that which I ¹⁹do ²⁰I know not: for ²¹not what I would, that do I practise; but what I hate, that I do. 16 But if what I would not, that I do, I consent unto ²²the law that it is good. 17 So now ²³it is no more I that ²⁴do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. 18 For I know that in me, that is, in my ²⁵flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but to ²⁶do that which is good ²⁷is not. 19 For ²⁸the good which I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I practise. 20 But if what I would not, that I do, ²¹it is no more I that ²²do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. 21 I find then ²³the law, that, to me who would do good, evil is present. 22 For I delight ²⁴in the law of God after ²⁵the inward man: 23 but I see ²⁶a different law in my members, warring against the ²⁷law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity ²⁸under ²⁹the law of sin which is in my members.

24 Wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me out of ²⁵the body of this ²⁶death? 25 ²⁷I ²⁸thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then I of myself with the mind, indeed, serve the law of God; but with the flesh ²⁹the law of sin.

8 There is therefore now no ⁹condemnation to them that are ¹⁰in ¹¹Christ Jesus. 2 For ¹²the law of the Spirit of life in ¹³Christ Jesus ¹⁴made me free from the law of sin and of death. 3 For ¹⁵what the law could not do, ¹⁶in that it ¹⁷was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in ¹⁸the likeness of ¹⁹sinful flesh ²⁰and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: 4 that the ²¹ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who ²²walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. 5 For they that are after the flesh mind ²³the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit ²⁴the things of the Spirit. 6 ²⁵For the mind of the flesh is ²⁶death; but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace: 7 because the mind of the flesh is ²⁸enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it be: 8 and they that are ⁹in the flesh cannot please God. 9 But ye are not ¹⁰in the flesh but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God ¹¹dwelleth in you. But ¹²if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. 10 And ¹³if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 But if the Spirit of him that ¹²raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, ¹³he that raised up ¹⁴Christ Jesus from the dead shall give life also to your mortal bodies ¹⁵through his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh: 13 for ¹⁴if ye live after the flesh, ye must die; but if by the Spirit ye ¹⁵put to death the ¹⁶deeds of the body, ye shall live.

Sorrow for Israel. God makes a Choice among his Chosen Ones. The Law's Righteousness and that of Faith contrasted

witness with me in the Holy Spirit, 2 that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. 3 For ¹ I could wish that I myself were ² anathema from Christ for my brethren's sake, my kinsmen according to the flesh: 4 who are ³ Israelites; whose is ⁴ the adoption, and ⁵ the glory, and ⁶ the covenants, and ⁷ the giving of the law, and ⁸ the service of God, and ⁹ the promises; 5 whose are ¹⁰ the fathers, and ¹¹ of whom is Christ as concerning the ¹² flesh, ¹³ who is over all, ¹⁴ God ¹⁵ blessed ¹⁶ for ever. 6 But ¹⁷ it is not as though ¹⁸ the word of God hath come to nought. ¹⁹ For they are not all Israel, that are of Israel: 7 neither, ²⁰ because they are Abraham's seed, are they all children: but, ²¹ In Isaac shall thy seed be called. 8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh that are ²² children of God; but the ²³ children of the promise are reckoned for a seed. 9 For this is a word of promise, ²⁴ According to this season will I come, and Sarah shall have a son. 10 ²⁵ And not only so; but ²⁶ Rebecca also having conceived by one, ²⁷ even by our father Isaac—11 for the children being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that ²⁸ the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth. 12 it was said unto her, ²⁹ The elder shall serve the younger. 13 Even as it is written, ³⁰ Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.

14 ³¹ What shall we say then? ³² Is there unrighteousness with God? ³³ God forbid. 15 For he saith unto Moses, ³⁴ I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. 16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of ³⁵ God that hath mercy. 17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, ³⁶ For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might show in thee my power, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth. 18 So then he hath mercy on whom he will, and whom he will he ³⁷ hardeneth.

¹²⁹ 'who withstandeth his will? 20 Nay but, ¹³⁰ O man, who art thou that ¹³¹ repliest against God? ¹³² Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why didst thou make me thus? 21 Or hath not the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel unto honor, and another unto dishonor? 22 What if God, ¹³³ willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much ¹³⁴ longsuffering vessels of wrath ¹³⁵ fitted unto destruction: 23 ¹³⁶ and that he might make known ¹³⁷ the riches of his glory upon ¹³⁸ vessels of mercy, which he ¹³⁹ afore prepared unto glory, 24 ¹⁴⁰ even us, whom he also ¹⁴¹ called, ¹⁴² not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles? 25 As he saith also in Hosea, ¹⁴³ I will call that my people, which was not my people; And her beloved, that was not beloved.

26 ¹⁴⁴ And it shall be, ¹⁴⁵ that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, There shall they be called sons of ¹⁴⁶ the living God.

30 ¹⁵⁴ What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, who followed not after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even ¹⁵⁵ the righteousness which is of faith: 31 but Israel, ¹⁵⁶ following after a law of righteousness, did not ^a arrive at that law. 32 Wherefore? ¹ Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by works. They stumbled at ^b the stone of stumbling; 33 even as it is written, ² Behold, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence:

10 Brethren, my heart's ^e desire and my supplication to God is for them, that they may be saved. 2 For I bear them witness that they have ^f a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. 3 For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and ^g seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. 4 For ^h Christ is the end of the law unto righteousness to ⁱ every one that believeth. 5 For Moses writeth that ^j the man that doeth the righteousness which is of the law ^k shall live thereby. 6 But ^l the righteousness which is of faith saith thou, ^m Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down:) 7 or, Who shall descend into the ⁿ abyss? (that is, to ^o bring Christ up from the dead.) 8 But what saith it? ^p The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach: 9 ^q because ^r if thou shalt confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt ^s believe in thy heart that ^t God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved: 10 for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. 11 For the scripture saith, ^u Whosoever believeth on him shall not be put to shame. 12 For ^v there is no distinction between Jew and Greek: for the same Lord is Lord of ^w all, and is rich unto all that call upon him: 13 for, ^x Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. 14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him ^y whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without ^z a preacher?

15 and how shall they preach, except they be sent? even as it is written, ¹² How beautiful are the feet of them that ² bring ¹³ glad tidings of good things!

16 But they ^d did not all hearken to the ¹⁴ glad tidings. For Isaiah saith, ¹⁵ Lord, who hath believed our report? 17 So belief cometh of ^e hearing, and hearing by ^f the word of Christ. 18 But I say, Did they not hear? Yea, verily, ¹⁶ Their sound went out into all the earth,

And their words unto the ends of ¹⁷ the world.

19 But I say, Did Israel not know? First Moses saith,

¹⁸ I will ^g provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation, With a nation void of understanding will I anger you.

20 And Isaiah is very bold, and saith,

¹⁹ I was found of them that sought me not;

I became manifest unto them that asked not of me.

21 But as to Israel he saith, ²⁰ All the day long did I spread out my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

11 I say then, Did God ^a cast off his people? ^b God forbid. For ^c I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2 God ^d did not cast off his people which he ^e foreknew.

^f Or know ye not what the scripture ²¹ saith ²² of Elijah? how he pleadeth with God against Israel: 3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life. 4 But what ²³ saith the answer of God unto him? I have left for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal. 5 Even so then at this present time also there is ^a remnant according to the election of grace. 6 But ^b if it is by grace, it is no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. 7 What then? That which ^c Israel seeketh for, that he obtained not; but the election obtained it, and the rest were ^d hardened: 8 according as it is written, ¹ God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this very day. 9 And David saith,

² Let their table be made a snare, and a trap,

And a stumblingblock, and a recompense unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see,

And bow thou down their back always.

11 ³ I say then, Did they stumble that they might fall? ⁴ God forbid: but by their ⁵ fall ⁶ salvation is come unto the Gentiles, to ⁷ provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their ⁸ fulness! 13 But I speak to you that are Gentiles.

Inasmuch then as ⁹ I am an apostle of the Gentiles, I glorify my ministry; 14 if by any means I may ¹⁰ provoke to jealousy them that are ¹¹ my flesh, and may ¹² save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them is the ¹³ reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but ¹⁴ life from the dead? 16 And if the ¹⁵ firstfruit is holy, so is the lump: and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

17 But if some of the ¹⁶ branches were broken off, and ¹⁷ thou, being a wild olive, wast grafted in among them, and didst become partaker with them ¹⁸ of the root of the fatness of the olive tree; 18 glory not over the branches: but if thou gloriest, ¹⁹ it is not thou that bearest the root, but the root thee.

19 ²⁰ Thou wilt say then, Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. 20 Well; by their unbelief they were broken off, and thou ²¹ standest by thy faith. ²² Be not high-minded, but fear: 21 for if God spared not the natural branches, neither will he spare thee. 22 Behold then the goodness and severity of God: toward them that fell, severity; but toward thee, God's ²³ goodness: ²⁴ if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also ²⁵ shalt be cut off. 23 And they also, ²⁶ if they continue not in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them

25 For ¹ I would not, brethren, have you ignorant of this ² mystery, lest ye be ³ wise in your own conceits, that a ⁴ hardening in part hath befallen Israel, until the ⁵ fulness of the Gentiles be come in; 26 and so all Israel shall be saved: even as it is written,

^x Take thought for things honorable in the sight of all men. ¹⁸ If it be possible, ^yas much as in you lieth, ^{be}at peace with all men. ¹⁹ ^zAvenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place unto ^{aa}the wrath of God: for it is written, ^{ab}Vengeance belongeth unto me; ^{ac}I will recompense, saith the Lord. ²⁰ But ^{ad}if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him to drink: for ^{ae}in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head. ²¹ Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

13 Let every ^asoul be in ^bsubjection to the higher powers: for ^cthere is no power but of God; and the ^dpowers that be are ordained of God. ² Therefore he that resisteth the power, withstandeth the ordinance of God: and they that withstand shall receive to themselves judgment. ³ For ^erulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. And wouldest thou have no fear of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise from the same: ⁴ for ^fhe is a minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for ^ghe beareth not the sword in vain: for ^hhe is a minister of God, an ⁱavenger for wrath to him that doeth evil. ⁵ Wherefore ^jye must needs be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also ^kfor conscience' sake. ⁶ For for this cause ^lye pay tribute also; for they are ministers of God's service, attending continually upon this very thing. ⁷ ^mRender to all their dues: ⁿtribute to whom tribute is ^odue; ^pcustom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.

not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not covet, and if there be any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, namely, ^aThou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbor: ^blove therefore is the fulfilment of the law.

11 And this, knowing the season, that ^calready it is time for you to ^dawake out of sleep: for now is ^esalvation nearer to us than when we ^ffirst believed. 12 ^gThe night is far spent, and ^hthe day is at hand: let us therefore cast off ⁱthe works of darkness, and let us put on ^jthe armor of light. 13 Let us ^kwalk becomingly, as in the day; ^lnot in revelling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and jealousy. 14 But ^mput ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, ⁿto fulfil the lusts thereof.

14 But him that is ^oweak in faith ^preceive ye, yet not ^qfor decision of scruples. 2 ^rOne man hath faith to eat all things: but he that is ^sweak eateth herbs. 3 Let not him that eateth ^tset at nought him that eateth not; and let not him that eateth not ^ujudge him that eateth: for God hath ^vreceived him. 4 ^wWho art thou that judgest the ^xservant of another? to his own lord he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be made to stand; for the Lord hath power to make him stand. 5 ^yOne man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day ^zalike. Let each man be ^{aa}fully assured in his own mind. 6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord: and he that eateth, eateth unto the Lord, for he ^{ab}giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, unto the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. 7 For none of us ^{ac}liveth to himself, and none dieth to himself. 8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord: ^{ad}whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. 9 For to this end ^{ae}Christ died and lived again, that he might be ^{af}Lord of both the dead and the living. 10 But thou, why dost thou judge thy brother? or thou again, why dost thou ^aset at nought thy brother? for ^bwe shall all stand before the judgment-seat of God.

11 For it is written,

^cAs I live, saith the Lord, to me ^devery knee shall bow,

And every tongue shall ^econfess to God.

12 So then ^feach one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore ^gjudge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that ^hno man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling.

14 I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that ⁱnothing is unclean of itself: save that to him who ^jaccounteth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 For if because of meat thy brother is grieved, thou ^kwalkest no longer in love. ^lDestroy not with thy meat him for whom Christ died. 16 ^mLet not then your good be evil spoken of: 17 for the kingdom of God ⁿis not eating and drinking, but righteousness and ^opeace and ^pjoy in the Holy Spirit. 18 For he that herein ^qserveth Christ is ^rwell-pleasing to God, and approved of men. 19 So then ^slet us ^tfollow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may ^uedify one another. 20 ^vOverthrow not for meat's sake the work of God.

^wAll things indeed are clean; howbeit ^xit is evil for that man who eateth with offence. 21 ^yIt is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do ^zanything whereby thy brother stumbleth. 22 The faith which thou hast, have thou to thyself before God. Happy is he that ^{aa}judgeth not himself in that which he ^{ab}approveth. 23 But ^{ac}he that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because ^{ad}he eateth not of faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Mutual Helpfulness enjoined. Matters Personal. Paul asks their Prayers. Comments

15 Now we that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the ¹weak, and not to please ourselves. ²Let each one of us ³please his neighbor for that which is good, unto ⁴edifying. ³For ⁴Christ also pleased not himself; but, as it is written, ¹The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell upon me. ⁴For ⁵whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that through ⁶patience and through comfort of the scriptures we might have hope. ⁵Now the ⁷God of ⁸patience and of comfort grant you ⁹to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ Jesus: ⁶that with one accord ye may with one mouth glorify ^{3a}the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁷Wherefore ⁸receive ye one another, even as Christ also received ⁹you, to the glory of God. ⁸For I say that Christ hath been made a minister of ¹⁰the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm ¹¹the promises ¹²given unto the fathers, ⁹and that ¹³the Gentiles might ¹⁴glorify God for his mercy; as it is written,

⁵Therefore will I ⁶give praise unto thee among the ⁷Gentiles,

And sing unto thy name

10 And again he saith,

⁸Rejoice, ye ⁷Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again,

⁹Praise the Lord, all ye ⁷Gentiles;

And let all the peoples praise him.

12 And again, Isaiah saith,

¹⁰There shall be ¹¹the root of Jesse,

And he that ariseth to rule over the ⁷Gentiles;

¹²On him shall the ⁷Gentiles hope.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all ¹³joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, ¹⁴in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Salutation. Thanksgiving. Exhortation to Unity

1 Paul, ^acalled to be an apostle of Jesus Christ ^bthrough the will of God, and ^cSosthenes ^dour brother, ^eunto ^fthe church of God which is at ^gCorinth, even them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, ^hcalled to be saints, with all that ⁱcall upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, their Lord and ours: ^jGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 ^kI thank ^lmy God always concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; ^mthat in everything ye were ⁿenriched in him, in all ^outterance and ^pall knowledge; ^qeven as ^rthe testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: ^sso that ye come behind in no gift; ^twaiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; ^uwho shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye be unreprouvable in ^vthe day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ^wGod is faithful, through whom ye were ^xcalled into the ^yfellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now ^zI beseech you, ^{aa}brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no ^{ab}divisions among you; but that ye be perfected together in ^{ac}the same mind and in the same judgment. ^{ad}For it hath been signified unto me concerning you, my brethren, by ^{ae}them that are of the household of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. ^{af}Now this I mean, that ^{ag}each one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of ^{ah}Apollos; and I of ^{ai}Cephas; and I of ^{aj}Christ. ^{ak}Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye ^{al}baptized into the name

"Christ the Power of God and the Wisdom of God." God's Choice the World's Foolishness. True and False Wisdom;

stumblingblock, and unto Gentiles ^a foolishness; 24 but unto ^b them that are ^c called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ ^d the power of God, and ^e the wisdom of God. 25 Because the ^f foolishness of God is wiser than men; and ^g the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ^h behold your ⁱ calling, brethren, that ^j not many wise after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, ^k are called: 27 but ^l God chose the foolish things of ^m the world, that he might put to shame them that are wise; and God chose the weak things of ⁿ the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; 28 and the base things of ^o the world, and the things that are despised, did God choose, ^p yea ^q and ^r the things that are not, that he might ^s bring to nought the things that are: 29 that ^t no flesh should glory before God. 30 But of him are ye in ^u Christ Jesus, who was made unto us ^v wisdom from God, ^w and ^x righteousness and ^y sanctification, and ^z redemption: 31 that, according as it is written, ^{aa} He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

2 And I, brethren, when I came unto you, came ^a not with excellency of ^b speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you ^c the testimony of God. 2 For I determined not to know anything among you, save ^d Jesus Christ, and him crucified. 3 And I ^e was with you in ^f weakness, and in ^g fear, and in much trembling. 4 And my ^h speech and my ⁱ preaching were ^j not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of ^k the Spirit and of power: 5 that your faith should not ^l stand in the wisdom of men, but in ^m the power of God.

6 We speak wisdom, however, among them that are ^a fullgrown: yet a wisdom not of ^b this ^c world, nor of the rulers of ^d this ^e world, who are ^f coming to nought: 7 but we speak God's wisdom in a ^g mystery, even the wisdom that hath been hidden, which God ^h foreordained before the ⁱ worlds unto our glory: 8 ^j which none of the rulers of ^k this ^l world hath known: for had they known it, they would not have crucified ^a the Lord of glory: 9 but as it is written,

^b Things which eye saw not, and ear heard not, And ^c which entered not into the heart of man, Whatsoever things God prepared for them that love him.

10 ^d But unto us God ^e revealed ^f these things through the Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the ^g deep things of God.

11 For who among men knoweth the things of a man, save the ^h spirit of the man, which is in him? even so the things of God none knoweth, save the Spirit of God. 12 But we ⁱ received, not the spirit of ^j the ^k world, but the spirit which is from God; that we might know ^l the things that were freely given to us of God. 13 Which things also we speak, ^m not in words, which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Spirit teacheth; ⁿ combining spiritual things with spiritual words. 14 Now the ^o natural man ^p receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are ^q foolishness unto him; and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually ^r judged. 15 But he that is ^s spiritual ^t judgeth all things, and he himself is ^u judged of no man. 16 For ^v who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him? 3 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto ^a spiritual, but as unto ^b carnal, as unto ^c babes in Christ. 2 I fed you with ^d milk, not with meat; for ye ^e were not yet able to bear it: nay, not even now are ye able; 3 for ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you ^f jealousy and strife, are ye not carnal, and do ye not walk ^g after the manner of men? 4 For when ^h one saith, I am of Paul;

or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or ¹life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; 23 and ²ye are Christ's; and ³a Christ is God's.

4 Let a man so account of us, as of ⁵ministers of Christ, and ⁶stewards of ⁷the mysteries of God. 2 Here, moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be ⁴judged of you, or of man's ⁵judgment: yea, ⁶I ⁷judge not mine own self. 4 For I ⁸know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby ⁹justified: but he that ¹⁰judgeth me is the Lord. 5 Wherefore ¹¹I judge nothing before the time, ¹²until the Lord come, who will both ¹³bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall each man ¹⁴have his praise from God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes; that in us ye might learn not to go beyond ¹the things which are written; that no one of you be ²puffed up ³for the one against the other. 7 For who maketh thee to differ? and ⁴what hast thou that thou didst not receive? but if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory as if thou hadst not received it? 8 ⁵Already are ye filled, already ye are become rich, ye have come to reign without us: yea and I would that ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. 9 For, I think, God hath set forth us the apostles last of all, as men ⁶doomed to death: for we are ⁷made a spectacle unto the world, ⁸both to angels and men. 10 We are ⁹fools for Christ's sake, but ¹⁰ye are wise in Christ; ¹¹we are weak, but ye are strong; ye have glory, but we have dishonor. 11 Even unto this present hour we both ¹²hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place; 12 and we toil, ^a working with our own hands: being ^a reviled, we bless; being ^a persecuted, we endure; 13 being defamed, we entreat: we are ^a made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things, even until now.

Their Temper and that of the Corinthians contrasted. Have no Fellowship with Men of Scandalous Lives

14 I write not these things to ^a shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved ^a children. 15 For though ye have ten thousand ^a tutors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers; for in ^a Christ Jesus I ^a begat you through the ^a gospel. 16 I beseech you therefore, be ye ^a imitators of me. 17 For this cause ^a have I sent unto you ^a Timothy, who is my ^a beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who shall put you in remembrance of my ways which are in Christ, ^a even as I teach everywhere in every church. 18 Now some are ^a puffed up, as though I were not ^a coming to you. 19 But I ^a will come to you shortly, ^a if the Lord will; and I will know, not the word of them that are ^a puffed up, but the power. 20 For the kingdom of God is ^a not in word, but in power. 21 What will ye? ^a shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

5 It is actually reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not even among the Gentiles, that one of you hath ^a his father's wife. 2 And ye are ^a puffed up, and ^a did not rather ^a mourn, that he that had done this deed might be ^a taken away from among you. 3 For I verily, being ^a absent in body but present in spirit, have already as though I were present judged him that hath so wrought this thing, 4 ^a in the name of our Lord Jesus, ye being gathered together, and my spirit, ^a with the power of our Lord Jesus, 5 to ^a deliver such a one unto ^a Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in ^a the day of the Lord ^a Jesus. 6 ^a Your glorying is not good. ^a Know ye not that ^a a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? 7 Purge out the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened. For our ^a passover also hath been sacrificed, ^a even Christ: 8 wherefore let us ^a keep the feast, ^a not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in my epistle to ^a have no company with fornicators; 10 ^a not at all ^a meaning with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with ^a idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world: 11 but ^a as it is, I wrote unto you not to keep company, if any man that is named ^a a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or ^a an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one, not to eat. 12 For what have I to do with judging ^a them that are without? ^a Do not ye judge them that are within? 13 But them that are without God judgeth. ^a Put away the wicked man from among yourselves.

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against ^a his neighbor, go to law before the unrighteous, and ^a not before the saints? 2 ^a Or know ye not that ^a the saints shall judge ^a the world? and if the world is judged by you, are ye unworthy ^a to judge the smallest matters? 3 ^a Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more, things that pertain to this life? 4 If then ye have ^a to judge things pertaining to this life, ^a do ye set them to judge who are of no account in the church? 5 ^a I say ^a this to move you to shame. 13 What, cannot there be found among you one wise man who shall be able to decide between his ^a brethren, 6 but brother goeth to law with brother, and that before ^a unbelievers? 7 Nay, already

Litigation unbecoming. "Glorify God in your Body." Concerning Wedlock. Concerning Marriage

It is altogether ¹a defect in you, that ye have lawsuits one with another. ²"Why not rather take wrong? why not rather be defrauded?" ³8 Nay, but ye yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that your ⁴brethren. ⁵9 Or know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? ⁶"Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with men, ⁷10 nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. ⁸11 And such were some of you: but ye ⁹were ¹⁰washed, but ye were sanctified, but ye were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and in the Spirit of our God.

¹²12 All things are lawful for me; but not all things are expedient. All things are lawful for me; but I will not be brought under the power of any. ¹³13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall bring to nought both it and them. But the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and ¹⁴the Lord for the body: ¹⁵14 and God both raised the Lord, and will raise up us through his power. ¹⁶15 Know ye not that your bodies are members of Christ? shall I then take away the members of Christ, and make them members of a harlot? ¹⁷"God forbid. ¹⁸16 Or know ye not that he that is joined to a harlot is one body? for, ¹⁹17 The twain, saith he, shall become one flesh. ²⁰17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit. ²¹18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. ²²19 Or know ye not that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which ye have from God? and ye are not your own; ²³20 for ye were bought with a price: glorify God therefore in your body.

7 Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. ²2 But, because of fornications, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. ³3 Let the husband render unto the wife her due: and like wise also the wife unto the husband. ⁴4 The wife hath not power over her own body, but the husband; and likewise also the husband hath not power over his own body, but the wife. ⁵5 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be by consent for a season, that ye may give yourselves unto prayer, and may be together again, that Satan tempt you not because of your incontinency. ⁶6 But this I say by way of concession, not of commandment. ⁷7 Yet I would that all men were even as I myself. Howbeit each man hath his own gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that.

⁸8 But I say to the unmarried and to widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I. ⁹9 But if they have not continency, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. ¹⁰10 But unto the married I give charge, yea not I, but the Lord, That the wife depart not from her husband ¹¹11 (but should she depart, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband); and that the husband leave not his wife. ¹²12 But to the rest say I, not the Lord: If any brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is content to dwell with him, let him not leave her. ¹³13 And the woman that hath an unbelieving husband, and he is content to dwell with her, let her not leave her husband. ¹⁴14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. ¹⁵15 Yet if the unbelieving departeth, let him depart: the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us in peace. ¹⁶16 For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife? ¹⁷17 Only, as the Lord hath distributed to each man, as God hath called each, so let him walk.

Concerning Virgins. Concerning Things sacrificed to Idols

And "so ordain I in ¹all the churches. 18 Was any man called being circumcised? let him not become ²uncircumcised. Hath any been called in uncircumcision? ³let him not be circumcised. 19 "Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but ⁴the keeping of the commandments of God. 20 "Let each man abide in that calling wherein he was called. 21 Wast thou called being a bond-servant? care not for it: ⁵nay, even if thou canst become free, use it rather. 22 For he that was called in the Lord being a bond-servant, is ⁶the Lord's freedman: likewise he that was called being free, is ⁷Christ's bond-servant. 23 "Ye were bought with a price; become not bond-servants of men. 24 Brethren, ⁸let each man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have ⁹no commandment of the Lord: but I give my judgment, as one that hath ¹⁰obtained mercy of the Lord to be trustworthy. 26 I think therefore that this is good by reason of the ¹¹"distress that is upon us, namely, that ¹²"it is good for a man ¹³to be as he is. 27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. 28 But shouldest thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Yet such shall have tribulation in the flesh: and I would spare you. 29 But this I say, brethren, ¹⁴"the time ¹⁵is shortened, that henceforth both those that have wives may be as though they had none; 30 and those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those that buy, as though they possessed not; 31 and those that use the world, as not ¹⁶using it to the full: for ¹⁷"the fashion of this world passeth away. 32 But I would have you to be free from cares. He that is ¹⁸"unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord: 33 but he that is married is careful for the things of the world, how he may please his ¹⁹"wife, 34 and is divided. So also the woman that is unmarried and the virgin is careful for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married is careful for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. 35 And this I say for your own profit; not that I may cast a ¹"snare upon you, but for that which is seemly, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. 36 But if any man thinketh that he behaveth himself unseemly toward his ²"virgin daughter, if she be ³"past the flower of her age, and if need so requireth, let him do what he will; he sinneth not; let them marry. 37 But he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power as touching his own will, and hath determined this in his own heart, to keep his own ⁴"virgin daughter, shall do well. 38 So then both he that giveth his own ⁵"virgin daughter in marriage doeth well; and he that giveth her not in marriage shall do better. 39 "A wife is bound for so long time as her husband liveth; but if the husband be ⁶"dead, she is free to be married to whom she will; only ⁷"in the Lord. 40 But she is happier if she abide as she is, ⁸"after my judgment: and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

8 Now concerning ¹"things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have ²"knowledge. Knowledge ³"puffeth up, but love ⁴"edifieth. 2 "If any man thinketh that he knoweth anything, he ⁵"knoweth not yet as he ought to know; 3 but if any man loveth God, the same ⁶"is known by him. 4 Concerning therefore the eating of ⁷"things sacrificed to idols, we know that ⁸"no idol is anything in the world, and that ⁹"there is no God but one. 5 For though there be ¹⁰"that are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are gods many, and lords many; 6 yet to us ¹¹"there is one God, ¹²"the Father, ¹³"of whom are all things, and we unto him; and ¹⁴"one Lord, Jesus Christ, ¹⁵"through whom are all things, and we through him. 7 Howbeit there is not in all men ^athat knowledge: but ^bsome, being used until now to the idol, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. 8 But ^cfood will not ^dcommend us to God: neither, if we eat not, ^eare we the worse; nor, if we eat, ^fare we the better. 9 But ^gtake heed lest by any means this ^hliberty of yours become a stumblingblock to the ⁱweak. 10 For if a man see thee who hast ^jknowledge sitting at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, ^kbe emboldened to eat ^lthings sacrificed to idols? 11 For ^mthrough ⁿthy knowledge he that is weak ^operisheth, the brother for whose sake Christ died. 12 ^pAnd thus, sinning against the brethren, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, ye sin ^qagainst Christ. 13 Wherefore, ^rif meat causeth my brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh for evermore, that I cause not my brother to stumble.

2 Now ⁿI praise you that ye ^oremember me in all things, and ^phold fast the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. 3 But I would have you know, that the ^qhead of every man is Christ; and ^rthe head of the woman is the man; and the ^shead of Christ is God. 4 Every man praying or ^tprophesying, having his head covered, dishonoreth his head. 5 But every ^uwoman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonoreth her head; for it is one and the same thing as if she were ^vshaven. 6 For if a woman is not veiled, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame to a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be veiled. 7 For a man indeed ought not to have his head veiled, forasmuch as he is the ^wimage and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. 8 For ^xthe man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man: 9 for neither was the man created for the woman; but ^ythe woman for the man: 10 for this cause ought the woman to have ^za sign of authority on her head, because of the angels. 11 Nevertheless, neither is the woman without the man, nor the man without the woman, in the Lord. 12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman; but ^{aa}all things are ^{ab}of God. 13 ^{ac}Judge ye ^{ad}in yourselves: is it seemly that a woman pray unto God unveiled?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a dishonor to him? 15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. 16 But if any man seemeth to be contentious, ^{ae}we have no such custom, neither ^{af}the churches of God.

17 But in giving you this charge, ^{ag}I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better but for the worse. 18 For first of all, when ye come together ^{ah}in the church, I hear that ^{ai}divisions exist among you; and I partly believe it. 19 For there ^{aj}must be also ^{ak}factions among you, ^{al}that they that are approved may be made manifest among you. 20 When therefore ye assemble yourselves together, it is not possible to eat the Lord's supper: 21 for in your eating each one taketh before ^{am}other his own supper; and one is hungry, and ^{an}another is drunken. 22 What, have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the ^{ao}church of God, and ^{ap}put them to shame that ^{aq}have not? What shall I say to you? ^{ar}shall ^{as}I praise you? In this I praise you not. 23 For ^{at}I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that ^{au}the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was ^{av}betrayed took bread; 24 and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, This is my body, which ^{aw}is for you: this do in remembrance of me. 25 In like manner also ^{ax}the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the ^{ay}new covenant in my blood: this do, as often as ye drink ^{az}it, in remembrance of me. 26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death ^{ba}till he come. 27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, shall be ^{bb}guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.

Concerning Spiritual Gifts. Gifts Diverse, but the Spirit the Same. The Body one, the Members many 28 But let a man ^aprove himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. 29 For he that eateth and drinketh, eateth and drinketh judgment unto himself, if he ^bdiscern not the body. 30 For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few ^csleep. 31 But if we ^ddiscerned ourselves, we should not be judged. 32 But ^ewhen we are judged, we are ^fchastened of the Lord, that we may not be condemned with ^gthe world. 33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait one for another. 34 If any man is ^hhungry, let him eat ⁱat home; that your coming together be not unto judgment. And the rest will I ^jset in order ^kwhensoever I come.

12 Now concerning ^lspiritual gifts, brethren, ^mI would not have you ignorant. 2 ⁿYe know that when ye were Gentiles ye were ^oled away unto those ^pdumb idols, howsoever ye might be led. 3 Wherefore I make known unto you, that no man speaking ^qin the Spirit of God saith, Jesus is ^ranathema; and no man can say, Jesus is ^sLord, but ^tin the Holy Spirit.

4 Now there are ^udiversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5 And there are diversities of ministrations, and the same Lord. 6 And there are diversities of workings, but the same ^vGod, who worketh all things in all. 7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit ^wto profit withal. 8 For to one is given through the Spirit the word of ^xwisdom; and to another the word of ^yknowledge, according to the same Spirit: 9 to another ^zfaith, in the same Spirit; and to another ^{aa}gifts of healings, in the one Spirit; 10 and to another workings of ^{ab}miracles; and to another ^{ac}prophecy; and to another ^{ad}discernings of spirits: to another ^{ae}divers kinds of tongues; and to another the ^{af}interpretation of tongues: 11 but all these worketh the one and the same Spirit, ^{ag}dividing to each one severally even as he will.

members of the body, being many, are one body; ^{aj}so also is Christ. 13 For ^{ak}in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether ^{al}Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made to ^{am}drink of one Spirit. 14 For ^{an}the body is not one member, but many. 15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. 16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? 18 But now hath God ^{ao}set the members each one of them in the body, ^{ap}even as it pleased him. 19 And if they were all one member, where were the body? 20 But now ^{aq}they are many members, but one body. 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of thee: or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. 22 Nay, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be more feeble are necessary: 23 and those ^{ar}parts of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we ^{as}bestow more abundant honor; and our uncomely ^{at}parts have more abundant comeliness; 24 whereas our comely ^{au}parts have no need: but God tempered the body together, giving more abundant honor to that ^{av}part which lacked; 25 that there should be no schism in the body; but ^{aw}that the members should have the same care one for another. 26 And whether one member suffereth, all the members suffer with it; or ^{ax}one member is ^{ay}honored, all the members rejoice with it. 27 Now ye are ^{az}the body of Christ, and ^{ba}severally members thereof. 28 And God hath ^{bb}set some in ^{bc}the church, first ^{bd}apostles; secondly ^{be}prophets, thirdly ^{bf}teachers, then ^{bg}miracles, then ^{bh}gifts of healings, helps, ^{bi}governments, divers kinds of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of ¹miracles? 30 have all gifts of healings? do all speak with tongues? do all ¹interpret? 31 But ²desire earnestly the greater gifts. And moreover a most excellent way show I unto you.

"The Greatest of these is Love." Prophesying is better than Speaking with Tongues

13 If I speak with the ¹tongues of men and of ²angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a ³clanging cymbal. 2 And if I have the ⁴gift of ⁵prophecy, and know all ⁶mysteries and ⁷all knowledge; and if I have ⁸all faith, so as to ⁹remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 And if I ¹⁰bestow all my goods to feed the ¹¹poor, and if I ¹²give my body ¹³to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing. 4 Love ⁵suffereth long, and is kind; love ⁶envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not ⁷puffed up, 5 doth not behave itself unseemly, ⁸seeketh not its own, is not provoked, ⁹taketh not account of evil; 6 ¹⁰rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but ¹¹rejoiceth with the truth; 7 ¹²beareth all things, believeth all things, ¹³hopeth all things, endureth all things. 8 Love never faileth: but whether there be ¹⁴prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be ¹⁵tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away. 9 For we ¹⁶know in part, and we ¹⁷prophesy in part; 10 but when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away. 11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child: now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things. 12 For now we ¹⁸see in a mirror, ¹⁹darkly; but then ²⁰face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know fully even as also I ²¹was fully known. 13 But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the ²²greatest of these is ²³love.

derstandeth; but in the spirit he speaketh ¹mysteries. 3 But he that ²prophesieth speaketh unto men ³edification, and ⁴exhortation, and consolation. 4 He that ⁵speaketh in a tongue ⁶edifieth himself; but he that ⁷prophesieth ⁸edifieth the church. 5 Now I would have you all ⁹speak with tongues, but ¹⁰rather that ye should prophesy: and greater is he that ¹¹prophesieth than he that ¹²speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive ¹³edifying. 6 But now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of ¹⁴revelation, or of ¹⁵knowledge, or of ¹⁶prophesying, or of ¹⁷teaching? 7 Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they give not a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? 8 For if ⁹the trumpet give an uncertain voice, who shall prepare himself for war? 9 So also ye, unless ye utter by the tongue speech easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye will be ¹⁰speaking into the air. 10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and ¹¹no kind is without signification. 11 If then I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh a ¹²barbarian, and he that speaketh will be a barbarian ¹³unto me. 12 So also ye, since ye are zealous of ¹⁴spiritual gifts, seek that ye may abound unto the ¹⁵edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in a tongue pray that he may interpret. 14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. 15 ¹What is it then? Propheying edifies. Decorum in the Exercise of Gifts. "Let the Women keep silence." Summary of the Gospel at thy ^a giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest? 17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not ^b edified. 18 I thank God, I speak with tongues more than you all: 19 howbeit in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

20 ^c Brethren, ^d be not children in mind: yet in malice ^e be ye babes, but in mind be ^f men. 21 In ^g the law it is written, ^h By men of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers will I speak unto this people; and not even thus will they hear me, saith the Lord. 22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to the unbelieving: but ⁱ prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to them that believe. 23 If therefore the whole church be assembled together and all speak with tongues, and there come in men unlearned or unbelieving, will they not say that ^j ye are mad? 24 But if all ^k prophesy, and there come in one unbelieving or unlearned, he is ^l reproved by all, he is judged by all; 25 ^m the secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so he will ⁿ fall down on his face and worship God, ^o declaring that God is ^p among you indeed.

26 ^q What is it then, ^r brethren? When ye come together, ^s each one hath a ^t psalm, hath a ^u teaching, hath a ^v revelation, hath a ^w tongue, hath an ^x interpretation. Let ^y all things be done unto edifying. 27 If any man speaketh in a ^z tongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, and ^{aa} that in turn; and let one ^{ab} interpret: 28 but if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. 29 And let the ^{ac} prophets speak ^{ad} by two or three, and let the others ^{ae} discern. 30 But if a revelation be made to another sitting by, let the first keep silence. 31 For ye all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be ^{af} exhorted; 32 and the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets; 33 for God is not a ^{ag} God of ^{ah} confusion, but of peace.

^{ar} saints, 34 let the women ^{as} keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but ^{at} let them be in subjection, as also ^{au} saith ^{av} the law. 35 And if they would learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home: for it is shameful for a woman to speak in the church. 36 What? was it from you that the word of God went forth? or came it unto you alone?

37 ^{aw} If any man thinketh himself to be a prophet, or ^{ax} spiritual, let him take knowledge of the things which I write unto you, ^{ay} that they are the commandment of the Lord. 38 ^{az} But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

because I ^apersecuted the church of God. 10 But by ^bthe grace of God I am what I am; and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not found ^cvain; but I ^dlabored more abundantly than they all: yet ^enot I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Whether then it be I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ is preached that he hath been raised from the dead, how say some among you that there ^fis no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither hath Christ been raised: 14 and ^gif Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching ^hvain, ⁱyour faith also is ^jvain: 15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that he ^kraised up ^lChrist: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are not raised. 16 For if the dead are not raised, neither hath Christ been raised: 17 and if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; ^mye are yet in your sins. 18 Then they also that ⁿare fallen asleep in Christ have perished. 19 If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are ^oof all men most pitiable.

20 But now ^phath Christ been raised from the dead, the ^qfirst-fruits of them that ^rare asleep. 21 For since ^sby man came death, by man ^tcame also the resurrection of the dead. 22 For ^uas in Adam all die, so also in ^vChrist shall all be made alive. 23 But each in his own order: Christ ^wthe firstfruits; then ^xthey that are Christ's, at ^yhis coming. 24 Then ^zcometh the end, when he shall deliver up ^{aa}the kingdom to ^{ab}God, even the Father; when he shall have abolished ^{ac}all rule and all authority and power. 25 For he must reign, ^{ad}till he hath put all his enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that shall be ^{ae}abolished is death. 27 For, He put all things in subjection under his feet. ^{af}But when he saith, ^{ag}All things are put in subjection, it is evident that he is excepted who

29 Else what shall they do that are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them? 30 why do we also stand ^{ec}in jeopardy every hour? 31 I protest by ^{ed}that glorying in you, brethren, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, ^{ee}I die daily. 32 If after the manner of men I ^{ef}fought with beasts at ^{eg}Ephesus, ^{eh}what doth it profit me? If the dead are not raised, ^{ei}let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die. 33 ^{ej}Be not deceived: Evil companionships corrupt good morals. 34 ^{ek}Awake to soberness righteously, and sin not; for some have ^{el}no knowledge of God: ^{em}I speak this to move you to shame.

35 But ^{en}some one will say, How are ^{eo}the dead raised? and with what manner of body do they come? 36 ^{ep}Thou foolish one, that which thou thyself ^{eq}sowest is not quickened except it die: 37 and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other kind; 38 but God giveth it a body even as it pleased him, and ^{er}to each seed a body of its own. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh; but there is one ^{es}flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fishes. 40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the ^{et}glory of the terrestrial is another. 41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. 42 ^{eu}So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in ^{ev}corruption; it is raised in ^{ew}incorruption: 43 it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in ^{ex}glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

Salutation. "The God of All Comfort." Paul's Conscious Sincerity. Not Fickle in purposing to revisit them

1 Paul, ^aan apostle of ^bChrist
1 Jesus ^cthrough the will of God, and ^dTimothy ^eour brother, unto ^fthe church of God which is at ^gCorinth, with all the saints that are in the whole of ^hAchaia: 2 ⁱGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ^jBlessed be ^kthe God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and ^lGod of all comfort; 4 who ^mcomforteth us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort them that are in any affliction, through the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. 5 For ⁿas the sufferings of Christ abound unto us, even so our comfort also aboundeth through Christ. 6 But whether we are afflicted, it is ^ofor your comfort and salvation; or whether we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which worketh in the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: 7 and our hope for you is steadfast; knowing that, ^pas ye are partakers of the sufferings, so also are ye of the comfort. 8 For ^qwe would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning our affliction which befell us in ^rAsia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, inasmuch that we despaired even of life: 9 ^syea, we ourselves have had the ^tsentence of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raiseth the dead: 10 who ^udelivered us out of so great a death, and will deliver: ^von whom we have ^wset our hope that he will also still deliver us; 11 ye also ^xhelping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift bestowed upon us

by means of ^{am}many, thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf.

12 For our glorying is this, the testimony of ^{an}our conscience, that in holiness and ^{ao}sincerity of God, ^{ap}not in fleshly wisdom but in the should be the yea yea and the nay nay? 18 But as ^{az}God is faithful, ^{ba}our word toward you is not yea

"Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty." "Seeing we have this Ministry, we faint not"

9¹ For if ^athe ministration of condemnation hath glory, much rather doth the ^bministration of righteousness exceed in glory. 10 For verily that which hath been made glorious hath not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasseth. 11 For if that which ^cpasseth away was ^dwith glory, much more that which remaineth is in glory.

12 ^eHaving therefore such a hope, ^fwe use great boldness of speech, 13 and are not as Moses, ^gwho put a veil upon his face, that the children of Israel should not look stedfastly ^hon the end of that which ⁱwas passing away: 14 but their ^jminds were hardened: for until this very day at the ^kreading of ^lthe old covenant the same veil ^mremaineth, it not being revealed to them that it is done away in Christ. 15 But unto this day, whensoever Moses is read, a veil lieth upon their heart. 16 ⁿBut whensoever ^oit shall turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where ^pthe Spirit of the Lord is, ^qthere is liberty. 18 But we all, with unveiled face ^rbeholding as in a mirror the ^sglory of the Lord, are ^ttransformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from ^uthe Lord the Spirit.

4 Therefore seeing we have this ^vministry, even as we ^wobtained mercy, we ^xfaint not: 2 but we have renounced the hidden ^ythings of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor ^zhandling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth ^{aa}commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 3 And even if our ^{ab}gospel is ^{ac}veiled, it is veiled in ^{ad}them that ^{ae}perish: 4 in whom ^{af}the god of ^{ag}this ^{ah}world hath ^{ai}blinded the ^{aj}minds of the unbelieving, ^{ak}that the ^{al}light of the ^{am}gospel of the ^{an}glory of Christ, who is the ^{ao}image of God, should not dawn upon them. 5 For we preach ^{ap}not ourselves, but Christ

Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your ¹⁵servants ¹⁶for Jesus' sake. 6 Seeing it is God, that said, ¹⁷Light shall shine out of darkness, who ¹⁸shined in our hearts, to give the ¹⁹light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in ²⁰earthen vessels, that the exceeding greatness of ²¹the power may be of God, and not from ourselves; ²²we are ²³pressed on every side, yet not ²⁴straitened; ²⁵perplexed, yet not unto despair; ²⁶9 pursued, yet not ²⁷13 forsaken; ²⁸smitten down, yet not destroyed; ²⁹10 always bearing about in the body the ³⁰dying of Jesus, that ³¹the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our body.

11 For we who live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. 12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you. 13 But having the same ³²spirit of faith, according to that which is written, ³³20 I believed, and therefore did I speak; we also believe, and therefore also we speak; ³⁴14 knowing that he that ³⁵raised up ³⁶21 the Lord Jesus ³⁷shall raise up us also with Jesus, and shall ³⁸present us with you. 15 For all things ³⁹are ⁴⁰for your sakes, that the grace, being ⁴¹multiplied through ⁴²the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound unto the glory of God.

16 Wherefore we ⁴³faint not; but though our outward man is ⁴⁴decaying, yet our ⁴⁵inward man is ⁴⁶renewed day by day. 17 For our ⁴⁷light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; ⁴⁸18 while we ⁴⁹look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen:

"Absent from the Body, at Home with the Lord." "In Everything commending ourselves as Ministers of God"

5 For we know that if the ¹earthly house of our ^{1a}tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house ^cnot made with hands, eternal, in the heavens. 2 For verily in this we ^cgroan, longing to be ^cclothed upon with our habitation which is from heaven: 3 if so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. 4 For indeed we that are in this ¹tabernacle do ^cgroan, ²being burdened; not for that we would be unclothed, but that we would be ^cclothed upon, that what is ^cmortal may be swallowed up of life. 5 Now he that wrought us for this very thing is God, who ^cgives unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 6 Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, ^a whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord 7 (for ^cwe walk by faith, not by ³sight); 8 we are of good courage, ¹ say, and are ^cwilling rather to be absent from the body, and ^cto be at home with the Lord. 9 Wherefore also we ^cmake it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be ^mwell-pleasing unto him. 10 For we must all be made manifest before ⁿthe judgment-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things ^{done} in the body, according to what he hath done, whether ^{it be} good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the ^cfear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest unto God; and I hope that we are ^mmade manifest also in your consciences. 12 We are not ^aagain commending ourselves unto you, but ^{we speak} as giving you ^coccasion of glorying on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer them that glory in appearance, and not in heart. 13 For whether we ^aare ^cbeside ourselves, it is unto God; or whether we are of sober mind, it is unto you. 14 For the love of Christ ^cconstraineth us; because we thus judge, that ^aone died for all, therefore all died; 15 and he died for all, that they that live should no longer ^clive unto them-righteousness on the right hand and on the left, 8 by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; 9 as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; 10 as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 Our mouth is open unto you, O Corinthians, our heart is enlarged. 12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own affections. 13 Now for a recompense in like kind (I speak as unto my children), be ye also enlarged.

14 Be not unequally yoked with unbelievers: for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? or what communion hath light with darkness? 15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what portion hath a believer with an unbeliever? 16 And what agreement hath a temple of God with idols? for we are a temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 17 Wherefore

Come ye out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord,

And touch no unclean thing; And I will receive you, 18 And will be to you a Father, And ye shall be to me sons and daughters.

7 saith the Lord Almighty. 1 Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Open your hearts to us: we wronged no man, we corrupted no man, we took advantage of no man. 3 I say it not to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die together and live together. 4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying on your behalf: I am filled with comfort, I overflow with joy in all our affliction.

5 For even when we were come into Macedonia our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. 6 Nevertheless he that comforteth the lowly, even God, comforted us by the coming of Titus; 7 and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort wherewith he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced yet more. 8 For though I made you sorry with my epistle, I do not regret it: though I did regret it (for I see that that epistle made you sorry, though but for a season), 9 I now rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye were made sorry unto repentance; for ye were made sorry after a godly sort, that ye might suffer loss by us in nothing. 10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance unto salvation, a repentance which bringeth no regret: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. 11 For behold, this selfsame thing, that ye were made sorry after a godly sort, what earnest care it wrought in you, yea what clearing of yourselves, yea what indignation, yea what fear, yea what longing, yea what zeal, yea what avenging! In everything ye approved yourselves to be pure in the matter. 12 So although I wrote unto you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be made manifest unto you in the sight of God. 13 Therefore we have been comforted: and in our comfort we joyed the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit hath been refreshed by you all. 14 For if in anything I have gloried to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame; but as we spake all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth. 15 And his affection is more abun-

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God which hath been ^agiven in the churches of ^aMacedonia; 2 how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto ^athe riches of their ^aliberality. 3 For ^aaccording to their power, I bear witness, yea and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, 4 beseeching us with much entreaty in regard of ^athis grace and the fellowship in the ^aministering to the saints: 5 and this, not as we had hoped, but first they ^agave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through ^athe will of God. 6 Inasmuch that we ^aexhorted ^aTitus, that as he had ^amade a beginning before, so he would also complete in you ^athis grace also. 7 But as ye ^aabound ^ain everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in ^ayour love to us, see that ye ^aabound in this grace also. 8 I speak ^anot by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. 9 For ye know ^athe grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, ^athough he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich. 10 And herein I ^agive my judgment: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to make a beginning ^aa year ago, not only to do, but also to will. 11 But now complete the doing also; that as there was the ^areadiness to will, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. 12 For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable ^aaccording as a man hath, not according as he hath not. 13 For I say not this that others may be eased and ye distressed; 14 but by equality: your abundance being a supply at this present time for ^atheir want, that their abundance also may become a supply for ^ayour want; that there may be equality: 15 as it is written, ³He that gathered much had nothing over; and he that gathered little had no lack.

16 But ^athanks be to God, who ^aputteth the same earnest care for you into the heart of ^aTitus. 17 For he accepted indeed our ^aexhortation; but being himself very earnest, he went forth unto you of his own accord. 18 And we have sent together with him ^athe brother whose praise in the ^agospel is spread through ^aall the churches; 19 ^aand not only so, but who was also ^aappointed by the churches to travel with us in the matter of ^athis grace, which is ministered by us to the glory of the Lord, and to show our ^areadiness: 20 avoiding this, that any man should blame us in the matter of this bounty which is ministered by us: 21 for we ^atake thought for things honorable, not only in ^athe sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. 22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he hath in you. 23 Whether any inquire about ^aTitus, he is my ^apartner and my fellow-worker to you-ward; or our ^abrethren, they are the ^amessengers of the churches, they are ^athe glory of Christ. 24 ^aShow ye therefore unto them in the face of the churches the proof of your love, and of our ^aglorying on your behalf.

9 For as touching the ^aministering to the saints, ^ait is superfluous for me to write to you: 2 for I know your readiness, of which I ^aglory on your behalf to them of ^aMacedonia, that ^aAchaia hath been prepared for ^aa year past; and ^ayour zeal hath stirred up ^avery many of them. 3 But I have sent the brethren, that our ^aglorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect; that, ^aeven as I said, ye may be prepared: 4 lest by any means, if there come with me any of ^aMacedonia and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be put to shame in this confidence. 5 I thought it necessary therefore to 19 ¹Ye think all this time that we are excusing ourselves unto you. ²In the sight of God speak we in Christ. But all things, ³beloved, are ⁴for your edifying: 20 For I fear, lest by any means, ⁵when I come, I should find you not such as I would, and should myself be found of you such as ye would not; lest by any means there should be ⁶strife, jealousy, ⁷wraths, ⁸factions, ⁹backbitings, ¹⁰whisperings, ¹¹swellings, ¹²tumults; 21 lest again when I come my God should humble me before you, and I should mourn for many of them that have ¹³sinned heretofore, and repented not of the ¹⁴uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they committed.

13 ¹This is the third time I am coming to you. ²At the mouth of two witnesses or three shall every word be established. 2 I have said ³beforehand, and I do say ⁴beforehand, ⁵as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, to them that have ⁶sinned heretofore, and to all the rest, that, ⁷if I come again, I will not ⁸spare; 3 seeing that ye ⁹seek a proof of ¹⁰Christ that speaketh in me; who to you-ward is not weak, but is ¹¹powerful in you: 4 for he was ¹²crucified through weakness, yet he liveth ¹³through the power of God. God toward you. 5 ¹Try your own selves, whether ye are in the faith; ²prove your own selves. Or know ye not as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you? unless indeed ye be ³reprobate. 6 But I hope that ye shall know that we are not reprobate. 7 Now we pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that ye may do that which is honorable, ⁸though we be as reprobate. 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. 9 For we rejoice, when we are ⁹weak, and ye are strong: this we also pray for, even your ¹⁰perfecting. 10 For this cause I write these things while absent, ¹¹that I may not when present deal ¹²sharply, according to the ¹³authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for casting down.

11 ¹Finally, brethren, ²farewell. ³Be perfected; be comforted; ⁴be of the same mind; ⁵live in peace; and ⁶the God of love and peace shall be with you. 12 ¹Salute one another with a holy kiss.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS

Salutation. The Galatians' Apostasy surprising. The Gospel I preach came from God; was not learned at Jerusalem;

1 Paul, "an apostle (¹not from men, neither through ¹man, but "through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who "raised him from the dead), 2 and all "the brethren that are with me, unto "the churches of Galatia. 3 "Grace to you and peace "from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 who "gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of "this present evil "world, according to the will of "our God and Father: 5 "to whom be the glory "for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are "so quickly removing from "him that called you in the grace of Christ unto a "different "gospel: 7 "which is not another gospel: only there are some that "trouble you, and would pervert the "gospel of Christ. 8 But though we, or "an angel from heaven, should "preach "unto you any gospel "other than that which we "preached unto you, let him be "anathema. 9 As we "have said before, so say I now again, "if any man "preacheth unto you any gospel "other than that which ye received, let him be "anathema. 10 For am I now "seeking the favor of men, or of God? or am I striving to please men? if I were still pleasing men, I should not be a "servant of Christ.

11 For "I make known to you, brethren, as touching the "gospel which was "preached by me, that it is "not after man. 12 For "neither did I receive it from "man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through "revelation of Jesus Christ. 13 For ye have when I saw that they ^{aw}'walked not uprightly according to ^{ax}the truth of the ^{ay}gospel, I said unto ^{az}"Cephas before ^{ba}them all, If thou, being a Jew, ^{bb}'livest as do the Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, how compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? 15 We being ^{bc}Jews by nature, and not ^{bd}'sinners of the Gentiles, 16 yet knowing that ^{be}a man is not ^{bf}'justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by ^{bg}'faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because ^{bh}by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. 17 But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found ^{bi}'sinners, is Christ a minister of sin? ^{bj}God forbid. 18 For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I ^{bk}'prove myself a transgressor. 19 For I through the law ^{bl}'died unto the law, that I might live unto God. 20 I have been ^{bm}'crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I that live, but ^{bn}Christ liveth in me; and that ^{bo}life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, ^{bp}the faith which is in ^{bq}'the Son of God, who ^{br}'loved me, and ^{bs}'gave himself up for me. 21 I do not make void the grace of God: for ^{bt}'if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nought.

which the Covenant of Faith antedates. The Law preparatory to the Gospel. Under the Law we were Wards and ¹worketh ²miracles among you, ³doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the ⁴hearing of faith? ⁵Even as ⁶Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. ⁷Know therefore that ⁸they that are of faith, the same are ⁹sons of Abraham. ¹⁰And the scripture, foreseeing that God ¹¹would justify the ¹²Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand unto Abraham, ¹³saying, ¹⁴In thee shall all the nations be blessed. ¹⁵So then ¹⁶they that are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. ¹⁷For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse: for it is written, ¹⁸Cursed is every one who continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them. ¹⁹Now that ²⁰no man is justified ²¹by the law before God, is evident: for, ²²the righteous shall live by faith; ²³and the law is not of faith; but, ²⁴He that doeth them shall live in them. ²⁵Christ ²⁶redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us; for it is written, ²⁷Cursed is every one that hangeth on ²⁸a tree: ²⁹that ³⁰upon the Gentiles might come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; that we ³¹might receive ³²the promise of the Spirit through faith.

³³Brethren, ³⁴I speak after the manner of men: ³⁵Though it be but a man's covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed, no one maketh it void, or addeth thereto. ³⁶Now ³⁷to Abraham were the promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, ³⁸And to thy seed, which is Christ. ³⁹Now this I say: A covenant confirmed beforehand by God, the law, which came ⁴⁰four hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the promise of none effect. ⁴¹For ⁴²if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but ⁴³God hath granted it to Abraham by promise. ⁴⁴What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till ⁴⁵the seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was ⁴⁶ordained through angels ⁴⁷by the hand of a mediator. ⁴⁸Now ⁴⁹a mediator is not a ⁵⁰mediator of one; but God is one. ⁵¹Is the law then against the promises of God? ⁵²God forbid: for ⁵³if there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law. ⁵⁴But the scripture ⁵⁵shut up all ⁵⁶things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

⁵⁷But before faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, ⁵⁸shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. ⁵⁹So that the law is become our ⁶⁰tutor to bring us unto Christ, that ⁶¹we might be justified by faith. ⁶²But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a ⁶³tutor. ⁶⁴For ye are all ⁶⁵sons of God, through faith, in ⁶⁶Christ Jesus. ⁶⁷For as many of you as were ⁶⁸baptized into Christ did ⁶⁹put on Christ. ⁷⁰There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female; for ⁷¹ye all are one ⁷²man in ⁷³Christ Jesus. ⁷⁴And if ⁷⁵ye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, heirs according to ⁷⁶promise.

⁷⁷But I say that so long as ⁷⁸the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant though he is lord of all; ⁷⁹but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed of the father. ⁸⁰So we also, when we were children, were held ⁸¹in bondage under the ⁸²rudiments of the world: ⁸³but when ⁸⁴the fulness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, ⁸⁵born of a woman, born ⁸⁶under the law, ⁸⁷that he might redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of ⁸⁸sons. ⁸⁹And because ye are sons, ⁹⁰God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, ⁹¹Abba, Father. ⁹²So that thou art no longer a bondservant, but a son; and ^aif a son, then an heir through God.

8 Howbeit at that time, ^bnot knowing God, ye were ^cin bondage to ^dthem that by nature are no gods: 9 but now that ye have come to know God, or rather to be ^eknown by God, ^fhow turn ye back again to the weak and beggarly ^grudiments, whereunto ye desire to be ^hin bondage over again? 10 Ye ⁱobserve days, and months, and seasons, and years. 11 I am afraid of you, lest by any means I have bestowed labor upon you in vain.

12 I beseech you, ^jbrethren, ^kbecome as I am, for I also am become as ye are. Ye did me no wrong: 13 but ye know that because of an infirmity of the flesh I ^lpreached the gospel unto you the ^mfirst time: 14 and that which was a temptation to you in my flesh ye despised not, nor ⁿrejected; but ^oye received me as an angel of God, even as ^pChrist Jesus. 15 Where then is that gratulation ^qof yourselves? for I bear you witness, that, if possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. 16 So then am I become your enemy, ^rby telling you the truth? 17 They zealously seek you in no good way; nay, they desire to shut you out, that ye may seek them. 18 But it is good to be zealously sought in a good matter at all times, and ^snot only when I am present with you. 19 ^tMy little children, of whom ^uI am again in travail until ^vChrist be formed in you—20 but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone; for ^wI am perplexed about you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not ^xhear the law? 22 For it is written, ^ythat Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the free-woman. 23 ^zHowbeit ^{aa}the son by the handmaid is born after the flesh; but ^{ab}the son by the free-woman is born through promise. 24 Which things ^{ac}contain an allegory: for these women are two covenants; one from ^{ad}mount Sinai, bearing children unto ^{ae}bondage, which is Hagar. 25 ^cNow this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to the Jerusalem that now is: for she is in bondage with her children. 26 But ^dthe Jerusalem that is above is free, which is our mother. 27 For it is written,

For more are the children of the desolate than of her that hath the husband.

28 Now ^fwe, brethren, ^gas Isaac was, are ^hchildren of promise. 29 But as then ⁱhe that was born after the flesh ^jpersecuted him that was born after the Spirit, ^kso also it is now. 30 Howbeit what saith the scripture? ^lCast out the handmaid and her son: for ^mthe son of the handmaid shall not inherit with the son of the freewoman. 31 Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the freewoman.

5 ⁿFor freedom did Christ set us free: ^ostand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a ^pyoke of bondage.

2 Behold, ^qI Paul say unto you, that, if ye receive ^r'circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. 3 Yea, I ^stestify again to every man that receiveth ^t'circumcision, that he is a debtor to ^udo the whole law. 4 Ye are ^vsevered from Christ, ye who would be justified by the law; ye are ^wfallen away from grace. 5 For we through the Spirit by faith ^xwait for the hope of righteousness. 6 For in ^yChrist Jesus ^zneither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but ^{aa}faith ^{ab}working through love. 7 Ye were ^{ac}running well; who hindered you that ye should not obey the truth? 8 This persuasion ^{ad}came not of ^{ae}him that calleth you. 9 ^{af}A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. 10 ^{ag}I have confidence to you-ward in the Lord,

The Spirit and the Flesh contrary the One to the Other. Exhortation to Forbearance and Helpfulness that ye ^awill be none otherwise minded; but he that ^btroubleth you shall bear his judgment, who-soever he be. 11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still ^cpersecuted? then hath ^dthe stumbling-block of the cross been done away. 12 I would that ^ethey that unsettle you would even ^fgo beyond circumcision.

13 For ye, brethren, were called for ^gfreedom; ^honly use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love ⁱbe servants one to another. 14 For ^jthe whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: ^kThou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 15 But if ye ^lbite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 But I say, ^mWalk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil ⁿthe lust of the flesh. 17 For ^othe flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; ^pthat ye may not do the things that ye would. 18 But if ye are ^qled by the Spirit, ^rye are not under the law. 19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are ^sthese: ^tfornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, ^uidolatry, ^vsorcery, enmities, ^wstrife, jealousies, wraths, ^xfactions, divisions, ^yparties, ^zenvyings, ^{aa}drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of which I ^{ab}forewarn you, even as I did ^{ac}forewarn you, that they who practise such things shall not ^{ad}inherit the kingdom of God. 22 But ^{ae}the fruit of the Spirit is ^{af}love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, ^{ag}faithfulness, ^{ah}meekness, ^{ai}self-control; against such ^{aj}there is no law. 24 And they that are of ^{ak}Christ Jesus have ^{al}crucified the flesh with the passions and ^{am}the lusts thereof.

25 If we live by the Spirit, ^{an}let us also walk. 26 Let us not become ^{ao}vainglorious, ^{ap}provoking one another, envying one another.

6 Brethren, even if a man be overtaken ^{aq}in any trespass, ye who are ^{ar}spiritual, ^{as}restore such a one ^{at}in a spirit of gentleness; looking to thyself, lest thou also be tempted. 2 ^{au}Bear ye one an-

3 But ¹fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becometh saints; 4 nor ²filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which ³are not befitting: but rather ⁴giving of thanks. 5 For this ye know of a surety, that ⁵no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom ⁶of Christ and God. 6 ⁷Let no man deceive you with empty words: for because of these things cometh ⁸the wrath of God upon ⁹the sons of disobedience. 7 Be not ye therefore ¹⁰partakers with them; 8 for ¹¹ye were once ¹²darkness, but are now light in the Lord: walk as ¹³children of light 9 (for ¹⁴the fruit of the light is in all ¹⁵goodness and righteousness and truth), 10 ¹⁶proving what is well-pleasing unto the Lord: 11 and ¹⁷have no fellowship with the unfruitful ¹⁸works of ¹⁹darkness, but rather even ²⁰reprove them; 12 for the things which are done by them in secret it is a shame even to speak of. 13 But all things ²¹when they are ²²reproved are made manifest by the light: for everything that is made manifest is light. 14 Wherefore ²³he saith, ²⁴Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from ²⁵the dead, and Christ ²⁶shall shine upon thee.

15 Look therefore carefully how ye ¹walk, not ²as unwise, but as wise; 16 ³redeeming the time, because ⁴the days are evil. 17 Wherefore be ye not foolish, but ⁵understand what the will of the Lord is. 18 And ^abe not drunken with wine, wherein is ^briot, but be ^cfilled with the Spirit; 19 ^dspeaking ^eone to another in ^fpsalms and ^ghymns and spiritual ^hsongs, ⁱsinging and making melody with your heart to the Lord; 20 ^jgiving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to ^kGod, even the Father; 21 ^lsubjecting yourselves one to another in the ^mfear of Christ.

22 ⁿWives, ^obe in ^psubjection unto your own husbands, ^qas unto the Lord. 23 For ^rthe husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the ^shead of the church, ^tbeing himself ^uthe saviour of the body. 24 But as the church is subject to Christ, ^vso let the wives also be to their husbands in everything. 25 ^wHusbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and ^xgave himself up for it; 26 ^ythat he might sanctify it, having ^zcleansed it by the ^{aa}washing of water with ^{ab}the word, 27 that he might ^{ac}present the church to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be ^{ad}holy and without blemish. 28 Even so ought husbands also to ^{ae}love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his own wife loveth himself: 29 for no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as Christ also the church; 30 because we are ^{af}members of his ^{ag}body. 31 ^{ah}For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh. 32 This mystery is great; but I speak in regard of Christ and of the church. 33 Nevertheless do ye also severally ^{ai}love each one his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she ^{aj}fear her husband.

6 ^{ak}Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. 2 ^{al}Honor thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise), 3 that it may be well with thee, and thou ^{am}mayest live long on the ^{an}earth. 4 And, ye ^{ao}fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but ^{ap}nurture them

Salutation. Thanksgiving and Supplication on the Readers' Behalf. "To live is Christ, to die is Gain"

1 ^a Paul and ^b Timothy, ^{1c} servants of "Christ Jesus, to "all the "saints in Christ Jesus that are at "Philippi, with the ^{2a} bishops and ^ddeacons: 2 ^a Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ¹ I thank my God upon all my remembrance of you, ⁴ always ^m in every supplication of mine on behalf of you all making my supplication with joy, ⁵ for your "fellowship in furtherance of the ^{3o} gospel "from the first day until now; ⁶ being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will perfect it until "the day of Jesus Christ: ⁷ even as "it is right for me to be thus minded on behalf of you all, because ¹ I "have you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in "my bonds and in the "defence and confirmation of the ^{3o} gospel, ye all are partakers with me of grace. ⁸ For "God is my witness, how I long after you all in the tender mercies of "Christ Jesus. ⁹ And this I pray, that "your love may abound yet more and more in "knowledge and all discernment; ¹⁰ so that ye may ^{3c} approve the things that are excellent: that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto "the day of Christ; ¹¹ being filled with the ^afruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 Now I would have you know, brethren, that the things which happened unto me ^b have fallen out rather unto the progress of the ^{3o} gospel; ¹³ so that "my bonds became manifest in Christ "throughout the whole praetorian guard, and to "all the rest; ¹⁴ and that most of the brethren in the Lord, ⁸ being have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. 29 ^aReceive him therefore in the Lord with all joy; and ^bhold such in honor: 30 because ^cfor the work of ^dChrist he came nigh unto death, hazarding his life to ^esupply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

3 Finally, my brethren, ^arejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not irksome, but for you it is safe. 2 Beware of the ^bdogs, beware of the ^cevil workers, beware of the concision: 3 for ^dwe are the circumcision, who ^eworship by the Spirit of God, and ^fglory in ^gChrist Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh: 4 though ^hI myself might have confidence even in the flesh: if any other man ⁱthinketh to have confidence in the flesh, I yet more: 5 ^jcircumcised the eighth day, of the ^kstock of Israel, of the ^ltribe of Benjamin, a ^mHebrew of Hebrews; as touching the law; ⁿa Pharisee; 6 as touching zeal, ^opersecuting the church; as touching the ^prighteousness which is in the law, found ^qblameless. 7 Howbeit ^rwhat things were ^sgain to me, these have I counted loss for Christ. 8 Yea verily, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the ^tknowledge of ^uChrist Jesus my Lord: for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but ^vrefuse, that I may gain Christ, 9 and be found in him, ^wnot having ^xa righteousness of mine own, even that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, ^ythe righteousness which is from God ^zby faith: 10 that I may ^{aa}know him, and ^{ab}the power of his resurrection, and the ^{ac}fellowship of his sufferings, becoming ^{ad}conformed unto his death: 11 if by any means I may ^{ae}attain unto the resurrection from the dead. 12 Not that I have already ^{af}obtained, or am already ^{ag}made perfect: but I press on, if so be that I may ^{ah}lay hold on that for which also I ^{ai}was laid

9 For this cause we also, ^asince the day we heard ^bit, ^cdo not cease to pray and make request for you, that ye may be filled with the ^dknowledge of his will in all spiritual ^ewisdom and understanding, ¹⁰ to ^fwalk worthily of the Lord ^gunto all ^hpleasing, ⁱbearing fruit in every good work, and increasing ^jin the knowledge of God; ¹¹ ^kstrengthened ^lwith all power, according to the might of his glory, unto all ^mpatience and ⁿlongsuffering with joy; ¹² giving thanks unto ^othe Father, who made ^pus ^qmeet to be partakers of ^rthe inheritance of the saints in ^slight; ¹³ who delivered us out of ^tthe power of

 men, after the "rudiments of the world, and not after Christ: 9 for in him dwelleth all the "fulness of the Godhead bodily, 10 and in him ye are "made full, "who is the head of "all principality and power: 11 in whom "ye were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of "the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; 12 having been "buried with him in baptism, wherein ye were also "raised with him through faith in the working of God, who "raised him from the dead. 13 And you, being "dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, you,
I say, did he "make alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses; 14 having blotted out ¹⁰ the bond written in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us: and "he hath taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; 15 ¹¹ having "despoiled the "principalities and the powers, he "made a show of them openly,
 "triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no man therefore "judge you in "meat, or in "drink, or in respect of a "feast day or a "new moon or a "sabbath day: 17 which are "a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's.
 18 Let no man "rob you of your prize ¹² by a "voluntary humility and ¹³ worshipping of the angels, ¹⁴ dwelling in the things which he hath ¹⁵ seen, vainly "puffed up by his "fleshy mind, 19 and not holding fast "the Head, from whom "all the body, being supplied and knit

20 ^aIf ye died with Christ from the ^brudiments of the world, ^cwhy, as though living in the world, do ye subject yourselves to ^dordinances, 21 Handle not, nor taste, nor touch 22 (all which things are ^eto perish with the using), after the ^fprecepts and doctrines of men? 23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in ^gwill-worship, and humility, and ^hseverity to the body; but are not of any ⁱvalue against ^jthe indulgence of the flesh.

3 If then ye were ^kraised together with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, ^lseated on the right hand of God. 2 ^mSet your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are upon the earth. 3 For ye ⁿdied, and your life is hid with Christ in God. 4 When Christ, ^owho is ^pour life, shall be manifested, ^qthen shall ye also with him be manifested in glory.

5 ^rPut to death therefore your ^smembers which are upon the earth: ^tfornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry; 6 for which things' sake cometh ^uthe wrath of God ^vupon the sons of disobedience; 7 ^wwherein ye also once walked, when ye lived in these things; 8 but now do ye also ^xput them all away: ^yanger, wrath, malice, railing, ^zshameful speaking out of your mouth; 9 ^{aa}lie not one to another; seeing that ye have ^{ab}put off the old man with his doings, 10 and have ^{ac}put on the new man, that is being ^{ad}renewed unto knowledge ^{ae}after the image of him that ^{af}created him: 11 where ^{ag}there cannot be Greek and Jew, ^{ah}circumcision and uncircumcision, ^{ai}barbarian, ^{aj}Scythian, ^{ak}bondman, freeman; but ^{al}Christ is all, and in all.

dom of God, men that have been a comfort unto me. 12 °Ephras, °who is one of you, a °servant of Christ Jesus, saluteth you, always °striving for you in his prayers, that ye may stand °perfect and °fully assured in all the will of God. 13 For I bear him witness, that he hath much labor for you, and for them in °Laodicea, and for them in Hierapolis. 14 °Luke, the beloved physician, and °Demas salute you. 15 Salute the brethren that are in °Laodicea, and °Nymphas, and °the church that is in °their house. 16 And °when °this epistle hath been read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye also °read the epistle from °Laodicea. 17 And say to °Archippus, Take heed to the °ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

18 °The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand. °Remember °my bonds. °Grace be with you.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Reception of the Gospel. Reminder of his Labors among them

1 ^aPaul, and ^bSilvanus, and ^cTimothy, unto the ^dchurch of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: ^eGrace to you and peace.

2 ^fWe give thanks to God always for you all, ^gmaking mention of you in our prayers; 3 remembering without ceasing your ^hwork of faith and labor of ⁱlove and ^jpatience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before ^kour God and Father; 4 knowing, ^lbrethren beloved of God, ^myour election, 5 ⁿhow that our ^ogospel came not unto you in word only, but also ^pin power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much ^qassurance; even as ye know ^rwhat manner of men we showed ourselves toward you for your sake. 6 And ye became ^simitators of us, and of the Lord, ^thaving received ^uthe word in much affliction, with ^vjoy of the Holy Spirit; 7 so that ye became an ensample to all that believe in ^wMacedonia and in ^xAchaia. 8 For from you hath ^ysounded forth ^zthe word of the Lord, not only in ^{aa}Macedonia and ^{ab}Achaia, but ^{ac}in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we need not to speak anything. 9 For they themselves report concerning us what manner of ^{ad}entering in we had unto you; and how ye ^{ae}turned unto God ^{af}from idols, to serve a ^{ag}living and true God, 10 and to ^{ah}wait for his Son from heaven, whom he ^{ai}raised from the dead, ^{aj}even Jesus, who ^{ak}delivereth us from ^{al}the wrath to come.

2 For yourselves, brethren, know our ^{am}entering in unto you, that ^{an}it hath not been found vain: 2 but having suffered before and been ^{ao}shamefully treated, as ye know, at ^{ap}Philippi, we waxed bold in our God ^{aq}to speak unto you

13 And for this cause we also ^athank God without ceasing, that, when ye received from us ^b"the word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted it ^c'not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, ^d'which also worketh in you that believe. 14 For ye, brethren, became ^e'imitators of ^f'the churches of God which are ^g'in Judæa in Christ Jesus: for ^h'ye also suffered the same things of your own countrymen, ⁱ"even as they did of the Jews; 15 ^j"who both killed the Lord Jesus and ^k'the prophets, and drove out us, and please not God, and are contrary to all men; 16 ^l'forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles ^m'that they may be saved; to ⁿ'fill up their sins always: but the ^o'wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being ^a'be-reaved of you for ^b'a short season, ^c'in presence not in heart, endeavored the more exceedingly ^d"to see your face with great desire: 18 because ^e'we would fain have come into you, I Paul ^f'once and again; and ^g'Satan ^h'hindered us. 19 For what is our hope, or ⁱ'joy, or crown of glorying? Are not even ye, before our Lord Jesus at his ^j'^hcoming? 20 For ye are ^k'our glory and our joy.

3 Wherefore ^a'when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left behind at ^b'Athens alone; 2 and sent ^c'Timothy, our brother and ^d'God's minister in the ^e'gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort ^fyou concerning your faith; 3 that no man be moved by these afflictions; for yourselves know that ^g'hereunto we are appointed. 4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you ^h'beforehand that we are to suffer affliction; ⁱ'even as it came to pass, and ye know. 5 For this cause I also, ^j'when I could no longer forbear, ^k'sent that I might know your faith, lest by any means ^l'the tempter had tempted you, and ^m'our labor should be in vain. 6 But when ⁿ'Timothy came even also we ¹forewarned you and ^atestified. 7 For ^bGod called us not for ^cuncleanness, but in sanctification. 8 Therefore he that rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God, who ^dgiveth his Holy Spirit unto you.

9 But concerning ^elove of the brethren ye ^fhave no need that one write unto you: for ye yourselves are ^gtaught of God to love one another; 10 for indeed ^hye do it toward all the brethren that are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, that ye ⁱabound more and more; 11 and that ye ^jstudy ^kto be quiet, and to ^lwork with your hands, even as we charged you; 12 that ye may ^mwalk becomingly toward ⁿthem that are without, and may ^ohave need of nothing.

13 But ^pwe would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that ^qfall asleep; that ye sorrow not, even as ^rthe rest, who have ^sno hope. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, ^teven so ^uthem also that are fallen asleep ^vin Jesus will God bring with him. 15 For this we say unto you ^wby the word of the Lord, that ^xye that are alive, that are left unto ^ythe ^zcoming of the Lord, shall in no wise precede ^{aa}them that are fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord ^{ab}himself ^{ac}shall descend from heaven, with ^{ad}a shout, with the voice of ^{ae}the archangel, and with ^{af}the trump of God: and ^{ag}the dead in Christ shall rise first; 17 then ^{ah}we that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be ^{ai}caught up ^{aj}in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever ^{ak}be with the Lord. 18 Wherefore ^{al}comfort one another with these words.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

Salvation. Thanksgiving for their Faith and Fidelity. The Lord's Coming to be preceded by the Lawless One

1 ^aPaul, and ^bSilvanus, and ^cTimothy, unto the ^dchurch of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; 2 ^eGrace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

ren, ^{as}in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye ^{at}withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh ^{au}disorderly, and not after ^{av}the tradition which ^{aw}they received of us. 7 For yourselves know how ye ought to ^{ax}imitate us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 neither did we ^{ay}eat bread for nought at any man's hand, but in ^{az}labor and travail, ^{ba}working night and day, that we might not burden any of you: 9 not because we have not ^{bb}the right, but to make ourselves ^{bc}an ensample unto you, that ye should imitate us. 10 For even ^{bd}when we were with you, this we commanded you, ^{be}if any will not work, neither let him eat. 11 For we hear of some that ^{bf}walk among you disorderly, that work not at all, but are ^{bg}busybodies. 12 Now them that are such we command and ^{bh}exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with ^{bi}quietness they work, and eat their own bread. 13 But ye, ^{bj}brethren, ^{bk}be not weary in well-doing. 14 And if any man obeyeth not our word by ^{bl}this epistle, note that man, that ye ^{bm}have no company with him, to the end that he may be ^{bn}ashamed. 15 And ^{bo}yet ^{bp}count him not as an enemy, but ^{bq}admonish him as a ^{br}brother.

Prayer for Rulers. Modest Apparel. Church Officials. "The Pillar and Ground of the Truth." Apostasy foretold prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; 2 "for kings and all that are in high place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and gravity. 3 This is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; 4 "who would have all men to be saved, and come to the knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is one God, one mediator also between God and men, himself man, Christ Jesus, 6 who gave himself a ransom for all; the testimony to be borne in its own times; 7 "whereunto I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I speak the truth, I lie not), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

8 I desire therefore that the men pray in every place, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and disputing. 9 In like manner, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with braided hair, and gold or pearls or costly raiment; 10 but (which becometh women professing godliness) through good works. 11 Let a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. 12 But I permit not a woman to teach, nor to have dominion over a man, but to be in quietness. 13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve; 14 and Adam was not beguiled, but the woman being beguiled hath fallen into transgression: 15 but she shall be saved through her child-bearing, if they continue in faith and love and sanctification with sobriety.

3 "Faithful is the saying, If a man seeketh the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work. 2 The bishop therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, sober-minded, orderly, given to hospitality, apt to teach; 3 a no brawler, no striker; but gentle, not contentious, no lover of money; 4 one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; 5 (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) 6 not a novice, lest being "puffed up he fall into the "condemnation of the devil. 7 Moreover he must have good testimony from them that are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil. 8 Deacons in like manner must be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; 9 holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10 And let these also first be proved; then let them serve as deacons, if they be blameless. 11 Women in like manner must be grave, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things. 12 Let deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. 13 For they that have served well as deacons gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly; 15 but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how men ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness;

Seen of angels,

Believed on in the world,

Received up in glory.

Pastoral Directions to Timothy:—respecting Himself; respecting Widows; respecting elders; giving heed to "seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, 2 through the hypocrisy of men that speak lies, 1 branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; 3 "forbidding to marry, and commanding "to abstain from meats, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by them that believe and know the truth. 4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it be received with thanksgiving: 5 for it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in mind of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which thou hast followed until now: 7 but refuse profane and old wives' fables. And exercise thyself unto godliness: 8 for bodily exercise is profitable for a little; but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life which now is, and of that which is to come. 9 Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptance. 10 For to this end we labor and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of them that believe. 11 These things command and teach. 12 Let no man despise thy youth: but be thou an ensample to them that believe, in word, in manner of life, in love, in faith, in purity. 13 Till I come, give heed to reading, to exhortation, to teaching. 14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. 15 Be diligent in these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy progress may be manifest unto all. 16 Take heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt save both thyself and them that hear thee.

5 Rebuke not an elder, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brethren: 2 the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. 3 Honor widows that are widows indeed. 4 But if any widow hath children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to requite their parents: for this is acceptable in the sight of God. 5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, hath her hope set on God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. 6 But she that giveth herself to pleasure is dead while she liveth. 7 These things also command, that they may be without reproach. 8 But if any provideth not for his own, and specially his own household, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. 9 Let none be enrolled as a widow under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man, 10 well reported of for good works; if she hath brought up children, if she hath used hospitality to strangers, if she hath washed the saints' feet, if she hath relieved the afflicted, if she hath diligently followed every good work. 11 But younger widows refuse: for when they have waxed wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; 12 having condemnation, because they have rejected their first pledge. 13 And withal they learn also to be idle, going about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. 14 I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, give no occasion to the adversary for reviling; 15 for already some are turned aside after Satan. 16 If any woman that believeth hath widows, let her relieve them, and let not the church be burdened; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching. 18 For the scripture saith, Thou

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

Salutation. Timothy charged to stir up the Gift in him, and guard his Trust. Onesiphorus faithful amid Desertions

1 Paul, "an apostle of "Christ Jesus "through the will of God, according to the promise of "the life which is in Christ Jesus, 2 to "Timothy, my beloved "child: "Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 "I thank God, whom I "serve from my forefathers in a "pure conscience, "how unceasing is my remembrance of thee in my supplications, night and day 4 "longing to see thee, "remembering thy tears, that I may be filled with "joy: 5 having been reminded of the "unfeigned faith that is in thee; which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and "thy mother Eunice; and, I am persuaded, in thee also. 6 For which cause I put thee in remembrance that thou "stir up "the gift of God, which is in thee through the "laying on of my hands. 7 For God gave us not "a spirit of fearfulness; but of power and love and "discipline. 8 "Be not ashamed therefore of "the testimony of our Lord, nor of me "his prisoner: but "suffer hardship with the "gospel according to the power of God; 9 who "saved us, and "called us with a holy "calling, "not according to our works, but according to his own "purpose and grace, which was given us in "Christ Jesus "before "times eternal, 10 but "hath now been manifested by the "appearing of our Saviour "Christ Jesus, who "abolished death, and brought life and "immortality to light through the "gospel, 11 "whereunto I was appointed a "preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher. 12 For which cause I suffer also these things: yet "I am not ashamed; for I know him

" whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to "guard that which I have committed unto him against "that day. 13 "Hold the "pattern of "sound words "which thou hast heard from me, in "faith and love which is in "Christ Jesus. 14 "That good thing which was committed unto thee guard through the Holy Spirit which "dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all that are in "Asia "turned away from me; of whom are "Hygelus and Hermogenes. 16 The Lord grant mercy unto "the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and "was not ashamed of my "chain; 17 but, when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me 18 (the Lord grant unto him to find mercy of the Lord in "that day); and in how many things he ministered at "Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

2 "Thou therefore, my "child, "be strengthened in the grace that is in "Christ Jesus. 2 And the things "which thou hast heard from me among "many witnesses, the same "commit thou to "faithful men, who shall be "able to teach others also. 3 "Suffer hardship with me, as a good "soldier of "Christ Jesus. 4 No soldier on service "entangleth himself in the affairs of "this life; that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. 5 And if also a man "contend in the games, he is not crowned, except he have contended lawfully. 6 ^aThe husbandman that laboreth must be the first to partake of the fruits. 7 Consider what I say; for the Lord shall give thee understanding in all things. 8 Remember Jesus Christ, ^brisen from the dead, of ^cthe seed of David, ^daccording to my ^egospel: 9 wherein I ^fsuffer hardship unto ^gbonds, as a ^hmalefactor; but ⁱthe word of God ^jis not bound. 10 Therefore ^kI endure all things for ^lthe elect's sake, ^mthat they also may obtain the ⁿsalvation which is in ^oChrist Jesus with ^peternal glory. 11 ^qFaithful is the ^rsaying: For ^sif we died with him, we shall also live with him: 12 if we endure, ^twe shall also reign with him: ^uif we shall ^vdeny him, he also will deny us: 13 if we are faithless, ^whe abideth faithful; for ^xhe cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, ^ycharging them in the sight of ^zthe Lord, that they ^{aa}strive not about words, to no profit, to the subverting of them that hear. 15 Give diligence to ^{ab}present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, ^{ac}handling aright ^{ad}the word of truth. 16 But ^{ae}shun ^{af}profane babblings; for they will proceed further in ungodliness, 17 and their word will ^{ag}eat as doth a gangrene: of whom is ^{ah}Hymenæus and Philetus; 18 men who concerning the truth have ^{ai}erred, saying that ^{aj}the resurrection is past already, and overthrow ^{ak}the faith of some. 19 Howbeit the ^{al}firm foundation of God standeth, having this ^{am}seal, ^{an}The Lord knoweth them that are his: and, ^{ao}Let every one that nameth the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness. 20 Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and ^{ap}some unto honor, and some unto dishonor. 21 If ^{aq}a man therefore purge himself from ^{ar}these, he shall be a vessel unto honor, sanctified, meet for the master's use. ^{as}prepared unto every good work. 22 But ^{at}fee youthful lusts, and ^{au}follow after righteousness, ^{av}faith, love, peace, with them that ^{aw}call on the Lord ^{ax}out of a pure heart. 23 But foolish and ignorant ^{ay}questionings refuse, knowing that they ^{az}gender strifes. 24 And ^{ba}the Lord's ^{bb}servant must not strive, but be gentle towards all, ^{bc}apt to teach, forbearing, 25 ^{bd}in meekness ^{be}correcting them that oppose themselves; ^{bf}if peradventure God may give them repentance unto ^{bg}the knowledge of the truth, 26 and they may ^{bh}recover themselves out of ^{bi}the snare of the devil, having been ^{bj}taken captive ^{bk}by him unto his will.

3 But know this, that ^{bl}in the last days grievous times shall come. 2 For men shall be ^{bm}lovers of self, ^{bn}lovers of money, ^{bo}boastful, ^{bp}haughty, ^{bq}railers, ^{br}disobedient to parents, ^{bs}unthankful, ^{bt}unholy, ^{bu}without natural affection, implacable, ^{bv}slanderers, without self-control, fierce, ^{bw}no lovers of good, 4 ^{bx}traitors, ^{by}headstrong, ^{bz}puffed up, ^{ca}lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God: 5 holding a ^{cb}form of ^{cc}godliness, but having ^{cd}denied the power thereof: ^{ce}from these also turn away. 6 For of these are they that ^{cf}creep into houses, and take captive ^{cg}silly women laden with sins, led away by ^{ch}divers lusts, ^{ci}ever learning, and never able to ^{cj}come to the knowledge of the truth. 8 And even as ^{ck}Jannes and Jambres ^{cl}withstood Moses, so do these also withstand the truth: ^{cm}men corrupted in mind, reprobate concerning the faith. 9 But they shall proceed no further: for

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

Salutation. Qualifications of an Elder. Disorderly Teachers to be reprov'd. Duties of the Aged, the Young, etc.

1 Paul, ^a a ¹ servant of God, and ^b an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of ^c God's elect, and ^d the knowledge of the truth which is ^e according to godliness, 2 in ^f hope of eternal life, which ^g God, ^h who cannot lie, ⁱ promised ^j before ^k times eternal; 3 but in ^l his own seasons manifested his word in ^m the ⁿ message, ^o wherewith I was intrusted ^p according to the commandment of ^q God our Saviour; 4 to ^r Titus, ^s my true child after ^t a common faith: ^u Grace and peace from God the Father and ^v Christ Jesus our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in ^w Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that were wanting, and ^x appoint ^y elders in every city, as I gave thee charge; 6 ^z if any man is blameless, the ^{aa} husband of one wife, having children that believe, who are not accused of ^{ab} riot or ^{ac} unruly. 7 For ^{ad} the ^{ae} bishop must be blameless, as ^{af} God's steward; not ^{ag} self-willed, not soon angry, ^{ah} no brawler, no striker, ^{ai} not greedy of filthy lucre; 8 but ^{aj} given to hospitality, ^{ak} a lover of good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled; 9 ^{al} holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in ^{am} the ^{an} sound ^{ao} doctrine, and to convict the gainsayers.

10 ^{ap} For there are many ^{aq} unruly men, ^{ar} vain talkers and deceivers, specially ^{as} they of the circumcision, ^{at} whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole ^{au} houses, teaching ^{av} things which they ought not, ^{aw} for filthy lucre's sake. 12 ^{ax} One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said,

Intent of the Saviour's Self-sacrifice. Sundry further Injunctions. Directions respecting Individuals. Benediction

Exhort ¹servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing to them in all things; not gainsaying; 10 not surloining, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of ⁶God our Saviour in all things. 11 For the grace of God ²hath appeared, ³bringing salvation to all men, 12 instructing us, to the intent that, denying ungodliness and ⁴worldly lusts, we should live soberly and righteously and godly in ⁵this present world; 13 looking for the blessed hope and ⁶appearing of the glory of ⁷the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; 14 who ⁸gave himself for us, ⁹that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and ¹⁰purify unto himself a ¹¹people for his own possession, ¹²zealous of good works. 15 These things speak and ¹⁶exhort, and ¹⁷reprove with all ¹⁸authority. ¹⁹Let no man despise thee.

²⁰Put them in mind ²¹to be in subjection to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be ²²ready unto every good work, 2 to speak evil of no man, ²³not to be contentious, ²⁴to be gentle, ²⁵showing all meekness toward all men. 3 ²⁶For ye also once were foolish, ²⁷disobedient, ²⁸deceived, ²⁹serving ³⁰divers masters and pleasures, living in ³¹malice and ³²envy, hateful, hating one another. 4 But when the ³³kindness of ³⁴God our Saviour, and his love toward man, ³⁵appeared, 5 ³⁶not by works ³⁷done in righteousness, which we did ourselves, but ³⁸according to his mercy he ³⁹saved us, through the ⁴⁰washing of regeneration ⁴¹and ⁴²renewing of the Holy spirit, 6 ⁴³which he poured out

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON

Salutation. Thanksgiving for Philemon's Love and Fellowship. Onesimus no longer a Servant. Benediction

1 ^aPaul, ^ba prisoner of ^cChrist Jesus, and ^dTimothy ^eour brother, to Philemon our beloved and ^ffellow-worker, 2 and to Apphia ^gour sister, and to ^hArchippus our ⁱfellow-soldier, and to ^jthe church in thy house: 3 ^kGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 ^lI thank my God always, ^mmaking mention of thee in my prayers, 5 ⁿhearing of ^othy love, and of the faith which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints: 6 that the fellowship of thy faith may become effectual, in the ^pknowledge of every good thing which is in ^qyou, unto Christ. 7 For I had much ^rjoy and comfort in thy love, because the hearts of the saints have been ^srefreshed through thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, ^tthough I have all boldness in Christ to enjoin thee that which is ^ubefitting, 9 yet for love's sake I rather ^vbeseech, being such a one as Paul ^wthe "aged, and now ^xa prisoner also of ^yChrist Jesus: 10 I ^zbeseech thee for my ^{aa}child, whom I have begotten in my bonds, ^{ab}Onesimus, 11 who once was unprofitable to thee, but now is profitable to thee and to me: 12 whom I have sent back to thee in his own person, that is, my very heart: 13 whom I would fain have kept with me, that in thy behalf he might minister unto me in the ^{ac}bonds of the ^{ad}gospel: 14 but without thy mind I would do nothing;

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWS

God's Final Word spoken through his Son, who is superior to the Angels and more to be heeded

1 God, having of old time spoken unto the fathers in the prophets by divers portions and in divers manners, ² hath at the end of these days spoken unto us in ^{1c}his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the ^{2a}worlds; ³ who being the effulgence of his glory, and the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had made purification of sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; ⁴ having become by so much better than the angels, as he hath inherited a more excellent name than they. ⁵ For unto which of the angels said he at any time,

^{6a}Thou art my Son,
This day have I begotten thee?
and again,

⁶ I will be to him a Father,
And he shall be to me a Son?
^{6a}And when he again bringeth in the firstborn into the world he saith, ⁹And let all the angels of God worship him. ⁷ And of the angels he saith,

And his ministers a flame of fire;
⁸ But of the Son he saith,

^{11, 12}Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever;
And the sceptre of uprightness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

⁹Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity;
Therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee
With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

12 And as a mantle shalt thou roll them up,

As a garment, and they shall be changed:

But thou art the same, And thy years shall not fail.

13 But of which of the angels hath he said at any time,

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to do service for the sake of them that shall inherit salvation?

2 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things that were heard, lest haply

we drift away from them. ²

For if the word spoken through angels proved stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward; ³ how shall we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation? which having at the first been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed unto us by them that heard; ⁴ God also bearing witness with them, both by signs and wonders, and by manifold powers, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will.

His Subordination the better fits him to succor.

5 For not unto angels did he subject ^{1a}the world to come, whereof we speak. 6 But one hath ²somewhere testified, saying, ²What is man, that thou art mindful of him?

Or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

8 ⁴Thou didst put all things in subjection unto him.

For in that he subjected all things unto him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now ⁵we see not yet all things subjected to him. 9 But we behold him who hath been ⁶made ^{3a}a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, ⁷because of the suffering of death ⁸crowned with glory and honor, that ⁹by the grace of God he should ⁸taste of death ⁹for every man. 10 For ¹⁰it became him, ¹⁰for whom are all things, and ¹¹through whom are all things, ¹¹in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the ¹²author of their salvation ¹²perfect through sufferings. 11 For both he that ¹³sanctifieth and they that ¹⁴are sanctified are all ¹⁵of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them ¹⁶brethren, 12 saying, ¹⁷I will declare thy name unto my brethren.

In the midst of the ¹⁸congregation will I sing thy praise.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, ¹⁹Behold, I and the children whom God hath given me. 14 Since then the children are sharers in ²⁰flesh and blood, ²¹he also himself in like manner partook of the same; that ²²through death he ²³might bring to nought ²⁴him that ²⁵had the power of death, that is, the devil; 15 and ²⁶might deliver all them who through ²⁷fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16 ²⁸For verily not to angels doth he give help, but he giveth help to the seed of Abraham. 17 Wherefore it be-hooved him in all things ¹to be made like unto his brethren, that he might ²become a merciful and faithful ³high priest in ⁴things pertaining to God, to ⁵make propitiation for the sins of the people. 18 ⁶For ⁷in that he himself hath suffered being ⁸tempted, he is able to succor them that are tempted.

16 For who, when they heard, did ^hprovoke? nay, ⁱdid not all they that came out of Egypt by Moses? 17 And with whom was he displeased forty years? was it not with them that sinned, ^jwhose ^kbodies fell in the wilderness? 18 And to whom sware he ^lthat they should not enter into his rest, but to them that were ^mdisobedient? 19 And we see that they were not able to enter in because of ⁿunbelief.

⁴Let us fear therefore, lest haply, a promise being left of entering into his rest, any one of you should seem to have ^ocome short of it. 2 For indeed we have had ^pgood tidings preached unto us, even as also they: but ^qthe word of hearing did not profit them, because ^rit was not united by faith with them that heard. 3 ^sFor we who have believed do enter into that rest; even as he hath said,

although the works were finished ^tfrom the foundation of the world. 4 For he hath said ^usomewhere of the seventh day on this wise, ^vAnd God ^wrested on the seventh day from all his works; 5 and in this place again,

8 For ^dif ^eJoshua had given them rest, he would not have ^fspoken afterward of another day. 9 There remaineth therefore a sabbath rest for the people of God. 10 For he that is entered into his rest hath himself also ^grested from his works, as ^hGod did from his. 11 Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, that no man fall ⁱafter the same ^jexample of ^kdisobedience. 12 For ^lthe word of God is ^mliving, and ⁿactive, and sharper than any two-edged ^osword, and piercing even to the dividing of ^psoul and ^qspirit, of both joints and marrow, and ^rquick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 And ^sthere is no creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are ^tnaked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Having then a great ^uhigh priest, who hath ^vpassed through the heavens, Jesus ^wthe Son of God, let us hold fast our ^xconfession. 15 For we have not ^ya high priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points ^ztempted like as we are, yet ^awithout sin. 16 Let us therefore ^bdraw near with ^cboldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

⁵For every high priest, ^dbeing taken from among men, is appointed for men in ^ethings pertaining to God, that he may ^foffer both gifts and sacrifices ^gfor sins: 2 ^hwho can bear gently with the ⁱignorant and ^jerring, for that he himself also is ^kcompassed with infirmity; 3 and by reason thereof is bound, ^las for the people, so also for himself, to offer ^mfor sins. 4 And

⁹ But, ¹⁷beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that ¹⁷accompany salvation, though we thus speak: ¹⁰ for ¹⁸God is not unrighteous to forget ¹⁹your work and the love which ye showed toward his name, in that ye ²⁰ministered unto the saints, and still do minister. ¹¹ And we desire that each one of you may show the same diligence unto the ¹⁸fulness of ²¹hope even to the end: ¹² that ye be not sluggish, but ²²imitators of them who through ²³faith and patience ²⁴inherit the promises.

Jesus a High Priest after Melchizedek's Order. Superseding the Levitical Order and Ritual, he liveth to intercede who have fled for refuge to lay hold of ^athe hope set before us: 19 which we have as an anchor of the soul, ^aa hope both sure and steadfast and ^bentering into that which is within the veil; 20 ^cwhither as a fore-runner Jesus entered for us, having become a ^d"high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

7 For this ^eMelchizedek, king of Salem, priest of ^fGod Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, ^g2 to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; ^h3 without father, without mother, ⁱwithout genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto ^jthe Son of God), abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom Abraham, the ^k'patriarch, gave a tenth out of the chief spoils. 5 And they indeed of ^lthe sons of Levi that receive the priest's office have commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though these have come out of the loins of Abraham: 6 but he ^m'whose genealogy is not counted from them ⁿ'hath taken tithes of Abraham, and ^o'hath blessed him that ^p'hath the promises. 7 But without any dispute the less is blessed of the better. 8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there one, ^qof whom it is witnessed that he liveth. 9 And, so to say, through Abraham even Levi, who receiveth tithes, hath paid tithes; 10 for he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him.

11 ^rNow if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it ^s'hath the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should arise ^t'after the order of Melchizedek, and not be reckoned after the order of Aaron? 12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. 13 For ^u'he of whom ^v'these things are said ^w'belongeth to another tribe, from which no man hath given attendance at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Lord hath ^x'sprung out of Judah; as to which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priests. 15 And what we say is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there ariseth another priest, 16 who hath been made, not after the law of a ^a'carnal commandment, but after the power of ^b'an ^c'endless life: 17 for it is witnessed of him,

After the order of Melchizedek. 18 For there is a disannulling of a foregoing commandment ^e'because of its weakness and unprofitableness 19 (for ^f'the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in there-upon of a better ^g'hope, through which we ^h'draw nigh unto God 20 And inasmuch as it is not without the taking of an oath 21 (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath; but he with an oath ⁱ'by him that saith ^jof him, ^k'The Lord sware and ^l'will not repent himself, Thou art a priest ^m'for ever); 22 by so much also hath Jesus be come the ⁿ'surety of ^o'a better covenant. 23 And they indeed have been made priests many in number, because that by death they are hindered from continuing; 24 but he, because he abideth ^p'for ever, ^q'hath his priesthood ^r'unchangeable. 25 Wherefore also he is able to ^s'save ^t'to the uttermost them that ^u'draw near unto God through him, seeing he ever liveth to ^v'make intercession for them.

26 For such a ^w'high priest became us, ^x'holy, ^y'guileless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and ^z'made higher than the heavens; 27 who needeth not daily, like those high priests, to ^{aa}'offer up sacrifices, ^{ab}'first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people: for this he did ^{ac}'once for all, when he ^{ad}'offered up himself. 28 For the law appointeth men high priests, ^{ae}'having infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was after the law, ^{af}'appointeth ^{ag}'a Son, ^{ah}'perfected for evermore.

is this: We have such a ^ahigh priest, who sat down on ^bthe right hand of the throne of the ^cMajesty in the heavens, 2 a ^dminister of ^ethe sanctuary, and of the ^ftrue tabernacle, which the Lord ^gpitched, not man. 3 For every ^ahigh priest is appointed ^hto offer both gifts and sacrifices; wherefore it is necessary that this ^{high priest} also have somewhat to offer. 4 Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are those who ⁱoffer the gifts according to the law; 5 who serve that which is ^aa copy and ^jshadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses is ^kwarned of ^{GoI} when he is about to ^lmake the tabernacle: for, ³See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern that was showed thee in the mount. 6 But now hath he obtained a ministry the more excellent, by so much as he is also the ^mmediator of ⁿa better covenant, which hath been enacted upon better promises. 7 For ^oif that first ^{covenant} had been faultless, then would no place have been sought for a second. 8 For ^pfinding fault with them, he saith, 11 But Christ having come a high priest of ¹the ^ogood things to come, through ^athe greater and more perfect tabernacle, ^anot made with hands, that is to say, ¹not of this creation, ¹²nor yet through ^athe blood of goats and calves, but ^athrough his own blood, ^aentered in ^aonce for all into the holy place, having obtained ^aeternal redemption. 13 For if ^athe blood of goats and bulls, and ^athe ashes of a heifer sprinkling them that have been defiled, sanctify unto the cleanness of the flesh: 14 how much more shall ^athe blood of Christ, who through ^athe eternal Spirit ^aoffered himself without blemish unto God, ^acleanse ^ayour conscience from ^adead works to serve ^athe living God? 15 And for this cause ^ahe is the ^amediator of a ^anew ^acovenant, that ^aa death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first ^acovenant, they that have been ^acalled may ^areceive the promise of ^athe eternal inheritance. 16 For where a ^atestament is, there must of necessity ^abe the death of him that made it. 17 For a ^atestament is of force ^awhere there hath been death: ^afor it doth never avail while he that made it liveth. 18 Wherefore even the first covenant hath not been dedicated without blood. 19 For when every commandment had been ^aspoken by Moses unto all the people according to the law, ^ahe took the ^ablood of the calves and the goats, with ^awater and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both ^athe book itself and all the people, 20 saying, ^aThis is the blood of the ^acovenant which God commanded to youward. 21 Moreover ^athe tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry he sprinkled in like manner with the blood. 22 And according to the law, I may ^aalmost say, all things are cleansed with blood, and ^aapart from shedding of blood there is no remission.

Let us draw near with a True Heart. For Wilful Sin there is no More Sacrifice. Recall Former Constancy

7 Then said I, Lo, I am come

To do thy will, O God.

8 Saying above, ^bSacrifices and offerings and ^cwhole burnt offerings and ^dsacrifices ^efor sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein (the which are offered according to the law), 9 then hath he said, ^fLo, I am come to do thy will. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 ^gBy which will we have been ^hsanctified through ⁱthe offering of ^jthe body of Jesus Christ ^konce for all. 11 And every ^lpriest indeed standeth day by day ministering and ^moffering oftentimes the same sacrifices, the which ⁿcan never take away sins: 12 but he, when he had offered one sacrifice ^ofor ^psins ^qfor ever, ^rsat down on the right hand of God; 13 henceforth expecting till ^shis enemies be made the footstool of his feet. 14 For by one offering he hath ^tperfected ^ufor ever them that are sanctified.

will of God, ye may ^areceive the promise.

37 ¹For ^ayet a very little while, ^cHe that cometh shall come, and shall not tarry.

38 But ²my righteous one shall live by faith:

And if he shrink back, my soul hath no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not ³of them that shrink back unto perdition; but of them that have faith unto the ⁴saving of the soul.

11 Now faith is ⁵assurance of things ⁶hoped for, a ⁶conviction of things not seen. 2 For therein ^athe elders ^bhad witness borne to them. 3 By faith we understand that the ⁷worlds have been framed ^cby the ^mword of God, so that what is seen hath ⁿnot been made out of things which appear. 4 By faith ^oAbel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he ^bhad witness borne to him that he was righteous, ⁸God bearing witness ⁹in respect of his ⁹gifts: and through it he ²being dead yet speaketh. 5 By faith ^rEnoch was translated that he should not ^{see} death; and he was not found, because God translated him: ¹⁰for he hath had witness borne to him that before his translation he had been well-pleasing unto God: 6 and without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto him; for he that ^ccometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seek after him. 7 By faith ^uNoah, being ^wwarned of God concerning things not seen as yet, ^xmoved with godly fear, ^yprepared an ark to the saving of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of ^zthe righteousness which is according to faith. 8 By faith ^aAbraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out unto a place which he was to ^breceive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. 9 By faith he became a sojourner in ^cthe land of promise, as in a land not his own, ¹¹dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, ^athe heirs with him of the same promise: 10 for he looked for ^bthe city which hath ^cthe foundations, ^dwhose ^ebuilder and maker is God. 11 By faith even ^fSarah herself received power to conceive seed when she was past age, since she counted him ^gfaithful who had promised: 12 wherefore also there sprang of one, and ^hhim as good as dead, ^mso many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand, which is by the sea-shore, innumerable.

13 ⁱThese all died ^jin faith, ^knot having received the promises, but ^lhaving seen them and greeted them from afar, and having ^mconfessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For they that say such things make it manifest that they are seeking after a country of their own. 15 And if indeed they had been mindful of that ⁿcountry from which they went out, ^othey would have had opportunity to return. 16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a ^pheavenly: wherefore ^qGod is not ashamed of them, to be ^rcalled their God; for ^she hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith ^tAbraham, being tried, ^uoffered up Isaac: yea, he that had gladly ^vreceived the promises was offering up his only begotten son; 18 ^weven he ^xto whom it was said, ^yIn Isaac shall thy seed be called: 19 accounting that ^zGod is able to raise up, even from the dead; from whence he did also in a ^afigure receive him back. 20 By faith ^bIsaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. 21 By faith ^cJacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph; and ^dworshipped, ^eleaving upon the top of his staff. 22 By faith ^fJoseph, when his end was nigh, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. 23 By faith ^gMoses, when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a goodly child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. 24 By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; 25 choosing rather to share ill treatment with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; 26 accounting the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he looked unto the recompense of reward. 27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. 28 By faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. 29 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were swallowed up. 30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been compassed about for seven days. 31 By faith Rahab the harlot perished not with them that were disobedient, having received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time will fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah; of David and Samuel and the prophets: 33 who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, 34 quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, waxed mighty in war, turned to flight armies of aliens. 35 Women received their dead by a resurrection: and others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection: 36 and others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: 37 they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, they were tempted, they were slain with the sword: they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated 38 (of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts and mountains and caves, and the holes of the earth. 39 And these all, having had witness borne to them: through their faith, received not the promise, 40 God having provided some better thing concerning us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

12 Therefore let us also, seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, 2 looking unto Jesus the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising shame, and hath sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. 3 For consider him that hath endured such gainsaying of sinners against himself, that ye wax not weary, fainting in your souls. 4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin: 5 and ye have forgotten the exhortation which reasoneth with you as with sons,

My son, regard not lightly the chastening of the Lord,

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth,

And scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 It is for chastening that ye endure; God dealeth with you as with sons;

for what son is there whom his father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye are without chastening, whereof all have been made partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we gave them

1 ^{1a} James, a ^{2b} servant of God and ^c of the Lord Jesus Christ, to ^d the twelve tribes which are of ^e the Dispersion, ^f greeting.

2 ^g Count it all joy, my brethren, when ye fall into ^h manifold ⁱ temptations; 3 knowing that ^j the proving of your ^k faith worketh ^l patience. 4 And let ^m patience have ⁿ its perfect work, that ye may be ^o perfect and entire, lacking in nothing.

5 But if any of you ^p lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all liberally and ^q upbraideth not; and ^r it shall be given him. 6 But let him ^s ask in faith, ^t nothing doubting: for he that doubteth is like the surge of the sea ^u driven by the wind and tossed. 7 For let not that man think ^v that he shall receive anything of the Lord; 8 a ^w doubleminded man, ^x unstable in all his ways.

9 ^y But let the brother of low degree glory in his high estate: 10 and the rich, in that he is made low: because ^z as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. 11 For the sun ariseth with ^{aa} the scorching wind, and ^{ab} withereth the grass; and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his goings.

12 ^{ac} Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he hath been approved, he shall receive ^{ad} the crown of life, which the Lord ^{ae} promised to them that ^{af} love him. 13 Let no man say when he is tempted, ^{ag} I am tempted ^{ah} of God; for God ^{ai} cannot be tempted with ^{aj} evil, and he himself tempteth no man: 14 but each man is ^{ak} tempted,

19 ^{bm} Ye know ^{bn} this, ^{bo} my beloved brethren. 2 "My brethren, "hold not "the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, "the Lord of glory, with "respect of persons. 2 For if there come into your "synagogue a man with a gold ring, in "fine clothing, and there come in also a poor man in "vile clothing; 3 and ye have regard to him that weareth the "fine clothing, and say, Sit thou here in a good place; and ye say to the poor man, Stand thou there, or sit under my footstool; 4 "do ye not make distinctions "among yourselves, and become judges "with evil thoughts? 5 Hearken, "my beloved brethren; did not "God choose them that are poor "as to the world to be "rich in faith, and "heirs of the kingdom which he "promised to them that love him? 6 But ye have dishonored the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you, and themselves "drag you before the judgment-seats? 7 "Do not they blaspheme the honorable name "by which ye are called? 8 Howbeit if ye "fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well; 9 but if ye have "respect of persons, ye commit sin, being "convicted by the law as transgressors. 10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet "stumble in one point, he is become "guilty of all. 11 For he that said, "Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou dost not commit adultery, but killest, thou art become a transgressor of the law. 12 So speak ye, and so do, as men that are to be judged by a law of liberty. 13 For "judgment is without mercy to him that hath showed no mercy: mercy glorieth against judgment.

brethren, if a man say he hath faith, but have not works? can that faith save him? 15 "If a brother or sister be naked and in lack of daily food, 16 and one of you say unto them, "Go in peace, be ye warmed and filled; and yet ye give them not the things needful to the body; what doth it profit? 17 Even so "faith, if it have not works, is dead in itself. 18 "Yea, a man will say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy "faith apart from thy works, and I "by my works will "show thee my faith. 19 Thou believest that "God is one; "thou doest well: "the demons also believe, and shudder. 20 But wilt thou know, "O vain man, that "faith apart from works is barren? 21 "Was not Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son upon the altar? 22 "Thou seest that "faith wrought with his works, and by "works was faith made perfect; 23 and the scripture was fulfilled which saith, 12a "And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness; 13 and he was called "the friend of God. 24 Ye see that by works a man is justified, and not only by faith. 25 And in like manner was not also "Rahab the harlot justified by works, "in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? 26 For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so "faith apart from works is dead.

whole body also. 4 Behold, the ships also, though they are so great and are driven by rough winds, are yet turned about by a very small rudder, whither the impulse of the steersman willesh. 5 So the tongue also is a little member, and ^aboasteth great things. ^bBehold, ^chow much wood is kindled by how small a fire! 6 And ^dthe tongue is ^ea fire: ^fthe world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which ^gdefileth the whole body, and set-^heth on fire the wheel of ⁱnature, and is set on fire by ^jhell. 7 For every ^kkind of beasts and birds, of creeping things and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed ^lby ^mmankind: 8 but the tongue can no man tame; it is a restless evil, it is full of ⁿdeadly poison. 9 Therewith bless we ^othe Lord and Father; and therewith curse we men, ^pwho are made after the likeness of God: 10 ^qout of the same mouth cometh forth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. 11 Doth the fountain send forth from the same opening sweet water and bitter? 12 ^rcan a fig tree, my brethren, yield olives, or a vine figs? neither can salt water yield sweet. 13 Who is wise and understanding among you? ^slet him show by his ^tgood life his works in meekness of wisdom. 14 But if ye have bitter ^ujealousy and faction in your heart, glory not and lie not against ^vthe truth. 15 This wisdom is not ^wa wisdom that cometh down ^xfrom above, but is ^yearthly, ^zsensual, ^{aa}devilish. 16 For where ^{ab}jealousy and faction are, there is confusion and every vile deed. 17 But the wisdom that is ^{ac}from above is first ^{ad}pure, then ^{ae}peaceable, ^{af}gentle, easy to be entreated, ^{ag}full of mercy and good fruits, without ^{ah}variance, without ^{ai}hypocrisy. 18 And the ^{aj}fruit of righteousness is sown in peace ^{ak}for them that make peace.

day or to-morrow we will go into this city, and spend a year there, and trade, and get gain: 14 whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. What is your life? For ye are a vapor that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. 15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall both live, and do this or that. 16 But now ye glory in your vauntings: all such glorying is evil. 17 To him therefore that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

5 Come now, ye rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you. 2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and your silver are rusted; and their rust shall be for a testimony against you, and shall eat your flesh as fire. Ye have laid up your treasure in the last days. 4 Behold, the hire of the laborers who mowed your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth out: and the cries of them that reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. 5 Ye have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure; ye have nourished your hearts in a day of slaughter. 6 Ye have condemned, ye have killed the righteous one; he doth not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receive the early and latter rain. 8 Be ye also patient; establish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord is at hand. 9 Murmur not, brethren, one against another, that ye be not judged: behold, the judge standeth before the doors. 10 Take, brethren, for an example of suffering and of patience, the prophets who spake in the name of the Lord. 11 Behold, we call them

d blessed that endured: ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord, how that the Lord is full of pity, and merciful.

12 But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by the heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath: but let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay; that ye fall not under judgment.

13 Is any among you suffering? let him pray. Is any cheerful? let him sing praise. 14 Is any among you sick? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: 15 and the prayer of faith shall save him that is sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, it shall be forgiven him. 16 Confess therefore your sins one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The supplication of a righteous man availeth much in its working. 17 Elijah was a man of like passions with us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth for three years and six months. 18 And he prayed again; and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 My brethren, if any among you err from the truth, and one convert him; 20 let him know, that he who converteth a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall cover a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PETER

1 ^aPeter, an apostle of Jesus ^bChrist, to ^bthe elect who are ^csojourners of ^athe Dispersion in ^cPontus, ^cGalatia, ^cCappadocia, ^bAsia, and ^bBithynia, ² according to the ^kforeknowledge of God the Father, ⁱin sanctification of the Spirit, unto ^mobedience and ⁿsprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: ^oGrace to you and peace be multiplied.

3 ^pBlessed be ¹the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who ^qaccording to his great mercy ^rbegat us again unto ^aa living hope by the ^rresurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴ unto an ⁿinheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that ⁿfadeth not away, ^zreserved in heaven for you, ⁵ who by the power of God are ⁿguarded ^zthrough faith unto ^aa salvation ready ^bto be revealed in the last time. ⁶ Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now ^afor a little while, ⁱif need be, ye have been put to grief in ^jmanifold ²trials, ⁷ that ⁿthe proof of your faith, ^{being} more precious than gold that perisheth ^hthough it is proved by fire, ⁱmay be found unto praise and glory and honor at ^kthe revelation of Jesus Christ: ⁸ whom not having seen ye ⁱlove; on whom, ^mthough now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and ³full of glory: ⁹ receiving the ⁿend of your faith, ^{even} the salvation of your souls. ¹⁰ Concerning which salvation the prophets sought and searched diligently, who ^pprophesied of the ^qgrace that should come unto you: ¹¹ searching what ⁿtime or what manner of time ⁿthe Spirit of Christ which was in them did point unto, when it ^ptestified beforehand the sufferings ^aof Christ, and the glories that should follow them. ¹² To whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves,

"when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye shall take it patiently, this is ¹acceptable with God. 21 For ²hereunto were ye called : "because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you "an example, that ye should follow his steps: 22 who "did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: 23 who, when he was ³reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, threatened not; but committed ⁴himself to him that judgeth righteously: 24 who his own self ⁵bare our sins in his body upon ⁶the tree, that we, ⁷having died unto sins, might live unto righteousness; ⁸by whose ⁹stripes ye were ¹⁰healed. 25 For ye were ¹¹going astray like sheep; but are now returned unto the ¹²"Shepherd and ¹³"Bishop of your souls.

3 ¹In like manner, ye wives, ²be in subjection to your own husbands; that, even if any obey not the word, they may without the word ³be gained by the ⁴behavior of their wives; 2 beholding your chaste ⁵behavior coupled with fear. 3 ⁶Whose ⁷adorning let it not be the outward adorning of ⁸braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on apparel; 4 but let it be ⁹the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible ¹⁰apparel of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. 5 For after this manner aforetime the holy women also, ⁶who hoped in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own ⁷husbands: 6 as Sarah obeyed Abraham, "calling him lord: whose children ye now are, if ye do well, and are not ⁸put in fear by any terror.

7 ¹Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with ²your wives according to knowledge, giving honor ³unto the woman, as unto the weaker ⁴vessel, as being also joint-heirs of the grace of life; to the end that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, ¹be ye all likeminded, ²compassionate, ³loving as brethren, ⁴tenderhearted, ⁵humble-minded: 9 ⁶not rendering evil for evil, or ⁷reviling for reviling; but

"No longer live to the Lusts of Men but to the Will of God."

"As Partakers of Christ's Sufferings, rejoice"

tism, "not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the ¹interrogation of a ²good conscience toward God, through ³the resurrection of Jesus Christ; ²² "who is on the right hand of God, ⁴having gone into heaven; ⁵angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

4 Forasmuch then as ¹Christ suffered in the flesh, ²arm ye yourselves also with the same ³mind; for ⁴he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased ⁵from sin; ²that ⁶ye no longer should live ⁷the rest of your time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. ³For ⁸the time past may suffice to have wrought the desire of the Gentiles, and to have ⁹walked in lasciviousness, lusts, winebibblings, revellings, carousings, and abominable idolatries: ⁴wherein they think it strange that ye run not with ¹⁰them into the same ¹¹excess of ¹²riot, ¹³speaking evil of you: ⁵who shall give account to him that is ready to judge ¹⁴the living and the dead. ⁶For unto this end ¹⁵was ¹⁶the gospel preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But ¹⁷the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore of sound mind, and ¹⁸be sober unto ¹⁹prayer: ⁸above all things being ²⁰fervent in your love among yourselves; for ²¹love covereth a multitude of sins: ⁹using hospitality one to another without ²²murmuring: ¹⁰according as each hath received a gift, ministering it among yourselves, as good ²³stewards of the manifold grace of God; ¹¹if any man speaketh, ²⁴speaking as it were ²⁵oracles of God; if any man ministereth, ²⁶ministering as of ²⁷the strength which God supplieth: that ¹²in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, ²⁸whose is the glory and the dominion ¹³for ever and ever. Amen.

12 ²⁹Beloved, think it not strange concerning the ³⁰fiery trial among you, which cometh upon you to prove you, as though a strange thing happened unto you: ¹³but

insomuch as ye are ³¹partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the ³²revelation of his glory also ³³ye may rejoice with exceeding joy. ¹⁴If ye are reproached ³⁴for ³⁵the name of Christ, ³⁶"blessed are ye; ³⁷because the ³⁸Spirit of glory and the Spirit of God resteth upon you. ¹⁵For ³⁹let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil-doer, or as ⁴⁰a meddler in other men's matters: ¹⁶but if ⁴¹a man suffer as a ⁴²Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him ⁴³glorify God in this name. ¹⁷For the time ⁴⁴is come for judgment ⁴⁵to begin at ⁴⁶the house of God: and if it begin ⁴⁷first at us, what ⁴⁸shall be the end of them ⁴⁹that obey not the ⁵⁰gospel of God? ¹⁸And ⁵¹if the righteous is scarcely saved, where shall the ⁵²ungodly and sinner appear? ¹⁹Wherefore let them also that suffer according to ⁵³the will of God commit their souls in well-doing unto a faithful Creator.

5 ⁵⁴The elders therefore among you I exhort, who am a ⁵⁵fellow-elder, and a ⁵⁶witness of the sufferings of Christ, who am also ⁵⁷a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: ²Tend ⁵⁸the flock of God which is among you, ⁵⁹exercising the oversight, ⁶⁰not of constraint, but willingly, ⁶¹according to the will of God; ⁶²nor yet for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; ³neither as ⁶³lording it over the charge allotted to you, but making yourselves ⁶⁴ensamples to the flock. ⁴And when the chief ⁶⁵Shepherd shall be manifested, ye shall receive the ⁶⁶crown of glory that ⁶⁷fadeth not away. ⁵⁶⁸Likewise, ye ⁶⁹younger, ⁷⁰be subject unto the elder. Yea, all of you gird your-

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PETER

Address and Salutation. "Be not idle nor unfruitful." "We were Eyewitnesses of his Majesty"

1 ¹Simon Peter, a ²servant and ³apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained ⁴a like precious faith with us in ⁵the righteousness of ⁶our God and the Saviour Jesus Christ: ⁷2 Grace to you and peace be multiplied in ⁸the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord; ⁹3 seeing that his ¹⁰divine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the ¹¹knowledge of him that ¹²called us ¹³by his own glory and virtue; ¹⁴4 whereby he hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great ¹⁵promises; that through these ye may become ¹⁶partakers of ¹⁷the divine nature, having ¹⁸escaped from the ¹⁹corruption that is in ²⁰the world by lust. ²¹5 Yea, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith ²²supply ²³virtue; and in ²⁴your virtue ²⁵knowledge; ²⁶6 and in ²⁷your knowledge ²⁸self-control; and in ²⁹your self-control ³⁰patience; and in ³¹your ³²patience ³³godliness; ³⁴7 and in ³⁵your godliness ³⁶brotherly kindness; and in ³⁷your ³⁸brotherly kindness love. ³⁹8 For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor ⁴⁰unfruitful unto ⁴¹the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴²9 For he that lacketh these things is ⁴³blind, ⁴⁴seeing only what is near, having forgotten the ⁴⁵cleansing from his old sins. ⁴⁶10 Wherefore, brethren, give the more diligence to make your ⁴⁷calling and ⁴⁸election sure; for if ye do these things, ye shall never ⁴⁹stumble: ⁵⁰11 for thus shall be ⁵¹richly ⁵²supplied unto you the entrance into ⁵³the eternal kingdom of our ⁵⁴Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Mockers and their Destiny. "The Day of the Lord will come as a Thief." Exhortation to Steadfastness. Doxology

3 This is now, ^abeloved, the second epistle that I write unto you; and in both of them I ^bstir up your sincere mind by putting you in remembrance; 2 that ye should ^cremember the words which were spoken before by ^dthe holy prophets, and ^ethe commandment of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles: 3 ^fknowing this first, that ^gin the last days ^hmockers shall come with mockery, ⁱwalking after their own lusts, 4 and saying, ^jWhere is the promise of his ^kcoming? for, from the day that the fathers ^lfell asleep, all things continue as they were ^mfrom the beginning of the creation. 5 For this they wilfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth ⁿcompacted out of water and ^oamidst water, ^pby the word of God; 6 by which means ^qthe world that then was, being overflowed with water, ^rperished: 7 but ^sthe heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been ^tstored up for ^ufire, being reserved against ^vthe day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

8 But forget not this one thing, ^wbeloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and ^xa thousand years as one day. 9 ^yThe Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but ^zis longsuffering to you-ward, ^{aa}not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 10 But ^{ab}the day of the Lord ^{ac}will come as a thief; in the which ^{ad}the heavens ^{ae}shall pass away with a great noise, and the ^{af}elements shall be dissolved with fervent heat, and ^{ag}the earth and the works that are therein shall be ^{ah}burned up. 11 Seeing

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF JOHN

Introduction. "Walk in the Light . . . even as He walked." The Contrasted Darkness

1 That which was ^afrom the beginning, that which we have ^bheard, that which we have ^cseen with our eyes, that which we ^dbeheld, and our hands ^ehandled, concerning the ^fWord of life ^g2 (and ^hthe life was manifested, and we have ⁱseen, and ^jbear witness, and declare unto you the life, ^kthe eternal life, which was ^lwith the Father, and was ^mmanifested unto us); ⁿ3 that which we have ^oseen and ^pheard declare we unto you also, that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and our ^qfellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ: ^r4 and ^sthese things we write, that ^tour ^ujoy may be made full.

^v5 And ^wthis is the message which we have heard from him and announce unto you, that ^xGod is light, and in him is no darkness at all. ^y6 ^zIf we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we ^{aa}lie, and ^{ab}do not the truth: ^{ac}7 but if we ^{ad}walk in the light, as ^{ae}he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and ^{af}the blood of Jesus his Son cleanseth us from all sin. ^{ag}8 ^{ah}If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the ^{ai}truth is not in us. ^{aj}9 ^{ak}If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and ^{al}to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ^{am}10 ^{an}If we say that we have not sinned, we ^{ao}make him a liar, and ^{ap}his word is not in us.

2 ^{aq}My little children, ^{ar}these ^{as}things write I unto you that ye may not sin. And if any man sin, ^{at}we have an ^{au}Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: ^{av}2 and he is ^{aw}the propitiation abideth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is begotten of God. 10 In this the ^achildren of God are manifest, and the ^achildren of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that ^aloveth not his ^abrother. 11 For this is the message ^fwhich ye heard from the beginning, ^athat we should love one another: 12 not as ^aCain was of ^athe evil one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because ^ahis works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, brethren, if ^athe world hateth you. 14 We know that we have ^mpassed out of death into life, ^abecause we love the brethren. He that loveth not abideth in death. 15 Whosoever ^ahateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that ⁿno murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. 16 Hereby know we love, because ^fhe laid down his life for us: and ^awe ought to lay down our lives for the ^abrethren. 17 But ^awhoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and ^ashut-teth up his compassion from him, ^ahow doth the love of God abide in him? 18 ^{My} ^alittle children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue; but in deed and ^atruth. 19 Hereby shall we know that we are ^aof the truth, and shall ^aassure our heart ^abefore him: 20 because if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. 21 ^aBe-loved, if our heart condemn us not, we have ^aboldness toward God; 22 and ^awhatsoever we ask we receive of him, because we ^akeep his commandments and do ^athe things that are pleasing in his sight. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should ^abelieve in ^athe name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as ^ahe gave us commandment. 24 And he that ^akeepeth his commandments ^aabideth in him, and he in him. "many false prophets are gone out into the world. 2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: ^aevery spirit that ^aconfesseth that ^aJesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: 3 and every spirit that ^aconfesseth not Jesus is not of God: and this is the ^aspirit of the ^aantichrist, whereof ye have heard that it com-eth; and ^anow it is in the world already. 4 Ye are of God, ^{my} ^alittle children, and ^ahave overcome them: because ^agreater is he that is in you than ^ahe that is in the world. 5 ^aThey are of the world: therefore speak they ^aas of the world, and the world heareth them. 6 ^aWe are of God: ^ahe that knoweth God heareth us; ^ahe who is not of God heareth us not. By this we know ^athe spirit of truth, and ^athe spirit of error.

7 ^aBeloved, let us ^alove one another: for love is of God; and ^aevery one that loveth is ^alegotten of God, and ^aknoweth God. 8 ^aHe that loveth not knoweth not God; for ^aGod is love. 9 Herein was the love of God manifested ^ain us, that ^aGod hath sent his only begotten Son into the world that we might live through him. 10 Herein is love, ^anot that we loved God, but that ^ahe loved us, and sent his Son ^ato be ^athe propitiation for our sins. 11 ^aBeloved, if God so loved us, ^awe also ought to love one another. 12 ^aNo man hath beheld God at any time: if we love one another, God abideth in us, and his ^alove is perfected in us: 13 ^ahereby we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. 14 And we have beheld and ^abear witness that the Father hath ^asent the Son ^ato be the Saviour of the world. 15 ^aWhosoever shall confess that ^aJesus is the Son of God, God eth not God hath ^amade him a liar; because he hath not believed in the witness that God hath borne concerning his Son. 11 And the witness is this, that God gave unto us ^aeternal life, and ^athis life is in his Son. 12 ^aHe that hath the Son hath the life; he that hath not the Son of God hath not the life.

THE EPISTLE OF JUDE

General Salutation. "Contend earnestly for the Faith." The Warnings of History to the Ungodly

1^{1a} Jude, a ^{2b}servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of ³James, ⁴to them that are called, beloved in God the Father, and ⁵kept for Jesus Christ: 2^c Mercy unto you and peace and love ⁶be multiplied.

3^d Beloved, while I was giving all diligence to write unto you of our ^ecommon salvation, I was constrained to write unto you exhorting you to ^fcontend earnestly for ^gthe faith which was once for all ^hdelivered unto ⁱthe saints. 4 For there are certain men ^jcrept in privily, even they who were of old ^kwritten of beforehand unto this condemnation, ungodly men, turning ^lthe grace of our God into ^mlasciviousness, and ⁿdenying ^oour only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 Now I desire to ^pput you in remembrance, though ^qye know all things once for all, that ^rthe Lord, ^shaving saved a people out of the land of Egypt, ^tafterward destroyed them that believed not. 6 And ^uangels that kept not their own principality, but left their proper habitation, he hath ^vkept in everlasting bonds under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. 7 Even as ^wSodom and Gomorrah, and the ^xcities about them, having in like manner with these given themselves over to fornication and ^ygone after strange flesh, are set forth ^zas an ^{aa}example, suffering the ^{ab}punishment of eternal fire. 8 Yet in like manner these also in their dreamings ^{ac}defile the flesh, and ^{ad}set at nought dominion, and ^{ae}rail at ^{af}dignities. 9 But ^{ag}Michael ^{ah}the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about ^{ai}the body of

The Revelation of Jesus Christ : Blessed he that readeth, heareth, keepeth. To the Seven Churches :

1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which ^aGod ¹gave him to ²show unto his ³servants, even the things which must shortly come to pass : and he sent and signified ⁴it ⁵by his angel unto his servant ⁶John ; 2 who bare witness of ⁷the word of God, and of ⁸the testimony of Jesus Christ, even of all things that he saw. 3 ⁹Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written therein : ¹⁰for the time is at hand.

4 ¹¹John ¹²to the seven churches that are in ¹³Asia : ¹⁴"Grace to you and peace, from ¹⁵him who is and who was and ¹⁶who is to come ; and from ¹⁷the seven Spirits that are before his throne ; 5 and from Jesus Christ, who is ¹⁸the faithful witness, the ¹⁹firstborn of the dead, and the ²⁰ruler of the kings of the earth. Unto him that ²¹loveth us, and ²²loosed us from our sins ²³by his blood ; 6 and he made us ²⁴to be a kingdom, to be ²⁵'priests unto ²⁶his God and Father ; ²⁷to him be the glory and the dominion ²⁸for ever and ever. Amen. 7 Behold, he ²⁹cometh with the clouds ; and ³⁰every eye shall see him, and they that pierced him ; and all the tribes of the earth shall ³¹mourn over him. Even so. Amen.

8 I am ³²the Alpha and the Omega, saith the ³³Lord God, ³⁴who is and who was and ³⁵who is to come, the Almighty.

angels. 6 ¹He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

These things saith ³he that is holy, ⁴he that is true, he that hath ⁵the key of David, he that openeth and none shall shut, and that shutteth and none openeth: 8 ⁶I know thy works (behold, I have ⁷set before thee ⁸a door opened, which none can shut), that thou hast a little power, and didst keep my word, and ⁹didst not deny my name. 9 Behold, I give of ¹⁰the synagogue of Satan, of them that say they are Jews, and they are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to ¹¹come and ¹²worship before thy feet, and to know that ¹³I have loved thee. 10 Because thou didst ¹⁴keep the word of ¹⁵my ¹⁶patience, ¹⁷I also will keep thee from the hour of ¹⁸trial, that ¹⁹hour which is to come upon the whole ²⁰world, to ²¹try ²²them that dwell upon the earth. 11 ²³I come quickly: ²⁴hold fast that which thou hast, that no one take thy ²⁵crown. 12 ²⁶He that overcometh, I will make him a ²⁷pillar in the ²⁸temple of my God, and he shall go out thence no more: and I will write upon him the ²⁹name of my God, and ³⁰the name of the city of my God, ³¹the new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God, and mine own ³²new name. 13 ³³He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

These things saith ³⁵the Amen, ³⁶the faithful and true witness, ³⁷the beginning of the creation of God: 15 ³⁸I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: ³⁹I would *tabernacle over them. 16 ^bThey shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun strike upon them, nor any heat: 17 for the Lamb that is in the midst ¹ of the throne shall be their ^cshepherd, and shall guide them unto fountains of ^awaters of life: and ^cGod shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.

8 ^cAnd when he opened the ^aseventh seal, there followed ^asilence in heaven about the space of half an hour. 2 And I saw ^bthe seven angels that stand before God; and there were given unto them seven ^ctrumpets.

3 And ^aanother angel came and stood ^bover the ^caltar, having a ^mgolden censer; and there was given unto him much ⁿincense, that he should ³add it unto the ⁿprayers of all the saints upon the ^ogolden altar which was before the throne. 4 And ⁿthe smoke of the incense, ^awith the ⁿprayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand. 5 And the angel ⁵taketh the censer; and he ⁶filled it with the fire of the altar, and ⁷cast it ⁶upon the earth: and there followed ⁸thunders, and voices, and lightnings, and an ⁹earthquake.

6 ^aAnd the seven angels that had the seven trumpets prepared ^bthemselves to sound.

7 And the first sounded, and there followed ^ahail and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast ^bupon the earth: and ^cthe third part of the earth was burnt up, and ^cthe third part of the ^dtrees was burnt up, and all green ^egrass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great ^amountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and ^bthe third part of the ^csea became blood; 9 and there died ^dthe third part of the creatures which were in the sea, ^eeven they that had life; and the third part of the ^fships was destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there ^afell from heaven a great star, burning as a torch, and it fell upon the ^bthird part of the rivers, and upon the ^cfountains of the waters; 11 and the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the ^athird part of the waters became ^bwormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the ^athird part of ^bthe sun was smitten, and the third part of the ^cmoon, and the ^dthird part of the ^estars; that the ^fthird part of them should be darkened, and the day should not shine for the ^gthird part of it, and the night in like manner.

13 And I saw, and I heard ^aan eagle, flying in ^bmid heaven, saying with a great voice, ^cWoe, woe, woe, for ^dthem that dwell on the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the ^ethree angels, who are yet to sound.

9 ^aAnd the ^bfifth angel sounded, and I saw a ^cstar from heaven fallen unto the earth: and there was given to him the ^dkey of the pit of the ^eabyss. 2 And he opened the pit of the abyss; and there went up a ^fsmoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and ³the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. 3 And out of the smoke came forth ^alocusts upon the earth; and power was given them, as the ^bscorpions of the earth have power. 4 And it was said unto them that they should not ^churt the ^dgrass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only such men as have not the ^eseal of God on their foreheads. 5 And it was given them that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented ^ffive months: and their torment was as the torment of a ^gscorpion, when it striketh a man. 6 And in those days ^amen shall seek death, and shall in no wise find it; and they shall desire to die, and death fleeth from them. 7 And the ^bshapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared for war; and upon their heads as it were crowns like unto gold, and their faces were as men's faces. 8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their ^cteeth were as the teeth of lions. 9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the "sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots, of many horses rushing to war. 10 And they have tails like unto "scorpions, and stings; and in their "tails is their power to hurt men "five months. 11 They have over them as king the angel of the "abyss: his name in "Hebrew is "Abaddon; and in the Greek tongue he hath the name "Apollyon.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard "a voice from the "horns of the "golden altar which is before God, "14 one saying to the sixth angel that had the trumpet, Loose the "four angels that are bound at the "great river Euphrates. 15 And the four angels were "loosed, that had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, that they should kill the "third part of men. 16 And the number of the armies of the horsemen was twice "ten thousand times ten thousand: "I heard the number of them. 17 And thus I saw the horses "in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates as of fire and of hyacinth and of "brimstone: and the heads of the horses are as the heads of lions; and "out of their mouths proceedeth fire and smoke and "brimstone. 18 By these three plagues was the "third part of men killed, by the "fire and the smoke and the brimstone, which proceeded out of their mouths. 19 For the power of the horses is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails are like unto serpents, and have heads; and with them they hurt. 20 And the rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, "repented not of the "works of their hands, that they should not "worship demons, and "the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk: 21 and they "repented not of their murders, nor of their "sorceries, nor of their "fornication, nor of their thefts.

10 And I saw another "strong angel "coming down out of heaven, arrayed with a cloud; and the "rainbow was upon his head, and "his face was as the sun, and

The Fate of the City and the Temple. The "Two Witnesses." The Seventh Angel sounds. The Woman, the Dragon,

"one said, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. 2 And the court which is without the temple leave without, and measure it not; for it hath been given unto the nations: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months. 3 And I will give unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand and two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth. 4 These are the two olive trees and the two candlesticks, standing before the Lord of the earth. 5 And if any man desireth to hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth and devoureth their enemies; and if any man shall desire to hurt them, in this manner must he be killed. 6 These have the power to shut the heaven, that it rain not during the days of their prophecy: and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to smite the earth with every plague, as often as they shall desire. 7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that cometh up out of the abyss shall make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them. 8 And their dead bodies lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. 9 And from among the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations do men look upon their dead bodies three days and a half, and suffer not their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. 10 And they that dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and make merry; and they shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwell on the earth. 11 And after the three days and a half the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them that beheld them. 12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they went up into heaven in the cloud; and their enemies beheld them. 13 And in that hour there was a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell; and

overcome them; and there was given to him authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation. 8 And all that dwell on the earth shall worship him, every one whose name hath not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb that hath been slain. 9 If any man hath an ear, let him hear. 10 If any man is for captivity, into captivity he goeth: if any man shall kill with the sword, with the sword must he be killed. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like unto a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. 12 And he exerciseth all the authority of the first beast in his sight. And he maketh the earth and them that dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose death-stroke was healed. 13 And he doeth great signs, that he should even make fire to come down out of heaven upon the earth in the sight of men. 14 And he deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by reason of the signs which it was given him to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast who hath the stroke of the sword and lived. 15 And it was given unto him to give breath to it, even to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as should not worship the image of the beast should be killed. 16 And he causeth all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, that there be given them a mark on their right hand, or upon their forehead; 17 and that no man should be able to buy or to sell, save he that hath the mark, even the name of the beast or the number of his name. 18 Here is wisdom. He that hath understanding, let him count the number of the beast; for it is the number of

14 And I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on the mount Zion, and with him a hundred and forty and four thousand, having his name, and the name of his Father, written on their foreheads. 2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and the voice which I heard was as the voice of harpers harping with their harps: 3 and they sing as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders: and no man could learn the song save the hundred and forty and four thousand, even they that had been purchased out of the earth. 4 These are they that were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they that follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were purchased from among men, to be the firstfruits unto God and unto the Lamb. 5 And in their mouth was found no lie: they are without blemish.

6 And I saw another angel flying in mid heaven, having eternal good tidings to proclaim unto them that dwell on the earth, and unto every nation and tribe and tongue and people; 7 and he saith with a great voice, Fear God, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made the heaven and the earth and sea and fountains of waters.

"Blessed are the Dead." The Winepress of God's Wrath. Seven Angels with Seven Plagues, and their Commission

drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is ¹prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: 11 and the smoke of their torment goeth up for ever and ever; and they have no rest day and night, they that worship the beast and his image, and whoso receiveth the mark of his name. 12 Here is the patience of the saints, they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: yea," saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them.

14 And I saw, and behold, a white cloud; and on the cloud I saw one sitting like unto a son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. 15 And another angel came out from the temple, crying with a great voice to him that sat on the cloud, "Send forth thy sickle, and reap: for the hour to reap is come; for the harvest of the earth is ripe." 16 And he that sat on the cloud cast his sickle upon the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out from the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. 18 And another angel came out from the altar, he that hath power over fire; and he called with a great voice to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, "Send forth thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe." 19 And the angel cast his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and cast it into the winepress, the great winepress, of the wrath of God. 20 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and there came out blood from the winepress, even unto the bridles of the horses, as far as a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

lous, seven angels having seven plagues, which are the last, for in them is finished the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire; and them that come off victorious from the beast, and from his image, and from the number of his name, standing by the sea of glass, having harps of God. 3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

"Great and marvellous are thy works, O Lord God, the Almighty; righteous and true are thy ways, thou King of the ages. 4 Who shall not fear, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy; for all the nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy righteous acts have been made manifest.

5 And after these things I saw, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: 6 and there came out from the temple the seven angels that had the seven plagues, arrayed with precious stone, pure and bright, and girt about their breasts with golden girdles. 7 And one of the four living creatures gave unto the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever. 8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and none was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels should be finished.

16 And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go ye, and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God into the earth.

The "Mystery" of the Scarlet Woman and Beast interpreted. The Fall and Desolation of Babylon: its Extent;

*scarlet-colored beast, ¹full of
 *seven heads and ten horns. ⁴ And the woman ⁴was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and ²decked with gold and precious stone and pearls, having in her hand ⁴a golden cup full of abominations, *even the unclean things of her fornication, ⁵and upon her forehead a name written, ⁴'MYSTERY,
 ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. ⁶ And I saw the woman drunken with the ⁴'blood of the saints, and with the blood of the ⁴'martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I wondered with a great wonder.
⁷And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou wonder? I will tell thee the ⁴'mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the *seven heads and the ten horns.
⁸The beast that thou sawest ⁴was, and is not; and is about to ⁴'come up out of the ⁴'abyss, ⁶and to ⁴'go into perdition. And ⁴'they that dwell on the earth shall ²wonder, they ⁴'whose name hath not been written ⁷in the book of life ⁴'from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast, how that ⁴'he was, and is not, and ⁴'shall come. ⁹'Here is the ⁴'mind that hath wisdom. The ⁴'seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth: ¹⁰and ¹⁰they are seven ⁴'kings; the five are fallen, the one is, the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a little while.
¹¹And the beast that ⁴'was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he ⁴'goeth into perdition. ¹²And the ⁴'ten horns that thou sawest are ten kings, who have received no kingdom as yet; but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, ⁴'for one hour. ¹³These have ⁴'one mind, and they give their power and authority unto the beast. ¹⁴These shall ⁴'war against the Lamb, and the Lamb shall ⁴'overcome them, for he is ⁴'Lord of lords, and ⁴'King of kings; and ⁴'they also shall over-and for the word of God, and such as¹ worshipped not the beast, neither his image, and received not the² mark upon their forehead and upon their hand; and they³ lived, and "reigned with Christ a thousand years. 5 The rest of the dead lived not until the thousand years should be finished. "This is the first resurrection. 6 "Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: over these the "second death hath no² power; but they shall be "priests of God and of Christ, and shall "reign with him³ a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are finished, Satan shall be "loosed out of his prison, 8 and shall come forth to "deceive the nations which are in the "four corners of the earth, "Gog and Magog, to "gather them together to the war: the number of whom is as the "sand of the sea. 9 And they² went up over the breadth of the earth, and compassed the "camp of the saints about, and the "beloved city: and "fire came down "out of heaven, and devoured them. 10 And "the devil that "deceived them was cast into the "lake of fire and brimstone, where are also the "beast and the "false prophet; and they shall be "tormented day and night⁵ for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white "throne, and him that sat upon it, from whose face "the earth and the heaven fled away; and "there was found no place for them. 12 And I saw the dead, the "great and the small, standing before the throne; and "books were opened: and another book was opened, which is "the book of life: and the dead "were judged out of the things which were written in the books, "according to their works. 13 And the sea gave up the dead that were in it; and "death and Hades "gave up the dead that were in them: and they were judged every man "according to their works. 14 And "death and Hades were cast into "the lake of fire. This is the "second death, even the lake of fire. 15 And if any was not found written in "the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

tain great and high, and showed me the holy city Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, 11 having the glory of God: her light was like unto a stone most precious, as it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal: 12 having a wall great and high; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: 13 on the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. 14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. 15 And he that spake with me had for a measure a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. 16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length thereof is as great as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length and the breadth and the height thereof are equal. 17 And he measured the wall thereof, a hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel. 18 And the building of the wall thereof was jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto pure glass. 19 The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcidony; the fourth, emerald; 20 the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. 21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each one of the several gates was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. 22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God the Almighty, and the Lamb, are the temple thereof. 23 And the city hath no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine upon it: for the glory of God did
